MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

Pastmaster McDowell, at Rosville, Tenn., has been suspended for violation of the postal laws. — A business block in the town of Martin's Ferry, Ohio, burned; loss $15,000. — A suit has been brought against Benj. F. Butler to recover $15,000 due for failure to account while acting treasurer of the Home for disabled volunteers in Massachusetts. — Democrats elected the entire city ticket at St. Louis, Mo. — The Prince and Princess of Wales were welcomed in Dublin with enthusiasm. — The Pope of Rome is ill. — Carter Harrison elected Mayor of Chicago by 334 votes; Republican managers threaten to contest his election. — The Secretary of the Navy has ordered an inventory of all government property at the navy yards to be taken. — The suspended Exchange National Bank of Norfolk, Va., is insolvent; the amount due depositors alone is over three millions. — New York markets: Money 1 per cent.; cotton steady at 11 1/2 @ 11 7/8; southern near steady at 13 40 @ 40; wheat, ungraded, 80 @ 81; corn, ungraded, 50 @ 51; cash dull at 15 @ 17; spirits turpentine dull at 31c.

A large number of absent British officers are hurrying to India.

Miss Hill, suing ex-Senator Shallen for alimony, has been imprisoned in San Francisco, for refusing to produce her marriage contract in court.

Summersville, S. C., has a sensation. Mrs. R. S. Porcher has disappeared and a search for her has proved unavailing. The ponds and woods have been searched.

An appalling colliery disaster occurred at Raven Run, Pa., on the 6th inst., by which ten men were literally buried alive. There is no hope of rescue.

Black Jack Logan has put on the war paint and is dying to get Carter Harrison's scalp. He denounced him in a special "as a vile, infamous slandering, a poltroon, and a coward."

Wonder of wonders! Little Rhody has at last elected a negro to the Legislature of that plantation. It waited for nearly twenty years and only was shamed into it by the repeated examples in the South.

Thousands of children visited the White House on Monday and were received by the President. Many amusing scenes and incidents are said to have occurred. It was the largest crowd of children ever seen at the Presidential Mansion.

According to the new book-keeping of Secretary Manning there is only about $22,000,000 surplus in the Treasury. We are glad to hear it. Now let that surplus be got rid of as fast as pensions can absorb it. The genius of our Government does not tolerate a surplus.

The New York World's circulation last Sunday was 143,508. Immense growth that! Its circulation for the other days is scarcely 100,000 average. There are English papers like the London Standard and News that average more than 200,000 daily the year round.

The Grand Jury of Hastings Court of Richmond has found a true bill against T. J. Cluervius for the murder of Fannie Lilian Madison. A dispatch says:

"The indictment is a very lengthy one, and all the counts in it are set forth with great care and faithfulness. A large crowd gathered around the City Hall in which the counsel and jury were sitting, and the announcement of the finding of the grand jury was received with evident satisfaction."

Admiral Jouett has been sent to Aspinwall, and the selection is deemed an unfortunate one in Washington. A special to the New York World of the 6th says:

"He is regarded by his naval associates as a man of absolute integrity. He is rich to the verge of recklessness, has no coolness of judgment, and is the very last to conduct an affair requiring delicate handling. An officer who knows him very well said of him to day that if he had been at Colon at the time of the original disturbance he would have settled the whole case by blowing out the entire crew. Jouett is an extreme man in all his actions. He is a man of extraordinary courage, and in the event of an engagement he would perform miracles of valor and hard fighting. He has been very much distressed in his mind on account of the poor position our navy has occupied during the last twenty years. He has thought that our government has not had a vigorous enough foreign policy."

Nym Crinkle, a theatrical critic copied from yesterday, damned Booth's Hamlet with the faint praise that it was promise, whilst lauding very highly the Hamlet of the English Irving and the German Sonenthal. Hear now the critic of the Philadelphia Times in the issue of the 7th:

"Some of these details are noteworthy, but Mr. Booth is not an actor who depends upon mere theatrical effects and nowhere in his Hamlet does he descend to those stage tricks with which many recent actors in this part have gained the applause of the unthinking. His work is characterized throughout by a dignity and repose of manner, the perfect poise of a man who is master of his art, that is in the highest degree admirable, while to hear the text of Shakespeare spoken as he speaks it, with a musical distinctness that gives to every syllable its value and its meaning, is in itself a liberal education."

All of the coffee aristocracy of New York rushed to the Church of Holy Trinity, New York, to see Mrs. Tom Thumb, widow of Commodore Stratton, the dwarf, marry another dwarf, calling himself Count Primo Magri, of Bologna, Italy. The World says:

"The couples marched through another living tunnel to the Murray Hill Hotel, where they will spend the honeymoon. As soon as they left the ladies swarmed about the altar and fell upon the flowers, tearing the wreaths and bouquets and potted plants to pieces and bearing off great branches as mementoes of the swell marriage in noble life. The bride wore a delicate dress of mauve fibre, a deep mauve satin gown with figures brocade and velvet. The groom wore a black dress suit with a small emerald diamond shirt studs that completely hid his small form with their glare of light. Miss Lucy Adams acted as bridesmaid. She is but little taller than the bride, and is a lovely blonde, with pretty school-girl curls. She wore a short dress of white satin, draped very bouffant, and in front flounced to the top with wide ruffles of point lace. It was quite decollete, and the corsage was finished with narrow beaded lace. The bride and maid carried bouquets of pink roses. Miss Sarah Adams, who is an exact copy of her sister in stature and appearance, wore a dress of pink surah made in a similar manner."

Henry Irving, as he is called, has had a second golden harvest in the United States. He has made a great impression, has played to crowded houses every where he has gone, has piled up wealth in a marvellous way, has lectured before one of the great old seats of learning in America, Harvard, has shown Americans how to put plays upon the stage, how to mount them, and now he goes back to England rejoicing. The best critics have slashed this acting, have shown up his peculiar and somewhat repulsive mannerisms, have conceded his great melodramatic ability, have ridiculed his elocution, and still he is a great success. How is this? Are the critics wrong, or are the people indifferent to high dramatic genius? We begin to suspect that despite the critics Irving is a wonderful actor, with marked genius and no little art.

The Prince and Princess of Wales were enthusiastically received in Dublin. We hope no crank will deem it his duty to murder either of these royal personages.

Spirits Turpentine

—Mr. C. M. Ray, of Charlotte, is dead.

—Mr. Newberry Potts, of Davie, was thrown from a wagon, drawn by runaway horses, and had a leg broken.

—Salem Press: Wheat is beginning to look better. The tobacco prices were heavy on Tuesday. Brown's warehouse accommodated nearly one hundred wagons.

—Hickory Carolinian: We are sorry to learn that Mr. David Shuford, of this county, while cutting down a tree last week had his leg broken in two places by a falling limb. It is feared amputation will be necessary.

—The Goldsboro Daily Argus made its appearance in our office yesterday, and a neat and attractive twenty-column paper it is. Of course we wish it the utmost success. And why shall it not succeed? Goldsboro is a growing, progressive town, is a railroad centre, and knows how to foster the newspaper interests. Mr. Jos. E. Robinson, formerly of the Messenger, is editor, and Mr. L. M. Nash is publisher. Terms $5 a year.

—Danbury Reporter: Dr. J. K. Pepper, late of this place, and formerly one of the proprietors of this paper, died at Morganton early last Friday morning.

—We learn that a number of the citizens of the neighborhood of Town Park and Wilson's Store are very anxious that Winston and Danbury should unite with them, and either make terms with the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Company, or on their own account build a railroad from Winston, crossing Town Park at or near Mr. Ben. Dymond's to Danbury.

—Salisbury Watchman: Arthur Winslow, mining engineer and geologist, has been doing some investigating of the Kings Mountain tin yields. Mr. Mallory, superintendent of the Russell mine, has also been down to take a look at the tin discovery.

—Our mortuary list for January, February and March is a sad one, beginning with Dr. M. Whitehead and Mrs. Mary McQueen in January, Mr. W. A. Womack, in February, and Mr. J. M. Coffin, Geo. C. Morgan, James M. McCorkle, and Mr. John A. Salder, in March.

—Goldsboro Argus: On the 6th and 7th of May, one month hence, the first annual Spring Races of the Eastern Carolina Fair and Stock Association will be held at their grounds near this city.

retary and treasurer. Messrs. E. B. Borden and L. W. Humphrey were authorized by the board of directors to open subscription books in this city.

—Lexington Dispatch: The high prices paid for tobacco this spring have caused farmers to make preparations to plant larger crops than usual. Last Friday night, in Forsyth county, seven sheep belonging to Richard Benson and five belonging to Lewis Wilson were killed by dogs. — Washington, the wagon man, manufacturing town of Forsyth county, made considerably over one thousand wagons last year. — In the upper part of Davidson county or in Forsyth county shooting matches are becoming common. At these gatherings pigs, turkeys, chickens, money, tobacco, &c., are placed in stake, but considering the time and ammunition and whiskey used on these occasions, the winners of prizes are financially losers.

—Raleigh News-Observer: Gov. Scales and party returned from New Orleans on Sunday afternoon. —The Easter offerings at Christ Church on Sunday were over $400. The Governor on yesterday appointed the following gentlemen as solicitors: Col. D. W. Worthington, of Martin county, solicitor of the third district; O. H. Allen, Esq., of Duplin county, solicitor of the sixth district; and W. H. Bower, Esq., of Caldwell county, solicitor of the tenth district. Mr. Allen, the new solicitor of the sixth district, has many friends and relations in Wake county. — Died, at her residence in Westworth on Thursday last at 5 p. m., Mrs. Sarah L. Reid, relict of the late Rev. N. F. Reid, D. D.

—Elizabeth City Falcon: The fisheries are beginning to do better, and the catch of shad has been greater so far than for the same time in several years—one fishery catching seventeen hundred shad in one day. — It is said that the State fish hatchery at Avoca has somehow produced unpleasant complications between members of the State Board of Agriculture and certain gentlemen who own large seine fishing interests. — Capt. Cook, of the Hatteras porpoise fishery, has been spending a few days in Elizabeth City on business connected with his fishery. He reports good work done, and a busy time expected from now until the middle of May. These large fish or "sea hogs," as the small shad are called, have been taken in one fishery, and landed nearly two hundred of them in one day, ranging from 400 to 1,000 pounds each.

—New Bern Journal: Swansboro citizens: Mr. Elijah Bell, one of our citizens near us, died Friday evening with bilious pneumonia, aged 46 years. — Lewis H. Cox, a good citizen, died Monday morning, the 30th of March, after a painful illness of seven weeks, aged 48 years. The disease was a very acute kind of typhoid pneumonia. — A very sad affair occurred in our village last week, which resulted in the death of little George Moore, son of Mr. Charles E. Moore, of Swansboro. The little boy had been poorly a few days and had taken some quinine, which he had taken in a dose of one or two pills. Friday morning Mrs. Rufus Taylor, a sister of Mrs. Moore, gave the child a dose of morphine by mistake for quinine, which killed it in about six hours; but for a younger child being asleep at the time, would have given it a dose too, and two deaths instead of one would have been the result.

—Charlotte Observer: The mercury in the thermometer yesterday paid a social call on eighty-three degrees, and renewed the acquaintance of last summer.

—At the forty-seventh annual commencement of the Medical College of Virginia, in Richmond last week, a diploma was secured by William H. Barrett, of Martin county. — The Carolina Central Railroad has contracted to bring a party of one hundred colored people from the vicinity of Wadesboro to the city to-day. They are going to Arkansas. — At a congressional caucus of Providence, held last Sunday, a call was extended to Rev. John L. McCleese, of the South Carolina Presbytery to serve that church as pastor. — A tramp who gave his name as H. Rogers, and who said he was from Rock Hill, S. C., was arrested Sunday night by officers Jettison and Osborn, for breaking freight car seals. When put in the guard house dies for making counterfeit nickles were found on his person. — The New York papers that are issued from New York this morning, leave New York at 4 o'clock, and are here to-night at 8:30 o'clock, being brought from New York to Charlotte, 635 miles, in 22 hours and 50 minutes. By this new arrangement, New York mail reaches here ten hours earlier than formerly. — Hoke, Secretary of State, who has been made celebrated throughout this section of the State through his brutal deed in murdering his wife and child, his long trials in the courts and his final acquittal upon the plea of insanity, is again at liberty having made his escape from the Western North Carolina Insane Asylum, at Morganton, last Sunday night.

Local News.

—Receipts of cotton yesterday 11 bales.

—The storm signal was flying yesterday.

—The first term of the Criminal Court Judge Meares presiding, will commence in Charlotte next Monday.

—The boat-house of Mr. H. M. Bowden was destroyed by fire early yesterday morning, together with a boat belonging to himself and one to Mr. Owen Fennell. Origin of fire unknown.

—The juvenile base ballists, "Eolipses," Capt. George Lewis, and "Young Seaside," Capt. Willie Woody, had a match game yesterday afternoon, when the former scored 15 and the latter 4.

—The meeting at the First Baptist church Tuesday night was a very interesting one, a most excellent sermon having been preached by Rev. H. W. Battle and much interest being manifested. There were about a dozen penitents.

—There will be services at the Chestnut St. Presbyterian church to-day, morning and evening. Revs. A. A. Scott, J. A. Savage and C. Dillard, returning from the meeting of Yadkin Presbyterians at Lumberton, will conduct the services.

—The Board of Managers of the City Hospital met in the County Commissioner's room in the Court House Tuesday night, and re-organized by the re-election of Col. Roger Moore as Chairman, Alderman Samuel Bear, Jr., as Secretary, Dr. W. W. Lane, as Superintendent of the Hospital and W. W. Shaw as Treasurer.

—Since the establishment of the Hospital in our midst, the workings of the institution have been such as to commend it to our people and to amply vindicate the wisdom and foresight of those through whose instrumentality the result was achieved. We have examined the reports thoroughly, the main points of which we gave to the readers of the STAR, and we are satisfied that no institution could have been more economically managed. We hope every facility will be afforded the management in adding to its success and extending its usefulness.

—More Religious Revivals.

Rev. John T. Butt writes us from Mt. Olive that a glorious revival is in progress there. Though a Methodist meeting, and conducted on the Methodist style, yet it has the approval of members of other denominations, many of whom are assisting in the good work. After leaving the great revival at the Fifth Street Methodist Church, in this city, and before he was sufficiently rested, Mr. Butt was solicited by Rev. M. Groom, the pastor at Mt. Olive, to assist him. Rev. Mr. Sandelin, the pastor of the Baptist Church, has been rendering great service. Mr. Groom is a young man and is doing a great work. Rev. Mr. Butt speaks very highly of the community in which he has been laboring.

—Mayor's Court.

The first case was that of a colored woman answering to the name of Adeline Hill, who was arrested on the street Tuesday night, by Officer Bishop, where she was acting in a very disorderly manner. Circumstances indicated that she was not in her right mind, and she was sent below to await further developments, whence she was afterwards sent to the City Hospital by directions of Dr. Potter, who examined her.

Rev. Dr. J. B. Wilson—See last edition.

A large number of our Presbyterian friends and citizens generally availed themselves of the opportunity of calling at the residence of Mr. Chas. H. Robinson, on Tuesday night, in accordance with the invitation extended through the STAR, to bid adieu to Rev. Dr. Wilson, late pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, on the eve of his departure for another field of labor. During the evening a handsome and valuable "gold-headed" cane was presented to Dr. Wilson by the Elders of the First Church, Mr. George Chadborn performing the task of presenting the same in a neat and graceful speech, which was touchingly and appropriately responded to by Dr. Wilson. The evening passed very pleasantly, but like all other evenings, finally came to a close, and the sad adieu was grudgingly spoken had passed between the beloved pastor and the people he had so long and faithfully served.

Dr. Wilson expected to leave for his new home last evening.

The City Hospital.

The Board of Managers of the City Hospital met in the County Commissioner's room in the Court House Tuesday night, and re-organized by the re-election of Col. Roger Moore as Chairman, Alderman Samuel Bear, Jr., as Secretary, Dr. W. W. Lane, as Superintendent of the Hospital and W. W. Shaw as Treasurer.

—Sam Padrick, colored, was charged with violating an ordinance and endangering the health of the city by the removal of night soil in the day time, and as the evidence was positive he was fined $50 and sent below.

—A capsizing.

Yesterday morning at about 9 o'clock, a boat containing six boys, five white and one colored, started out from Hilton bridge on a fishing expedition, and had reached a point some distance above the dry dock, when the boat capsized. Three of the boys swam ashore to a raft, but the other three, having clung to the boat, being unable to swim, were about to drown when another boat from the steamer Italian went to their assistance and they were picked up, after having drifted some distance with the current. The rescuing boat was manned by Mr. Leta Potter, mate of the Italian, and Mr. C. E. Colstrom, who towed the boat ashore.

Dead Body Found.

The dead body of a colored man was found floating in the river yesterday morning, by the men on the little steamer Nevegas, and it was tied up at a place called Mud Cut, a short distance above Point Peter. Subsequently it was towed to the city and viewed by the Coroner. Decomposition had intervened to such an extent that the remains could not be identified, but they were supposed to be those of Jim Shaw, a colored man who was drowned from a flat in tow of a tug near the "Bluff" about three months ago. The body was buried by the Coroner.

—More Stealing.

Thieves broke into the chicken house of Mr. John Dyer, corner of Tenth and Market streets, Tuesday night, and stole about a dozen fowls, being all there was to steal, and then unlocked the door of the wash-house and carried off all the wash tubs, clothes lines and other articles therein contained. This is the fourth time the robbers have paid Mr. Dyer a visit.

—Express Office Changes.

Mr. E. A. Brown, who has for some time past been in charge of the Southern Express office here, has been promoted to the position of Route Superintendent on the Atlantic Coast Line, and is succeeded by Mr. J. R. Williams, of Raleigh, who has already arrived for that purpose and entered upon the discharge of his duties.

Weather Indications.

The following are the indications for to-day:

For the South Atlantic States, local rains followed by fair weather, colder in the northern and central portions, stationary temperature in the extreme southern portion, higher barometer, winds shifting to northerly.

Personal.

We were glad to learn yesterday that Mrs. Kennedy was really suffering less pain than might have been expected from the hurt she received Tuesday afternoon. In other words, her condition is encouraging, as her hosts of friends will be glad to hear.

We regret to hear that the venerable Miss Maggie McLeod is quite sick at the "Old Ladies' House of Rest," on Seventh street.

We had a very pleasant call yesterday from Mr. Culbreth, of the Clinton Cavalry.

Capt. J. C. Borden has so far recovered from his lacerations as to be able to walk.

Capt. Jas. I. Metts has accepted an invitation to serve as Chief Marshal on Memorial Day.

Larceny of Clothing.

Geo. Lumsden, a young colored man, was arrested Tuesday evening by Officers Hays and Merrett; on a warrant issued by Justice Hall, charged with the larceny of a number of articles of clothing from employees on the Carolina Central Railroad a few days ago. He had a preliminary hearing before Justice Hall yesterday morning, and at the close of the examination a bond in the sum of $100 was required of him for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, failing in which he was committed to jail. He had some of the stolen clothing on his person when arrested.

The Wave Disaster—Jury of Inquest.

An inquest was held in the City Court room yesterday afternoon for the purpose of taking evidence in regard to the loss of the steamer Wave, which exploded her boiler on the afternoon of Thursday, March 5th, by which three colored employees lost their lives. After being in session from 12 o'clock until late in the afternoon a recess was taken until to-day at noon. The jury consists of Maj. W. L. Young, Foreman, and C. S. Love, J. R. Turrentine, L. J. Otterbourg, Elijah Lane and J. W. Pearson.

Delegates to Convention.

At a meeting of the vestry of St. James' church, held Tuesday night, Dr. A. J. DeRosset and Mr. James Anderson were elected Senior and Junior Wardens, respectively; both re-elections. The following gentlemen were chosen as delegates to the Diocesan Convention, which meets in Kingston May 13th, viz: Dr. A. J. DeRosset, Col. W. L. DeRosset, Col. Jno. W. Atkinson and Wm. Calder, with Col. James G. Burr, R. E. Calder, Clayton Giles and Capt. J. I. Boatwright as alternates.

Sickness in Sampson.

We learn that there has recently been a great deal of sickness and many deaths in portions of Sampson county, the prevailing disease being pneumonia. It has confined its ravages mostly to the grown people, very few children being attacked with it. In two townships on the line between Sampson and Cumberland the victims were especially numerous, and the disease was fatal in its results. It is now disappearing and the people breathe freer.

A Large Eagle.

A bald eagle, measuring five feet nine inches from tip to tip of his wings, was killed by Mr. G. F. May in the vicinity of the National Cemetery yesterday morning. He was a big bird, but not quite so large as the one we mentioned a few days ago, killed near Chadborn, which measured seven feet from tip to tip of his wings.

Magistrate's Court.

In the case of Al. Mulligan, charged with assault and battery upon his wife, which was to have been tried before Justice Mills, the complainant came forward, decided to prosecute, and the matter was dismissed at her costs.

WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW?—Is this question frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of the immature class, and as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has composed a Scotching Syrup for children, which, it operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race, children certainly do run up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Scotching Syrup are daily sold and used here. We can say that Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and she sincerely believes thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No mother has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given to the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Scotching Syrup. Try it, mothers—try it now.—Justice Pastor New York City, S. C. —all druggists, &c. etc. a bottle.
