MORNING EDITION

OUTLINES.

The gold and silver product of the United States for the year 1884 is estimated by the director of the Mint at $79,600,000. P. D. Barker, Internal Revenue Collector of Alabama, has resigned. - The U. S Supreme Court rendered a decision in the Virginia coupon cases in favor of the bondholders and against the State. A water spout on the Rio Grande caused great destruction of property. - The corner-stone of a new Methodist Church at Weldon was laid on Sunday. - The b each between Russia and England is widening and the possibility of a peaceful settlement is considered more remote. -The arming of men-of war at Cronstadt, Rissia, continues. — Dispatches from Europe stating that Russia had greatly incrossed its demands in regard to the Afghan boundary line, and that the outlook for war was threatening, caused prices to missance on the New York Stock Exchange. __ Henrietta Ramsey shot and killed her husband at Seaboard, on the S. & R. R. R . Va. - Jim First and Pat Cain shot each other in a saloon in Chattanooga, Adelina Patti has concluded her American engagement, singing fortytwo times and receiving $168,000.

The news from Europe looks more war-like. Wheat is up and cotton down. But that may be only a sign of the speculators.

The Supreme Court of the United States has decided the Virginia counon tax cases in favor of the holders and against the State.

The courts in Utah are no respecters of persons, and this time it is "Bishop" H. B. Clawson who has been indicted for polygamy.

There are two midgets on exhibition in Philadelphia. Gen. Mite is 21 years old and weighs 9 pounds. Lucia Zarati is 22 years old and weighs 43 pounds.

Evarts and Edmunds take issue with Attorney General Garland in the Lawton case. But is not Garland right and has he not a decision of the Supreme Court on his side?

Gen. Joseph E. Johnston was born in Prince Edward county, Va. in 1807. He is therefore, about 78 years old. The President recently appointed him Commissioner of Railroads. His mother was a niece of Patrick Henry. .

Immigration from Europe is not lively like it was. For the nine months ending 31st of March it was 224,600 as against 304,825 for the corresponding period in 1884. A few years ago more than a half million came each year.

The New York World put its Bartholdi Fund up to $30,000 by Saturday night. It proposes to keep up its fire until $100,000 is raised. By the way that is a good picture of Uncle Sam doing something "pious" -taking up a collection.

"Mr. Charles Kelly, the actor, and hus-band of Miss Ellen Terry, is dead of apoplexy .- Exchange.

Mr. Kelly was Miss Terry's second or third. She has not lived with him for some years. She can now marry Henry Irving with whom she has been acting and travelling for several years.

Bradstreets reports 196 failures in the United States for last week as against 174 the week before. The following were the Southern failures omitting States with but one: Georgia, Louisiana, Maryland, Tennessee, Texas, and West Virginia 2 each; Missouri 3; Arkansas and Virginia 4 each and South Carolina 5. North Carolina had none.

Col. W. F. Beaseley, President of the Confederate Home Association, has issued a call for the annual meeting at Raleigh on 20th May, 1885. We have before laid before our readers at length the object of this Association. It is to erect in North Carolina a suitable Home for the unfortunate and dependent soldiers. The patriotic people of the State are interested in this matter,

Drs. Shrady and Barker adhere to the correctness of all their bulletins-that Gen, Grant has a cancer. One physician says he came near dying from the drugs administered. The World of Sunday says:

"Dr. Ambrose Pallen, who stands in the front rank of the medical profession, said: The only criticism of the case is that it was wrong to speak of the imminent danger of death when, in fact, there was nothing of the sort close at hand. I watched the bulletins closely and not once did I see either the temperature or the pulse above 100. So long as this was the case there ought to be no prognosis of death.

As to the chance of choking with a fatal termination, it was all nonsense to think of this so long as the doctors were by his side and the operation of tracheotomy is so readiy performed. It would have been so easy to open the windpipe and give the patient air that it should not have been debated an instant when the time for the operation had arrived. I blame them, you understand for this sending out of alarming bulletins when there was nothing to justify it.""

Postmaster General Vilas has been called upon by a Tennessee delegation and he told them that he was inclined to draw the line strictly against Republican partisan postmasters. Stick to that.

-- Mr. Walter H. Page is not connected with any New York paper as stated. - Goldsboro polled 820 votes in November. This would give it about 3,800 inhabitants.

- Washington Gazette: A revival is in progress at the Methodist church. The Presiding Elder is in attendance.

— Salisbury Watchman: Hoover Hill produced $7,880 in February. This is almost equal to what Gold Hill did in 1854 and '55 when the average production per month was over $11,000.

- Lexington Dispatch: Mr. W. H. Hargrave made an assignment yesterday to Mr. S. E. Williams. Hargrave is a dealer in horses. His ascertained are about ten thousand dollars.

- Asheville Citizen: Mr. L. H. Smith returned from Yancey to day. He informs us that Mr. Jesse Horton who resides at Paint Gap, Yancey county, had his store and house robbed Wednesday night. He lost over $200.

- Goldsboro Argus: The Wilmington STAR is one of our most valed exchanges. To its telegraphic columns we are largely indebted for our latest news from all parts. It is the oldest daily in the State and comes fully up to what it pro-poses to be, a first class Democratic news-

-- Concord Times: Bob Best, a colored boy, crawled under the Central Hotel a few days ago in search of a chicken and found a hunting case gold watch. A gold watch was stolen from the express office here about ten years ago, and it is thought that the thief to escape detection threw it under the hotel, where it has re mained ever since.

Mrs. Easter Thom died at the residence of Mr. W. A. Sharp, near this place, on the night of April 16th, aged 80 years. She was a relict of the late Daniel Thom, and mother of Rev. W. F. Thom. - Pittsboro Home: Mr. Sam Williams is dead. He was born and raised in Chatham, being a brother of our ex-Sheriff Williams. Many years ago he moved to Mississippi, where he has since resided. - We are informed that on last Saturday morning Peter Foust was found hanging dead in his own house. His family were from home that night. There was a bruise across his forehead. He was hanging by a leather halter with his knees reaching to the floor. As yet it is not ascertained whether he was murdered or committed suicide. - Farmers tell us that their cattle are in a bad condition. Many of them are poor and covered with vermin. Rough food is getting very scarce, and if spring should delay its coming much longer many a poor old cow will go up or down. Nor have sheep done well this

- Asheville Advance; Yesterday evening about 5 o'clock, Mr. J. H. Barnard rode up to the window of Davidson & Martin's law office, north side of the court house, and tapped with his whip on the window. His horse, frightened at the noise, reared back, throwing Mr. Barnard against a piece of timber, breaking both bones of his ankle. —— Since the brutal murder and burning of the Joyce family, in Hominy Valley , the dwelling house of Mr. Jasper Miller, one of the citizens who has taken an active interest in the efforts that are being made to detect the Joyce murderers, was burned to the ground, and the store of Mr. John Thrash was fired into through the window. Mr. Miller and Mr. Thrash, with all the other good citizens of Hominy Valley, are using every exertion in their power to put a stop to the depredations that are being practiced in that vicinity; and it is generally believed that there exists an organized band of thieves and murderers infesting that portion of the country. - Raleigh News-Observer: The Hon. O. P. Meares is admirably sustaining at Charlotte the reputation he has so long borne at Wilmington for learning, ability and impartially as a judge. — Yester-day the great case of Railway Train vs. Mule was tried, about a mile the other side of Henderson. The mule was worsted. He was killed. It is a wild, weird, improbable story, yet nevertheless true. — Sen-ator Vance has returned to Washington from his mountain farm, and we are glad to know that he is in excellent health. —It is stated that a granddaughter of Col. Wheeler, the North Carolina historian, Miss Rose Wheeler, has made an engagement to act with the troupe of Mile. Rhea and that she has very fine histrionic talents. - The various companies are in earnest in their preparation for the encampment in July. It will be even a finer gathering of the State Guard than was seen at the opening of the exposition, which is certainly saying a great deal. Each of the four regiments of troops, will be, it is understood, presented with national and State flags. It is understood that some prizes will be offered for excellence of drill, neatness, marksmanship, &c., at the coming encampment. — GREENVILLE, N. C.,

rence N. Morrill and Miss Jennie Brown were married. The groom is a prominent lawyer of this place and is editor and proprietor of the Democratic Standard. A Person county correspondent: My son, a beginner, did not have open land enough to make full supplies without planting five acres of fine tobacco land in corn that would not have made more than 125 bushels of corn, say $100. He planted it in tobacco and made $1,000.

- Charlotte Observer: Winston is to have a daily paper called the Twin City Gossip. It is to be edited by P. F. Daub and Z. W. Whitehead. — The members of the congregation of the Tryon Street Baptist church, in this city, have extended a call to Rev. A. G. McManaway, of Louisburg, N. C. - The best time on record for the Air Line road was made last Thursday by Engineer John Pettus, who brought the passenger train from Central to Charlotte, 184 miles, in 4 hours and 12 minutes. — Attached to the noon train from Richmond, yesterday, was the sleeper "St. Nicholas," in which were quartered about 50 railroad superintendents, on their way to New Orleans. They had been holding a meeting in Richmond, but adjourned to the exposition. - At Asbury's brick yard yesterday, a darkey who was employed to oil the moulds as they revolved, grew absent-minded and allowed his hand to remain in a mould until t passed under the pressure. Then he pulled his hand out in a hurry to find that one of his fingers had been cut off close to the second joint, as smoothly as it could have been done with a knife. The brick emptied from the mould was broken open, and the finger was found firmly embedded in its bosom. — The cyclone struck Laurinburg about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, while the hail was still rattling down upon the houses, and it came with suddenness and great force. It took the cyclone not more than two minutes to pass through the town, that is, it lasted about two minutes; and then ensued a comparative calm, and the people stepped out to see what damage had been done. The extent of the damage in the town was: Merchants Hotel unroofed; P. W. Suggs' store unroofed; James & McRae's store unroofed; blacksmith shop crushed to fragments by a falling tree; numerous outhouses were blown over, and fences were scattered in all directions. In the country adjacent to Laurinburg heavy destruction of timber was wrought, a couple of barns were blown away and nine miles of fencing were seat. tered. Nobody was killed or injured in the cyclone, but a number of persons were frightened almost to death.

announces the death of Mrs. B. W Starke, sister of Mr. J. R. Williams, of the Southern Express Office here, who had arrived in Raleigh. Her death was very unexpected and her husband was absent from home.

The New York Herald thus speaks of the side-splitting comedy to be enacted on the boards of our Opera House, on next Thursday night:

" 'The Two Johns' is a broad comedy in three acts, and has met with an unusual degree of popularity. It aims to make people laugh, and in that it succeeds be-yond stint. It was presented last evening at the Mount Morris Theatre to a large audience, and was heartily roared at. Messrs. John Stewart and John Hart were the principals, and as they are both clever comedians their efforts, which were muscular as well as mental, were highly enjoyed. In the company are several very good singers, whose songs helped materially to heighten the enjoyment of the entertainment. The troupe is a good one."

Improving a Cemetery. Oak Grove Cemetery, the property of the city and county, located just beyond the southern suburbs, is being enlarged to double its former size, and avenues are being run through it. There will also be more regularity hereafter in the burials. The whole cemetery will be nicely enclosed, the fence newly white-washed, etc. Mr. F. M. James is superintendent.

vesterday, he called us in to see how his new burglar alarm worked. It is so arranged that upon opening any door or window in the building the alarm will ring out with such distinctness that the soundest sleeper would be awakened by it. It would be impossible, therefore, for any burglar to enter his residence either by a door or window without giving such an alarm as to arouse the inmates, for as soon as you turn the knob and start to open the door the racket commences and continues until the door is closed again; and with a window it is the same case. And then it guards against any collusion that might take place between a burglar and a servant, for when the alarm is put on, when the fam-

Religious Meetings. A series of meetings commenced at Front Street Methodist Church with this week, Rev. Dr. Yates, the pastor, being assisted by Rev. C. M. Pepper.

Rev. C. H. Wiley preached an able sermon at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday morning. At night he preached at the Second Church, the pulpit of the First Church being occupied by Rev. Mr. Vass.

A Rush for Smashed Crockery.

Chief of Police Brock was driving out in the eastern part of the city, yesterday morning, when he was startled by the discovery of such a large crowd of people collected in the neighborhood of Tenth and Mulberry streets-seemingly at least five hundredthat he was at first totally at a loss to understand what it meant. Upon driving nearer, however, he found out the cause of the large assemblage and the excitement that was prevailing in its ranks. It appears that some carts were engaged in taking out the smashed crockeryware from the store of Messrs. Giles & Murchison, recently so badly damaged by fire, and dumping it at the place named, and the large crowd of colored people had collected from the adjacent neighborhoods, all intent upon finding some article or articles so little damaged by the ordeal through which it had passed as to be of some service.

Revenue Matters. Some facts in reference to revenue matters may be of interest to some of our business men. Application should be made on or before the first day of May for a U. S. revenue license to sell articles manufactured from the tobacco plant, which costs $2 40 for one year. This license includes in its provisions-as above intimated-chewing and smoking tobacco, snuff, cigars, cigarettes, etc. At the same time dealers are required to take out a license to retail spirituous liquors, which embraces any quantity from a thimbleful to four gallons and three quarts; in other words, any quantity under five gallons; the price to be paid for such license being $25. These facts we obtain from Col. F. W. Foster, revenue inspector for this port.

Charged With a Dastardly Crime. A colored boy, about 16 or 17 years old, named James Davis, was arrested and taken to the guard house Sunday night, charged with an infamous crime, a little white girl about eight years old being the victim. He was taken to the lock-up by the girl's father, a Mr. Lovejoy, living at 312 North Third street. The boy came here some two or three months ago as a tramp, saying he belonged at Charleston, S. C., and has been in the employ of Mr. Lovejoy. The case in the Mayor's absence, was turned over to Justice Millis, who was to have had a preliminary examination yesterday afternoon, but finally postponed the hearing until this morning at 10 o'clock.

Pictures by Wilmington Artists. Speaking of the efforts of Wilmington artists, we noticed yesterday, in the show window of Mr. John Dyer, a handsome oil painting by Mr. John T. Kilham, known as "The Rivals," representing an Indian and a white man on horseback in pursuit of a buffalo, both in the act of assaulting the frightened beast, the former with an arrow from his trusty bow and the latter with a ball from his gleaming revolver, while a look of bitter defiance disfigures the faces of both the rivals in the exciting contest, which is taking place on one of the far western prairies and close by the banks of a beautiful river.

Accident. Monroe Byrd, colored, jumped off the train at Eighth street, yesterday morning, in order to make a short cut home, when he was thrown violently to the ground and painfully injured. He was taken home and surgical assistance summoned.

Weather Indications. The following are the indications for to

For the South Atlantic States, fair weather, generally warmer, easterly winds shifting to southeasterly, lower barometer.

The funeral of the late Ashley Gilbert took place from the Front Street Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. Dr. Yates. The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: Messrs. E. E. Burruss, H. T. Bauman, H. P. West, W. W. Hodges, J. T. French, J. W. King, W. F. Corbett, J. W. Bolles, and W. A. Walker. The remains were followed to Oakdale Cemetery by a long line of carriages containing friends and relatives of the deceased.

The Light Infantry. There was a full turn out of the Wilmington Light Infantry at St. John's Church Sunday afternoon, where they were addressed by their Chaplain, Rev. Dr. Carmichael. There were fifty members in attendance, including four who have re-

- Capt. David Lee, of Somers, New Jersey, owner of the schooner Gen. F. E. Spinner, which went ashore on Friday morning last abreast of Fort Fisher, arrived here and went down the river yesterday morning on the steamer Louise. He visited the wreck and returned to the city yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Capt Dare, of the Gen. Spinner. They report the vessel on the outer reef and the seas breaking over her. Both vessel and cargo will prove a total loss and arrangements are being made to strip the wreck. Capt. Lee will return home, leaving the vessel in charge of agents.
