THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXXVI.--NO. 41. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, MAY 9, 1885. WHOLE NO. 5816

MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Atkinson, of South Carolina, was shot at by some unknown person in Charleston. G. V. N. Latorop, of Michigan, has been appointed Minister to Russia; Boyd Winchester, of Ky, Minister to Switzerland, and John E. W. Thompson, of N. Y., Minister to Haiti. President Cleveland has declined the invitation to visit Atlanta, Ga. Mr. McLane, U. S. Minister to France, has reached Paris. Rumored in Paris that the Russians have made another advance in Afghanistan. Net cotton receipts since September 1, 4,640,700 bales. Business failures for the week in the United States, number 225. R. E. Lee, Camp of Confederate Veterans, Richmond, Va., called on President Cleveland yesterday. Thompson, the new Minister to Haiti, is a colored man, a graduate of Yale College, and has been a life-long Democrat. Only twelve jurymen have been obtained in the Cluvertus trial in Richmond; the law requires sixteen; a draft has been made on the city of Alexandria for fifty taxsmen. Reports to the Department of Agriculture show that cotton planting is well advanced; the injury to winter wheat is greater than indicated April 1st. New York markets: Money 1/2 per cent.; cotton firm at 10 1/2 @ 11 1/2; wheat No. 3 red May $1.01 1/2 @ 1.02; southern flour, corn, ungraded 77 @ 78 1/2; rosin firm at $1.07 1/2 @ 1.10; spirits turpentine steady at 32 1/2 @ 32 3/4. Gen. McDowell was 68 years of age. Senator Vance is again back in North Carolina. President Cleveland's new carriage and harness cost $2,000. Young Gross, of Philadelphia, appointed consul to Greece, declines the honor. Correat!

Mary Anderson will come home in September and all of the papers "seen mighty glad."

The universal opinion is, as far as we gather it, that the humiliation of England is complete.

Col. Otter made a brilliant dash and fight but was compelled to retreat. The Indians too greatly outnumbered him.

Our exchanges notice the Centennial edition of the Augusta Chronicle. A copy failed to reach us. That paper began business in 1785.

The New York Herald is tremendously mad because there was no war. Bennett must have been speculating heavily in futures. Eh!

Gen. D. H. Hill denies the story in the Century that he was ever arrested by Gen. Jackson. It was Jimboden's cavalry that started the yarn.

During April the property destroyed in the United States is estimated at $7,750,000. Since the 1st of January the estimate is $33,250,000.

The Democratic papers of Virginia and Georgia are criticizing Attorney General Garland for attending "to private cases." He is advised to get rid of them at once.

It is thought that young Martin's defence will turn on emotional insanity. Emotional humbug! He was drunk and killed an innocent man and that is the whole of it.

The population of Texas is estimated at 2,750,000, by Gov. Ireland. In 1880 it was 1,597,618. The estimate is probably excessive. Before the census of 1880 was taken Texans put the population at 2,000,000.

Representative Dibble, of South Carolina, assures a reporter of the Charleston News and Courier that the Radical officials in the South will be made to go in good time. Glad to hear it, but when is "the good time coming?"

Max O'Rell, the clever Frenchman living in England, says "that it will soon be very difficult for a man who is not a good judge of paintings to venture an opinion upon a French lady's looks." Very neat. The remark might sweep over the ocean this way and not fail to hit.

Stoddard, an American Northern poet, is playing the part of hyena over Edgar Poe's character. He says Poe was a drunkard and a liar. Mr. Randall, of the Augusta Chronicle, asks:

"And now it occurs to us to ask if Mr. R. H. Stoddard is not given to inebriety himself, if not to romancing?"

James Anthony Froude (pronounced Froud) is in New York. He has been interviewed several times. He grows at the United State and fairly roars at his own country, England. He is not trustworthy either as historian, biographer or critic, and he is evidently not a safe political guide. But he is surely one of the greatest writers of this or any century as far as style enters. His works on England and Ireland are very unreliable. Lecky shows him up badly in his great historical work. His Life of Caesar is not to be received without much caution but it is of unequalled excellence as a work of literary skill. It is a masterpiece.

We are pleased to see that our friend, Captain Randolph A. Shotwell, has been appointed State Librarian. He will enter upon his office the 1st of June next. No Democrat in the State has suffered as much as he. A man of courage, moral and physical; a man of capacity, of convictions and independence, he deserves well at the hands of the party. He has been no time server or howler for party, right or wrong, but like an honest man has spoken "right out in meeting."

On the 11th of May there is to be at Hartford a grand gathering of men from all the churches. An exchange says:

"The Congress will be composed of prominent delegates from nearly all the Protestant denominations, including the Baptists, Campbellites, Congregationalists, Episcopalians, Friends, Lutherans, Methodists, Presbyterians, the Reformed Dutch Church, Swedenborgians, Unitarians and Universalists."

Winston Daily: About fifty more convicts have recently been assigned to the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad.

The Charlotte Observer notes the extinction of a family recently removed from Mecklenburg County. The late John Erwin, her son Francis, and her daughter, all being swept off in rapid succession by pneumonia.

Greensboro Workman: Dr. Thos. I. Hughes, a native of Fluvanna county, Va., a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and a practicing physician in Virginia, died at Reidsville on the 6th inst, aged 57 years.

Fayetteville Observer: The outlook for a fine peach crop is exceedingly encouraging. We learn that our townsman, James R. Monroe, of the Senior Class at Chapel Hill, was the poet orator at the late Senior speaking, and that his poem was both interesting and amusing.

Lenoir Topic: A hotel building, 180 feet long, with an "L" 202 feet long, is now in course of erection on the top of Roan Mountain, with a prospect of having some rooms ready by June 20th. They have a steam saw mill on top of the mountain, and are making use of the native spruce and balsam.

Raleigh News-Observer: The truckers generally in Eastern Carolina report a backward season, but a promise of abundant crops. — Goldsboro, May 6. — To-day was the opening day of the spring races of the Goldsboro Fair Association. There is a good display of fine stock here — a display superior in fact to that at the Fair last fall. The winners of to-day's races were: Mr. Joshua Bullock's "Clio," Mr. T. K. Borden's "George B.," Mr. T. L. Emory's "Brook Hill," and Mr. R. E. Best's "Lou."

Raleigh Farmer & Mechanic: And now it appears as if the day of Raleigh's emergence from a Railroad corner by means of the much talked of Grand Through Route, viz: the Washington, Richmond, Rideway, Raleigh and Augusta Railroad, has been indefinitely postponed. — "H." writes from Washington as follows: Col. Thomas S. Kenan, late Attorney General of North Carolina, arrived here yesterday. The understanding is, Col. Kenan has hopes of securing a good position in the department of justice.

Asheville Citizen: The competitive examination for the appointment of the West Point cadetship ordered by the Hon. Thomas D. Johnston, will be held in Asheville on the 15th day of this month. We had the honor of a visit from that distinguished gentleman, Gen. J. M. Sneed. He was for eight years on the Supreme Court bench. He is now a resident of Memphis. He is of North Carolina blood, and that of the most distinguished kind. He is a grandson of that noble and revered North Carolina Judge, John Louis Taylor, and a first cousin of the present Episcopal Bishop of Mississippi, William Mercer Green.

Raleigh Visitor: At a meeting of the Waughta Club, held last evening, it was decided to tender Hon. Thos. J. Jarvis, the newly appointed Minister to Brazil, a public reception on his arrival in this city. — Mrs. A. Blackburn, of Bladen county, made application yesterday to the State Auditor for a pension, under the act of the Legislature. She is the widow of W. J. Blackburn, of Co. K, 15th Regt., N. C. Inf., who died at the battle of Finner, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has issued a circular to county superintendents notifying them that all public school teachers in the State must be examined on philosophy and hygiene at the October examination.

Asheville Advance: The Cherokee Indians living in North Carolina have brought suit for lands in the Indian Territory valued at about $8,000,000. Col. Connelly and family returned home yesterday from an extended trip in Europe. — Gen. Vance will address the people tomorrow in the courthouse, during the recess of court, on the subject of the Western North Carolina Fair. — Mrs. Minnie B. Porter, wife of T. M. Porter, Esq., and daughter of Mr. Canada Cowan, died yesterday, after an illness of several months. — A drunken row occurred last Sunday in Egypt township, Yadkey county, in which Gilbert Hensley was cut and mortally wounded by a man named John Brackins. All of the parties were drinking, and from what we have heard of the difficulty it is hard to tell who is mostly to blame. Our informant states that Hensley is horribly butchered and cannot live.

Charlotte Observer: The two day train on the Carolina Central now make through runs between Charlotte and Wilmington, the break at Laurinburg having been abolished. — The remains of Rev. Alexander Sinclair, who died some weeks ago in Ireland, will be brought to Charlotte for final interment and are now en route. Mr. Sinclair was once pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in this city.

A beautiful little sail boat, named "Nellie," was launched on the placid waters of the Catawba, at Mt. Holly, yesterday. The boat was built in Wilmington for Mr. J. F. Bryant, specially for service on the Catawba, and is said to be a very pretty craft. — Mr. Zell Hinson, who has been engaged at work on the Arlington Baptist Church, in Glass Creek township, this county, received a fall from that building yesterday that came near killing him. As it was, his shoulder was severely dislocated and there were painful bruises on his body. — For some time past, the railroad companies have suffered considerably from the depredations of thieves on the freight cars at Salisbury, but the business was handsomely broken up yesterday, through the ingenuity of Capt. W. A. Turley.

The good people of Iron Station, in Lincoln county, were yesterday startled by the suicide of one of Lincoln's well-known citizens, Mr. Mitchell Monday, who ended his career at his home, about two miles from that place, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. At that hour the inmates of the house were alarmed by the report of a pistol and on making an investigation, found Mr. Monday lying on the floor in one of the rooms, in a dying condition, with brains and blood oozing from a bullet hole in his head.

The ministers of the different churches are earnestly requested to have the bells tolled from 4 to 4:30 o'clock p. m. The route of march will be up Fourth street to Campbell, up Campbell to the cemetery.

The following order of exercises will be observed: Dirge by the Wilmington Cornet Concert Club. "Rest in Peace," by the Choir. Prayer by the Chaplain, Rev. J. W. Primrose. "Forget not the Dead," by the Choir. Oration by Mr. John D. Long. "Soldiers of Christ, Arise," by the Choir. Benediction. Floral offerings.

At the close of the ceremonies a salute will be fired by the Wilmington Light Infantry. It is earnestly requested that no vehicles or horses will be allowed to stand in the circle immediately surrounding the Confederate lot.

JAMES I. METTS, Chief Marshal.

Memorial Notes. The following, which was adopted last year, is reproduced for the benefit and information of those interested: Resolved, That as the number of soldiers who have died since the war has increased to such an extent, and the membership of the Association decreased greatly, as well as the small floral contributions for that purpose, that the Association continue to place memorial stones over those who pass away, but the decorations be confined, according to the original design of the Association, to those who lost their lives during, or at the close of the war, together with the usual mourners.

CROWNS AND WEATHERS. There will be an especial opportunity offered on Saturday afternoon for the ladies of Wilmington to prove that two decades of years have not obliterated the memory of the fallen braves sleeping in Oakdale. The Ladies' Oakland Memorial Association will meet at the school house in the rear of St. James' Church, at that time, for the purpose of wreathing laurel crowns for the graves of our heroes, and will be grateful for any assistance kindly tendered, and any addition of membership will be gladly received by that body. Contributions of flowers will also be much appreciated on Monday morning (Memorial Day) and those who will kindly contribute them will please send them to the school house as early after 9 o'clock as convenient.

THE CHOR. The following will compose the choir to furnish vocal music for the memorial services: Mrs. Meares, soprano; Mrs. Waters, soprano; Mrs. Robinson, soprano; Mrs. Lippitt, alto; Mrs. Sweet, alto; Mrs. Waddell, soprano; Miss Waddell, alto; Miss DeRosset, organist; C. H. Robinson, tenor; J. D. Smith, tenor; W. H. Northrop, bass; R. H. Grant, bass; John E. Grant, bass.

Memorial Day. The tenth of May falling on Sunday the present year, Monday will be observed as Memorial Day, and it has been suggested that all places of business be closed promptly at 9 o'clock p. m., in order that all of our business men may have an opportunity of joining in the procession and attending the exercises at Oakdale Cemetery. It has also been suggested, as our city bell cannot be heard at any great distance, that in order to produce concert of action, all mills and factories having steam whistles blow them for about two minutes promptly at 2 o'clock to indicate that the shutting up hour has arrived, and that all business houses close promptly at this notice.

Foreign Shipments. Messrs. D. R. Murchison & Co. cleared the Norwegian brig Congo, yesterday, for London, with 500 casks spirits turpentine and 2,240 barrels of resin, valued at $9,595; and Messrs. Edward Kidder & Son the schooner Harry White for Port-au-Prince, Haiti, with 164,006 feet of lumber and 38,800 shingles, valued at $2,398.58. Total $11,993.58.

The following are the indications for to-day: For the South Atlantic States, fair weather, southwest to northwest winds, higher barometer, stationary temperature.

"Very Like a Whale." The Signal Service observer at Cape Lookout reported last night that Capt. Kilby Guthrie captured a large whale in the "hook" of the Cape, at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, and has anchored it near the beach, ready for cutting it up. The marine monster measures forty feet in length, and is valued at fifteen hundred dollars.

Juvenile Base Ball. In a match game of base ball between the Snowflakes, Capt. W. Bowden, and the Amateurs, Capt. John Bellamy, the former made 14 rounds, the latter 4.

RIVER AND MARINE. The steam-yacht Passport is now at the dry dock, being overhauled and fitted up for the summer campaign. A good deal of work has been done to her, including a new metal bottom, and it is expected when she comes off the dock she will be as good as new. It is thought by Capt. Harper that the work of painting, etc., will be finished by the last of next week or the first of the week following, when the excursion season will commence.

FOR THE STAR. HONOR THE DEAD—HONOR THE LIVING. With the return of the sweet flowers and the glad notes of the birds come afresh the memory of our martyred dead, and already the loving, sympathetic heart of Southern womanhood is preparing to commemorate their death. Soon we shall make our annual pilgrimage to the Mecca of our dead; and, standing upon that consecrated ground, the man of God in heaven, whose name will be upon our lips, the voice of song will be wafted upon the gentle winds, the orator will proclaim their heroism, loving hands will scatter bright flowers, the military, in holiday attire, will fire salutes, martial airs will be blown, the bugles scattered by loving hands upon their graves will be in dying exhalation sweet incense to their memory. But while we honor the dead let us not forget the living. The dead wrapped in their gray shroud well and are beyond the reach of harm, but all our own dear souls are to be found relics of the "Lost Cause" who bear as many honorable scars as did the toughest veterans of Wellington, in disease and penury. The cause for which they fought being lost, there are no more to which they may go for help, and so they stand, and knock at the great heart of humanity, asking aid as a rightful charity.

While the South has commendably honored the memory of her dead she has also been sadly remiss in her duty towards the needy living ones. Pagan and panegyric are well enough for the dead, but they are unsubstantial food and vesture for the living. These men by their courage and fortitude wrought the brightest pages of her history and in the pantheon of immortality their niche is high and enduring. They deserve aid and sympathy and if a people grown opulent will not in the "piping times of peace" open their hearts and their purses to their necessities, then the South is unworthy of freedom and unworthy the sacrifices and memories of heroes living and dead. S. W. CORBERT.
