Young, colored, aged about 18 years, a daughter of Peyton Young, a well-known livery stable driver. The father and mother of the girl were both absent at the time, the former on a business trip to the sound and the latter at the bedside of her sick sister. The case came up for preliminary exami nation before J. C. Hill, J. P., yesterday, and at the conclusion of the testimony the defendant was required to give a justified bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, failing in which he was remanded to jail. An Awful Seare. As two young gentlemen were going into a store on Front street, last night, they were startled by the information that the cry of "murder!" "murder!" had been heard in the Giles & Murchison lot, The young men started off in that direction. and they soon found that the woeful cries proceeded from an old colored woman. who had fallen into a large hole which the masons had dug for the purpose of making mortar. She seemed to think she had fallen into perdition itself, and there were undoubtedy "spirits" around; but they were not of the other world. The old woman was at length pulled out, and went on her way rejoicing, with tears in her eyes and sand in

Suicide of Rev. J. H. Dany, a Former

Wilmington Pastor.

Our readers are familiar with the circumstances which, on or about the 22nd of May last, led Rev. Jonathan H. Dally to surrender his parchment as pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church in Jersey City. New Jersey. The following extract from an article in the New York Herald of Friday gives the sad sequel. Rev. Mr. Dally was formerly a member of the North Carolina Conference, and was stationed in this city shortly after the war, where he was very popular:

"After his retirement Mr. Dally went to live with his aged father, a prominent resident of Woodbridge, N. J. He was stricken with illness, and a physician was furnished him by Mr. Searle and the stewards of the Jersey City church, who deeply sympathized with the unfortunate man. He was ill for six months, when his physician recommended that he travhis physician recommended that he travel in the hope of regaining his health. Pastor Dally entertained the hope that his long and excellent service in the Church would be considered when the Conference was apprised of his fall and they would mete out some mild punishment and not dismles him from the ministry. "The Conference resisted the influence brought to bear in his behalf. His parchment was accepted and his services were forgotten. The Conference adjourned a few days ago and Mr. Dally was acquainted with their judgment. He was at the time studying medicine in New Orleans. His retentive memory and previous knowledge enabled him to complete his course in a few months. On April 27 he wrote to his wife at Woodbridge, that he would that day start for St. Louis, where ne intended locating, and he expected her to rejoin him there. He stated that he would write as soon as he arrived at St. Louis. Mrs. Dally and her father waited impatiently for intelligence from her husband, but none came, until Wednesday a letter was received from the captain of a Mississippi river steamer plying between New Orleans

"Mr. Dally had been a passenger on his boat. He noticed that his passenger was an intelligent man and evidently in great mental distress. He feared he contemplated suicide, and the captain made him share his spacious stateroom. He always locked Mr. Dally in at night, so strong was his suspicion that he intended drowning himself. On last Friday night, while the captain was absent for a short time, Mr. Dally forced open the door, and before he could be intercepted ran to the deck and jumped overboard. The steamboat was stopped and all the small boats were promptly lowered and manned. He was seen to rise to the surface once, then sank and did not again appear. From the letters found in Mr. Dally's writing desk the captain learned the address of his relatives. The sad news a shock so severe to Mrs. Dally that her condition is critical. She has no children. The officers of the Jersey City church have arranged to have the body when recovered forwarded to that city. They have offered a reward for its recovery.

"The unfortunate man was born in Woodbridge on October 7th, 1888. He was a graduate of the Wesleyan University and was admitted as a preacher by the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1863. Desiring to labor nearer home, he was transferred to the Newark Conference in 1871. He was assigned to the church at Mount Horeb, in Somerset county. His later charges were at Washington, Warren county; Roseville, Essex county; Market Street Church, Newark; Market Street Church, Paterson, and Trinity Church, York street, Jersey City." was a graduate of the Wesleyan University

Coughs and Colds can be cured with a bottle of Sine's Syrup of Tar. Only 25c. For sale by

A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procurred a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Heturning home the day following, the father found the baby still suffering; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties and left the father with the child. Duringher shence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands sleept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying bables and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup, never yet falled to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
