Yesterday morning, about a quarter to 12 o'clock, Miss Katie Johnson, aged about fifteen, eldest daughter of Mr. W. T. Johnson, residing on Princess, between Fourth and Fifth streets, was in the act of pouring kerosene oil from a can into the stove, when the fire in the stove communicated to the oil in the can and the latter exploded in Miss Katie's hand, throwing the burning oil over her and setting her clothing on fire. Her step mother heard the exthe matter. She called to some one to bring her something with which to smoth the fire, and did all she could to effect her purpose, but in her exc Katie hundered her in her efforts. Miss Katie limily made her way to the front does, her gazzents all in a these when R. L. Hutchings, a colored painter, who happened to be passing, caught sight of the startling spectacle, bravely rushed to the side of the unfortunate young lady, jerked his coat from his back and quickly wrapped it around her, smothering the fire and saving her life, as in another minute her injuries would have been fatal. As it is her right hand and arm, are burned quite severely, but otherwise she is not much hurt, although she was the victim of severe nervous prostration for some hours afterwards. Fortunately, she had a worsted dress on, which was in her favor.

Mr. Johnson, who was down the street heard the news in an exaggerated form and hastened home in great alarm.

Great credit is due to Hutchings for his prompt aid. One of his hands was pretty badly burned, and his cost was damaged considerably, though it happened to be one in which he does his painting.

Saw-Ah-Brah has recently given his Oriental entertainment in Raleigh. As he is to appear before our people on Monday and Tuesday, May 25th and 26th; for the benefit of the First Baptist Church, many will be interested in the following, taken from the News and Observer:

"The impersonations of this talented foreigner have excited a remarkable degree of interest here. His illustrated lecture, if it could be properly called such, on Monday evening, was the topic of town talk yesterday, and the compliments were numerous and warm. Saw-Ab-Brah is pleasing in all respects, witty, brilliant, uses choice English is a master of gesture, and with it all has an art that is wholly Oriental. Last evening he had a fine audience and gave a continuation of his illustrations of life in Burmah. It was perhaps even more interesting than the first series of impersonations, because even more singular. As few people here will ever have an opportunity of seeing Burmah, this lecture was really a peep at that strange land. Saw-Ah-Brah well deserves the compliment he has won during his stay in the United States. People who desire to see a performance re-markable and pleasing in all its aspects should not fail to see him."

Arrested on the Charge of Being an Escaped Prisoner.

Henry Stevens, colored, appeared before Justice Millis vesterday morning, and made affidavit that Charlie Johnson, a shoemaker, who has a shop on the northwets corner of Front and Mulherry streets, was an escaped prisoner. He awears that Johnson was arrested in Raleigh some four or five years ago for stealing cotton from a man named Watson, that he made his escape from the officers having him in charge, and that his real name is Stanley Stephens, A warrant was issued and John son was arrested and lodged in jail to await an answer to the notification sent to the officials at Raleigh.

After the above was in type the magis trate received information that warranted him in releasing the prisoner, it being dis covered among other things that the escape was alleged to have taken place about twelve or fifteen years ago, when Tim Lee was sheriff of Wake county. In fact, there appeared to be no foundation at all for prosecutions is interested their varies

He arms, hands and breast were burned very badly, besides which she had a terrible burn on the top of her head. She became delerious during Friday afternoon and appeared to be in great agony. Mr. Casteen, who is a very worthy, hard working and industrious man, has the sympathies of the community in the terrible bereavement which himself and family have been called upon to sustain.

The injuries to the older sister were mostly confined to her hands and arms, and are not serious.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION. Committeer-The State of the Church - Standing Committees Elected -Goldsboro the Next Place of Meeting -Adjournment Sine Die.

[Special Star Report.] FRIDAY MORNING, May 15. Convention met at 9 o'clock; the Bishop the chair. Col. Fremont read the report of the rustees of the Diocese. Mr. Boyle read a report on the subject the late Episcopal Residence, recompending the purchase of the fourth part of the residence owned by Col. Atkinson, and to accept the offer of the shares of St. John's and St. Mark's, as a permanent Dr. Carmichael said that he did not guar-inthe that St. John's and St. Mark's would renew the offer which was made a year ago. On motion, it was resolved to purchase Col. Atkinson's share of the property, if the offers of the parishes of St. Mark and St. John prove satisfactory to the trus-

The report of the committee on the matter of Scholarship was read, and it was resolved that a committee be appointed to confer with the Diocese of North Carolina on the matter.

The committee on the University of the South read a report on that subject.

And it was resolved that the rectors in the Diocese be instructed to present the matter before their congregations and to solicit annual subscriptions.

The committee appointed to recommend a place and time of meeting of council for the next year reported, and it was resolved to hold the convention in Goldsboro on the 26th of May, 1886.

The Bishop then read a congratulatory letter from the Scottish Bishops to the Church of America in view of the centenary of the consecration of Bishop Seabery.

On motion of Mr. Calder, it was resolved that the council now go into committee of the whole to continue the consideration of the new Constitution. Dr. Huske continued the reading of the new Constitution. An interesting discussion took place on the matter of the election of a Bishop. It was finally resolved that the old law be retained, viz: That on the election of Bishop the clergy shall have the privilege of making the nomination, upon which nomination the laity have the right to vote. The committee of the Whole arose and the Bishop resumed the chair. The pro-ceedings of the committee were reported, and it was unanimously resolved that the report of the Amended Constitution be read and adopted. The canons were referred back to the committee on Canons. The Convention then took a recess till

The following gentlemen were elected on the Executive Missionary committee: Rev. V. W. Shields, Rev. N. Harding, Mr. Geo. Roberts, Mr. Hoyt and John Long.

Church Building committee elected: Rev. Mr. Drane, Rev. Mr. Elam, Rev. Mr. Wharton, Mr. Boyle and Mr. Lamb. Education Committee elected: Rev. T. M. Ambler, Mr. Smallbones, Mr. Calder. Trustees of the Diocese elected: Mr. Geo. Davis, Col. Fremont.

Trustees of the University of the South lected: Rev. Mr. Shield, W. Latimer, and V. B Shepard. On motion of Col. Fremont, the thanks of the Convention were extended to the Rector and congregation of St. Mary's, and to the citizens generally, for their kind hospitality.

The report of the committee on the State of the Church was read. The state of the Church is encouraging. There has been a great increase of Episcopal visitations. The zeal of the Bishop it is hoped will provoke both clergy and laity to good works.
