- Newton Enterprise: We have heard a good deal of talk lately about the wheat. All agree that there will be much less than a full crop made, but some think it will turn out pretty well.

- Raleigh News-Observer: Dr. Kemp P. Battle, President of the University, has received a letter from President that the exaction of his manifold duties will prevent his being present at the next Commencement of the University."

- Charlotte Democrat: The Mormon preachers in North Carolina should be driven off by force by the decent citizens of the neighborhoods which they visit. Drive the scoundrels away by any means possible, until the Legislature passes a law, to prevent their villainy and rascality.

- Wadesboro Intelligencer: The same horse which weeks ago came near killing Mr. Nathan Hightower, by pawing and biting him, made another assault upon Mr. Hightower with deadly intent last Tuesday, kicking him in the forehead and almost cracking his skull. — The stand of cotton throughout the county is reported as fine as it was ever known before.

- Elizabeth City Economist: In Perquimans county the truck is looking re-markably well. The increased acreage of the same, with a splendid prospect for a good crop, has given a new impetus to business among our farmers. Peas are being shipped. — In Tyrrell county, Saturday last, Mr. Walter Cohoon's mule kicked him in the face, and inflicted a wound so serious that he died on Tuesday night. He was a young man of good standing.

- Salem Press: The different varieties of "rust-proof" wheat seem to have suffered more from freezing than any other. Many who sowed it say they will not get their seed back. — About thirty soldiers' widows in Forsyth county have already made application for their share in the $30,000 appropriated by the last Legislature. — Some farmers of Rowan county and the statement of the statem ty sow the old spring wheat, and they say it looks well this year. Some of our local Sullivans are putting themselves in trim to meet her. — New post-Irwin, a young man of Morning Star town selves in trim to meet her. — New post-masters are still being made for North Carolina, Among those commissioned on the 23rd., were the following for this State: Maj. R. Bingham, Bingham's School; F. Patterson Cottrell, Cilley; and Francis M. Warner, Troy. — All trouble about the completion of the Spartanburg & Asheville Railroad is now at an end, and trains will be running through by the first day of next November. A contract that insures the early and certain building of the road was signed in Richmond, and the parties taking the work were to begin operations at

- Rockingham Rocket: A mutton was sold in town Tuesday morning weighing something over 60 pounds, and brought 10 cents per pound. This looks like sheep raising would be profitable where they are valued at about $1.50 per head for raising purposes. — Mr. Donald McRae and Prof. W. B. Phillips, representing the Navassa Guano Works, spent Tuesday in town and vicinity. The purpose of their visit was to examine the white quartz abounding in this region with the view of procuring it in large quantities to be used works, this stone being impervious to the action of the acid while the acid phosphate is in process of manufacture. only the great Falls and Roberdel factories which have stopped work. At the present prices of sheetings they could only run at a oss, and the directors exercise common prudence as business men in shutting down. The factories will promptly resume as soon as the market outlook will justify. Meanwhile the Pee Dee, in the manufac ture of plaids and yarns, is running ful time and will continue operations. Midway, suspended at present while putting in additional machinery, will continue the manufacture of yarns, and the Ledbetter another yarn factory, we presume, will pur sue the same policy.

The Board of Education. It is a mistake that the Board of Educa tion is to be selected necessarily outside of the Board of County Commissioners or Board of Magistrates, and our informant admits that his language was liable to the misconstruction we gave it. The fact is that the Board of Education is hereafter to be an entirely independent body from the Board of Commissioners, and the County Superintendent of Instruction will be the Secretary, instead of the Register of Deeds, as heretofore, the latter acting as Secretary of the Board of Commissioners. It is left to the discretion of the joint meeting of the Board of Commissioners and the Board of Magistrates to say who shall constitute the Board of Education, and if thought expedient the three members can all be taken from the Board of Commissioners, which would leave two members of the latter Board not connected with the Board of Education. Now, as before stated, the five Commissioners also act as a Board of Education. The meeting will be held at the City Court room next Monday at 11 o'clock.

The Robbery Case. The case of Harry Orr and Norman Morris, both seaman, charged with robbing Wm. Garson of $ 75 in money, on Tuesday night last, had a preliminary examination before Justice Millis yesterday morning. The evidence was mostly circumstantial, but pointed with evident directness to the guilt of the prisoners. Orr was seen to leap 'from the window and leave the house at an early hour in the morning, and was tracked to a vessel lying at a wharf near by, on which Morris was employed as steward. It was afterwards ascertained that Morris had deserted his vessel, and he was tracked to the depot, where it was found that he had purchased a through ticket to New York. On the witness stand yesterday Morris swore that Orr came on board of his vessel, on the morning in question, and prevailed on him to accept $35 in money, saying that he had $100 more, and that he had given $5 to one Molly Harris. Morris said that Orr wanted him to leave for New York immediately, saying that he would follow. Morris then quit his work. went ashore, got himself shaved at a barber-shop, afterwards went to a clothing store and decked himself out in a new suit and then hurried to the depot. It was known that neither of these men had had any money for some time previous to the robbery. It was thought that the thief was under the impression at first that he had all of Garson's money, when in reality he only had a portion of it. Orr and Morris were required to enter into bond in the sum of $200 each for their appearance at court, in default of which they were remanded to jail.

The Death of Rev. Jno. N. Andrews

The Weldon News gives the following particulars in reference to the death of this popular minister. One of our exchanges had it that he died at the residence of Rev. J. W. Heptinstall, which, it seems from the following, was a mistake:

"We regret to announce the death of the Rev. John N. Andrews, of the N. C. Con-ference M. E. Church, South, which occur-red suddenly at the residence of Mr. W. W. Butts, who lives near Aurelian Springs, on Monday night. He preached a funeral ser-mon about three o'clock on Monday afternoon and appeared to be in perfect health until abount fifteen minutes befor he died. He had an attack of coughing and asked for water which was given him and he took a seat. In a few minutes he was dead. A physician was sent for but life was extinct. The doctor said the cause of his death was lar. He was pastor of Roanoke circuit and lived at Littleton. He filled his regular appointment on Sunday last at New Hope. He preached on this circuit in 1865, when Halifax and Weldon were included in this circuit. He was a popular man wherever he was known and had many friends in this community. He preached here several times during the recent protracted meeting and his powers had in no way failed though he was about sixty years of age. Dr. Andrews was a pure, good, humble Christian, and while he preached against and condemned sin he was full of charity for the sinner, and no one went to him who did not receive comfort. He has entered into the joys of his Lord.

"His body was taken to Goldsboro yesterday where the funeral was preached. It was interred six miles from town in the tion of the city inform us that Mr. F. M. James, formerly health officer of the city, has been devoting himself for some time past to nursing and caring for the sick and afflicted who have come under his observation, particularly among the poorer class of people, who are unable to remunerate him for his attention and trouble. It is known that he gives up nearly his entire time to such cases, where the services of a good nurse are so much needed but would be utterly out of the question but for Mr. James' self-sacrificing devotion, which prompts him to hurry to the bedside of the sick and the dying victim. As we have said, he gets no pay for all this, and expects none; but those who are acquainted with his circumstances know that he is not really able to be giving so much of his time and attention to the cause of the afflicted. Hence we have been prompted to give expression to what we have here written, and further to state that, in accordance with an understanding among some of our citizens, a fund for the benefit of Mr. James will be started at the book-store of Mr. C. W. Yates, on Market street, where sums of money for that purpose can be deposited, to be turned over by Mr. Yates at the proper time. In the Clutches of the Law.

We learn that a "strapped" stranger, who wanted a new suit of clothing, conceived the happy notion yesterday of going to a clothing store and representing himself to be a travelling salesman or drummer, under the impression that thereby he would be able to secure some abatement on the price of the goods, which, with a depleted exchequer, was a matter of some consequence to him. He tried the experiment, representing himself as travelling for a canned goods establishment, but with what success we have not learned. We only know from what we have heard that the sheriff's officers were after him in less than a half hour for that one, hundred dollars for a State license, and that he was arrested and carried to the sheriff's office, and would have been locked up in jail but for the fact that a genuine drummer, who happened to hear of the unfortunate young man's predicament, came forward, with two or three friends, and finally succeeded in convincing the authorities that he was not a travelling salesman but an impecunious wanderer.

Mayor's Court.

Before Mayor Hall, yesterday morning, Andrew Johnson, colored, was to have been arraigned on the charge of acting disorderly at and in the vicinity of the depot, Thursday night, for which he was arrested by Officer Webse, but when called he failed to put in his appearance, and the case was postponed.

Alice Hall, colored, an old offender, arged with acting disorderly in the "Hollow," for which she was arrested by Officer Weebse, was ordered to pay a fine of $5 or g bolow for ten'days.
