Fatal Accident.

Intelligence was received here yesterday of a fatal accident that occurred to Mr. J. J. Rowland, of Rowland & Bro., Lynchburg, S. C., on Tuesday afternoon. The Messrs. He was riding on the engine on the tramway, when from some cause it ran off the track and turned over, catching Mr. Rowland be neath it and crushing him to death.

> No Evidence. Issac Johnson, colored, who was arrested and lodged in jail a few days ago, charged with an infamous crime, had a preliminary hearing before Justice Millis and was discharged, there being no evidence to substantiate the serious accusation.

OUR GRADED SCHOOLS.

Joint Meeting of School Committeemen-Riection of Officers and Teachers-Condition and Prospects of the Schools, &c.

At the joint meeting of the school committees of this city, held on yesterday, it was decided to open the schools on the first Monday of next October.

The following teachers were elected for he coming school year: M. C. S. Noble, Superintendent. Hemenway Graded School-M. O. Walace, Principal; M. L. McLeod, Alice Yarorough, Josie W. Myers.

Peabody Graded School-James B. Dudey, Principal; Annie H. Mallette, L. H. Smith, M. J. Mallette, Ida Evans.

Union Graded School-M. E. Cook, Principal; Maggie Jones, A. S. Meares. Williston Graded School-Mary W. Howe, Principal; Emma Hooper, W. H. Norwood, A. L. Davis, L. G. Nixon, Maggie Whiteman.

Several other applications will be acted on at a later day.

The above named teachers have done good work heretofore, and several of them will teach as experts in some of our summer Normals this year, The session just closed has been a most successful one, and judging from the increased number of pupils in attendance, it is evident that the teachers have worked earnestly and faithfully. In fact, the steady growth of our schools shows that the better known they become the more they are appreciated. Both white and colored schools are under the same management, and have for years been conducted upon the same principles.

Much of this success is due to the teachers' meetings which are conducted twice a month for each race separately. The teachers are required to attend these meetings. In this way the teachers review their studies and keep posted as to the best methods of teaching. We doubt if any dation of excursion parties. He contem- | corps of teachers in North Carolina read a greater number of educational papers, attend more teachrs' meetings or study more faithfully than our Wilmington teachers. It is the intention of the committee to require the teachers to make our graded schools the equal of any in the South.

Several prominent gentlemen from abroad have recently visited the schools and have been well pleased, and those of our own citizens who have personally inspected the work during the past session came away delighted. We wish the schools continued success.

Sunday School Conference.

The Sunday School District Conference for the M. E. Church, South, Wilmington District, convened at Magnolia Friday, May 29th. This organization was effected last July, at Goshen Church, Sampson Co. D. B. Nicholson, Esq., was then made President, and W. J. Parker Vice President, G. C. Mercer Secretary, and A. J. Johnson Treasurer. The convention is composed of all the pastors within the bounds of the district, all the Sunday school superintendents and three delegates from each charge, two of which may be

Owing to the excessive rains and swollen streams there were a goodly number prevented from attending, yet quite a large delegation was present and there was a deep interest manifested in the Sunday School work. The delegation was welcomed to Magnolia by Rev. M. M. McFarland, in a very happy speech, and responded to by Rev. P. J. Carraway, P. E., of this district, in an appropriate manner. Friday and Saturday were occupied (three sessions each day) by addresses upon the varied interests of Sunday Schools, much to the satisfaction of those who listened, and it was hoped a greater interest in the Sunday School work was awakened.

The time was pleasantly and profitably spent at Magnolia, we understand, and the good people entertained the Conference with a liberal hospitality and made the delegates to feel that they were not intruders, but welcomed guests. The old officers were elected for the ensuing year and the next Convention will meet at Rocky Point at the call of the President. We should have stated in the proper place that one interesting feature in the above work was essays written and read by two ladies, which were exceedingly well written and voted to be published in the Advocate and the

Mr. James Anderson having resigned the Treasurership of the Carolina Central Railroad Company, has been appointed Cashier of that corporation; and Capt. John H. Sharp, who has for some time been Secretary, now fills the dual position of Secretary and Treasurer.

We announce the promotion of Capt. Sharp with much pleasure. He has been resident of Wilmington nearly four years, and during that time has been one of the most efficient and trusted employees of the Carolina Central. He is an accomplished and thorough business man, and the interests of the corporation that employs him he considers as sacred as his own. As a citizen he is very popular. Coming among us an entire stranger, he has made a most favorable impression by his genial manners, and his troops of friends in Wilmington will join us in con-gratulating him on his deserved promotion.

Frightened Off. An attempt was made Tuesday night to force an entrance into the grocery store of Mr. Geo. M. Crapon, on Front street, by making a hole in one of his windows, but the thief was evidently frightened off and thus failed in the accomplishment of his purpose.

Dr. Yates. After which Dr. Yates spoke in tender tones of the intimate relationship which had existed between him and the deceased for years and of his noble Christian character. He was followed by Mr. T. B. Kingsbury, with a heart so full at the loss of so good a man and friend that he could scarcely give utterance to words. He spoke of him as a man of Christian courage, a man who would not shrink from duty, and related an instance which resulted in the conversion of a prominent man upon the Roanoke circuit. Mr. W. M.
