OUTLINES.

The U. S. steamer Iroquois has been sent to Guayaquil to demand the release of Santos, an American citizen held there under arrest. Gen. Grant was freed from prison yesterday. Dr. Thos. O. Hill, Jr., of Washington, D. C., suffering from Bright's disease, killed himself. R. T. Merrick, the well-known lawyer, is supposed to be dying. The village of Portville, N. Y., nearly destroyed by fire, lost $75,000. Earthquake shocks were felt yesterday in Switzerland. Ten persons killed by an explosion in a coal mine in Staffordshire, Eng. Nine young girls and a lad arrived at New York from Ireland, under a contract to work in a flax mill. The District Attorney will investigate the case, supposed to be a violation of the law prohibiting the importation of contract labor. The Watson Car and Foundry Works, Chatham, N. C., failed, liabilities $10,000. Harvard won the University boat race. -IN Y: markets: Money 1 per cent; cotton steady at 10 7/8-10 9/16; wheat, ungraded red 81 1/2-82 1/4; southern flour steady; corn, ungraded 52 1/4-54; rosin steady at 11 1/2-12; spirits turpentine steady at 37 1/2.

Salisbury will prove the lamest of ducks without the aid of Gladstone as a crutch. Gen. G. W. C. Lee has resigned the Presidency of Washington and Lee College on account of ill health. The New York Times regards the appointment of Mr. Alden, its greatest attraction, as an affliction. So do its readers regard it. Rev. Dr. John E. Edwards, a native of North Carolina, delivered the Baccalaureate sermon at Wofford College, S. C., on the 17th inst. Prince Frederick Charles was called the "Red Prince" because of his manner of conducting war. The Augusta Chronicle says he "was a great soldier and a bad man. He was coarse, brutal, sensual and debauched."

Edward Cleveland, a cousin of the President and one-legged, was among the six applicants for the postmastership at Quincy, Ill. James Richardson got it, although Edward Cleveland was endorsed by the Representative from that District. Greensboro Female College has had a prosperous year. Its faculty numbers fifteen teachers. It has graduated 191 girls. Its matriculates for the year just closed numbered 198. The Fall session begins on the fourth Wednesday in August. The paroxysmal arm-clutch is a disease that is wide-spread. The Augusta Chronicle wants Sam Jones to come that way and says: "Rev. Sam Jones is said to have annihilated the arm clutch in Nashville. He should give Augusta a stirring up. The arm-clutch appears to be common in this region, and it is not a nice thing. Stop it!"

The Philadelphia Record sent out a quadruple sheet on the 25th of March, entitled "Old and New Philadelphia." The Record is an excellent paper—newsy, reliable, independent, able. It is one of the fairest and most trustworthy of American newspapers. Fayetteville, Raleigh and Goldsboro will celebrate the 4th of July grandly. Wilmington ought to either celebrate the 20th of May, 31st of May, or the 4th of July. At Goldsboro the oration will be delivered by the most impassioned and rhetorical of North Carolina speakers—John S. Long, of New Berne. If he speaks as well at Goldsboro as he did here he will make the best oration of the kind that has been delivered in North Carolina in our day.

State Gleanings. If we may trust the papers Senator Hanson made a very good sort of ex-salvo speech at Trinity College. He said he was unprepared. In 1872, at the same college, we heard him say the same thing and he made a very sensible and interesting two hours' talk. Twice at Trinity and no preparation is too bad. He ought to do his best the next time. Raleigh Recorder: Mr. Fabius H. Busbee, in a speech at Wake Forest College lately, expressed himself as opposed to the idea of free tuition by which other colleges are weakened. Mr. Busbee is one of the brightest men in the State. We are glad to say, also, that not only Mr. Busbee but other prominent University men hold the same position. Durham Recorder: Mr. Joseph A. Holloway sold a one-horse load of tobacco at Farish's warehouse, Saturday, having ever heard of being obtained for a one-horse load of tobacco. H. H. Wood sold at the same place 4,000 pounds for $770.95.—J. S. Lockhart averaged $38.87 for his entire break Monday morning. J. W. Sheron, from Granville, had one load at this sale that averaged $49.87 for 1,200 pounds.

Asheville Citizen: A large number of distinguished educators are now at Black Mountain Chatauque, including State Superintendent Fieger. Over four hundred teachers are now there. Gen. Jones has perfected all railroad arrangements for the movement of the troops to and from the encampment to be held here in July. The ground selected for the encampment is north of the Asheville Association, and the tents are being pitched on the site. The grand review by the Governor and his staff will take place on Wednesday, the 29th of July, and the encampment will break up on the 31st.

Goldsboro Messenger: The address of Rev. Geo. W. Sanderlin at Wake Forest is highly complimented by those whose pleasure it was to hear him. The obstreperous prisoner in jail here, of whom mention was made in a former issue, had a rib broken in his attack upon the officers some days ago. If Pate is insane, as some allege, he ought to be sent to the asylum. On the 20th inst., the commencement exercises of the Chowan Baptist Female Institute will be held. Dr. Thos. Whitfield, of Goldsboro, will preach the annual sermon. The honors of telephoning the recent showers in advance have been about equally divided between the tree-frog and the rain-crow. A large property is in reserve for the man who will get up a revolving fan that will keep the family cool, and at the same time engineer an air current that will suck the flies out of the window. The lily seems to be a favorite with our flower fanciers, for in many of the gardens about town its white chalice, brimming with a heart of gold, nods sweetly to the passer-by.

Fayetteville Observer: Will, a cart-boy, employed on the Wilson short-cut, had his leg broken Saturday evening. The Independent Company, who always do things well and gracefully, marched from their Army on Wednesday night to the residence of Mr. E. J. Hale, to pay their respects, and wish him a safe and speedy voyage to his new home. We regret to learn that Mr. J. L. Allen, while riding over the river on Sunday evening last, met with quite a painful accident. The fifth wheel breaking, he was pitched headlong to the ground, and was considerably bruised and badly cut on his face. Fourth of July this year will be celebrated in our city in a way which will cause the 4th of 1855 to be a never forgotten occasion, both by our citizens and the great crowds that are coming here on the excursion trains that are to be run along both lines of the railroads. Already over $500 has been subscribed by our liberal merchants and other citizens, to purchase fireworks for the occasion.

N. C. Presbyterian: Eleven persons were received into the communion of Euphonia church, Rev. W. S. Lacy, pastor, at a communion on the first Sunday in June, all of them by examination. Tarboro: Our little band here has been greatly blessed of late. Bro. Rose preached five sermons rich in gospel truth, which the Lord honored as His own. Five have united with us, and one or two more will doubtless come out on the Lord's side. This to our little handful means much. On the 13th, Rev. J. S. Watkins, D. D., Rev. Alexander Sprunt, and Elder Samuel Watkins of Henderson, a committee appointed by Orange Presbytery for this purpose, met at Warrenton, N. C., and organized a church. There has been a very neat brick church building in Warrenton for some time, but we have been without an organization. Eighteen names were enrolled. Five of these from the Henderson church, one from Fayetteville, one from the First Church, Richmond, and the majority of the remainder from the Presbyterian Church in Canada. This church, a very neat one, was built by a pious Presbyterian lady of wealth, now dead, some twenty-five years since. -STAR.

Up to yesterday afternoon 3,700 persons had listed their taxes, leaving quite a number who have still neglected to perform that duty, and with only two days in which to act. The interments in the various city cemeteries during the week were as follows: Oakdale, 1 adult and 1 child; Bellevue, 2 children; Pine Forest (col.) 2 adults and 1 child. Total 7. The usual services heretofore held on Wednesday afternoon at the Baptist Chapel, corner of Fifth and Wooster streets, will hereafter be held on Tuesday afternoon, at the same hour. A dozen of our merchants were up before Magistrate Mills yesterday morning for not having a drummer's license. They waived an examination and their cases go on to the Criminal Court.

The Mr. Cicero Burruss, of Norfolk, Va., whose death was mentioned in our telegrams of yesterday morning, was a brother of Mr. E. E. Burruss, President of the First National Bank of this city. An applicant for dog badges, at the City Hall yesterday morning, wanted them at reduced rates because he required several badges. He was strongly of the opinion that there ought to be a wholesale and a retail price. The proposed bicycle race between Mr. Maxwell, of Charlotte, and a member of the Wilmington Bicycle Club, will probably not take place, as the privilege of the turnpike road for that purpose has been refused. Moonlight excursion to Pine Grove, Wrightsville Sound, will take place on Tuesday and Friday evenings next, for which place Capt. Southerland's wagons will be run. There is a chance for a delightful trip at a very small cost. Mr. Geo. E. Pittman, at one time a resident of this city, afterwards publisher of the New Berne Nut Shell, but more recently of Greenville, N. C., has lately removed with his family to Raleigh. He is a brother of Mr. J. C. Pittman, of this place. Messrs. Brown & Roddick, our enterprising townsmen, will open a branch house at Fayetteville in the course of a week or so in the store formerly occupied by Col. Pemberton, 20 by 85 feet, being large and commodious. The new business will not be in full blast before September. Mr. E. Dangerfield announces that he is prepared to receive commissions in oil portraits in the highest style of the art. Orders can be left at Mr. P. Heinsberger's store, where specimen paintings can be seen, or at the residence of Mr. W. R. French, on Market street. Messrs. Iredell Johnson, A. A. Moseley, B. S. Montford and J. H. Horne, tax listers of Cape Fear, Harnett, Masonboro and Federal Point Townships, were at the County Commissioners' rooms yesterday for the purpose of receiving the list of taxables of persons living here and owning property in any of the above townships.

WILLIAMS, RANKIN & CO.—Bacon, flour, etc. WM. H. GREEN—Drugs, medicines, etc.

PERSONAL.

Mayor Hall left on a short trip up the Carolina Central Friday night, and Alderman Samuel Bear officiated during his absence. Mr. T. J. Montford, who has been laid up with the rheumatism for the last three months, is out again, but very feeble. Mr. James McRee Lane, formerly of this city, and a nephew of Dr. W. W. Lane, has recently arrived in Boston from South America, where he shipped as mate of the barque Hiram Emory, bound for New South Wales and Hong Kong, China. Mr. Lane left here about seven years ago. He had a strong inclination for the sea, and from a position before the mast has already worked himself up to that of mate of an eight-hundred ton barque. Capt. Justin M. Bunting, who has been in New York for the last two weeks, returned home Thursday night. The walls of Col. Korchner's new store, on North Water street, are going up.

BASE BALL.

Third Sunday after Trinity. Day's length 14 hours and 19 minutes. Two bales of cotton received yesterday. Very few vessels are arriving at this port just now. Rev. E. S. Alderman will preach at the First Baptist Church to-night. We notice that the letter boxes about the city have all been newly painted. A new dwelling is going up on the northeast corner of Eighth and Dock streets. All persons owning a dog are required to list the same for taxation and procure a badge. Disinfectants are being used quite liberally lately. They are had free of cost at the City Hall. Rev. Mr. Ferguson, of Smithville, will preach at the Fifth Street church to-day, morning and evening. The Register of Deeds issued marriage licenses during the past week to one white and two colored couples. The W. S. F. E. Pleasure Club are talking of another one of their delightful moonlight excursions for next week. Preaching in the First Presbyterian Church to-day by Rev. J. M. Rose, of Goldsboro, at 11 a. m. and 5.30 p. m. Easterly winds have prevailed for the past two or three days, and have produced a certain degree of coolness in the atmosphere. Don't forget the moonlight excursion to Federal Point Tuesday night, under the auspices of Captain Harper and Mr. Geo. N. Harris. Thus far since the canine war broke out, which was on the 10th inst., fifty-one dogs have been slaughtered, which is doing pretty well. Holy Communion will be administered in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, this morning at 11 o'clock in English. German services at 8 p. m. The Standard Dramatic Company which has had such a successful run here for the past two weeks, left on the steamer D. Murchison last night for Fayetteville.

BASE BALL. "Benevolent Nine vs. "Sea Gulls." The "Benevolent Nine" and "Sea Gulls" will play again on Tuesday afternoon at the Seaside Grounds, and we can assure the public that lots of fun is in store for them. The gate money will be given to the Ladies' Benevolent Society, and the worthy purpose for which the game is played should commend itself to all. The admission is only ten cents, and we hope a large crowd will witness the game, which is to be called promptly at half-past 4 o'clock by the umpire, Mr. Kookokey. Below is the list of those who are to play: BENEVOLENT NINE. Greene..... C. Lally..... 1 B. Wright..... 2 B. Mallett..... 3 B. Elwood..... 4 B. Willard..... 5 S. S. Bolles..... 6 L. F. RIVER AND MARINE.

The steaming Blanche has taken advantage of the dull season and gone to Charleston to thoroughly overhaul her boiler and engine. The Norwegian barque Naja, Salvor, arrived at Riga, Russia, from this port on the 14th. Steamboatmen report about four feet of water on the shoals near Fayetteville, and when the steamer D. Murchison left it was gradually falling.

Many lots were broken and some entirely closed out. Our stock being very large, however, it will take a good many weeks like last to unload us and break up the assortment. There are still many attractive styles left, and we are anxious to have buyers for them. Last week's MERCHANT TAILORING trade was good, because every one interested saw and appreciated the reductions we have made. We will continue this great closing out sale through this week, and to those who are disposed to doubt our sincerity we ask that they will give us a call. A. DAVID, Merchant Tailor and Clothier. YOUR HONOR. I AM SORRY, INDEED, FOR KEEPING YOU and the jurors waiting in this case. After eating my dinner it so happened that I passed the Great Clothing Establishment of Philadelphia. The store was so attractive, the prices so terrifically low, and feeling so much exhausted by my efforts this morning, I bought a few articles, including a new and procure one of those masterly, yet masterly English Cassimere Suits for $10.00. A splendid Undershirt for 50c. A good quality Jeans Drawers for 50c. A fine White Shirt for $1.00. A fine Scarf for 25c. and now I feel like a new man, and if your Honor will excuse me this time, etc. Judge—You are excused, but I do not see the Salt on you. Lawyer—Well, you see, your Honor, if a Suit does not exactly fit, they make all the necessary alterations WITHOUT ANY EXTRA CHARGE; and on Sunday, when the bright sunlight beams, we and mine will be seen promenading along Market Street with one of Philadelphia's Cassimere suits. Nicest and Kooldest Garments a man can wear, and only to be had at Philadelphia's.

Judge—That will do; call up the jurors. Oh, yes! Oh, yes! Oh, yes! HEADQUARTERS FOR KOOL KLOTHING. MEN'S WEAR DEPOT. North Front Street, Je 21 tf
