

THE MORNING STAR.

WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, JUNE 23, 1885. VOL. XXXVI.—NO. 79. WHOLE NO. 5854

"Educated Dentistry" is the subject of an address delivered by Dr. J. H. Durham, of this town, as President of the N. C. State Dental Association. We read all but a page or so, and with real pleasure. It is written in a graceful, ornate style and is instructive and pleasing. It reviews the progress of Dentistry from its beginning and sets up some strong claims for it that will be new to the unprofessional reader. He claims among other things, that it is to the dental profession that anesthesia owes its existence. The address is unusually well written and is highly creditable to the Doctor and his profession.

We see it announced that Messrs. Julian S. Carr, J. W. Alspaugh and Walter Gray have agreed to pay the deficiencies of salaries of the Professors at Trinity College for three years. If the preachers and other laymen do not manifest more interest in Trinity than they have manifested heretofore, the College will collapse after the three years have ended. It is generous in the three named to assume so much responsibility, but it is not creditable to the 100,000 Methodists in the State that the College is not thoroughly manned and supported.

The New York Times has a theological editor who thinks he knows it all. His last is to declare "the doctrine of eternal punishment a monstrous and hideous lie." That fellow will wake up some sultry morning and find out his egregious mistake. Sam Jones tells of a hard looking old oak who replied to Bob Ingersoll when he said there was no hell; "Be mighty sure with your proofs, Bob, for there are a great many of us who are depending on ye."

Spirits Turpentine.

—New Berne Journal: The Shannandoah went out loaded with Irish potatoes yesterday evening.

—It is not unusual for us to receive two copies of the Goldsboro Argus by one mail. Thursday's copy reached us Sunday. It is always one day late.

—Mr. Isaac R. Oeland, of South Carolina, was graduated at Davidson and that night married his sweetheart, Miss Annie Withers, of Davidson College.

—Asheville Advance: It is estimated that not less than 5,000 bushels of peaches will be shipped from Tryon City this year. The first shipment was made last week.

—Weldon News: Bob Johnson, colored, a brakeman on a freight train of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, fell off his car last week while the train was in motion and had his foot severely mashed.

—Louisburg Times: A telegram was received here this week from New Boston, Texas, announcing the death of Mr. Kenneth Yarboro. Later intelligence says that he was shot by a justice of the Peace by the name of Wood, on Saturday night and instantly killed. No other particulars.

—Clinton Caucasian: Hackberries are not so plentiful as it was thought they would be. Crops are quite small for the season. Wheat reaping has commenced. We hear of some very fine crops of this grain. Oats are a failure. The unusual small prices for beans in the northern markets is a damper on the first effort of farmers in this section.

—Asheville Citizen: Commercial tourists have arranged for a convention at Black Mountain this evening. One of the most deadly ailments which has ravaged this section for many years is one now going around, which attacks the bowels and brains of children. They are taken with diarrhoea and as soon as the bowels are checked the disease attacks the brain, causing the death in a few hours. There have been several deaths from this affection in this town and vicinity, and we hear of it in different parts of this and neighboring counties.

—Goldsboro Argus: Goldsboro has been largely drawn up by Raleigh of late for ice. Mr. R. C. Freeman has shipped 30,000 pounds of the solid article to the capital. The jail prisoners should be kept sober. We hear of considerable whiskey drinking going on in that region.

—The New York Supreme Court has decided that the law prohibiting the sale of oleomargarine is unconstitutional. Other States have a similar law. The Boston Post says:

"In Massachusetts the law does not absolutely prohibit the manufacture or sale of oleomargarine and kindred articles, but simply makes it unlawful to offer them for sale unless properly labeled. That it seems to us, is far as the law ought to go, especially where it has been said by competent authorities that the imitations are not injurious to health."

Bishop McTeire has been heard from. His reply is as short as Dr. Shipp's was long. He says the Doctor was shipped because of inefficiency and incompetency. There now we told you so. The able and honored Bishop says:

"A higher and broader culture in the theological department has been determined on, to which he was inadequate. The interests of the University and the welfare of the rising ministry of the church must be considered before any personal accommodations, and therefore, in the reorganized theological faculty, the name of Dr. Shipp does not appear."

some point between these two towns, would give almost an air line to Wilmington. The interest that is behind this line, I feel sure, will insure its construction, and if you people want this road it seems to me that it would be well for them to throw their strength in this direction."

There will be twenty-three companies of infantry under canvas. The State Ordnance Officer has purchased tents for the State, which will be used at this encampment and those to be held each year hereafter. There are 16 wall tents and 160 wedge or A tents, all of standard duck, made specially to order. The transportation arrangements are very satisfactory indeed. The State appropriates $3,000 year for the payment of transportation and other expenses incident to the encampment. The troops will number about 1,000, perhaps 1,300.

A single load of tobacco was sold upon the Oxford market, by Mr. Fielding Knott, one of Granville's largest farmers, for more than $1,600. —DURHAM, N. C., June 20.—The sales of loose leaf tobacco on the warehouse floors last week and this aggregated 1,100,000 pounds. The money paid to farmers for this week's crop, this week $25,000; a total of $148,000 distributed among the farmers of the bright tobacco belt during the last fourteen days.

—Raleigh News and Observer: At 9:10 o'clock last evening Mr. William Henry Jones died at his residence, corner of Fayetteville and East Caharrus streets. He was one of Raleigh's oldest and most valued citizens. He was born near Louisville, Franklin county, in November, 1817. He married a Miss Mary C. Nixon, of Wilmington, December 21, 1847. She died October 28, 1878. (Raleigh had no clerical gentlemen. He was the cashier of the old Bank of Cape Fear at Raleigh. —Star.

When the legislature passed the bill appropriating $30,000 for the payment of pensions to disabled Confederate soldiers and widows of soldiers, it was estimated that there were 1,000 of all in the State. This was regarded as an outside estimate, 900 being deemed nearer the exact figure. But it was a poor estimate. Auditor Roberts yesterday remarked to a reporter that there had been sent out 2,000 blank forms of application. The number of applicants is apt to be four thousand.

—Dr. R. B. Haywood was reported yesterday as slowly improving. His appetite is good and his condition in general is regarded as much more satisfactory.

—Master John H. Bryan, Jr., son of Mr. John H. Bryan, and grandson of the late Hon. John H. Bryan, is here and will make his home with Mr. A. P. C. Bryan. Master Bryan was born in Brazil, and has lived there until very recently. His age is fifteen years and he is a paragon of bright lad, speaking Spanish, Portuguese, French and English fluently. —Cadet W. T. Gray, of the United States navy, after an absence of two years at foreign stations, and recently graduated at the naval academy in Annapolis, Md. —Mr. Stewart Rainey, under the influence of delirium tremens, jumped from a window of a house in Greensboro, and died Friday of his injuries. —Mr. Henry A. London is very proud of his success in making the arrangements to secure the works on the railway from Pittsboro to Moncure, and says that within a year Pittsboro folk will gaze on the locomotive.

—There is an unusually large number of worms for the season. Peaches, Mr. Wilson says, are falling off from the trees quite rapidly. The curculio, which is such a pest this year, is puncturing the trees and causing the damage. The grape crop looks well, and bids fair to be a full one.

—Wake Forest is the first place in the State to have street cars. A reporter saw the car at the commencement. Then the line was a problem; now it is a fact. It is said that the shops of the Western North Carolina Railroad are to be removed from Salisbury to Asheville. It is said that no less than nineteen marriages resulted from the Chautauque of 1884. The one this year will beat that record, judging from reports. —Col. Edward T. Boykin, of Clinton, is here, to make an attempt to secure the works on the Clinton & Yadkin Railroad. It is expected that the north wing of the immense Western insane asylum at Morganton will be complete and ready for patients inside of a year. The south wing and central building are complete and occupied. The institution, when finished, will accommodate 450 patients and will have cost nearly $500,000. The asylum now has 517 inmates under treatment.

A New Boat.

The Bayonne (New Jersey) Times has the following reference to a new yacht for Commodore Jones, of the Carolina Yacht Club, to arrive on the steamship Regulator: "It is rumored that a new boat built by Mr. P. McGrehan beat the Lily B. at a trial trip yesterday afternoon. The new boat, which is for Commodore Jones, of Wilmington, N. C., is smaller than the Lily B. and won on her time allowance easily."

Alleged False Pretence.

Roderick McLaman, a seaman, was arrested yesterday, on the complaint of John Koch, the keeper of a boarding house on Nutt street, charged with obtaining money and goods under false pretence. There was no evidence to substantiate the charge and the case, which was heard by Justice Millia, was dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor.

A similar charge against C. W. Cunningham was dismissed in the same manner.

Awards of Merit.

At the closing exercises of Miss Lavender's School, last Friday, Lila W. Morrison received the handsome gold Norbury prize awarded for the greatest improvement in penmanship.

Daisy Cronly attained the highest general average in deportment, punctuality, attendance and scholarship.

A Good Picture.

We noticed on exhibition at Mr. Heinsberger's book store, yesterday, a very accurate and beautiful picture of Hon. R. B. French, executed by Mr. Daingerfield, the New York artist in oil portraits, who has just established himself in this city.

Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad.

At the suggestion and for the benefit of those interested we republish the bill passed by the General Assembly, at its late session, in relation to a subscription by the city of Wilmington to the capital stock of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE CITY OF WILMINGTON TO SUBSCRIBE TO THE CAPITAL STOCK AND PURCHASE BONDS OF THE CAPE FEAR & YADKIN VALLEY RAILWAY COMPANY.

SECTION 1. That for the purpose of aiding in the extension of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway from the town of Fayetteville to the town of Greensboro, the Board of Aldermen, and with the consent of the Board of Audit and Finance, are hereby authorized and empowered to subscribe to the capital stock or to purchase the first mortgage bonds of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway Company, in an amount not to exceed the sum of $250,000, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the President and Directors of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway Company and a commission of five of the citizens of the City of Wilmington, to be selected and appointed by said Board of Aldermen and Board of Audit and Finance of said city.

SECTION 2. Before said subscription to stock or purchase of bonds is made, the Board of Aldermen of the city of Wilmington shall submit the question of subscription or purchase, or of no subscription or no purchase; stating the terms and conditions on which the same is to be made and the amount to be voted on, to the legally qualified voters of said city at an election to be held upon a day appointed by them upon thirty days' notice, in the manner provided by law for holding other elections in said city, at which election the legal qualified voters of said city shall be allowed to vote for or against said subscription or purchase, as the case may be, those favoring on ballots written or printed "subscription" or "purchase," and those opposing on ballots written or printed "no subscription" or "no purchase." Such election shall be held at the usual voting places in said city, and by persons appointed in the same manner that persons are appointed for holding other elections in said city of Wilmington, and the result thereof announced and declared as prescribed by law for other elections.

SECTION 3. That if the result of said election shall show that a majority of the qualified voters of said city favor subscription or purchase, as the case may be, then the Board of Aldermen, with the approval of the Board of Audit and Finance, are hereby authorized to make the same to the amount voted for at said election, and to meet and pay the same to issue bonds of the city of Wilmington for said amount in such denominations, at such rate of interest and payable at such time and place as said Board may determine.

SECTION 4. That said subscription and the payment of the same to the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway Company or to the Board of Audit and Finance, shall be made upon such terms and conditions and at such times as may be agreed upon by the Commissioners appointed, as aforesaid, and the President and Directors of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway Company.

SECTION 5. That to provide for the interest on said bonds and their payment at maturity, the Board of Aldermen of said city, with the approval of the Board of Audit and Finance, as now required by law, shall, in addition to other taxes, each year, assess other subjects of taxation, in said city, a sufficient tax to pay said interest and create such sinking fund as shall be deemed necessary.

SECTION 6. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

THE CONCERT AND SOIREE TO-NIGHT.

Don't forget the soiree and concert, complimentary to the Cornet Concert Club, which comes off at the Opera House to-night. The best talent in the city, both vocal and instrumental, will assist. The entertainment will be under the direction of Prof. VanLaer, and will be first-class.

GRAPE CULTURE.

A Visit to Capt. R. W. Nobles' Vineyard —What Energy and Plick is Accomplishing.

A day or two since we paid a visit to Capt. R. W. Nobles' vineyard, a short distance from this city on the old New Berne road. We found his vines loaded with tempting bunches of luscious grapes, the most of them on the eve of turning. The vines are much fuller than last year, and his crop will consequently be much larger. It is worth a walk of ten miles to see this vineyard. Everything is done by and under the immediate supervision of Capt. Nobles, and it is done regularly and systematically. The long rows of vigorous and healthy vines, straggling upward with their heavy weight of delicious fruit, are as straight and regular as the lines of a regiment of soldiers drilling for a critical inspection. He has about forty-three thousand vines in all, fifteen thousand of which are now bearing fruit, besides which he has a large number of cuttings. In a year or two he expects to have nearly fifty thousand vines bearing fruit. In April last he received seven different varieties of vines from California, the consignment embracing twenty-five of each variety, which made a total of one hundred and seventy-five vines. This number he increased by the process of grafting to two hundred and fifty vines, which are now growing vigorously and actually bearing grapes. He also recently received through Mr. C. F. Bissinger, six different varieties from Germany. We do not remember the number of each, but he has increased it by grafting to two hundred vines, which are doing finely.

Capt. Nobles is rapidly increasing the capacity of his vineyard. He has plenty of land, and is of the opinion, after thorough experiment, that none better adapted to grape culture can be found anywhere. He is an intelligent, energetic, progressive farmer. He is also ambitious. There is said to be a man in California who has ten thousand acres of land in grape vines, which he is claiming to be the largest vineyard in the world. When Capt. N. has ten thousand and one hundred acres in vines his ambition will have been gratified.

Under the brow of a hill on Capt. Nobles' grounds, about three quarters of a mile from the road, is one of the most delicious springs of water which it has ever been our fortune to sample. It is well shaded, and on the hill overlooking it is a bench where a good rest and "cool off" can be had after a long tramp through the vineyard and orchards. There is a tiny stream of clear water which escapes from the spring and meanders through the low shrubbery and finally loses itself in the denser growth not far distant. Along one side of this little streamlet Capt. Nobles placed the moss which came from Germany around the vines, and also the small willow throngs and a delicate vine which they were tied; and moss and willow and vine have already become domesticated in their adopted home and are looking as green and vigorous, no doubt, as before they left their native beds in the fatherland. The German moss and the native moss cling to the bank side by side, and there is but little difference in the appearance of the two specimens.

MAYOR'S COURT.

Cases for Investigation Yesterday.

The only important case before Mayor Hall yesterday morning was that of Gilbert Hendricks alias Gilbert Hadley, arrested on Saturday night on the charge of the larceny of a pair of shoes from the store of Messrs. George R. French & Son.

The evidence was to the effect that the accused looked at a pair of shoes which did not exactly suit him, when he was shown another pair, which he purchased and paid for and placed them in a basket he held with him. Directly after he left the store the clerk who waited on Hadley missed the latter had refused. He looked into the box where they belonged and they were not there. Then the clerk knew they had been stolen. He followed Hadley to the store of Mr. B. Solomon, which the latter entered, and the clerk there waited patiently until the man had made his purchases and was about to leave, when he charged him with the theft of the shoes. Hadley denied the charge; upon which the clerk lifted the lid of the basket and there lay the missing pair of shoes, which were readily identified by some peculiarity about the sole. The clerk arrested him, but he resisted. He got him as far as the door, however, when Officer W. T. Williams, of the police force, appeared and Hadley was delivered into his custody and taken to the guard house. Hadley was given the privilege of testifying, and acknowledged that the missing shoes were in his basket, but said he was drinking pretty freely Saturday night and could not imagine how they got there. "If I put them in the basket," said he, "I didn't know when I did it." If he can satisfy a jury to that effect he will be all right. To give a chance in that direction the Mayor ordered him to give bond in the sum of $75 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, falling in which he was turned over to the Sheriff and sent to jail.

Henry Richardson, colored, arrested on suspicion, said he was from Florence, S. C. It appeared from the testimony that two or three boxes had been broken open in the box cars at the W. & W. R. R. depot, Friday night, and several articles were missing. Richardson was seen hanging about the premises Saturday morning and was arrested by Officer Howland and taken

FOR THE STAR.

Editor Star:—In reply to "A Country Democratic Plebhan," we, the working Democrats of Wilmington, have held a consolation meeting. In this we have found on examination that the demand for office is so much greater than we had supposed that we find it impossible to do justice to all. Therefore, we have concluded to open a relief office in this city with the following plan: 1. A full list of office applicants; 2. A correct record of party work done by each; 3. All applicants found worthy to be divided into four reliefs, which shall go on duty in regular order. First relief to draw no pay for six months, and only half pay for the other six months; second relief to draw no pay for four months, and only two-thirds pay for the next eight months; third relief to take the place of the second relief at the end of two years, and draw only half pay for a year; when the fourth relief comes in, with full pay and amounts due to the first, second and third reliefs. All applicants have concluded this to be the most equitable way to settle this most mixed question of filling office.
