MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

Johnson, a leading citizen of Indianapolis, Ind., who killed Maj. Henry because the latter had seduced his wife, was tried and acquitted at Greenville, Tenn.

Among the Federal appointments to office by Republican Presidents were the following "rebels" from North Carolina: Victor C. Barringer, Thomas Settle and Isaac J. Young.

They are preparing at Toronto to try Louis Riel.

Some Yale students slashed the Gook instructor's door with an axe.

Mrs. Dudley will soon be brought to trial. This will be good news to her.

The Baltimore American has raised $234.25 for the Bartholdi fund.

There have been more than 500 deaths in Spain from cholera during the week.

There were 601 applicants for post-office inspectors and 22 appointments were made.

Is Dr. Burchard, the kicking man of the mint, of any kinship to Parson Burchard with the three R's?

A Wilmington young lady who saw Miss Cleveland lately says she is tall and of an unmentionable age.

The commencement season still bores and the orators are very hoarse in their enjoyment of a six hour immortality.

Poor John McCullough's mind is becoming more and more deranged and still no one seems willing to take him in charge. He gives signs of violence.

There is an art store in New York with $1,000,000 worth of paintings and engravings. A fire broke out the other night and the firemen subdued it without damaging a picture.

From Gordon's diary it begins to look as if he was at least partially insane. He says of himself that he is "an incorrigible," and that if he were elected he would "not employ himself."

Brooklyn has but one church building to every 2,624 inhabitants, and yet is called the "City of Churches." Wilmington has probably twenty-five or thirty church buildings to 20,000 inhabitants.

Tariff reduction talk is now heard in Washington. An effort is being made to get Democrats to talk with each other who hold diverse opinions.

Col. Morrison denies that he is to bring in another Tariff bill. He says he will, with others, introduce a bill to reduce taxation. That is right.

The Greensboro Workman says that "six years ago there was so large a crop of potatoes made in the Norfolk section that the article went begging at 30 cents a barrel." Trucking is being overdone now just like cotton and other things. Make too much of anything and prices will drop.

The advertisements of a famous Philadelphia clothing house are studies. The latest is entitled "Having his hands full." It represents the new Tory Premier as an athlete in a show throwing up balls. He has four going. One is labelled "Ireland," one "The Soudan," one "Afghanistan" and still another "The Liberals."

The new Ministry is about engaging in the Lord manufacturing business. They can make a Lord over in England as easy as a North Carolina paper can make an "Hon." or a college can a learned D. D. A London special says:

"Sir Reginald Welby, Assistant Financial Secretary, will succeed Sir R. W. Linger as permanent Secretary to the Treasury, the latter having been raised to the peerage. Sir Nathaniel Rothschild, Sir Evelyn Baring and John Morley will be raised to the peerage."

Among the Federal appointments to office by Republican Presidents were the following "rebels" from North Carolina: Victor C. Barringer, Thomas Settle and Isaac J. Young. They all "fit and bled" in the Confederate army. Mr. Cleveland only follows Republican precedent.

Spirits Turpentine. -Louisburg Times: It is generally conceded that the wheat crop in this county will be shorter than for several years past. The tobacco and corn crops are very good, and the cotton crop promises to be very fair.

Goldsboro Argus: The health of this community is not good at present. There are a number of our citizens quite sick, many others are more or less feverish, and yet more are complaining of various ailments, indigestion, etc.

Raleigh Farmer & Mechanic: It is understood that some very lively speeches were made at the Trustee meeting at Wake Forest, and the subject of legislative support in "building up a rival to the denominational colleges."

Wadesboro Times: Died, at the Central Hotel in this place on Tuesday last, Mr. Johnson C. D. Buchanan, of Jonesboro, Tenn., in the 27th year of his age.

Raleigh Visitor: Gov. Seales yesterday pardoned Rufus Mullis, white, who was convicted of manslaughter in Mecklenburg county and sentenced to eighteen months in the penitentiary. The petition for the pardon was signed by the officers of the court and a number of other citizens.

Weldon News: We learn that the Publishing Company which has heretofore owned the Scotland Neck Democrat has sold that paper to the Hon. W. H. Kitchin, who will in future publish it.

Wilson Advance: Crops are reported as being in good condition; better than for many years past. The fruit prospect is fine. The number of persons in Wilson afflicted with rheumatism is remarkably large.

Fayetteville Sun: Mr. Miles O. Edges, of Blacksville, while working in his field a few days ago found a large alligator, seven and a half feet long. It is supposed that he came from a mill pond near his farm. He succeeded in killing the animal.

Raleigh News-Observer: It is said that the Goldsboro club has reorganized with eight professional players, all good ones. They have just received new uniforms, which are said to be very elegant and made according to the correct fashion.

Pittsboro Home: We learn that the wheat crop in Chatham is much better than it was feared it would be. Franklin Davis, a venerable merchant of Chapel Hill, is dead. He was a just and honorable man.

Clinton Caucasian: One hundred and fifty crates of Beckberries were shipped from Wetlaw on Saturday last.

Clinton Caucasian: In Mr. J. R. Cooper's yard, in this place, there is an oak tree which is 21 feet 7 inches in circumference, 127 feet 10 inches high and has 55 feet spread of limbs.

Fayetteville Observer: Mr. Robert Strange, who has for the past seven years been connected with the C. F. & Y. V. Railway Co., has accepted the position of Assistant Engineer on the Wilson Short Cut.

Charlotte Observer: Out at the Arlington Guarantee gold mine yesterday morning Mack Johnson, a colored man, went down the shaft in a big hurry.

was laid out on the ground, but soon revived under the effects of restoratives. Not a bone in his body was broken, but he was badly bruised. He will be able to hoe cotton next week.

New Berne Journal: The Court was ably addressed by J. W. Hinsdale, Esq., counsel for Washington Bryan, Messrs. M. DeW. Stevenson and C. C. Clark for the plaintiffs, and Messrs. C. Manly and F. M. Simmons for the defendant corporation, A. & N. C. R. Co.

Goldboro Messenger: Mr. William L. Pearson, native of this county and a brother of the late J. T. Pearson, is expected here in a few days.

She swept at eve her light guitar, She swept the sweet string o'er, But 'twas her patient, dear mama Who swept the kitchen floor.
