He (Warner) described Kellar as a man who had been active in support of Taylor, who ran against Warner for Congress. He also said that Kellar had taken every op-portunity to insult Democrats of the district. Chenowith said he did not want such a man in his office and told him so. He also informed Kellar that if he had to appoint him on the certificate of the Civil Service Commission he would discharge him next day, but that if Kellar preferred it he would return his papers to the Com-mission and let them take the usual course. Kellar agreed to the latter alternative and the papers were returned. There are at present eleven Presidential estoffices where the commission of the postmasters have expired and where no appointments have yet been made. These offi-ces are Milford, N. H.; Waterford, N. Y.; Manitowoc, Wis.; Gilroy, Cala.; Augusta, Me.; Bellefonte, Pa.; Milsbell, Ind.; Evarts, Mich.; South Haven, Mich.; Preston, Minn.; and Corinth, Miss. The vacancies in fourth class postoffices number not less than 25,000, and some estimates make the number much greater. Nearly all the vacancies have been caused by resignations or removals because of misconduct on the part of postmasters. In many cases postmasters have written to the Department asking why no attention had been paid to their requests to be relieved from the duties of the office, made in March last. The explanation is to be found in the great number of cases that are not con-stantly pressed upon the attention of the First Assistant Postmaster General, where an immediate change is desirable in order to secure good service.

Trouble in the Episcopal Diocese Caused by Colored Clergymen-Payments of Interest and Dividends by Charleston Banks.

(By Telegraph to the Morning Star.) CHARLESTON, July 1.—At the late session of the Episcopal Diocesan Convention there was a lively contest over the presence of two colored clergymen who, under the ruling of Bishop Howe, retained seats as ex-officio delegates. The opponents to the admission of colored clergymen protested and some now take the ground that the Convention was the ground that the Convention was illegally organized and its entire action in-valid. Consequently, at a meeting to day of the new standing committee of the Diocese, elected by the Convention, resolu-tions were adopted declaring there were doubts of the legality of the committee, but that eight of the ten members of the committee being old members were en-titled to seats as holding over, if not entitled under the election by the Con-vention, and that the committee could, therefore, organize and fill the two vacancies. Rev. Dr. Porter, a member of the committee, filed a protest against such ac-tion and declined to vote, as by doing so he would admit doubt of the legality of the Convention. There is deep feeling on the subject among Episcopalians, and every phase of the contest is being jealously scrutinized.

The various banks and corporations of the city began to day paying semi-annual interest and dividends on a capital of $12,000,000 invested in State and other securities. The amount to be disbursed is about $300,000.

from or 11m 001800. died about an hour after his admission without regaining consciousness. In his clothes were found letters signed "Sam Davenport." The room where the man was found bore evidences that it was or had been run as an opium joint. He was partially undressed and lay on a bench. Some cards and letters, the latter signed "Sam Davenport," were found on him, but nothing by which he could be identified. The room had been occupied by three Chinamen and was full of people last night, and opium smoking was said by tenants of the house to be in full blast. This mornof the house to be in full blast. This morn-ing the people went away, and the Chinese proprietors fied when they found that the stranger was dying. It is supposed they robbed him before they left. Police are endeavoring to unravel the mystery, but the only clue they have to the dead man is a handkerchief found on him, marked 5 A. M.

Mail Embargo on the Chesapeake Bay and Patuxent River Route.

[By Telegraph to the Morning Star.] BALTIMORE, July 1.—The contract for delivering mail for points on Chesapeake Bay and Patuxent river was awarded to a man named Horace E. Wise, of Virginia, and to-day he was to have taken the first mail from the Baltimore postoffice. The agent of the Weems steamers, which have carried the mail for years, refused to re-ceive it on the boat and the mail was re-turned to the postoffice. The matter was referred to the Postoffice Department, and until arrangements are made people of that section will have to do without mails.

There is no other prompt means of cop-veying the mail and the steamboat company will not buy the contract nor carry the matter for Wise.

A Disastrous Fire in Cleveland-Thre Lives Lost.

[By Telegraph to the Morning Star.] CLEVELAND, July 1.-A disastrous fire occurred at Nos. 347 and 351 Broadway this morning, at 3 o'clock, occupied by two families. Mr. Cohen with his wife two families. Mr. Cohen with his wife and four children occupied the front rooms. Cohen jumped from the burning building and his wife dropped the children on bed-ding she had thrown out, and in doing so was slightly burned. Mrs. Rosenberg, with her three girls and Miss Rosa Meisel occupied the control of the source that the source the sou occupied the rear part up-stairs. She es-caped with her 14 year old daughter, while caped with her 14-year old daughter, while the two younger children, aged 11 and 9 years, and Miss Mensel, perished in the flames. Mr. Trow, a traveling man who boarded with Mrs. Reseaberg, jumped from his window and had his arm broken and his face badly cut. He and Miss Meisel were to have been married next Sunday. The current belief of citizens and the fire department is that the fire was in-cendiary. This belief is all the more plau-sible from the fact that the stairways were nearly consumed when the fire was dis-covered.
