Will his decision reach all steamers on the Chesapeake The Asheville Citizen says:

"In the recent additions made to the faculty this idea of policy was wisely and manifestly avowed; and the claims of denominations complaining of injustice were admitted and responded to." We have heard that the meeting of the Trustees of the University was only a ratification meeting of certain cut and dried appointments.

the decision evidently. Austria's vanity has been hurt, is the excuse given for the racket about Mr. Keiley. His wife is a Jewess, and Austrian prejudices are said to be great against the "chosen people." Diplomatic relations should cease if no better excuses for rejecting the American Minister are given than those offered.

- The Raleigh Biblical Recorder has completed fifty years of newspaper life. It was founded by Thomas Meredith, an able man, and it has been an excellent paper under its five sets of editors. It is the handsomest paper in the State probably.

- Lumberton Robesonian: Mr. F. Lennon, Sr., who was in town last week, told us that he had corn 141 feet high. — The hog cholera is raging in different portions of this county. Mr. N. H. Jones, of this town, has lost about thirty-five, and Mr. Giles Davis, a thrifty young farmer, lost sixteen, among them a valuable brood sow for which he would not have taken $20. - Asheville Citizen: We have known Prof. Kerr for many years, and valued him very highly. His services to the State have been vast and valuable, not fully appreciated because he was not able to compress the work of a life time into the compass of the career of the average politician. When he is gone his loss will then force itself on public attention. A letter to us from him, written from Florida, gives us intimation of failing health. We were not prepared to think the end was so

- New Berne Journal: Jack Dunn, a colored boy about 19 years old, living on Mr. Freeman Ernul's farm, about nine miles from the city, while trying to swing a log, was thrown some distance by the tongue of the carriage, and falling on a stump the sharp point penetrated his side and let out his entrails. — Mr. W. P. Burrus, who was on a trip to Hyde county Mr. Gladstone said in the House recently, reports that the work on the Lake lat he thought it was the daty of Landing Canal is progressing finely. The steamer Elm City on her last trip went within a few yards of the bank at the mouth of the canal. An additional dredge will be put on in a few days and soon the canal will be ready for boats. - Charlotte Observer: We regret to announce the death of Mrs. R. R. Prim, wife of Joseph Prim, Esq., which occurred in this city yesterday morning at 6 o'clock, of consumption. —Mr. James A. Ervin, one of the oldest citizens of Mecklenburg county, died at his home in Morning Star township. He was 85 years old. — The rain of Sunday night was the most severe in certain portions of our county that has been known for years, resulting in the de struction of crops and the washing away of mills, mill dams and bridges. The storm was heavy in Charlotte, but was heaviest about five miles north and west of the city. Mr.J. A. Frazier, who owned a fine grist mill, saw mill and gold mill, on Steele creek, four miles west of the city, lost very nearly all of his mill property. His grist mill, gold mill and mill dam were swept away, scarcely a timber being left.

— The Danbury Reporter and Post says:
Farmers generally report their wheat better than they expected before they commenced cutting. — A young man by the name of W. H. Maloney, from Char-lotte county, Va., died yesterday evening at the residence of Mr. C. C. McCarty, on Orange street. — A fatal occurrence took place in Henderson county last Friday evening, the parties to which were colored boys living at Arden, in this county. They had been out hunting, and on their return, became involved in a controversy over an apple. Tink Hill, a lad 14 or 15 years of age, had a shot gun on his shoulder, and during a scuffle, the gun was discharged, the contents, (a heavy load of squarrel shot) striking and entering the abdomen of

- Raleigh Visitor: Travel over the North Carolina and Western N. C. Railroads is daily increasing, and the pros-pects are that the visitors to our Western watering places will excel in numbers all previous years. - Mr. John E. Rav. one of the teachers in the Deaf and Dumb and Blind Institution in this city, has received a very tempting offer from a similar institution located in one of the Western States, in the shape of a principalship which he was compelled to decline-pr ferring to remain a citizen of the good "Old North State." - Governor Scales has appointed the following State directors or the North Carolina Railroad for the term of one year: Messrs. John L. Morehead, A. Burwell, Charlotte; Kerr Craige, Salisbury; R. W. Thomas, Thomasville Duncan Cameron, Durham; R. F. Hoke, Raleigh; W. F. Kornegay, Goldsboro; Don-ald McRae, Wilmington. Chas. M. Busbee, of Raleigh, has been appointed State proxy. The directors meet in Greensboro to-day. - In response to a question Col. Yarborough stated that he had not completed his list of appointments, but hoped to have it early to morrow. Up to noon to-day he informs us he had made the following appointments: Clerks-Mr. M. J. Hawkins, or Warren county, and Mr. A. J. Mickle of Raleigh. Mr. H. C. Thompson and Mr. W. H. Martin, former clerks under Col. Young, are retained. Col. Yarborough has issued a commission to Mr. Harrell P. Dortch, of Wayne county, as deputy for that division. — Peter Jones and another negro by the name of Brasedell were work yesterday walling up the well Mrs. Henry C. Smith near this city. The well is about thirty feet deep and the plank on the wall about six feet from the top broke and precipitated the bucket of rock and the two men to the bottom, of the well There was water in the well to the depth of five feet and this prevented fatal results. That of oats will yield about one-fifth, a reporter was yesterday --- The insane asylum at Morganton now has 225 inmates under treatment. - A State normal school for colored teachers began at Greensboro yesterday, and continues four weeks. The funds are conributed by liberal Friends (or Quakers) in New York and Philadelphia. - Sunday gentleman who for fifty-three years has been a resident of Raleigh paid his first visit to the Yarboro House. He went there to call on Judge Cobbs, of Alabama, who lived here when a boy. — A number of prominent gentlemen, business men, propose to take steps to organize a white military company for Raleigh by autumn. -Yesterday Governor Scales reappointed magistrates for the counties of Cleveland, McDowell, Duplin, Rockingham, Robeson Surry, Gaston and Rowan. - The attendance at the State normal schools at Washington and Elizabeth City is reported as good. - There are 210 persons present at the normal school at Winston, and the number daily increases. — Yester-day afternoon the State Board of Education met. There were present all the State officers save the Superintendent of Public Instruction, who is absent. Gen. W. G. Lewis, engineer to the Board, was also present. The proposition of Mr. B. L. Perry, to train 11,000 acres of land in Carteret county, known as the "open lands," (the property of the board) "one half for the other" was accepted. The contract is to be completed by Mr. Perry in five years. There are 80,000 acres in this tract. The 12.000 are to be drained experimentally. The lands, says Mr. Perry, are adopted to the cultivation of rice, corn. potatoes, &c., after thorough drainage. The board authorized the construction of a road from Burrier's bridge to Hussey's store, in Duplin and Pender counties, a distance of about eight miles. Gen. W. G. Lewis was instructed to at once begin the construction of this road. — We learn that Col. John N. Staples, of Greensboro, has been offered a Judgeship in Idaho, which he has declined. A. W. Graham, Esq., Hillsboro, has also, it is stated, declined an appointment as Fifth Auditor of the Treasury which was tendered him. This does not indicate any such "greed" among Democratic workers, in North Carolina at least, as our Republican contemporaries with their brilliant imaginations are fond of describing to their readers. - ROCKY Mount, July 6, 1885.—The valuable real estate of the Rocky Mount mills, including the factory, grist and saw mills and some two thousand acres of land, was sold to day at Nashville at noon. The mills will be thoroughly reorganized under a new name and the character of the incorporators insures success. Among them may be mentioned Messrs. P. C. Cameron, S. E. Westray, George Howard and B. H. Bunn.

Death of a Notable Man. The older people of Wilmington will be quick to learn of the death of Captain Charles D. Ellis, which occurred at his home near Edenton, Chowan county, on the 4th inst. He had attained the extreme age of 88. Captain Ellis was a native of Vermont, but came to Wilmington while still a young man, and was long one of the most enterprising, useful and influential men of this city. He first engaged in business as a commission merchant with his brother in law, Captain Stow; in 1847 he established with his life long friend B. F Mitchell, the well known house of Ellis & Mitchell, which business relation he sustained till he left the city in 1866. Having long followed the sea, he naturally felt an interest in sailors, and was ac tive not only in forming the Seaman' Friend Society and in the purchase of the Seaman's Home, but was President of the Home from its origin up to the time he went from among us. He was often a member of the City Council; was for several years Chief of the Fire Department, and when the war opened in 1861, though 65 years old, he raised a company and did effective service till his age and declining health forced him to resign.

In 1842 Captain Ellis joined the First Baptist Church of this city, and gave himself with characteristic earnestness to every department of Christian work. He was soon elected deacon, and was one of the foremost of the brave little band which projected and ultimately completed the handsomest church in the State. Nor is it invidious to say that he was the leading spirit in the Executive committee of the Union Baptist Association, when that body did more effective missionary work than any similar organization in the State. After the war Captain Ellis removed to Chowan county and engaged in farming, and here as elsewhere his Christian character shone out clear and beautiful. He built a small chapel on his own land and thus gathered the children of the neighborhood into a Sabbath school, and delighted to have good men of all churches occupy the pulpit. Capt. Ellis would have been a marked man in any community. His body was large, his spirit was bold, his will was strong, and his whole bearing resolute and determined. He was the very soul of honor, and sometimes candid almost to bluntness, and yet he was simple-hearted as a child and gentle and tender as a woman to all in distress. His convictions were strong and his feelings intense, but good sense so dominated the man that he was widely known and consulted as a wise and safe counsellor. His green old age was serene and happy, and now, after a well spent life, he has gone to his heavenly home, leaving a name which is an honor and a blessing to those who cherish his memory.

His aged wife and several children, with brother and sister living in this city, sur-

Accident to a Child.

Joseph Lewis, a little child of Mr. Thos. L. Rowell, aged about eighteen months, while playing up stairs at the residence of its grandmother, Mrs. N. Gerken, southwest corner of Sixth and Mulberry streets, yesterday afternoon, jumped from some elevated position and struck its nose against the sharp edge of a window sill and cut a terrible gash, from which the blood flowed so profusely that serious apprehensions were felt that the child would bleed to death. The family were very much alarmed, and their cries soon brought a number of the neighbors to the spot. Surgical assistance was hastily summoned, and at last accounts the little child, who is usu ally very sprightly and interesting, was doing as well as could be expected, no very serious consequences being apprehended.

Depredations of Cattle.

Capt. Savage, Superintendent of the County Poor House, is worried a good deal by the depredations of cattle, which devour the choice shade trees he recently set out between the Poor House inclosure and the railroad. The mischief is done by cows which are driven out there to graze, while the driver and a friend or two are having a comfortable little game or two of "seven up" under the shade of neigh boring trees. There is good grazing a short distance to the southeast of the Poor House grounds, where the cattle could do no mischief. A number of the shade trees alluded to have been ruined by these cows, although nicely boxed.

New Magistrates.

It will be remembered that the last Legislature appointed certain magistrates to fill vacancies in the various counties, and it was provided that they should qualify. within a certain given time. By some oversight the appointees received no notification of their appointment and therefore failed to qualify until the time allotted within which they were to do so had expired. Recently Gov. Scales re appointed the same men and yesterday those for New Hanover received notification to that effect. They are as follows:

The Sound party, under the auspices of the Germania Cornet Band, which came off at Stokley's Pavilion, at Wrightsville Sound, on Wednesday night, proved to be a grand affair. A large crowd assembled at the pavilion and the dancing was kept up until a late hour. During the time the band rendered many fine pieces, which were much applauded. If you want a good time, always go with the Germania Cornet Band and you won't be disappointed.

Produce Exchange.

New blackboards are to be introduced into the Produce Exchange, as soon as arrangements can be completed, to contain telegraphic quotations of other markets, to be received several times daily, and to embrace naval stores, cotton, grain and provisions. This will prove quite an addition to the facilities of the Produce Exchange, and an advantage to the members and subscribers, who alone will be entitled to make use of the information.
