The following-the "intest agony" in base ball-has been handed in for publication:

The 2nd Regimental Base Ball Club No. , having at an immense outlay engaged the celebrated battery, Alva J. Clark and W. Kingsbury, hereby challenge any and all first-class base ball clubs in the State. The automatic wonder, H. Gerken, having obtained permission from Capt. Brock to leave the city, will hold down the first base. Wm. Morrison, the noted and notorious kicker, will keep the bag on thirdfrom leaving the field, while marker Lumsden will see we get enough runs to clean up the Association. Jacobi's iron pot wrestler and patent nail chewer, the slugger from Burgaw, alias Perdew, is our chosen umpire, and has guaranteed to see a square thing done. Sim Schloss, the Commercial man, who recently went to Scott's Hill, is the dandy who them all in at short stop. takes Joe Schloss, of seven league boot fame, puts them all out at second. Dick Hawes, of the skeleton frame, says he will paralyze every town he strikes-that is the boarding house portion of it. Mier Harriss, the sweetest little thing in the club, promises to break all the hearts on the ground, and teach Waddell a thing or two at centre field. R. S. Holmes, who furnishes the hams and dried beef for the Champions, promises to stop everything that comes to left field, and when he gets to the batlookont. The manager, the lightning manipulat or
