The game yesterday was not played with the dash and quickness that has characterized many games that have been played by our boys. The Durhams led off with four or five well placed hits, which enabled them to score five runs in the first inning; but after that the Seasides did so well in the field that they were unable to bring but one man over the home plate. When we consider that Durham is playing an entire in-field of professionals, a good deal of credit is due the Seaside for holding them down to such a small score. Home talent, no matter how good, cannot compete successfully with men who make a business and study of base ball, and we advise the admirers of our home team to be patient awhile and not to lose heart because their favorites have met with defeat lately. The present management promise better things in a few days, and Wilmington may yet have cause to be proud of her nine.

Owing to the postponement of the games with Oxford, the Durham nine has consented to play the Seaside to day and to morrow, and the managers of the Seaside have concluded to make these two days "ladies" days," and extend to all the ladies in Wil mington an invitation to witness the game free of all charges. Proper accommodations will be provided and order will be maintained. They hope a large number will be present, as they intend to play to-day, and will give Durham an exhibition of what they can do when really in earnest.

Koockogev has been hurt and will not play, but the Seaside will have a first-class catcher on hand, who will hold Kurtz and help them out.

Linthicum made a remarkably fine catch of Moore's long ball to centre yesterday, and Shaw and Drummey played well as battery. Miles did some nice work on first, and Chapman and Neal led at the bat. Kurtz played well, and Rosenthal and Moore kept their positions well guarded. Boatwright; made a fine hit to left, which was appreciated.

Come out to the game to-day. If the home boys are defeated there is some consolation in the fact that they are playing the strongest team in the State-six of which are professionals. Again we say to the supporters of the home nine, be paplaced it in the hands of Officer John tient; the championship is not yet lost. Below we give the score, Wanted Pay for His Services. A few nights since two little girls appeared at the door of a residence on Chesnut street and called for help, saying a lamp had exploded. Two or three persons rushed in and soon succeeded in extinguishing the flames, which did not get time to reach the furniture in the room. Wednesday one John G. Day, a stranger in the city, who was one of the parties who as sisted in arresting the spread of the flames, went to the residence referred to, while only a lady was present, and demanded pay for his services, and was guilty of profane and abusive language upon the refusal of the lady to comply. He was finally directed to the place of business of the lady's husband and took his departure. The gentleman happened to be out, however, and he did not meet him, but he again displayed his reckless and disorderly disposition by the use of language more expressive than polite. The gentleman, when informed of the circumstance, made complaint at police headquarters. Chief of Police Brock put officers on the lookout and he was soon in custody. He is now in the guard house and will be shipped from the city on the first opportunity.

The Late Contest.

A Big Sea Turtle. Mr. Percy Cowan, who has charge of the beach house of the Carolina Yacht Club. caught another huge sea turtle on the beach a few nights ago. Her turtleship was about 4 feet 10 inches in length. Her back was covered with barnacles, and she got along with ease under the pressure of one hundred and sixty pounds of humanity on

WILMINGTON DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

Special Star Report.

The Wilmington District Conference of the M. E. Church, South, convened in the Methodist church at Smithville yesterday at 9 a. m; the Presiding Elder, Rev. Paul J. Carraway, in the chair. As Rev. Mr. Carraway is a new Presiding Elder. this is the first District Conference over which he has presided, but he seems at home in the chair-controls with ease and dignity, and shows that he believes in spiritual life and progress. He inquires closely into the work of each pastor and evidently believes that we ought to adher closely to the old plans of Methodist work in order that the entire Church may be crowned with that success which blessed it in its early history.

Jas. W. King, Esq., of the Front St. church, Wilmington, was elected Secretary. He fills the place admirably.

The usual committees were appointed to take into consideration various interests of Church in the district. A committee on Temperance was appointed, and it was rather amusing a few moments later (during a recess) to see ministers, delegates and even the Temperance committee gathered around a large barrel, which stood under a live cak tree just in front of the church, eagerly quenching their thirst-the barrel was labeled "Southern Star Rye Whiskey," and "smacked" a little of the bad business in which it had been engaged. I wonder if "Sam Jones" would have taken even a glass of ice water from that barrel, or would he have abstained from the "very appearance of evil."

Up to this writing the following pastoral reports have been made: Front and Fifth street pastoral charges in Wilmington, Magnolia, Clinton, Whiteville, Cokesbury and Carver's Creek circuits. All these re ports were good as to the spiritual, financial, missionary and Sabbath school interests. One brother reported a "few dram drinkers among his membership but was trying to make them leave off the practice. and would do it or put them back among the sinners of the world." In the seven charges heard from there have been more than 400 accessions since January 1st. Two sermons are preached each day; one at 11 a. m., another at 8 p. m., and the con gregations are very large. As to the entertainment of the Conference, the citizens of Smithville are doing handsomely—everybody is cared for in the best of style. Rev. C. M. Gentry, the appreciated pastor of this charge, together with a committee of his laymen, keep watch for every interest of the visiting ministers and delegates. The Conference opened with a good representation from all parts of the district, but others are to come. The Conference when full is composed of seventeen ministers and four lay delegates from each pastoral charge. More again.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.—REV SYLVANUS COBB thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman:—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly to infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and the parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething slege, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
