Augusta, Ga., is the only town at which Sam Jones failed. It may be too near "the burnt district" for even as great an awakener as Parson Sam is to stir up the dry bones.

Miss Mary Anderson's tour in the British provinces was very unsatisfactory. She had very thin houses. Mary has had her day in London and would do well to return to her own country.

Mr. Hendricks is still talking. He anticipates some trouble between the President and the Senate. Very likely. A Senate with such men in it as Conger, Logan and "sich" will be apt to oppose a reform President.

A fellow at Pittsburg, Pa., got divorce from his wife and then shot a man in a duel because he waited upon her. That looks like jealousy run mad. His name is Frederick Rich and the wounded man is Charles Koenig.

Quin, the actor, is the originator of the word quiz. It has no meaning. fle made a bet that he would have all London talking next day and he sent out "sups" to write the strange word "quiz" with chalk all about toan. It was of agarse the town talk.

Found Burled.

Some workmen were engaged a few days ago in excavating for the foundation of a house on Swann, between Fourth and Fifth streets, when they uncarthed a number of articles supposed to have been buried there during the late war. These consisted of four or five large journals, used in connection with machinery; six or seven large cold chisels; four hammers for cutting off cold iron; an apparatus for worming screws; a brass pistol barrel; two or three brass straps belonging to a rifle, and a number of other articles, the name and use of which were unknown to our informant. The Lawn Party. The Lawn party, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association of St. Paul's Lutheran church, which came off Friday night, was a very pleasant and successful affair. The parsonage grounds were made brilliant by the aid of Chinese lanterns, the "Lover's Retreat" and other places of entertainment with which the grounds abounded were liberally patronized, and sweet music added its charms to the festive scene. A large number of small children mingled with their elders and shared in the pleasures of the evening. It was an event long to be remembered. Painful Accident. Herbert, a little son of Mr. J. T. McIver, met with quite a severe and painful accident yesterday. He was on a high brick wall on Ann street, between Second and Third, trying to catch a bird. Surmounting the wall is a paling fence, and the little fellow was clinging to these palings when one or more of them gave way and he was precipitated to the ground, resulting in the breaking of his left arm at the wrist. Surgical assistance was immediately summoned. The wound, of course, will be a very painful one. Demonstration in Pender. A grand demonstration will be had up Forest (col.), 1 adult and 1 child. Total 3. - We are now requested to state that Rev. Dr. Yates has arrived at home and will till his pulpit at the Front Street Methodist Church to-day, and that Rev. Mr. Smith, of the Whiteville Circuit, will not be here. - There will be a grand Centennial of Temperance in Philadelphia on the 23rd and 24th of September, composed of delegates from all over the United States. Steps are being taken by the Rechabites to have Wilmington represented. -- Kurtz appeared on the streets yesterday as an equestrian. He held to the bridle with one hand and to the "gallant gray's" mane with the other. Still, he didn't seem to be altogether as much at home as he does when he's in the "box." -- Capt. Empie, of the "Seaside Nine," played centre field beautifully yesterday. He has improved, wonderfully, too, as a batter; and is now one of the safest hitters of the "Nine." Brook's a pansy anyhow. At least that's what the ladies say.

--- In consequence of repairs in progress at the Fifth Street M. E. Church, the usual class meeting for Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, will be held at the residence of Mrs. Keen, corner of Fifth and Princess streets. All Christians are invited. There will be no services at the church to day.

-- Next Tuesday night a moon light excursion will be rnn to the "Rocks" on the Passport, under the management of Capt. Harper and Mr. Geo. N. Harris, and every arrangement has been made which could add to the pleasure of the trip. The harpers will furnish music for dancing, and a hot sheepshead supperiwill be an attraction at the "Rocks." . The bath house, which is one of the best on the coast, will be at the free disposal of the excursionists, and as the the boat will remain at the "Rocks" one hour and a half, ample time will be al lowed those who wish to take a bath before getting supper. The Passport will leave her wharf promptly at 8 o'clock, and as we learn there are quite a number of ladies who propose attending, we advise them to note this fact unless they wish to be left. A Spake-Killing Cat. A traveller in the neighborhood of Rock Hill, a few days ago, witnessed the singular spectacle of a house cat running along the road with three feet of black snake dangling from her mouth. The cat got frightened at the buggy in which our friends were seated and dropped the yard of snake, when the owner of the cat came up and dispatched the reptile. This cat is said to be in the habit of catching and killing snakes.

We heard no complaints as to the food or management, but respectfully suggest that at least two hot meals per day be furnished instead of one, as is now the case, and that vegetables be given at least two days in each week. They also suggest that the comfort of the prisoners would be greatly enhanced by removing the pans from which they are fed after each meal, in order that they may be properly cleansed, and that disinfectants be freely used throughout the buildings and grounds

The Grand Jury beg leave to call your Honor's attention to the uncomfortable room set apart for their use, as being so hot and so unpleasant from its surroundings that they were compelled to take frequent recesses during each day's session; and they further complain that the privacy of their proceedings is greatly impaired by the location of the room. SYLVANUS CORD thus writes in the Boston Chris- tian Freeman :- We would by no means recom- mend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good-particularly to infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and the parents un- broken rest at night. Most parents can appre- clate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button."
