The health of Mr. Gladstone is such that it is said be will not be able to enter the canvass. His trouble is in his throat. His health otherwise is good.

July last was the hottest July known to "the oldest inhabitant" of Wilmington. August is going ahead as if it had at least half a mind not to be beaten by its predecessor.

Bradstreet's reports 184 failures in the United States, as against 215 the week previous. Excluding States that only reported one failure the South furnished as follows: Kentucky and Maryland three each.

Some very curious things happen every day. One of the latest we have noticed was a divorced man and wife running away with each other and getting married again, This happened at Indianapolis, and the parties were George W. Kaehne and Littie E. Rogers.

Mr. George Jones, at the head of the New York Times, raised quietly all the money necessary to pay Gen. Grant's physicians. It was he who raised the $250,000 fund some years ago and had it invested for the maintenance of the soldier and his family. The press is always at some good work.

How is this? Little Miss Lotta is booked as the richest of all actresses, richer than Modjeska, or Bernhardt, or any of the guild. She is put down at between $500,000 and $1,000,000. And who do you suppose is said to be the richest of actors? Why, Jo Murphy, who played "Kerry Gow" here and to a poor audience.

About thirty-two years ago Flora Temple was the fastest of trotters. Her best time was 2:193. We remember going out to the five-mile house from New York to see her in her stable. She was regarded as more of a marvel than Maud S. is not true, that the Second Regiment was very unjustly dealt with at Asheville. But there is hardly room for doubt as all of our Wilmington boys, and we suppose also all of the regiment, make the same statement of bad treatment in the awarding of prizes. We refer to this merely to say that if those having charge desire to break up the whole organization let this sort of treatment be tried a second time. The Second fairly won, we are assured, and ought to have had the prizes. The sentiment of the Asheville people and visitors was easily seen, and the splendid demonstration in belialf of the Second more than paid them for the injustice done. No other regiment received a tithe of the consideration that was extended to the splendid regiment in Gray. Gen. Scales is reported as saying-"Boys, stick to the gray." We are astonished that there could have been any grounds for heart-burnings and complaints, and it is to be regretted that such grounds should have ex-

Grant's last words of "peace' were: "I have witnessed, since my sickness, just what I have wished to see ever since the war-harmony and good feeling between the sections." Whenever the Ohio Republicans parade their banners of discord and Foraker steps to the footlights and 'painted red" begins to dance the war dance and to flap his little bloody shirt let the Democrats throw out a banner of peace to the breeze emblazoned with the last legacy of Grant to his countrymen.

Rev. Edward Everett Hale, one of the most distinguised of the New England clergymen, writes to the Boston Post of the successful use of ammoniated gas in whooping cough. He says:

"I tested the treatment with eight of my own children, with entire success at the gas factories in South Boston and Dorcheser. In each case the disease was entirely broken up in two or three visits to the factory, and gave no more trouble. He says the treatment is much used

The casket is of metal, in imitation of rosewood, and its handles are of massive alver. The casket rests upon a bier, whose base is concealed by evergreens and mag-nolia leaves. Over the casket is thrown the Governor's headquarters flag, of dark blue silk, with the coat-of-arms of the State in its centre. At the head is draped the Confederate "battle flag," under which the dead soldier so often marched. On top of the State flag is a wreath of pure white flowers. On the main doors of the capito crape is draped, and the same emblem of mourning is displayed at the door of the State library and the door of the department of agriculture. On both the flag staffs the State flags are displayed at half mast. All day long people passed through the rotunda, and as they passed the casket hey bared their heads, as a tribute of respect to the memory of a good soldier and n esteemed friend. Yesterday afternoon Mr. M. S. Shotwell, a brother of the dead gentleman, arrived from Harrisburg, Pa. He was greatly distressed at the death, and was deeply sensible of the attentions paid the deceased. Mr. Julian S. Carr came here with Mr. Shotwell and spent some hours. To day another brother, Dr. F. A. Shotwell, will arrive from Rogersville, Tennessee. The venerable father of Captain Shotwell lives there. Gov. Scales received news of the death while at Asheville, and was greatly moved thereat. He and will come here to-day and be at the fu neral, it is thought. The arrangements for the funeral were perfected yesterday after-noon and are as follows: The services will be conducted from the First Presbyterian

DEFRAUDING.

Examination of Owen Richardson Before U. S. Commissioner Gardner for Sending a Letter Through the Matis with Intent to Defraud.

The case of Owen Richardson, colored, charged with violating section 5480 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, in sending a letter through the mail with intent to defraud, was arraigned for preliminary examination before U. S. Commis sioner Gardner yesterday morning. Mr. F. A. Newbury was first examined as to receiving the following letter through the postoffice:

"WHITEVILLE DEPOT, N. C., "July 29, '85.

"Please put $10.00 in a letter and put it n the postoffice for Frank Jones so he can get it Saturday and charge us.
"Ve'y resp'y, "Will send draft."

either Messrs. Powell & Co., or their clerk, Mr. Williams, as he did a great deal of business for them and was in the habit of getting two or three letters a week from

Col. Brink, postmaster, testified, identifying the money placed in the envelope by Mr. Newbury in his private office, including a ten dollar counterfeit note and a twenty-five cent piece, which was marked by Col. B. so that he could the more readily recognize it. He wrote to Powell & Co., on Friday, asking if they had sent such a letter, and on Saturday morning that firm telegraphed that the order was a forgery and requested the arrest of the guilty party; but in the meantime he had been taken into custody by Chief of Police

Messrs. Campbell and Strathers, postoffice clerks, were examined and identified the prisoner, and Capt. Brock testified as

The defence had but few questions to ask the witnesses, but brightened up sufficiently towards the close of the examination to put in an order, dated July 31st, purporting to be signed by Frank Jones. asking the postmaster to let Owen kichardson have his mail. He also claimed that witnesses had heard Frank Jones tell him to get his mail. One of these alleged wit nesses (Amelia Bradly, colored,) was put upon the stand and swore that the only Frank Jones she knew was killed on the railroad some years ago.

Col. Brink stated that the order signed Frank Jones was in the same handwriting as the forgery from Whiteville.

At the close of the investigation the accused was ordered to give bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the next term of the U.S. District Court, failing in which he was sent to jail.

Grant Memorial Services.

In accordance with orders from the Post Commander in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, there will be memorial services held at St. Stephen's A. M. E. Church on Saturday next, the day of the funeral of the late ex President U. S. Grant, at 2 o'clock p. m. The services will be held under the auspices of J. C. Abbott Post, No. 15, G. A. R., of which Geo. L. Mabson is commander.

Stacey Van Amringe, Esq., has consented to deliver the eulogy on the occasion, and the Rev. J. W. Telfair, of St. Stephen's A. M. E. Church, will act as Chaplain.

Personal. Rev. H. W. Battle preached two excel lent sermons at the First Baptist Church on Sunday. That of Sunday night was exceptionally fine. Mr. Battle has a good deal of the orator in his composition. Rev. J. C. Crisp requests us to publish the following: "For the past four weeks I have been completely disabled by sickness. This is my apology to the people of my charge for disappointing them in the matter of filling appointments. In one more week the doctor thinks I will be able for duty."

Band Excursion. Bear in mind the family excursion to be given on the steamer Passport to morrow (Wednesday), under the auspices of the Germania Cornet Band. There will be music by the band and other attractions which will combine to make the excursion one particularly enjoyable. No pains will be spared to make the excursionists comfortable in every respect. Give the new band a "good send off." They deserve it for the remarkable proficiency they have exhibited.

Colored Rechabites. We are informed that the works and charter of the new colored Rechabite Order, to be known as the "Knights of Jonadab," have arrived, and that organization is now in readiness for business. The charter was issued by C. L. Hecox, with Almer Walker as 1st Council: Simon Merrick as 2nd Council; John Jackson, Post Council; Wright Stanley, Shepherd; Alex. Sampson, Secretary, and James Bland as Recording Secretary. They will receive instruction in the work on Sunday afternoon next, at 5 o'clock.

The Regatta To-Morrow. Don't forget that to-morrow the August regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club will be sailed over the Wrightsville course. The race promises to be one of the most interesting and exciting that has ever come off at that place. Several new boats will participate, and one of them for the first time. The Rosa, we are sorry to learn, cannot sail in the regatta this time. Let's all go and see the fun. CITY AFFAIRS.

THE LATE ENCAMPMENT.

The Closing Scener-The Second Regiment Satisfied with the Honors-How the Military Behaved, &c.

We were glad to find that our soldier boys came back in the best of spirits. They did not feel very sore over the manner in which the competition drill resulted. They were in a measure content that another regiment should carry off the flag, as long as the brave old Second carried off the honors. From the time that the decision was rendered by the alleged judges to the time the boys left Asheville the regiment was the recipient of ovation after ovation.

It is said to the credit of the Second Regiment that while in camp not a single drink of intoxicating liquors passed the lips of any of the men and it was believed that the same could be said of the other regiments. Captain Morrison gives a good report of the Wilmington Light Infantry. Their conduct was most exemplary throughout, and he had not a single report to make against a single man in the Company. It was the largest Company in the camp and received marked attention. The caterer for the Company, Mr. J. R. Lewis, covered himself with glory and won the plaudits of all.

The Second Regiment was further complimented for the manner in which they conducted themselves at the close of the encampment. They came out as they went, in heavy marching order and with the strictest regard to discipline.

The State Guard will never tire of talking of the splendid treatment they received at the hands of the people of Asheville. Especially is this the case with the Second Regiment, which was loaded down with favors.

Taken altogether, the encampment proved source of enjoyment to the troops, as well as a benefit in a strictly military point of view. The next one, it is thought, will be held in the eastern part of the State-probably at Smithville. The Adjutant General The petition of Maj. W. L. Young for is said to have remarked that he wanted it to be as near Wilmington as possible.

> CLOSING SCENES. The Asheville Citizen of Thursday contained the following complimentary items:

"The 2nd Regiment of the Guard was alone in camp this morning. At 10 o'clock the tents were struck, and the Regiment marched into town and stacked arms in the Asheville Warehouse. The citizens of the city proposed to give the Regiment a dinner. The Colonel announced the offer to the Regiment, and it was accepted with cheers. The Eagle, Swannanoa, and the Grand Central were the hotels to which the men were assigned in detachments of fifties. The boys are visiting all points of the city. They dined at the different ho tels at from 1:30 to 3:30 o'clock. At 3:45 o'clock the Regiment was formed in the warehouse and the troops proceeded to the depot and will leave on the 6 o'clock train. Great enthusiasm was manifested by the soldiers and responded to in the liveliest manner by the citizens-large numbers of whom witnessed the march to the warehouse. The people visited the warehouse where the arms were stacked in large numbers. When the Regiment had stacked arms three cheers were given for Col. W C. Jones of the Regiment, Adjutant General Jones, Col. Black of the U.S. Army, Dr. Carmichael, Chaplain of the Regi-ment, and E. T. Boykin, Judge Advocate. The boys say that Asheville cannot be excelled for hospitality. They will remember their kind reception and treatment for

"This morning a little before 10 o'clock the familiar and inspiring sound of the drum and fife was heard; and then the head of the column of the splendid 2nd Regiment turned into Court House Square. The column was preceded by General Jones and his staff, and b its Colonel and staff officers, mounted the music, the simple fife and drum, and the men in marching order, knapsacks slung; and the muzzles of many guns were decked with sun flowers or bouquets of other flowers. Half wheeling into the Square, the rear of the column resting on Patton Avenue, the column was halted, the head opposite the Citizen office. At this point three cheers were proposed and given with rousing energy for the gallant Colonel W. C. Jones; and then Major Campbell, of Company A., the Fayetteville Light Infantry, with a very complimentary introduction, proposed three cheers for Colonel John D. Cameron for the interest manifested by him in the affairs of the State Guard, and to the Asheville Citizen for its uniform courtesies to the officers and men of the encampment. The regiment joined with hearty good will in the compliment so totally unexpected, and gratifying as coming from a body of men conspicuously marked for high soldierly qualities and gentlemanly deportment. "The compliment paid us by the 2nd Regiment can never be forgotten. Our best wishes go with it collectively and individually on its homeward march.

"The 2nd Regiment, the last of the en-campment, leaves this afternoon, and will carry with them the respect and admiration of all witnesses of their gentlemanly conduct and soldierly movements. But this remark will apply to the other regiments, with the exception, in military view, of those embraced in General Order

Sleeping on the Streets. A small colored boy, about 8 years old was found asleep on the sidewalk near the intersection of Fourth and Bladen stree vesterday morning, about 1 o'clock. When Officer Latham reached him he had crawled through an aperture in the fence by which he had been lying, and was taken from the premises to the station house. He said he had no father or mother, but was staying with a sister over the railroad. Upon being brought before the mayor yesterday morning he was admonished and discharged.

The Seasides leave to night by the Carolina Central for their second trip through the State. They intended playing Oxford on Wednesday and Thursday, but yesterday a telegram from that place announced the fact that the Oxford nine could not pay them the Association guarantee of thirty-five dollars a game, but would play them for half the gate receipts. It has not been settled definitely whether the above proposition will be accepted. If arrangements can be effected with Henderson to play the two postponed games the Seasides have with that club, in addition to the two regular games to be played on the trip. the two days that would have been spent in Oxford will be passed in Henderson-which there will be a game. We hope our merchants having clerks belonging to the nine will allow them a leave of absence to enable the home team to carry as strong a nine as possible.
