Genaan immigration is decreasing yearly. It is not more than half what it was a few years since.

With a million and a half more bales of cotton this year than last what will the price be? Will it more wall o ceuts.

Wm. Carleton, the well known actor, playwright and author, is dead in New York. He was a nephew of the novelist by that name.

Mr. Gladstone took a walk of 18 miles in Norway and felt the better for his walk. That will do for a statesman in his 76th year.

The Czar of Russia has just toasted the Emperor of Russia. But what did he say? Was the remark like that made by the Governor of North Carolina to the Governor of South Carolina?

Gov. Lowry, of Mississippi, was resominated on the first ballot. The vote was-Lowry 190. Darden 42. Lieut. Gov. Shands was renominated. The vote stood - Shands 150, Doge 190. The Convention indorsed Lamar and the Administration.

A young West Pointer was assigned to a place in a colored regiment but he objected and his friends petitioned for a change. Secretary of War Endicott replied that whites and colored held the same States and so there was no redress. He must go to it.

The Warrenton Gazette, referring to the activity and zeal of Col. Wharton J. Green in turning out the Republican postmasters, says:

"This is just what we expected of the Colonel; he is nothing unless earnest, zealous and conscientious in the discharge of all his duties. He is one of the most efficient and best working Congressmen our State has had in a long while."

There is a damaging statement made against the Virginia Lunatic Asylum at Williamsburg. An exchange says:

this discovery was very great, for it is not log rapidly changing its position, badly ing. A few moments more and the fire Southern mails for all points South, daily. poison has been sold."" A severe carthquake is reported to have occurred in Western North Carolina. A dispatch says: "Noises were heard in the Blue Ridge Mountains as if a train were rushing through them. On top of the mountain ridge, near Blowing Rock and Boon, 4,100 feet above the sea level, these phenomena were also observed. The mountains were shaken to the very bottom. A party of tourists on the summit of Grandfather Mountain, 6,000 feet above the sea level, were almost overcome with fear. The noises lasted for quite a time and were succeeded by a grand wave or swell of the Spirits Turpentine.
