Rumor credits Mr. A. M. Keiley with a purpose to locate in New York. He might perhaps better his fortune by doing this.

Maud S. last Saturday again tried to lower her record. She would have done it but for the strong wind. As it was she made the best quarter and the best half mile of record. She made a quarter at the rate of 2.01 for a mile, and a half at the rate of 2.06. She is said to have privately made a mile in 2.06. Mr. Bonnes has not spoken.

The Philadelphia Press is possibly not more bitter than its Republican contemporaries, but it is more frank in its disclosures. It entirely approves of the attempt to force Pennsylvania clerks in the Washington Departments to shell out for electioneering purposes, and says it is both "proper and legitimate." Turn the rascals out, Mr. Cleveland.

Emory A. Storrs, the eminent Chicago lawyer and politician, whose death was announced in the STAR, was born in New York in 1834. He died of congestion of the lungs. He removed to Chicago in 1859. He was a fine speaker and a very pronounced Republican. He had a fine memory, was remarkably fluent, and vivacious and of a very nervous disposition. He had light bair, light complexion, blue eyes and was low and slender.

there 18 a growing sentiment for Canadian independence. There are many papers advocating it. It says:

other political issues, is almost admitted by the Toronto Mail, which remarks that 'those who do not relish revolutionary theories must choose sides, either going with the young men on the high road to the United States or falling in behind the Conservative party, which will save the country to the Empire if it can." The more Radical portion of the Liberal press of Ontario are openly advocating separation, and should the Young Men's Liberal Convention, which meets in Toronto toward the close of the month, warmly uphold the idea it may the month, warmly uphold the idea it may become a factor in all elections from that time out. No one should regret that the matter promises to at last become an issue in practical politics in place of a subject for

The Czar is reported as being in a remarkable condition of dread and as being mentally almost unhinged. He is in constant fear of being murdered by the Nihilists. A London dispatch says:

"It is related now that during the recent imperial conference at Kremster the Czar and Czarina had different alceping apart-ments prepared for their use each night and that they never occupied any of the rooms thus set apart for them, but used others in order to avoid all possibility of being located' by the enemies whom the Czar believes perpetually follow him. His im-perial Majesty, it is declared, continues to-follow this precaution, and allows no one to know beforehand where he will pass any particular night, and never permits any of his attendants but his necessary body ser-vants to know where he is sleeping."

What a fate! The man who sweats all day in the mine and lies down at night to refreshing sleep is happy compared with this Emperor who trembles on his throne.

The history of the political frauds of 1876 are to be written up. Mr. A. M. Gibson, a Washington correspondent, has prepared a work of 400 pages entitled "A Political Crime." It gives a full history of the rape of Florida and Louisiana, and the bulldozing of South Carolina and what followed. We are glad such a work has been prepared. It was needed. The memory of the most disgraceful time in American history should never fade. And warlike John Sherman who now trots around diked out in a freshly-dyed bloody-shirt was one of the dirty rascals who played the Democrats a vile trick and stole the office of President from Mr. Tilden and the $200,000 salary attaching thereto. There ought to be a history of Reconstruction in the South fairly. clearly, candidly written. The memory of the meanness and deviltry of the Republican party ought to be kept forever green.

Mr. McCombs was a brother to the late Wm, McCombs, Esq., of this county, and was a native of Mecklenburg. He left this county about fifty years ago. —Mr. T. J. Byrum, a well known farmer of Berryhill township, yesterday brought to the Observer office a number of cotton bolls showing the effects of a peculiar blight which has been noticed in the fields of his own and several of the neighoring farms. The bolls seem to be affected by a certain kind of rot which begins in spot having the appearance of being made by a drop of scalding hot water. The rot advances until the entire boll is reduced to

 and Gen. R. F. Hoke, of Raleigh, arrived here on a special car Sunday noon and went to meet the Ratherford County Commissioners on Monday. They at Ruther-fordton offered to complete the Carolina Central Railway from Shelby to Ruther fordton within one year for the $100,000 Rutherford county bonds, which are to be paid after (not before) completion of contract. They also offer as a guarantee of good faith and for the performance of this contract to deposit $25,000 in cash as soon as the contract is ratified. The Commissioners told them they had signed a contract the Boston Construction Co., and Judge G. W. Logan appointed trustee of the bonds and their tardy offer was too late. - Mrs. Anne Carpenter, of Rutherford county, mother of James H. Carpenter, of Rutherfordton, and grandmother of Reva J. Wilmington as a Cotton Market. The Bennettsville (S. C.) Chronicle has this paragraph in its last issue; "Bennettsville is to-day a better cotton market than Wilmington, North Carolina." We should like for our contemporary to inform us in what its superiority consists. It certainly does not in the matter of prices. So far from our apparently not over-modest little neighbor Bennettsville being a better cotton market than Wilmington, we have the assurance of one of the leading cotton buyers of this city, who has carefully watched the markets, that prices have actually ruled better in this city all through during the present season than in either Charleston or Savannah. Now, Mr. Chroni cle, put that in your pipe and smoke it !

Military Matters. At the meeting of the Wilmington Light Infantry, held Monday night, Second Lieutenant F. L. Meares was promoted to be First Lieutenant, vice First Lieutenant F. A. Lord, and First Sergeant W. R. Morrison was promoted to Second Lieutenant, vice Second Lieutenant F. L. Meares.

During this meeting steps were taken for the organization of a literary club in connection with the company, the first meeting of which will be held on the evening of Monday the 28th inst.

Thrown From a Hose Reel. David Moore, the driver of the Little Giant hose reel, met with an accident while on the way to the fire yesterday afternoon. He was driving very rapidly near the intersection of Sixth and Mulberry streets, when some small children got in the way, and, in changing his course to prevent running over them, one of the wheels of the reel came in collision with a large rock and he was thrown from his seat to the ground. His injuries are believed to be slight, though he complains that his breast hurts him.

Alarm of Pire. The alarm was sounded yesterday afternoon, about 8.45 o'clock, for fire in the second fire district, and the department turned out with even more than their usual promptitude, but fortunately their services were not needed, as the fire, which was found to be in the roof of the kitchen of John Hooper, colored, in the neighborhood of Seventh and Walnut streets, was extinguished before the engines arrived at the scene. "Tally-Ho." The crowd which assembled at the Opera House last night to see "Tally-Ho" was not at all in proportion to the merits of the performance, which was one of the best of the kind that has ever been here.

The play abounded in realistic scenes and the support throughout was most creditable.

Mr. R. L. Downing, in his impersonation of the famous stage driver, Hank Monk, was especially fine and drew from the audience unstinted applause. While Mr. Downing was the centre of attraction still there were others who deserve a word; the first of whom is Miss Nellie Cox, whose rendition of her part was most praiseworthy, and produced a very happy effect Mr. W. THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY.—The following is an extract from a letter written to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburgh, Penn.: A Benefacters. Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking, and teething siege. Mrs. Winslow" Soothing Syeur relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhoea. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, cures wind colic, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syeup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists. THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE

We could not have reasonably expected a more prompt and generous response to our notice than we received. Almost at the very beginning our entire force were put to work, and to-morrow we will begin the week with almost a week's work ahead for them.

We are ambitious to do even a larger Merchani Tailoring Business than we are now doing, and if a large stock and perfect satisfaction in the fi of our garments have any thing to do with have not yet near reached the limit. We are doing a big business now, but it must ance that it's our greatest pleasure to please A. DAVID, be bigger, and we invite trade, giving the assur-
