MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES. The discovery in San Francisco of a horrible practice of the Chinese in preparing the bones of their dead fellow-countrymen for shipment to China created great excitement...

Washington Territory has woman suffrage. Minnesota has taken a dog census and reports 59,996. These are taxed.

There is a factional war in Maryland between the adherents of Senator Gorham and Representative Findlay. Chief Justice Waite is in London.

The Philadelphia Press is very malignant. It is still lying on ex-President Davis about the hoopskirt. It is still trying to make it appear in the face of overwhelming evidence...

Rev. Andrew D. Hunton, from near Charleston, S. C., was shot and killed in the Chickasaw Nation by a man named White, who ran off with Hunton's daughter and refused to make her his wife.

THE MORNING STAR.

The first page of the New York Times for Monday tells an awful story of crime and violence in the educated North. Let us glance just at the head lines of this page...

Here are the figures to represent the condition of the European wheat crop: Austria, 104; Hungary, 117; Prussia, 94; Saxony, 100; Bavaria, 100; Baden, 97; Wurtemberg, 99; Denmark, 116; Norway and Sweden, 105; Italy, 70-85; Switzerland, 125; Holland, 95; Great Britain and Ireland, 95; Russia, 75-100; Roumania, 80-115; Servia, 110. India had in 1884 7,135,000 tons, and in 1885, 7,713,000 tons of wheat.

The Nashville Methodist Publishing House has issued a 12 mo. volume of 277 pages containing the Sermons and Sayings of Rev. Sam P. Jones. Whether this is a more accurate report of his sermons than the volume published in Richmond is not yet we cannot say.

Tourgee, the peripatetic carpet-bagger, is a candidate for the Republican nomination in the New York State Senate. He is a great fraud wherever he may turn up.

The Richmond Whig is desperate. It is out of soap. It has the means to spell the gallant Lee's name with a little l.

Spirits Turpentine. The 81st annual session of the Salem Female Academy opened the present session with more pupils than at any time during the past ten years.

Greenboro Workman. The town of Whitakers, N. C. has formed a company with a capital of $15,000 to build a tobacco warehouse.

Senator McDonald is in Washington. He says there is not so much dissatisfaction among the Democrats of the West as there was. He is reported in the New York World as saying: "He very frankly told the President that he thought he was doing too much to conciliate the Mugwumps."

suppose in Mr. Eaton's life-time $15,000 would not have bought it. It is a very handsome and attractive place. When the Yankee corps went through Warrenton they much admired it. — Tarboro Southern. W. S. O. B. Robinson was on the train the other day returning from Washington. His retention in office surprises those who subscribe the doctrine of offensive partisanship.

— Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Muse left on Tuesday for their home in Durham. Mr. Muse goes home much improved in health, and we trust he will soon be entirely well. — Beaufort Telephone. We are glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Muse back to our midst. Mr. Muse is one of Durham's most popular merchants, and is making a success of his business. — Durham Reporter.

— Hickory Carolinian. The Richmond & Danville Railroad, it is said, has decided to build a passenger car for North Carolina, with a capacity of 1,000 guests. It will be a modern building in every respect and work will begin at once. — J. E. H. writes to the Morganton Star from Kansas, gives it a pretty bad name, says it is no such country as North Carolina, advises his friends to remain.

— Raleigh News-Observer. At the term of Wake Court just closed, two absolute divorces were granted. — One thousand dollars worth of North Carolina bonds were sold in New York last week. — The summer has been a very dry one. It was ghastly in the highest degree and produced an effect like yellow fever in a spectacular drama. Everybody thought of a cyclone as they looked at the vast expanse of livid cloud, on whose yellow surface jagged blotches of cloudlet appeared to float.

— Raleigh Visitor. Rev. Dr. J. M. Atkinson, of the Second Presbyterian church, occupied the new parsonage today. — Mr. B. F. Finer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, has returned from an official trip, during which he lectured at several county seats. On Saturday last he addressed a considerable crowd at Hillsboro, and his reports of the educational prospects throughout the State are of the most encouraging character.

Fourth Street Bridge. The plan of the proposed iron bridge over the railroad on Fourth street has been left by the projectors at Tate's book store. It is proposed to have two driveways, each twenty-three feet wide, and a footway on each side ten feet wide. The cost of laying the bridge after the abutments are built is given at $3,800, while a new wooden bridge, it is said, will cost $8,000. There is undoubtedly great necessity for this improvement; the present structure is unsightly and unsafe, and the traffic over it is very large. By actual count an average of seventy-five vehicles pass over it every hour and hundreds of foot passengers.

War Among the Butchers. Rivalry among the public dispensers of fresh meats in the markets of the city has resulted in a "cut" in prices; each butcher advertising that he will cut choice cuts for customers for ten cents a pound. Our butchers are liberal and generous men, but we fear that in the promiscuous cutting they propose they may cut each others throats. However, the illiberal public will say: "Let them cut and come again." "Now let him eat (beef) who never ate before." "And he who eats now eat the more."

Mr. M. Katz has returned from the Northern cities, where he spent some time in buying goods for the fall and winter trade. He reports trade very active in New York. Capt. Henry Savage was able to ride out yesterday. Capt. N. W. Schenck, a former resident of Wilmington, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Thos. W. Strange has returned home from a summer jaunt at the North.

Old scraps of blue paper and a hard pencil are not the proper materials to use when preparing copy for the printer on a morning newspaper. The best eyes, with the strongest light, can scarcely decipher some of the effusions thus prepared. White paper and soft pencils are very cheap, and why not use them? Will not some of our advertising friends take a hint?

A horse and buggy belonging to Mr. Ike Rhodes ran up Market street and struck yesterday morning. The frightened animal was brought to a stop in his wild career by the buggy coming in contact with the telegraph post at the corner of Front and Market streets, at McIlhenny's store. Nobody hurt, and damage slight.

Amelia Bradley and Wm. Hodges, colored, were arraigned yesterday morning, charged with disorderly conduct, and ordered to pay a fine of five dollars each.

The steamer Passport came out of the dry dock yesterday, prepared for her winter business. — Ship carpenters and caulkers are all busy. — The dredge boat Oriskany has been on the marine railway for several days, repairing.

The schooner Vapor passed out at 9:20 a. m. yesterday. — Ship-carpenters are busily engaged in putting Capt. R. H. Barry's new purchase, the schooner P. L. Clark, in readiness for a voyage. — The Spanish schooner Navaridad, rebuilt and transformed into a square-rigger, will be launched sometime next week, from the ways below Northrop's mill. The Navaridad was formerly a U. S. coast survey vessel, the Vulture, and when she came into this port disabled, months ago, had the American coat of arms on her stern.
