at Trenton, Edgefield county, S. C., on Monday night last. W. H. Hammond was murdered at the house of Mrs. Culbreath, and it was believed by her husband, O. T. Culbreath, from whom she was separated. Culbreath was arrested and taken to Trenton, twelve miles distant. He was in the law office of Gary and Evans. A dispatch to the News and Courier says:

"About 8 o'clock at night, whilst the streets of the town were almost deserted, the citizens having retired from business and gone to their homes, a crowd of masked men from the country, some thirty five in number, surrounded Gary & Evans's of-fice, where Culbreath was at the time, and a number of them entered the office, cover-ing both Mr. Gary and Mr. Evans with piatois, whilst two others went into the back room and shot at Culbreath. He then cried out that he was shot to death, and begged them not to shoot any more. They there-upon took Culbreath, dragged him out of the office and carried him about a mile from town, Culbreath begging most pite-ously for mercy. Here, probably thinking that Culbreath was near death's door, they again shot him some three or four times, and left him for dead on the roadside.

"Some of the citizens hearing the firing, went out in that direction, but met Culbreath making his way back to the village. They assisted him into a vehicle and brought him to jail, where he received prompt medical attention. He lingered through the night in great agony and died at 5 o'clock this morning.

He denied to the last that he was

- Charlotte Observer; The Charlotte Cotton and Produce Exchange has opened temporarily in the old Shannonhouse stand.

- Asheville Advance: Ninetyeight and a half miles of the Murphy extension of the Western North Carolina railroad are completed.

- Raleigh Visitor: We learn that an eleven-year old boy by the name of Howell, died at Keyser on Monday last from the effects of eating scuppernong grapes-hull and all.

- Greensboro Workman; Mr. W E. Bevill exhibited in this office to-day a sample of new tobacco from Robeson county, which at once settles the question as to whether the genuine article can be produced on the lands in that part of the State. The plants were large and oily, the body thick and rich and the color very pretty.

- Henderson Gold Leaf: The public wells of the town are giving out and it begins to look as if we may have a water famine. It is difficult to get water to drink, - We caution our farmer friends not to cut their tobacco too green. Give it plenty time to ripen well on the hill. In its present condition it is impossible to effect good cures unless the weed is ripe. This is what experienced tobacco growers tell us.

- Winston Leader: Prof. Blair, of High Point, has been elected to fill vacancy in our graded school corps of teachers. Prof. Blair is a graduate of Harvard College. - With this issue the Winston Leader cesses to exist under the present management. The name, good will, material and subscription books have been purchased by the Western Sentinel, which paper will fill out all unexpired subscriptions, and collect all moneys due on

- Bethlehem (Pa.) Times: The most attractive and interesting display on the grounds of the Berks County Fair was the North Carolina exhibit in charge of John T. Patrick, Commissioner of Immigration for North Carolina, who with uniform courtesy and untiring energy explained all about North Carolina to the crowds of people, who were glad to hear all they could about the resources of the South. * * The exhibit left a very favorable impression on everybody who saw it, and one is very much surprised to learn that such a rich State is so destitute of farmers and artisans.

- Fayetteville Sun: At the residence of Mr. E. S. Herring, of Flea Hill township, on Tuesday evening, the 8th inst., quite a serious shooting affair occurred. Mary Herring, wife of E. S. Herring, attempted to shoot her husband. -On Thursday last, a difficulty took place between Mr. M. F. Underwood and a negro named Murphy. After some hot words the negro stabbed Mr. Underwood in the back, inflicting a painful but not serious wound. Mr. Underwood then struck the negro with a brick and knocked him senseless. The negro was put in jail to await he next court.

- New Berne Journal: Lagrange dot: There is no use in trying to think differently, the cotton crop is short, or many of our best farmers are mistaken. In addition to continued dry weather through August and a part of September, the army worm has done much damage. - Stone wall dot: The worms have pretty well stripped Mr. C. H. Flower's cotton and are playing sad havoc with Jas. W. Dawson's, which is some later. There is no way of estimating the damage. Between the worms and drouth, the crop is far short of former expectations. — Jones county items: Mr. Jas. M. Pollock died Sunday evening at 1.10 o'clock with malarial diarrhos, aged a little over 61 years. — Mrs. W. H. Puckett died at her home in Trenton Sunday evening at 2 o'clock, leaving an infant child only a few hours old.

- Goldsboro Argus: Overcoats were visible in goodly numbers upon our streets yesterday, and the smoke was seen curling upward from many chimneys about the city. — On yesterday; in the Superior Court in this city, W. P. Deshong, who is as unfavorably as he is well known to our citizens, was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary for buying stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen. -From communication: We think we express the sentiment of every good, lawabiding citizen of Wayne county, we say all honor to Judge Clark for his rulings in the present court. It is a lamentable fact that we have an element in this county that make it convenient to always be in court. If we could have Judge Clark with us for

The Marquis passed Spring Hill Church on Sunday and had his carriage storned long enough for him to get out stopped long enough for him to get out and shake hands with the people, young and old, who had assembled to attend di-

- Raleigh News Observer: It has been noted that the lien business has seen its palmy days here, and that this season there is a notable decrease in the number of crop mortgages and liens. This will necessitate some changes in business methods Some houses did business on a lien basis. - The State Fair is to be held from the 12th to the 17th of October, inclusive, and it offers six thousand dollars and upwards in premiums. The following brilliant schedule of premiums is offered to the pro-ducer: For best twenty-five pounds bright lemon wrappers, $50; for best twenty-five pounds managony wrappers, $50; best twenty-five pounds managony wrappers, $50; best twenty-five pounds cutters, $25; best twenty-five pounds shipping, $20, and best twenty-five pounds fillers, $20. For the largest yield of wheat from twenty-five acres, one bushel to be sown, in a box of required dimensions, and statements as required by premium list, $50; for best bushel wheat, $10; for largest yield of corn from five acres, one bushel to be exhibited as above, $50; best bushel white corn, $5; best bushel stock corn, $5; for largest yield of oats from five acres, one bushel to be exhibited, $50; best bushel winter oats, $5 for largest yield of rye from five acres, $20 best bushel rye, $5; for largest yield cleaned rice from one acre, $20; best bushel clean rice, $5; for largest yield field peas from one acre, one bushel to be exhibited, $25; best bushel black eye peas, $5; best bushel peas, any kind, $5; best yield groundpeas from one acre, one half bushel to be exhibited, $25; for largest yield from one acre of either orchard grass, herds grass, timothy or clover hay, or any of the above mixed one bale to be exhibited, $50.

Teasing a Chinaman.

Wong Ling, the Chinese laundryman on ond street, got into trouble yesterday morning. It seems that a colored weman entered his place of business and asked him if he didn't want to buy some grapes. He replied that he did not, and she then asked him, by way of a taunt, if he didn't want some rate. Wong Ling took this as an insult, which he proceeded to resent by slapping the woman and putting her out of his place of business. It was not many minutes before a colored officer arrived with a warrant from Justice Hill, a colored magistrate, for his arrest. Ling manifested decided opposition to being arrested by the officer, but was willing to go with a "melican man," which he did, being taken into custody by a policeman. The magistrate imposed a fine, which, with the costs, amounted to about thirteen dollars, but this was subsequently reduced to $6. Ling made it pretty lively in the magistrate's office for awhile after his arrest.

Cole' circus exhibits in Wilmington on Saturday, October 10th. The St. Louis Post Dispatch compliments it very highly, in the following manner:

The performance was, without question, one of the very best ever given here, and demonstrated most perfectly that it is not necessary for enterprising managers to keep in the same stereotyped track in presenting attractions. Cole's circus is full of new and novel features, not only denonstrating remarkable ingenuity in the election of the features, but also involving remarkable skill in presenting them. The louble ring and elevated stage are occupied constantly and give at the same time varied and non-conflicting performances, which can be appreciated and enjoyed at the same time. The Bedouin Arabs, the Mexican exhibition, the equestrian pig and monkey, the artistic and grotesque roller skaters, the marvelous "human fly," M'lle Aimee, the athletes, bare-back riding, the clowns and the riding of Leon, the wonder, and the daring feats of George Conklin, the lion tamer, are but a tithe of the multitude of features offered at this great show

Transfer of Sugar.

Laborers will commence this morning the transfer of the cargo of sugar stored in the building at the northeast corner of Princess and North Water streets, to the Customs warehouse. This is the cargo of the Spanish schooner Natividad, which put in at this port in distress in the early part of this year, and which has been for some time undergoing repairs and alterations at a yard in the southern section of the city. The laborers are going to do now what the "busy bees" have for a long time been trying to accomplish.

The Light Infantry. The parade and inspection of the Light Infantry took place last night. The Company turned out with full ranks, and made a handsome appearance. Lieut. Eastman. U. S.
