rock and dirt in a mica mine. No one was 391 seconos. present but his little child, who was too small to render assistance. The frightened child ran after a neighbor, who refused to quit his work, saying that he was using a hired mule at a dollar a day. Harris wil die of his injuries. - Raleigh News-Observer: Mr.W. A. Bryan's new hotel at Wilmington is the Orton Honse. He is now there, preparing for the winter campaign. He and his wife have many warm friends in Raleigh. -Yesterday the directors of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad met here, Mr. John M. Robinson presiding. All save Hon. J. B. Batchelor was present. R. C. Hoffman, of Baltimore, was appointed a director vice Walter Clark, resigned, and took his seat in the board. A regular annual dividend of 3 forty yards. per cent. was declared. ---- Yesterday young man named Hunt, of Granville county, was here. He is the party who last year sold the tobacco from three acres of land for $1,700. He says the Wake lands are equal to those of Granville. He is now looking at lands near Oaks, with a view to purchasing. There is sure to be rise in the price of tobacco lands in Wake. It was remarked yesterday that land was Burglary. now worth ten per cent. more than two years ago. — The farmers of Johnston county will plant far more tobacco and On Sunday morning, between 3 and 4 o'clock, an attempt was made to burglarize the residence of Stephen Johnson, colored, much less cotton next year. --- The loss of tobacco barns in Franklin and Johnston on Brunswick, between Fifth and Sixth counties has been quite heavy the past ten days. — We are glad to note the beginstreets. - A correspondent writes us from Mitchell county that one day last week a miner named Harris was buried beneath a slide of 28 seconds. In the same test the ladder was taken from the truck, placed in posision, mounted and returned to the truck in In the second test the time was reduced considerably. The gong struck, the ladder was removed from the truck, taken to the same building as before, raised, mounted by one of the men to the roof, who returned, and the ladder was carried back and placed in its proper position on the truck, all in just 33 seconds of time. That was certainly quick work, and the firemen who accomplished the feat deserved all the encouraging compliments which were showered upon them on every side. The distance from the truck to the building was about helped the Liberals and welded them together. Church disestablishment is said to be a serious stumbling block which is hard to avoid. Lord Salisbury will 'soon issue his proclamation and then the fight will open in carnest. It is believed that Glad. stone's voice is, so affected he can never speak again at length and that his career as an orator is about ended Anna Drinker, who has written stories and poems over the nom de plume of "Edith May" has been confined for many years in the State Asylum at Hainesburg, Pa. She has been restored to reason and been released. An account says:

"Two months ago she wrote a pathetic letter to the State lunacy committee requesting the secretary to visit her and to release her from confinement. In answer to the appeal Dr. Thomas G. Morton, the professional medical member of the committee, visited the unfortunate woman and found that she was fully restored to reason.

English politics will be lively soon. It is announced that the eminent John Bright will re-enter politics for the Liberal cause. He is the great est living English speaker except Gladstone. It is not yet announced when Mr. Gladstone will be able to speak. It is said that the Parnellites are the only firmly organized party in Great Britain now.
