WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1885.

Five Mormons have been sentenced by the District Court, in session at Salt Lake City, to six months' imprisonment and $300 fine. This of course gives great offence and angry threats are made. Here is a sample as telegraphed on the 5th inst:

"In the Tabernacle yesterday Apostle Heber J. Grant said: 'Woe be to the Judge who sits on the bench of the Third District Court. We will not stand his abuse much longer.' Apostle Grant warmy lauded those of the brethren who had refused to submit to the law, and called upon the court to do its worst, and continued: 'Judge Zane has taken a course that has made him a coward and unfit to be called a man, and condemnation will fall upon him and the heads of his children. Re member there is a limit, and this limit must soon be reached.' The remarks were greeted with shouts of 'Amen.'"

The fight is parrowing and it will be seen after awhile who is stronger -the Government or the shameful violators of law.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Rockingham Rocket, draws the attention of the STAR to a correction in the charge of Judge McRae. We copied a part and it is necessary to give what the Rocket says:

"Instead of saying that the Master presided in the Court of Equity and that there was an appeal from his decision direct to the Supreme Court, His Honor said, in substance, that certain equity causes, after all the testimony had been taken upon commission, were not tried at all in the Superior Court, but were set down for a hearing and removed into the Supreme Court for trial. Such was the procedure, as explained to the grand jury by His Honor, that prevailed under the old system.'

Members of Congress are beginning to arrive at Washington. How they do love to be near the public crib. It is conceded all around that Mr. Carlisle will be elected Speaker. A dispatch of the 6th says:

"The revenue reformers are opposed to giving this to Mr. Randall, because he is then clothed with an influence second only to that of the Speaker himself. It is proposed by some, inasmuch as Mr. Randall has given particular attention to naval affairs, to make him Chairman of the committee on that subject, in place of Mr.

The entire State press of South Carolina condemn the recent lynching at Edgefield. There is nothing else to do. As far as we have noticed the North Carolina press is equally united in denouncing the Chatham mob law und four hangings. Lynching must be put down. It has gone too far and a great deal.

The Wilmington STAR has entered apon its nineteenth year and still sheds the light of independence and intelligence throughout all the dark corners of the State. Its lustre does not wane and its exalted place in the galaxy of mind expanding effulgences has never been contested by any of the luminaries of the State and its great mission is yet to be performed. Shine on, oh STAR, till our loved State is foremost in the ranks of virtue, intelligence and prosperity.

- Rockingham Spirit: Rev. Titus H. Hagins, col., arrived in Rockingham from Liberia last Monday, bringing with him a live monkey and two sacks of Liberia coffee. He gives a glowing account of that far off country, it being, in his estimation, a perfect paradise. - New York Sun: We went to the circus at Asheville this morning, and it was good. The crowd was most interesting. Some citizens came on bull-back and others vehiculated in sleds drawn by spiked steer teams. Five counties were drained, and it was a touching spectacle to see women with children at the breast, after asking their husbands for a chaw, ejaculate tobacco juice with unparalleled accuracy of aim.

- Rockingham Rocket: Mr. Morgan Taylor, nearly eighty years of age, died on last Thursday night, 1st inst., after several months of lingering. Another of the respected "old landmarks" of the county fallen. - Mr. Franklin Bristow, son in law of the above, and held in high esteem in the community, died of consumption at Pee Dee village on Friday, the 2nd inst. Age about 30. - One of our most prominent merchants, who has worn his "chin whiskers" for a number of years, on a recent trip to New York shaved smoothly, except his mustache. On his return home, which, by the convenient and accommodating schedule of the C. C. Railroad, was about 3 o'clock at night. His wife was up to meet him. On his entering the room she ran towards him, but stopped very suddenly and darted for a pistol. His voice then revealed his identity, just in time to save him from a bur-

Quite a number of ministers and lay delegates passed through this city yesterday, to attend the meeting. The Tar River Association will meet at Wilson to morrow. - The Goldsboro Daily Argus is six months old to day. We allude to this fact, with pardonable pride, we trust, because it is source of gratification to us to know that our journalistic barque has sailed right on over rough waters, in the duliest season of the year, and now, with a calm sea before us, and sails set, we are prepared for a successful voyage. The Arqus is here to stay. Glad to hear it .- STAR].

- Raleigh News Observer: A neat new church is being erected by the colored Methodists in Oberlin. It stands on a lofty hill, from which the view of Raleigh is superb. — We hope to see a large attendance at the State fair next Such exhibitions cannot but prove of advantage to all who visit them.

There is said to be quite a row over the no-fence law in Franklinton county; many people, it is said, opposing the construc tion of a boundary fence. — At the August meeting of the board of directors of the penitentiary Col. E. T. Boykin, of Sampson county, obtained an order for the use of the ninety convicts at work at Angola bay, for the use of the Clinton & Warsaw railroad, provided the State board of education would consent thereto. Yesterday Col. Boykin appeared before the board of education and was successful in securing their assent to the said order.
The convicts belong to the latter board and have been employed in draining the swamp lands belonging to the literary fund. The order provides that the convicts shall be used in the winter months in grading the said railroad when they could not be worked advantageously in the low-lands. -Mr. W. R. He speaks of locating in New York or Liverpool, probably the latter place. — LEW-ISTON, Oct. 3.—It is a fact to be rejoiced over that a railroad has at last been started that will pass through Bertie county. This road begins below Windsor at some point on the Cashie river, and is now within six miles of Lewiston, at which place its fur-ther course will be determined. It will probably run from Lewiston to Scotland Neck, but it is generally thought a cheaper route would be to connect with the Seaboard & Roanoke road at some point near Weldon. Its main object will be for the transportation of lumber, but it will also accommodate passengers. Mr. Goode, who is in charge of the work, is in this section

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE. Annual Meeting-President's Report-

Election of Officers, &c. The annual meeting of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce was held at the rooms of the Produce Exchange yesterday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by the President, A. H. VanBokkelen, Esq., who read his annual report, as follows: WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 8th, 1885

Members of the Chamber of Commerce: GENTLEMEN:-The annual meeting o the Chamber again brings us together, after the passage of another year, during which the business of the world has continued to exhibit the general depression which pre-vailed the previous year. Great disaster having been prevented by the cautious movements of the commercial and manufacturing interests, we have reason to hope that the symptoms of improvement which now exist, may result in a revival that will give a more cheerful outlook for the future. The business of Wilmington during the past year has not been equal to that of the previous year in volume, but compares favorably with that of other ports, being much better than some: while We have not done as much as hoped for, we have cause to be thankful that we have had a full

During the last session of the State Legislature a very favorable charter was obtained for the Wilmington, Onslow & East Carolina Railroad Company. Some progress has been made toward an organization of the Company and the same will no doubt be consummated before the close of the present year. The acknowledged advantages of this road, and its need being evident to this and other communities along the proposed route, assures its early construction

The extension of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad to Mount Airy is progressing, and will no doubt be completed to that point at an early day. It is to be hoped that the movement to make the ocean terminus of said road at Wilmington will result in the building of the extension from Fayetteville to this point without further delay. Our citizens should and probably will, see that it is consummated. The connections that will be made by this road will open to us communication through Southwestern Virginia, West Virginia and Northeastern Kentucky, with Ohio and the Northwestern States.

An extension of the Carolina Central Railroad has been commenced; the same will run across the State to the Cranberry iron in Mitchell county, where it will co nect with a system of railroads through East Tennessee and Kentucky to the Northwest olacing the same in closer connection with Wilmington than with any other seaport.

The city of Wilmington, in its corporate capacity, will be justified in assisting the building of all roads, calculated to increase the business or reduce the cost of maintenance of its present and increased population. Any additional taxes consequent to the rendering of such aid will be more than offset by the increase of property and other subjects of taxation, also making employment for its citizens.

The failure of Congress at its last session o pass the River and Harbor bill has retarded work on the lower Cape Fear river and bar. Since the last annual meeting of this Chamber channels have been opened over the shoals which admit of eighteen feet draught of water being carried from Wilmington to Smithville on ordinary high water and twenty feet on full spring tides. It is hoped that at the next session of Congress an appropriation will be made equao the full amount estimated by the U. S. Engineer Corps as being requisite to increase the channels to the proper width, and the bar to a sufficient depth, completng the project of sixteen feet at low water, eighteen feet on ordinary high tides and twenty fect on full tides from Wilmington to the sea, and fully protecting the work, so as to insure permanency to the results ob-

Since the last annual meeting death has taken from us one of the original members of this Chamber in the person of Mr. Edward Kidder-one whom all could confidently recognize as a true friend. Mr. Kidder attained the position of a hightoned merchant at the commencement of his commercial career, maintaining the same until his death; at that time being the oldest merchant in this community. Successful in business he freely used his means to advance the prosperity of his adopted home and in relieving the necessities of others.

At a meeting of the Executive Council held the seventeenth of September last, filed my resignation as President of this Chamber, which position I have held during the past nine years, the same to take effect this day. Thankful for the consideration extended me in the past, I shall in the future hold you in high remembrance. Respectfully submitted,

A. H. VANBOKKELEN, President. On motion the report was ordered to be entered upon the minutes and copies furnished to the daily papers with a request for publication.

The following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That the thanks of this body are eminently due and are respectfully ten-dered to the Hon. A. H. VanBokkelen, our retiring President, for the faithful, able and efficient manner in which he has performed the duties of that office, and that our best wishes follow him in his retire-
