MORNING EDITION

OUTLINES.

Russia is secretly arming with a view of being prepared at any moment to assert her claims in the Balkan States. - An attempt was made in Paris to assassmate M. D. Freycinet, French Minister of Foreign Affairs. - Gen. George B. McClellan died suddenly of heart disease at his home at St. Cloud, Orange Mountain, N. J. The casting of the 54 ton gun at South Boston, Mass., was a failure. - The mail stage between San Angelo and Abilene, Texas, was stopped by two masked men and robbed of all the registered mail. _ In respect to the memory of Gen McClellan the flags on all the executive de partments in Washington will be placed at half mast until after the funeral. Rear Admiral DeKraff died in Washing ton. - President Cleveland sent a tele gram of condolence to Mrs. McClellan Thirty five deaths from small-pox in Medical Wednesday. - The switchmean the Illinois Central Railroad have struck - A worsted factory in Quebec closes its doors owing to the lack of a market for its goods. - The war feeling is dving out in Phillipopolis. - At New Hartford, Conn., eight buildings were turned, causing a loss of $60,000; only erial insurance. - New York markets: Money 3@2 per cent.; cotton quiet at 93@9 13-16c; wheat, ungraded red 78 @98c; corn, ungraded 40@53c; southern flour heavy; spirits turpentine firm at 36 c; resta quiet at $1 024@115.

Mr. Gladstone is to enter the campaign on 11th November, at Edinburgh. He is billed for four speeches.

Two Texas banks have failed thi week and the excitement is high One was at Huntsville and the other at Wishita.

The Administration is resolved to send Gen. Lawton, of Ga., to Austria if the Republican Senate will remove his political disabilities.

Hole-in-the-Day, an Indian, is auxious to be admitted as a cadet at West Point. He is very fine looking and has but little trace of the Red Cable, the novelist, knows how to pick the banjo. He ought to go into the show business and give the country something artistic and true to life in negro minstrelsy.

Senator Bayard's policy it is said, us not to remove soon the Republican Consuls in South America and in Central America. The object of the delay is commercial.

The Prime Minister of Bulgaria says that Russia knew what was up, as Prince Alexander had notified Russia that Roumelia was going to unite with Bulgaria.

Kaiser William, of Germany, now very old. He recently said to Chaplain Kogel:

"In these, my latter days, I call heaven to witness that I have always considered religion the only foundation on which de-pends everything. It is the highest posses-sion of my people."

There is to be one female candidate for Parliament. She is a Radical and rejoices in the name of Miss Helen Taylor. At her first election meeting there was a free fight but whether Miss Helen stood her ground, vamosed the ranche, or took a tree the telegraph does not state.

John Sherman is now stirring up strife and doing his best to make the colored people in the South discontented, and yet in 1880, he said: "I think the National Government should help to the utmost in bringing about happy relations between the two races."

In the Ward trial James D. Fish was on the stand and told of the mysterious, mythical Government contracts and of Ward's wicked tricks. Gen. Grant's name was again dragged into unpleasant notoriety. Judge Barrett stopped the discussion of the dead man's connection with the affair.

The Chicago Current was sold on the 26th for $2,500. This excellent literary weekly has been in trouble for some months. We are glad to see it stated that it is to be continued and we hope it will be so well sustained as to remunerate all interested. It has no rival among American literary weeklies. A dispatch from Chicago says:

"The claims against the concern amount to $2,041. Mr. Grover, who is a lawyer, said that he and two others had bought the Current and would continue its publication.
All three were creditors of the company, and took the magazine to save themselves.
According to Mr. Grover, Mr. Edward L.
Wakeman, formerly editor and chief owner of the Current, is still in the Wisconsin monastery, where he sought refuge, and will not be considered in thetransaction."

The illustrious Italian actor, Salvini, is now playing in New York. He is by common consent admitted to be the greatest of living actors, his nearest rival being his eminent countryman, Rossi, who played Othello in this city a few years ago. The Times says of Salvini's Othello, with which he opened to a full house in that city:

"It was long ago recognized as the most striking and powerful performance of the character known upon any stage. Enough to fill a volume has been written about the intensity of the passion, the keenness of the suffering, and the unutterable depths of the despair which are so vividly portrayed by the great tragedian. Last night, as is usually the case when Signor Salvini plays Othello, the greatest enthusiasm was displayed by the audience at the termina-tion of the scene in which lago so skullfully plays upon the Moor's feelings and rouses in him that unconquerable demon of jeal-ously that is never to be stilled again. The splendid play of facial expression and marvellous significance of intonation which Signor Salvini employed in this scene were not lost even in the large auditorium of the Metropolitan Opera House, and he was recalled three times after the fall of the curtain, and three wreaths of laurel were thrown at his feet."

He plays in Italian. We would rather see ia less gifted actor in English. With us Shakespeare's language is two-thirds of the interest.

There is news from Mr. William J. Best. He is in trouble. The way of the transgressor is hard. He has been arrested in New York on the charge of embezzlement. The amount is $75,000, and he is accused of taking this as trustee of the will of the late Francis W. Carrutt. The evidence is said to be very strong against him. Ah, Billy Best, there were some papers in North Carolina that read you aright at the start.

Spirits Turpentine

- Raleigh Visitor: The Edgecombe Guards attended the Richmond Fair, and were highly delighted with their recep-

- Hickory Press: The cotton trade of Hickory this season will be almost double that of any previous season.

Mr. D. E. Whitener bought the 110 pound pumpkin that was on exhibition at the fair last week, which he has cut up and is now selling the seed.

- Salisbury Watchman; Mr. Abe Glover boasts of raising 35 bushels of sweet potatoes on a little less than a quarter of an acre. Mr. J. V. Barringer has just gathered 250 bushels from an acre. — There is not a cistern, a foot of hose, or an engine that will throw water across the street, in the town of Salisbury.

- Warrenton Gazette: The high fare over our line of railroad deterred many from attending the State Fair. Poor old Raleigh, it seems that every thing com-bines against her. The high railroad charges in our State ruined the financial success of our State Exposition and prerented thousands from attending.

- Wilson Mirror: Last week mortgage on the A. & R. road to aid in its extension to Raleigh was recorded here. The trust deed to the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, of New York, provides for the issuing of first mortgage bonds to the amount of $20,000 for every completed mile of track. $600,800 can at once be raised on the road between here and Wil-

- High Point Enterprise: It is estimated that the tobacco crop has been increased in the Piedmont section of the State about 50 per cent. In this county the increase has been double that. —The mining business is getting lively in this county. - Wilkes county brandy can be bought for forty cents a gallon. ——
The hogs in this neighborhood and all through the country, as far as we can learn, are dying at an alarming rate. The disease was at first thought to be cholors, but many now think it is something else, without knowing what to call it.

- Goldsboro Argus: The exasperating news comes to us that our good friend and former townsman, Mr. W. G. Hollowell, while going from this city to his home in Smithfield last Saturday evening, was grossly insulted by a drunken negro, whom Mr. Hollowell immediately knocked down; and Capt. Collier, rushing forward stopped any further difficulty. But later in the evening, while Mr. Hollowell was standing in front of Mr. Holt's hardware store in Smithfield, the negro, having procured a four pound weight somewhere, slipped up on him unawares and struck him in the mouth with it, knocking out several teeth and cutting him about the mouth and cheek most painfully, and maiming him in this respect permanently. The negro was promptly arrested, and is now in the Smithfield jail. Mr. Hellowell is one of the "broken soldiers" of the late war, having but one leg. - Rockingham Rocket: Mr. T. C Leach lost five sheep on last Thursday nigh, the work of a victous dog belonging to George Leak, colored. — On last Friday night, at the house of Martin Chambers, colored, near the Coleman mill, in the northwestern part of this county, Isaac Bostick, colored, stabbed to death his brother John. There was a gathering at brother John. There was a gathering at Chambers's corn shucking, and it is sup. posed that liquor led to the sad affair. At all events the two brothers quarrelled and fell to fighting, the crowd leaving them to fight it out. After several blows were given and returned, Isaac was seen to run and John to pursue. The former dashed into the house and slammed the door just as the latter reached the porch and fell prostrate, the blood flowing from a wound in the neck. The deadly knife had laid open the jugular voin and in ten minutes the victim was dead. It is but the truth to say that both the victim and his slayer bore a desperately bad reputation among their neighbors of both white and black. - New Berne Journal: There are quite a number of men in attendance on the District Court who we understand have been engaged in illicit distilling and cases we met yesterday an old fellow-soldier, George Turner, who is now farming near Seven Springs, Lenoir county. He says the boys all in his section have resolved to quit if they can get out this time.

The cotton crop about here is nearly all out. Proof positive that the crop is a short one.

Robt. Bynumb, from near Marlboro, Pitt county, was in our place Saturday returning with a horse stolen from him some time ago. The horse was from him some time ago. The horse was found near Warsaw, Duplin county, where the thief deserted him when caught stealing corn from the field of a Mr. Faison. The rogue, in the route from Marl-boro to Warsaw, stole a cart, which was also left, and for which no owner has been found. — Col. Davis is occupying his new school building. It is one among the best and most conveniently arranged buildings for the purpose in the State. - Raleigh News-Observer: Yesterday a reporter interviewed State Treas urer Bain on the public debt question.

There are, it appears, something like $2,600,000 in old bonds yet to come in for exchange. People hold their bonds pretty tightly, but the amount or ignorance concerning them is very great. The holders are scattered all over the country, and the letters that many of them write to the Treasurer show great ignorance. The bonds, it is thought, are held mainly in small sums. The large holders have sent their bonds in to be exchanged for the 4 per cent. consols. Nearly $10,000,000 of these old bonds of the three classes, exchanged for 15, 25 and 40 cents dollar, have been received and the exchange duly made. -A sensation may develop in the east-ern part of the State. Captain Appleton Oaksmith lives at Hollywood, Cartered county. He has been prostrated by an attack of paralysis since August 22. Since that date an article giving alleged facts i regard to his past history has had a wide circulation. The Kinston Free Press republished the article. Some one sent his wife, Mrs. Augusta Oaksmith, a copy of the paper. She writes an indignant letter, which appeared in yesterday's New Berne Journal. In this she says: "The whole article regarding my husband, Appleton Oaksmith, is an unmitigated lie, in all that relates to the slave trade, and all else unbecoming the conduct of a gentleman. I know my husband's whole life; he has never been connected with the slave trade, and of this the facts are on file in the Department of Justice in Washington. These charges originally sprang from substantial aid which he is said to have extended to Cuban patriots, and certain assistance aleged to have been furnished by him to the - DURHAM, October 27, 1885. To morrow the grand opening of Blackwell's inaugural horse fair at Blackwell's park occurs. Horses having already arrived from New York State, New Jersey,

Chicago and Baltimore.

- Charlotte Observer: An unfortunate and very serious accident occurred during the bicycle races at the fair grounds yesterday, Mr. O. F. Asbury beng thrown to the ground and badly injured. The accident occurred on the finish of the last heat in the 2 mile race. Just before reaching the goal, Mr. Asbury's foot slipped from the pedal, and he was percipitated to the ground with great vio-lence. He was picked up in an uncon-scious condition. — In Paw Creek township incendiarism holds sway. have already recorded the burning of the barns of Mr. John Cathey and Mr. Ellis McKnight, and now have two to add to that number. Night before last the barns of Mr. James McLure and Mr. Hipp, in the Paw Creek neighborhood, were destroyed by the incendiary's torch. Mr. McKnight's barn was burned by a negro woman, who is now in jail. The parties who burned the barns of Messrs. McLure and Hipp had not been captured up to a late hour last night. - Although it has been said by many of our own people that Charlotte cannot get up a fair, it is a patent fact that a fair is now going on at the grounds of the Carolina Fair Association, and such a fair as has never before been known in this city. As anticipated, yesterday's races were fine, and a large crowd was attracted to the grounds to witness the sport. There were two running races. In the first race half mile dashes Starling Clifford and Miss Payne were entered. In the toss for positions for the start, Starling won the pole, Clifford second and Miss Payne third. The start was made in fine style, and Clifford came in on the first and second heats; time 52 and 511. The second race was a mile dash, and was entered by Palmetto, Koree, Emma Burke and Elkwood. Palmetto had the pole, and the others came in the order named. Elkwood was the winner; time 1.47. — Hamilton, the man who played the villain in the Standard Dramatic per formance, died a few days ago while that company was in Wadesboro. fresh horses arrived from Washington City last night, making twenty-six racers for

All during the forenoon yesterday the weather was very threatening, and from the appearance of the clouds overhead it looked as though this section would be visited by one of those terrific storms so frequent on the North Carolina coast. And the following, which was received at the Signal Office here during the day from the Chief Signal Office at Washington, was not calculated to allay any fears that might have been entertained on the subject: "Severe storm central in North Carolina moving eastward, and will cause dangerous ping to leave port. Notify those interested in shipping."

John L. Brock, a man living in Harnett township, was arrested and brought from the Sound yesterday morning, on a peace warrant sworn out by his wife. It seems that he has been drinking very hard for some time, and in fact to such an extent that he has become perfectly crazed from the effects of the whiskey. He has threatened to kill his wife on several occasions, and a few days since attempted to carry his threat into execution, when she went before George Harper, J. P., and swore out a peace warrant against him, and he was arrested by the magistrate and brought to this city and locked up in the county jail, where he will remain until he has sufficiently recovered as to be able to have a hearing before Justice Millis. He was very violent, and seemed to be totally insane, and the officers who brought him to this city, in order to keep him from doing him, self or themselves any bodily harm, had to tie his feet and arms, a large chain being used for this purpose. Brock is said to be a desperate man, and warrants for his ar-

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY.—The following is an extract from a letter written to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburgh, Penn.: A BENEFACTERSS. Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colloking, and teething slege. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhosa. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, cures wind colle, and carries the infant safely through the solic, and carries the infant safely through the professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists, 25 cents a bottle.
