The Entertainment at Luther Memo-

The Young People's Association of St. Paul's Lutheran Church gave their first entertainment for this season at Luther Me-morial building Friday night. There was a large assemblage to witness the interest-ing exercises and all were delighted with what they saw and heard. In the absence of Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, Rev. William Stoudenmire, of Sallsbury, N. C., in a few appropriate remarks opened the proceed-ings by introducing the president of the Association, Mr. Carl W. Polvogt, when the latter rose and announced the order of exercises. The instrumental music embraced piano solos by Prof. J. H. Denck, violin and piano duets by Profa Hobbs and Greenewald, and a plano duet by Misses Lessman and Ulrich. The vocal music consisted of songs by Misses Augusta Lessman. I. F. Langrey and Lillie Rulfe, and a quar L by Mrs. Laughrey, Miss Lessman, and Messrs. C. W. Polvogt, tenor, and J. H. Rehder basso. The recitations were "Bingen on the Rhine." by Mr. A. H. Zoeller; "Setting of a Hen," in Dutch dialect, by Mr. J. H. Rehder, and a poem in German by Mr. G. W. Borneman. This programme furnished an entertainment which was really delightful. The performance of Prof. Denck was astonishing, and showed him to be a complete master of the piano. The violin and plane duets were exceedingly well rendered, the last one especially so. The piano duet was also rendered in good taste and with precision. The vocal efforts were good and the recitations were highly commendable.

Fire Yesterday Morning. Yesterday morning, about 5 o'clock, a small frame building on Campbell street, near Fourth, owned by Dr. J. H. Freeman and occupied by Pompey Harris, colored, was discovered to be on fire. The alarm was sounded and the fire department was quickly on hand, when the flames were soon extinguished. The damage was slight, amounting to only about $25.

D. M. Cox, agent of the Huntley-Gilbert Dramatic Company, is in the city. Prof. J. H. Denck thinks of locating in our city. We will be glad to welcome him.
