Cable feels more at home than ever in New England since the colored folks gave him a banquet. Cable is now happy and he will again afflict the country with one of his slanderous screeds upon the South.

The Charleston News and Courier, Louisville Courier-Journal, and perhaps other Southern Democratic papers, are publishing weekly instalments of the new and very able work of Henry George, a Democratic author of distinction on economic questions, on "Protection or Free Trade." When published in book form it will be a good work to study. There is immense, dense ignorance as to economic questions.

The Philadelphia News has sent out an exact ministure edition of its centenial issue when it attained to the age of one year. It has gained great headway in such a short time. It dishes up its news in fresh and inviting style, is progressive and Republican. Its issue on its anniversary, Oct. 3d, was a most creditiature is well done.

It is thought by the Norfolk Landmark that Mr. John S. Barbour will be Billie Mahone's successor. It says with seeming confidence: "Mr. Barbour has given Mahone three falls. A change seems to have come over British politics. A few weeks ago the Irish question was paramount. But the Tories would force an issue upon the question of disestablishment and now the chief interest centres there. A special from London dated the 7th inst., says:

"Parnell is permitted to go on arranging his campaign and nominating candidates in Ireland pretty much as he pleases, while the voters in England and Scotland are set by the ears over the question of the disestablishment of the church. The controversy has become exceedingly bitter. It has been described as 'The combat of the Established Church fighting for life against the dissenters struggling to destroy the State monopoly of religion." Everybody in Great Britain has become deeply interested in the contest and it is now thought that the result of the elections will hang entirely on the church question alone."

- Raleigh Chronicle: "We have 180 orphans at the Asylum now, and I am glad to say that the contributions are liberal," said Dr. Dixon. — A traveller on the Raleigh & Gaston road is impressed with the number of churches to be seen from the railroad. This writer has never seen so many churches along the line of any railroad in the State. We do not refer to churches in the towns, but especially in the country.

- Elizabeth City Falcon: One of the most successful and, in fact, the only revival that has taken place in the Methodist church of this city since the one held by Rev. Mr. Martin, over ten years ago, has been in progress for the past four weeks under the direction of Rev. D. P. Wills, paster in charge. Since the meeting began, some fify or sixty have professed religion and joined the church, and among them a goodly number of young men who now exhibit an anxious desire to be influential and useful Christians.

- Elizabeth City Economist: A report comes to us from Capt. Harney, of the Dickerman, of Bill Basnight, the bear hunter, that he went after bears about the middle of September, and it not being a good time for bears he only bagged three bears at that time. - We hear that Lieut. Win: low, of the U. S. Navy, will soon commence his exploration of the oyster bottoms of our section. We regard as a step in the right direction and full of mportant results to all of us, and especial ly to Dare county. We credit the Board of Agriculture with this good work.

- Snow Hill Enterprise: In our opinion the STAR is, by a large majority, the best paper in North Carolina and only one copy of it does not satisfy us. It is needed in this office every day, and we hope you will not forget where we live when you make up your mail. — On last Sunday night the store of Mr. R. J. W. Besman, of Speights Bridge township was broken into by some one, who stole quantity of clothing, dry goods, sugar groceries, &c. Three brothers, Nathan, Joseph and William Black, all colored, were arrested on suspision Monday, and in default of bail were brought here and placed in jail on Tuesday.

The Fire Committee, to whom the matter was referred by the Board of Aldermen, has agreed to all that was asked for by the electric light company. — A called meeting of the Lutheran Synod is to be held at Mt. Pleasant, in Cabarrus county, on December 6th. One of the questions to come before the body will be the ways and means of establishing an endowment fund for the North Carolina College. - Raleigh News-Observer: At a meeting of the joint committees of the city of Raleigh and the Watauga Club on the Industrial School, Mr. Wm. S. Primrose was elected chairman and Mr. C. G. Latta secretary. After the war closed he went out West, but for several years past he has lived at the Sandwich Islands, from which far distant place he has returned to his old home on a short visit. — On last Tuesday the cotton factory of the Bynum Man-ufacturing Company was sold at this place at public auction, and was bid off by a committee representing the creditors for $47,000. This sum is about one half of the original cost of the property, and was bid by the creditors to save it from being sold at too great a sacrifice. We understand that it is not the intention of the purchasers to operate the factory—at least for the pre-sent—but to hold it until it can be sold for something like its value. - Asheville Citizen: Our attention was called a few days since to the prence of a number of Indians at the Federal Court. They are among the most quiet and law abiding of our citizens. — Rev. Vardrey McBee, who has recently been chosen assistant to Rev. Dr. Buxton, of Trinity Church, in this city, arrived a few days since, — We learn that a difficulty occurred on Little Pine Creek, Madison county, last Friday, between Mr. Joseph Ledford and his son Enoch, and Mr. Bud Hagan, which resulted in the shooting of Hagan by Enock Ledford. Joseph Led ford and Hagan got into a quarrel, and the latter knocked the former down with a rock and struck him again, hurting him seriously; whereupon Enoch Ledford shot Hagan, wounding him badly, but not fatally. - Two negro boys, from 12 to 15 years of age, on Wednesday waylaid a young son of the Rev. In the fight young Lyda got the best of the two, but one of the negro boys then assailed him with a knife, cutting him up badly and in the meantime the mother of the negro boys came up and assisted in the punishment of the youth.

The first shot fired by the Lieutenant scared one of the dogs so badly that he had a fit, and the other dog took to the woods; making it necessary for one of the Captains to separate from the party and spend the balance of the day looking for his dog. The disappointed hunters returned home Friday night having only one "bird," which was captured 'at the market house.'

The Raleigh News-Observer has the following to say of the action of Maj Winder, General Manager of the Air Line Railroad, in responding so promptly to the cry for help raised by the citizens of Fayetteville during the progress of the late fire in that

"The example of General Manager Winder, of the Air-Line Railroad, in promptly and rapidly conveying the Raleigh steamer to the Fayetteville fire, cannot be too highly commended. He responded instantly to the cry of distress uttered by our neighboring town, and proved himself the friend in need who is always a friend indeed. His generous action will not soon be forgotten, he may depend."

Man Cut and Robbed. As - Gregg, a colored man who keeps an eating house in the "Hollow," was going to his home, over the railroad, about 1 o'clock Sunday morning, and when near the corner of Sixth and Bladen streets, he was assaulted by an unknown colored man, who robbed him of $3 50 and then cut him with a knife. He received a very ugly gash on his neck and another on his left breast. Gregg has no idea who the rascal

The Catholic Fair Last Night.

The City Hall last night presented a gala scene. There were flowers, flags, banners, bowers, music, lights, and the brightness and radiance of beauty, youth, life and activity. There were crowds also who vied with one another in their admiration of the appropriate and handsome manner in which the hall was decorated and festooned with evergreens, and those fantastle and attractive loopings and blending of colors which are so natural to the deft fingers of the ladies, and which are so fascinating to the balance of mankind. There were deftly wrought fancy articles, embroideries, works of art, and such like articles too numerous to be even referred to in the meagre space of a newspaper article. They were beautiful, numberless, and ever exciting admiring comment. Jacob's Well, with its neverfailing supply of cooling draughts, loomed up as a haven of enjoyment to the thirsty wayfarer; while the refreshment tables, groaning under the weight of the choicest edibles, opened to his wondering eyes the El Dorado of hope fulfilled. Here could he solace himself with the choicest fruits, creams, meats, confections and viands, calculated to satisfy the most fastidious, and at moderate prices, too. At about 9 o'clock, after an artistic rendition of some fair instrumental music by Prof. Jos. H. Denck, Mayor Hall opened the fair with an eloquent and appropriate speech, in which he referred, among other things, in fitting terms to the beauty and attractiveness of the hall and the display, to the growth of the Catholic church in this community, and winding up his remarks by an eloquent tribute to the ladies whose labor and handiwork were so apparent in the surroundings.

This article would be narrow, incomplete, without a reference to the tables. As one enters the hall on the right he is confronted by the fancy table presided over by Mrs. Deans, Mrs. P. Donlan, Mrs. Dolan, Mrs. Corbett, Mrs. Welsh and others. This is one of the most attractive tables in the hall. The canopy is beautifully looped and decorated. This table is covored with rare articles of skill and art.

The next table is presided over by Mrs. J. H. Sweeney, Mrs. F. H. Darby and Mrs. Craig, assisted by a bevy of young ladies. Here is also a candy tent. This table is gay and attractive in lights, evergreens and festoons, and contains a display of fancy articles, etc., well calculated to excite admiration.

The next table is in the centre and typifles the Temple of Liberty. In the form of a hexagon, and draped with banners almost to the ceiling and peopled with beautiful and pleasant faces, it is well calculated to make one remember his liberty and open his purse to their behests. This table, among its many attractions, contains pu merous handsome articles. It is presided over by Mrs. F. W. Kerenner, Mrs. E. Peschau, Mrs. W. P. Price, the Misses Divine and others.

The next table is presided over by Mrs. Fulton, Mrs. C. A. Price, Mrs. D. O'Connor, Mrs. T. H. Wright, Mrs. Bauman and others. Here one may spend a pleasant and interesting time admiring the display of fancy articles. This table is elegantly decorated and makes a fine appearance. After one has been the rounds, the appropriate thing is to stop at the refreshment tables, which are ably presided over by kind ladies, who will see that nothing is wanting to make this part of the entertainment fully up to any demands upon Mayor's Court.

Obediah Jenkins had a hearing before His Honor, Mayor Hall, yesterday morning, upon the same old charge of being drunk and down. It seems that Saturday night, about 10 o'clock, Jenkins was acting very disorderly in the neighborhood of the Front Street Market, in consequence of the quantity of liquor he had drank, and was arrested by Officer White. The officer had not gone far with his prisoner, however, before the latter suddenly dropped down upon the ground and refused to go any farther. Officer White then called Sergeant Bishop to his assistance, and the two endeavored to make Jenkins go with them, but without avail, the prisoner at the same time cursing and abusing and fighting the officers. Finally a cart was procured, in which Jenkins was placed, carried to the station house and locked up.

Fannie Gore, the irrepressible, also charged with disorderly conduct, was next called forward. It was in evidence that the prisoner was using very profane and indecent language in the "Hollow" Saturday night, about half-past twelve o'clock, when Officer Piver, happening to come along, arrested her and put her in the guard After hearing the evidence in the above cases, His Honor stated that there were in this city a number of offenders, similar to those at the bar, that leniency had no effect whatever upon, and that now and hereafter, when such cases appeared before him, he would give them the full extent of the law. Obediah was thereupon fined $50 and Fanny Gore $25, with the understanding that if the money was not paid they were to work upon the streets, or such other place as the Chief of Police may direct, until the amount of their fines was paid in labor.

When the report was current on our treets last week that Payetteville "was burning up" Capt. C. D. Myers, Chief of the Wilmington Fire Department, telegraphed to citizens in that town offering assistance from the Department in subduing the flames. This was very commendable in our Chief, and shows that Wilmington is not lacking in the spirit of lending aid to those in distress and needing assistance; and though aid was not needed, the offer was greatly appreciated, as the following letters will show:

FAYETTEVILLE, Nov. 6th, 1885. Charles D. Myers, Esq., Chief of Fire Department, Wilmington:

SIR:- I am directed by our City Council o convey the sincere thanks of the people of Fayetteville for the kind offer of your Fire Deportment, to aid in subduing the fire of yesterday, which at one time threatened to be serious. A kind providence, nowever, gave us strength to confine the lames to the hotel building in which it originated, but which unfortunately was entirely consumed.

With very great respect your ob't serv't, D. G. MACRAE, City Clerk.

She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has companied a Scothing Syrup for children teatha lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do miss up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are DARLY sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed.
