The new star in the great nebula of Andromeda, that was announced a few months since with such a flourish of trumpets, is rapidly waning, and in a few weeks will disappear and probably will never be seen again or not by any living astronomer.

Mothing has been heard from Ward Beecher, the eminent New York oratorical Mugwump who voted for Davenport, Blainite, in order to sustain Cleveland, W. B.'s choice in 1884 and for whom he spoke on the stump, thereby losing his grip on Plymouth Church. Is Beecher still living?

American hens are not equal to the occasion. Germany sells millions of eggs annually to the United States and New England alone buys $2,000,-000 worth of Canada. The hen-laying business should be increased. But New England is benefited by cheap Canada eggs and demands no protection for home hen industry. How is that?

The Elizabeth City Economist does not credit the statement of the STAR relative to Judge Caldwell and the Pasquotank jury. He can find no one who remembers anything about it. We obtained our information from an intelligent gentleman who was born and reared in that section of the State. Possibly the wrong county may have been given.

The Philadelphia Times is responsible for the statement that Black Jack Logan has at last realized that the bloody-shirt issue has "played out" completely and can win no more. Its Washington correspondent of the date of the 8th inst., writes:

"The bloody-shirt issue was Logan's strong point. To win with it against a square, old-fashioned Democrat would be to open the way for Logan in 1888. He is now forced to give that idea up and to acknowledge the hopelessness of such a probability. For the first time in his life Gen. Logan fully realizes that the war issue is played out, and that his party must reorganize on a stronger and more modern basis before it can hope for national suc-

To-day the grand old Liberal leader opens battle at Edinburgh. If voice does not fail him he will speak as no other living Englishman can speak. The Tory correspondent of the New York Times sends to his paper intelligence that the drift favors the Tories. It may be, but questions are "mightily mixed" and there is no telling what disestablish. ment and the two miliions of newly enfranchised voters may do at the polls.
