THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXXVII.—NO. 55. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1885. WHOLE NO. 5986

MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

The King of Spain died yesterday. The Bulgarian losses so far in the campaign are two hundred dead and two thousand wounded. It is officially announced that King Milan has accepted a proposition for an armistice. The Metropolitan Hotel, St. Louis, burned; a man was seriously injured; a woman who threw herself from a third-story window and was killed had her throat cut; it is thought here assassin set fire to the building to cover his crime. A number of lives lost by the fall of a tenement house in Vice President Hendricks died suddenly at his home in Indianapolis yesterday afternoon from paralysis of the brain. Twelve persons severely injured in an accident on the Chesler and Lenoir Narrow Gauge Railroad. A freight train thrown into the river near Warm Springs, N. C.; engineer and fireman killed. King Milan proposes peace with Bulgaria; the Jersey City, N. J. A cabinet council in France is anticipated. The Servians assaulted Widdin after an all-night bombardment, but were repulsed. Austria is concentrating troops on the Bosnian frontier. Montenegro threatens to take a hand in the Bulgarian mess. War is considered ended. The most uneasiness prevails in diplomatic circles in Constantinople at the menacing attitude of Austria and Russia. New York Market—Money 3 1/2 per cent.; cotton firm at 97 1/2 @ 98; wheat, ungraded red 76 @ 95c; corn, No. 2, 55 @ 54c; southern flour steady; spirits turpentine weak at 37 1/2c; rosin dull at $1 02 @ 1.01.

The South Carolina Legislature is again in session. England is now suffering from a greatly depressed iron trade. Chicago is making great preparations to welcome Parnell to this country.

The Northern Methodist Church appropriated $750,000 for its foreign missionary work for 1886. Five thousand people are reported drowned by a cyclone in India, which destroyed 150 villages. Washington policemen admire the females. One killed a female prisoner and he had to pay $10 for the fee.

After all, Prince Alexander has outgeneralled King Milan and the Servians. He has had a soldier's training. Carting! The American Iron and Steel Association are opposed to any Tariff reduction. "In course, my breathing."

Gen. Robert E. Lee is to have a monument in Richmond, Va., and competitive designs are to be sent in within two months. Clara Morris is to appear in Richmond, Va., on the 3d prox. She is the greatest of American actresses unless Miss Anderson can rival her.

Burmah is at war and Burmah furnishes three-fourths of the rice consumed outside of China and the Indies. What effect the war with England will have upon the price of rice is to be seen hereafter.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Times says that the scheme to distribute the Appropriation bill in the House of Representatives is likely to succeed. There is excellent reason why this should be done.

The present British House of Commons contains 652 members. The next House will contain 670. England and Wales will have 263 county seats and 242 borough seats. Ireland 85 county and 18 borough seats. Scotland 39 county and 33 borough seats.

The Washington STAR, Independent Republican, is authority for the statement that boycotting of newly-appointed Democratic postmasters is being practiced by the Republicans in localities where they are strong. This is shameful. The offices belong to the Republicans do they not?

A gentleman of education in Scotland Neck writes on the 23d inst. as follows: "The STAR is always read with much pleasure. I find that it contains more information adapted to my wants than any other daily I can find." Thanks. We are glad to receive almost weekly some such commendation and encouragement as that just given.

DEATH OF THE VICE PRESIDENT.

The whole country will be shocked to hear of the death of Hon. THOMAS ANDREWS HENDRICKS, Vice President of the United States. It occurred yesterday afternoon at Indianapolis and was very sudden and unexpected. At the hour we write we have, but few particulars of the sad event.

A true man and a sound Democrat has fallen. He has served his country well and conscientiously, and there is no stain on his escutcheon. A man of decided talents; a man of courage of conviction; a man of sincerity and of principle, he has deserved well of his countrymen, and has been often honored with high positions of trust which he filled with fidelity, zeal and capability. He has shown himself to be a statesman who had opinions he was not afraid to proclaim and uphold; a man of honor and scrupulous integrity under every trial; a man warmly attached to the great fundamental principles of the Democratic party, under whose banner he fought so many gallant fights and won so many victories; he deserved and received the confidence of his party. He was a strict party man, and people of all parties always knew just where THOMAS A. HENDRICKS could be found. By his labors and talents and devotion to sound political principles he has deserved well of his country and has been often honored. As Governor of Indiana; as a Senator in the United States Congress; as a statesman of true patriotism and broad views he has been identified with much of the history of his State and country. He has been a prominent leader for almost forty years.

He was born in Muskingum county, Ohio, the 7th day of September, 1819, and was, therefore, in his 67th year of his age. He was married to Indiana when but six months old. He was born in a log cabin and died Vice President of the United States. When in his twenty-fifth year he married Miss Lucy C. Morgan, a beautiful daughter of accomplished parents. He read law and soon achieved success. When twenty-eight he was elected to the Legislature. He was elected to the U. S. House of Representatives twice. He was nominated for Governor in 1855, but was defeated. He was elected U. S. Senator in 1862, and served six years. In 1870 he was again defeated for Governor. In 1872, he was elected Governor. In 1876, he was elected Vice President of the United States on the Tilden ticket. All know how he was defrauded. In 1884, he nominated in the Democratic National Convention Hon. Joseph E. McDonald, of Indiana, for the Presidency in a fine speech. He was nominated on the Cleveland ticket, again for the Vice Presidency and was elected. His election was not only richly deserved but was retributive justice.

In a few days he would have presided over the Senate of the United States, but God has willed otherwise. The Democratic party of the Union is sorely bereaved. A champion of the people and a faithful exponent of genuine Democratic principles has fallen, full of years and full of honors. All good, true men will regret his death. We write too hurriedly to undertake careful analysis or to express in fitting language our sense of the loss the country has sustained. An honest, upright, courageous expounder of sound political principles is forever lost to the party. It may be seen hereafter as events unfold themselves what is the magnitude and significance of the loss.

If you would see the consolidation idea enforced read an article in the Century by Rev. Lyman Abbott. He wants everything to be in Government hands. You can find Southern Democrats who would be willing to have the Federal Government to have control of all railroads and telegraphs. They have not learned their Democratic alphabet yet.

Georgia boasts of a boy preacher but five years old. Put him to bed and when he is eight years old send him to school. There is enough ignorance in the pulpit now.

In the case of certain druggists charged with misdemeanor in neglecting to renew registration as required by law, a motion was made by the State that William Simpson, Secretary of the North Carolina Board of Pharmacy, be adjudged the prosecutor in the case; and it appearing to the Court upon the evidence produced on the trial that this prosecution was instituted at the solicitation of the said Wm. Simpson; and, furthermore, that the defendant produced a receipt of the said Simpson showing that he had paid the fees and renewed his registration, as required by the acts of Assembly, for one year from the month of September, 1884, it is adjudged by the Court that this prosecution is frivolous, and that the said Wm. Simpson be adjudged the prosecutor in this case and ordered to pay the costs thereof.

The Fire Last Night.
Fire broke out last night about half-past eight o'clock in a small grocery store on Green street, between McRea and Anderson streets. The flames spread to two buildings adjoining—a double tenement and a single tenement house—occupied by colored people. The store and the stock of goods it contained, belonging to Rev. A. M. Conway, pastor of the colored Baptist church, were destroyed, as was also the smaller one of the two dwellings, which also belonged to Conway. The larger building was gutted by the flames; the efforts of the fire department saving it from complete destruction, as well as preventing the spread of the fire to contiguous buildings. It could not be ascertained whether the property burned was insured or not.

Supreme Court Decisions.
In the Supreme Court on Monday decisions were filed in the following cases:
Beck et al vs Bellamy, executor, from New Hanover. No error.
State vs McNeill, et al, from New Hanover. No error.
State vs Lewis, from Sampson. Error.
Navassa Guano Co. vs Bridges, from Robeson. Error.
Rowland et al vs Rowland, from Robeson. Error.
State vs Alonzo Thompson, from Robeson. Judgment arrested.
Corvington et al vs town of Rockingham, from Richmond. No error.
State vs McDowell, from Bilsden. Appeal dismissed.
State vs Freeman, from Robeson. Judgment affirmed.

The Shop-lifters.
Mary Fisher, Sophia Fisher and Mary McNeill, the three colored women convicted of larceny at the May term of the Criminal Court, will in all probability serve out their sentence of six years each in the State Penitentiary. The case was appealed to the Supreme Court, which has decided that there was no error and affirmed the decision of the court below.
