MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

President Cleveland has determined not to make the trip to Indianapolis. — Serbia wants peace but refuses to pay any indemnity to Bulgaria. — The King of Burmah has surrendered to the British. — Henry Mason, a negro who murdered a farmer in Campbell county, Va., was lynched by a mob. — Payments on account of pensions during the last month amount to about $11,000,000; there has been an increase instead of the usual decrease in the public debt the past month. — The U. S. Supreme Court adjourned yesterday in respect of the late Vice President. — Three little children set fire to a mattress in a house at Providence, R. I., and were arrested. — Secretaries Bayard, Lamar and Endicott and Postmaster General Vilas left Washington for Indianapolis. — The Jones hotel, at Omaha, Neb., burned; the occupants escaped by jumping from windows in their night clothes. — The Warner House at Emporium, Pa., burned; three guests were dangerously and many others slightly injured by jumping from windows. — New York markets: Money 3/4 @ 4 per cent.; cotton steady at 97 1/2 @ 98; wheat, ungraded red 76 @ 76 1/2; corn, No. 2, 54 1/2 @ 55; southern flour steady at $3 60 @ 50; spirits turpentine dull at $7 1/2; rosin steady at $1 02 @ 1.10. — Twenty Protestants were injured by the Irish rioters at Londonderry. — Don Carlos hopes to succeed to the throne by having the army to rally around him. But will it? — Rev. Dr. A. B. Brown, professor in Richmond College, died unexpectedly Friday night last, aged 64.

Senator Beck refuses to express any opinion on the silver question until he has read the President's message. — Logan's friends are hard at work trying to make him President pro tem of the Senate. Ingalls, Sherman and Edmunds are all candidates. — A Democratic paper is simply bound to support the Administration when it is Democratic. It cannot do otherwise without stultification and desertion. — Wiley Bryan has been indicted by the grand jury at Nashville, Tenn., for writing indecent letters to Miss Fannie Dorman. Both belong to "our best society." The feeling against him is strong. — Miss Winslow, a young woman who is attracting much attention in Europe because of her beauty, was born in Boston. She is dividing honors with Miss Chamberlain, another American beauty. Glad to hear that Boston has one pretty woman. — Senator Voorhees denies emphatically that he will not attack the President. There are a set of boot-licks in politics who abuse you if you do not "go the whole hog." You must not dare to question Cleveland's superlative wisdom but indorse all that he does and says. Such persons lack character. They are born sycophants. — At Louisville, Ky., Joseph Alsbury, a very popular reporter of the Courier Journal was assaulted by four young bloods, sons of rich men. He was stabbed and badly beaten. The lads have been arrested and will be vigorously prosecuted. There is much indignation at the unprovoked and murderous assault. At Galveston, Texas, Mayor Fulton attacked Col. R. G. Lowe, managing editor of the News. A fight with sticks and a drawn battle was voted. Both battered about the head. — Mrs. Hendricks on Saturday gave a recital of her husband's last hours. An account says: "To her friends she gave a loving account of Mr. Hendricks's last hours, what he was doing and what he said about ordinary affairs, there not being any apprehension on the part of either of a sudden fatal termination of his illness. While lying on the bed only a few hours before his death he read several papers and a few chapters in the book 'Lazarus of London,' in which he appeared much interested, and discussed with her the books and the dispatches in the papers. He wanted to be at work answering the letters of personal friends, but she urged that she should remain quiet in accordance with the physician's instructions. She talked calmly of these things, but when she attempted to fall back, after leaving him cheerful and almost free from pain, for a few minutes, she returned to find him cold in death, she broke down completely and wept almost hysterically."

Ab! As soon as this? It is now given out that Lord Salisbury is not averse to forming an alliance with the Liberals in order to disrupt the Irish. If this is not done it is said that the Parnellites will boss the Parliament and rule the country. A London special says:

"Mr. Gladstone is English above all things. He has it in his power to deprive Mr. Parnell of all the expected benefits he counts on in the control of a solid Irish party. He need only ally himself with the Conservatives on all the Irish measures to do this. "Such an alliance would be in accord with the past history of the Liberal party, and would be exceedingly grateful to the Tories. It would leave the Parnellites and Radicals out in the cold, for combined they would be an insignificant minority in comparison to their allied opponents. The practical and political justice of this form of retaliation is apparent, and there are already indications that the 'grand old man' has made up his mind to adopt it."

The reports about the manner of treatment of Gen. Grant's daughter at the hands of her husband are again rife in the newspapers. He seems to be a mere English brute. Mrs. Lucy Hooper writes from Paris referring to the rumor. She says: "None of these details, however painful, will surprise any of those Americans in Europe who were in any degree acquainted with the parties. An American gentleman, who was a fellow passenger with Mr. and Mrs. Sartoris on the steamer that conveyed them from New York to Liverpool immediately after the wedding, told me at the time that all the Americans on board were brought up from the hold upon the arrival of the ship at Liverpool. Mr. Sartoris indulged in a great deal of swearing respecting their size and number."

The mystery is why a pretty American girl, daughter of the greatest American citizen, should desire to marry a brute.

N. C. CONFERENCE. Fourth Day. Charlotte Observer.

L. W. Crawford presented the report of Oak Ridge Institute and Jonesboro High School, which were read and referred by caption to the Board of Education. — Rev. D. C. Kelly, D. D., treasurer of the Board of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, was introduced to the Conference. — F. C. Robbins, W. C. Norman, H. C. Wall and T. J. Dally, were appointed on the Board of Education to supply vacancies. — Question 10 was taken up, viz: "What local preachers are elected deacons?" Decatur F. Morrow having been recommended according to the Discipline of the Quarterly Conference of Columbus Mission, Shelby district, was elected to deacon's orders. — L. L. Nash, from the committee to whom was referred the papers in reference to Paine Institute, submitted a report which was read. Rev. W. C. Dunlap addressed the Conference as to the objects and interests of that institution, and a collection was taken up in its behalf. — On motion of Donald W. Bain, a committee on the publication of the Conference was ordered, and the following were appointed to serve as committee: N. M. Jurney, W. L. Cunningham, J. B. Carpenter, C. W. Byrd and George T. Simmons. — R. A. Willis, from the committee of investigation in the case of F. H. Wood, submitted the following report, which was read and adopted: "We, the committee appointed in the case of Rev. Frank H. Wood, beg leave to report that having carefully investigated the whole matter, we find nothing inconsistent with Christian or ministerial character. — E. A. Willis, V. A. Sharpe, B. B. Culbreth. — L. S. Burkhead from the committee appointed at the last Conference, submitted a report, representing a majority of the committee, which was read. He also presented a report representing the minority of the committee. — L. W. Crawford moved that the majority report be adopted. — J. E. Mann moved that the minority report be adopted. — On motion of J. T. Bagwell, the further consideration of this subject was postponed until Monday morning at 10 o'clock, and it was made the special order for that hour. This refers to the division of the Conference. The majority report is adverse to the division, while the minority reports favors it. The discussion upon this subject will, therefore, begin at 10 o'clock Monday morning. — E. A. Yates, in behalf of Trinity College, presented a report which was read and referred to the Board of Education with the report of the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees. — T. M. Jones, President of Greensboro Female College, submitted a report which was read and referred to the Board of Education. — James Wilson presented a resolution passed by the Warrenton district conference, requesting the appointment of a Sunday School agent for this annual conference as contemplated in answer 2, paragraph 60, of the discipline, which was referred to the Sunday School Board. — Question 7 was recalled, viz: "Who are the deacons of one year?" Clater W. Smith, Charles O. Durant, Lawrence O. Wyoche, Barns P. Holder, Edward L. Pell, Isaac A. White and Alphaeus McCullen having been approved by the examining committee and having passed the examination of character, were continued deacons of one year. William J. Crowson passed the examination of character and was continued in the class of the third year.

The hour of 12 o'clock having arrived, the Bishop introduced the subject of Foreign Missions as the special order. — Dr. D. C. Kelly addressed the conference on this subject and at the conclusion of his remarks, pledges were obtained from the preachers for a collection on their pastoral charge for Foreign Missions during the month of next February. — Rev. David Morton, D. D., secretary of the Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, was introduced to the Conference. — Under question 18, "Who are superannuated?" the application of Chas. M. Anderson, for a superannuated relation was, on motion of W. H. Moore, referred to the committee on Conference Relations. — Rev. J. B. Carpenter, statistical secretary of the Conference, submitted his statistical report for the past year as follows: Number of members 77,351, a gain of 2,463. Number of Sunday Schools 833, a gain of 12. Number of Sunday School scholars 45,040. Number of parsonages 102, a gain of 4. Value of parsonages $140,910, a gain of $11,045. Number of churches 867, a gain of 21. Value of churches $984,290, a gain of $49,998. Number of infants baptized 2,407. Number of adults baptized 3,017.

Spirits Turpentine

A fire broke out in Greensboro Female College and was quickly suppressed with Lewis' Hand Fire Extinguisher. — Philadelphia News: The North Carolina man who sent an application for a postoffice to "his Majesty Grover Cleveland, President-elect," is still looking for an answer. — Asheville Advance: A correspondent from Barnardsville writes us under date of the 27th inst. that John Roberts, who escaped from Madison jail some four months ago, was recaptured on the 18th in Tennessee by Constable Whitmore and the Greenhouse boys. There was a reward of $100 for Roberts. — New Bern Journal: Rice sold as high as $1 07 per bushel in this market yesterday. — The steamer Deference sailed for Baltimore Thursday with the largest cargo ever carried on the Bern by steamer. It consisted of 812 bales of cotton, 258 barrels of cleaned rice, 68,000 shingles, 73,000 wood planks, 200 sacks of cotton seed meal, and many other smaller articles. — Charlotte Observer: Robert Graham was in the city yesterday and reported the result of his Thanksgiving hunt as follows: Forty rabbits, eight partridges and one snipe. — At Hamlet, on the Carolina Central road, night before last, a colored man named Johnston, was killed by another colored man, whose name we could not ascertain. The murderer was captured yesterday at Rockingham. — Wilson Advance: Judge Conors is in the judicial chair with the ease and familiarity of an old hand at the business. — The W. & W. road threatens—and we believe they mean what they say—to build a road from Rocky Mount to Nashville, and the Albemarle & Raleigh road as they intend to run around the road, and by so doing tap the old Nash. With these two chances it is but natural that the people of our sister county should feel pretty sure of one road at least. — Weldon News: Died, on the 18th inst., at the residence of her husband, near Gaston, Mrs. King White, after a painful illness of several weeks. — Ellis Hamill, a colored boy, 20 years of age, was seriously shot Saturday evening last at the house of James White, near Heathville. Ben White saw a hawk and sprung the gun to shoot, not knowing Ellis was in the back of the kitchen, and so ran around the house. The gun accidentally fired, filling Ellis with his contents. He is badly hurt, but will probably recover. — Raleigh Visitor: John C. Gorran, postal clerk on the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line Railroad between this city and Hamlet, has tendered his resignation to take effect on the first day of January next. — We regret to announce that our old and esteemed fellow-citizen, Mr. Sylvester Smith, met with an accident yesterday afternoon, which came near proving a serious one. He was walking across Fayetteville street, and the Citizens' National Bank to the postoffice, when he was run over by a horse attached to a buggy and knocked down. — Fayetteville Observer-Gazette: A colored woman, who formerly cooked at the Fayetteville Hotel, was arrested on the charge of having stolen about $100 worth of clothing and valuables belonging to the families of the two proprietors. The articles were found in her possession, but she is believed to be innocent. — In recent conversation with the president of the O. P. & Y. V. R. C., Col. Julius A. Gray, he stated that though much had been done here expected to accomplish much more. Box cars have been turned out, the excellence of which will stand the test of rigid examination anywhere. But in the future other parts in the necessary make-up of a complete train are to be made, providing steady employment to laborers. — Goldsboro Argus: John R. Jolley, colored, living near Kinston, exhibited a mammoth turnip on our streets yesterday. It was 11 inches in circumference, 9 inches in diameter, and weighed 9 pounds. He brought it to exhibit at the colored Fair, but was too late for entry. — We see from our Kinston exchanges that Oliver Stallings, who has twice gone up to the penitentiary for this city for larceny, has again been putting a felonious hand upon other people's property, and is now in Kinston jail. — A painful burning accident occurred on John street yesterday morning, at the residence of Mr. L. B. Bass. His aged aunt, Mrs. D. A. Jennings, who lives with him, while under an attack of vertigo, fell in the fire and sustained serious burns about the ears and the back of the neck. — Duplin Superior Court convenes at Kenansville to-morrow, with Hon. E. T. Boykin presiding. This will be Mr. Boykin's first court. The trials are all over. The colored people have returned to their homes. They have had a creditable display, and one that should stimulate them to greater excellence in the future. As a race they have here shown that they are making rapid progress in industrial pursuits.

— Raleigh News-Observer: Mr. John P. Stedman, formerly of this city, but now of Egypt, Chatham county, was here yesterday. He says the coal mines near there are to be reopened next summer. One of these mines has a shaft 480 feet in depth. — Judge Clark has held court continuously since July 13th. He is a laborious Judge and never shirks work. — There came near being a fatal accident at Durham Thursday night, at G. W. Atkinson's restaurant. A man named Edwards, from Morrisville, Wake county, who boarded at the place, went there while intoxicated, and with a pipe in his mouth lay upon the bed. His clothing caught fire. — When this was detected the bed was in flames. It was only by quick work that Edwards was dragged from the blazing bed and his life saved. — At the meeting of the Baptist Puritify of Wake Forest, in President; Dr. W. A. Nelson, of Raleigh, is Secretary, and Prof. Foteat, of Wake Forest, is Treasurer. — CHARLOTTE, Nov. 26. — The sermon of Rev. W. F. Tillett, Professor of Systematic Theology at Vanderbilt University, was most masterly one. His text, "Aaron's rod swallowed up their rod," served a fine purpose in illustrating and enforcing the truth that ultimately the Christian religion would swallow up the false systems of the world, such as Buddhism, fetishism, atheism, rationalism, &c. Mr. Tillett is a fine reasoner and he presents thoughts filled with power and clearness. Mr. Tillett is a young man who promises to be one of the very best theologians of the Southern church, if not of the whole country. He is a son of Rev. John Tillett, of the North Carolina Conference. [Prof. Tillett is a native of Granville county. — STAB.]

THIEVES SENTENCED. Three Female Shop-Lifters and a Colored Man to go to the Penitentiary.

There was a lugubrious looking quartette seated in the prisoner's dock in the court house yesterday afternoon. Three of the four were women—the notorious shop-lifters—and the other a man. The women sat with heads bowed down and handkerchiefs to their eyes as if they were weeping; the man surveyed the surroundings with apparent indifference. There were but few spectators; the Solicitor of the Criminal Court was in his seat, the Clerk was at his desk, and his Honor Judge Meares upon the bench, and the prisoners' counsel and a few of the sheriff's deputies were present. — Margaret Fisher, Sophia Fisher, Mary McNeill and James Collins, all colored, and all convicted of larceny at the September term of the Criminal Court for New Hanover county, but whose cases were carried by appeal to the Supreme Court of the State, were brought before Judge Meares to be re-sentenced, the Supreme Court having affirmed the judgment of the lower court in their cases. — Margaret Fisher is a mulatto woman about 55 years of age and the mother of Sophia Fisher, who is about 25 years of age and unmarried. Mary McNeill is darker than the other two, and has a husband and children living in the city. These three women were indicted at the September term of the court for stealing dry goods, clothing, hats and other articles from the stores of a number of merchants of this city, were tried, convicted and sentenced, each to six years imprisonment in the State Penitentiary. Three other colored women—Ida Fisher, Lizzie Riley and Jane Holdred—indicted for the same offense were acquitted. Yesterday, when the prisoners were arraigned in the court house for sentence, Mr. A. G. Ricard, counsel for Margaret and Sophia Fisher and Mary McNeill, asked the clemency of the Court, stating that they had been in jail nearly seven months, and that though their guilt had been proven there were others who escaped who were, evidently, equally guilty. His Honor Judge Meares fixed the term of their imprisonment at five years in the State Penitentiary—one year less than the previous sentence—in consideration of the imprisonment they had already undergone in the county jail. — In the case of James Collins, sentenced to four years in the State penitentiary for stealing a lot of hams from the store of Mr. John L. Boatwright and which case had also been taken by appeal to the Supreme Court from the September term of the Criminal Court, Judge Meares fixed the sentence at three years in the penitentiary, in consideration of Collins' former good character and the imprisonment he had already undergone. Mr. F. H. Darby appeared as counsel for Collins and addressed the Court in his behalf. — Criminal Court. — At the recent term of the Criminal Court for this county the grand jury returned forty-two true bills—four not true. There was one capital felony tried, six convictions for larceny and a special verdict in the fence cases. There were thirty-six convictions in all. Seven prisoners will go up from this court to the State penitentiary and six to the county house of correction. — Proclamation from the Mayor. — The funeral of Vice President Hendricks takes place to-day in Indianapolis, Ind. As a mark of respect for his memory, Mayor Hall, by proclamation, requests that all flags of shipping in port be displayed at half-mast, that the bells of the city be tolled, and business generally suspended from twelve to one o'clock to-day. — Real Estate at Auction. — Yesterday the Davis ice-house property, fronting on South Front street near the market house, and running back to the river (including wharf), was sold by auction at the court house door for cash. Mr. E. E. Burruss was the purchaser, at $6,700. The sale was made under foreclosure of mortgages aggregating $10,000. — Mayor's Court. — Henry Jones, colored, was fined five dollars in this court yesterday morning, for disorderly conduct on the streets Saturday night. — Victoria Arthur and Artemisia Arthur were fined three dollars each for disorderly conduct. — RIVER AND MARINE. — Two unknown pleasure yachts entered and anchored in Wrightsville Sound, Sunday, opposite Moore's Inlet. One was schooner-rigged and the other sloop-rigged. — Steamer Fannie, Nielsen, hence, arrived at Liverpool Nov. 27. — Nor. braver Eilder, Gundersen, for London, passed Dover Nov. 27. — Schr. Roger Moore, Gilkey, sailed from Philadelphia for this port Nov. 28. — The River Queen did not make her appearance on the river yesterday as announced. She is still at the dry dock, but will be ready in a day or two. — Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. — Rev. STRAYERS thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman: "We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly to infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and the parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which would be perfect, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as 'bright as a button.' And during the process of teaching the value is inestimable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child, till it had finished with the teaching stage, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists, 25 cents a bottle."

Mr. Waller has made numerous friends here by his affable manners and gentlemanly bearing, and there will be many who will regret to hear of his departure. Good-bye "Cousin John." Good luck to you, in whatever you undertake. — St. Paul's Episcopal Church. — One is apt to hear a good Gospel sermon at St. Paul's Episcopal church. The rector, Rev. Thomas M. Ambler, is careful to preach discourses that are so filled with Bible doctrine and so earnest and spiritual that that people of all classes may be edified. It is a good place for members of other denominations to attend when their pastors are absent, for they will hear that which is calculated to excite to renewed diligence and to arouse a deeper hungering and thirsting after holy living. In saying this we can offer no higher or juster commendation. Such a sermon was that on last Sunday morning, based on Romans 12:13. We are glad to know that the rector and members of St. Paul's are bending their energies towards erecting a new and handsome structure upon the site of the present church. The religious people of Wilmington ought to aid in this good work.

That Sledge Hammer.

THAT SLEDGE HAMMER HAD THE desired effect. Prices were knocked so low that consternation reigned among all our competitors. Every customer was sold who visited our store last week, and a great majority of those who became purchasers when we named the price. This week we intend to keep up the good work. We will display the famous MASON'S DRESS SUITS in Black, Blue, and Red Colored Corduroy for $10.00 ever shown in this city. These suits are fully worth $18.00, and sell readily at that price; but we promised last week a piano in prices, and we propose to keep our promise. We have not been saying much about FURNISHING GOODS lately, but it is not because we haven't the stock. We propose to make a big hole in our stock in the next few weeks, and every one interested will find they can save money and be better suited by buying from us. Watch the papers next Thursday for startling disclosures. A. DAVID, Merchant Tailor and Clothier. no 29 t
