MORNING EDITION

OUTLINES.

The Republican Senatorial caucus has nominated Senator Sherman for President pro tem. - Senator Harris of Tenn. was nominated by the Democratic caucus. _ Thirty passengers badly injured in a railroad wreck near Gordon, Texas. -Terrible wind storm at Omaha; did considerable damage to buildings. -- One man killed and several others injured in a collision of two trains on the Brooklyn bridge. - The cotton crop in sight is 3 464,993 bales. - The House Demoeratic caucus nominated Carlisle for Speaker; Reed of Me., has been nominated for the same position by the Republicans. _ A fierce snow and wind storm at Quebec, Canada. - New York markets: Money 21@2 per cent.; cotton dull at 9 7.16@94c; wheat, ungraded red 80@98c; corn, ungraded 49@541c; southern flour steady; spirits turpentine dull at 874c; rosin dull at $1 024@1 10.

Tennessee iron is advancing. In the last few days the price has gone up $1.50 in the ton.

Fitz Lee's majority over Wise was 16,533-official. Massey, for Lieutenant Governor, had 14,388.

Gen. Sheridan wants a big army but the people do not. In his annual report he recommends a large

It is announced from Washington that the members of Congress of both parties will unite in supporting the Hoar bill regulating the Presidential succession, giving it the Cabint, and thus closing the back door gainst accidents and assassins. This fact reduces the importance of the President pro tem. of the Senate.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 2.—Charlotte Wickliffe, colored, died here to-night, aged 117. She has 15 living children, the oldest nearly a hundred years old, and 60 grand-children. She claims to have handed Gen. Washington a cup of water at the battle of Yorktown. - Exchange.

She was quite a baby to the old negro we saw in Wilmington a few years ago who was well acquainted with Christopher Columbus. North Carolina is still ahead.

The Registrar General of England reports that in ten years the average longevity has exceeded all former years. For England and Wales the rate was 21.27 in the 1,000, which is a considerable gain. The death rate of Wilmington, including both races, has not exceeded 20 in the 1,000 in ten years but one. It has been as low as 16 or 17.

They are discussing in Washington who shall be the Democratic nominee for the Presidency of the Senate. Senator Ransom is next to the oldest Senator in length of service. The Washington correspondent of the Charleston News & Courier writes on Dec. 1st:

"If 'Senatorial courtesy' should prevail, Eli Saulsbury, of Delaware, or Matt. W. Ransom, of North Carolina, would be en-titled to the exalted position because of seniority in point of service in the Senate. Saulsbury entered the Senate in 1871, and Ransom the year following. Both of these gentlemen have served their respective States faithfully and evidently satisfactori-ly, but their most ardent admirers admit that they are hardly capable of filling the vacancies caused by the absence of Lamar, Bayard and Garland."

of which number travel exclusively in the Southern States. - A colored boy charged with disorderly behavior near the Carolina Central Railroad depot was locked up in the guard house yesterday. - Merchants are busy getting their holiday goods in order for the Christmas trade. Santa Claus will have lots of

- The special weather bulletin for November, sent out by the Signal Bureau, says that in the northern portion of the South Atlantic States there was an excess of one inch of rainfall and in the Southern portion the deficiency is from one to three inches.

Hungarian Farm-Laborers. A gentleman who has put himself to some trouble to inform himself on the subject tells us that farmers who have tried Hungarians as farm laborers in Eastern Virginia are very much pleased with both the men and women. The prices paid, he says, vary from $10 to $12 for men and $6 to $8 per month and board for women. If worked alongside of negroes they do not do so well. When worked to themselves they are far superior to the present labor of the South. The papers have been speaking of the exodus of negroes from this State to Arkansas. There appears to be a tendency of the Hungarians to come south from Eastern Pennsylvania, notably Reading, Pa. Those interested should confer with our State Immigration Commissioner with a view to supplying a great need on Operatic.

"A Mountain Pink" will be presented at the Opera House here on the 9th and 10th insts. The story of the plot is a very pret ty little romance, with the usual amount of love and dramatic situations. There are moonshiners and abducted girls and Southern planters, with a villian and a hero. The play runs along very smoothly and is full of interest from beginning to end. Miss Bella Moore, the pretty little star, is said to remind one at once of Annie Pixley, and of Lotta at times. Her play is said to be exceedingly natural, she is pretty and possesses a full melodious voice. The play is full of good situations and highly interesting from beginning to end.

The Sling-shot Nuisance.

A colored woman with a little girl who had her head bandaged was at the City Hall vesterday afternoon, to make complaint against a lot of boys who assemble on Fifth street, near Wooster, and annoy the neighborhood with those dangerous nuisances called "sling-shots." The child had a severe wound on the back of her head caused by one of the missiles. People living in other parts of the city complain of the same annoyance, and the Chief of Police is determined to put a stop to it.

Complimentary German. A german was given Friday night last by young gentlemen of this city, complimentary to a number of young ladies visiting friends here-Miss Branch of Wilson, Miss Jeanie Williams of Fayetteville, Miss Gray of Greensboro, Miss Flemming of Savannah, and Miss China of Sumter, S. C. There were about fifty couples present. The favors were exquisite, and costly and numerous, and the music, superintended

by Prof. Greenewald, very fine.

Anniversary Ball. : On next Wednesday, the 9th inst., Germania Cornet Band will give a grand ball to commemorate its first anniversary. The music will be furnished by the band and the Italian harpers. The committee having the matter in charge are determined to market. Even New Orleans was an eighth make it the most enjoyable event of the YESTERDAY'S GALE.

A Slight Touch of a Storm that Prevalled on the Middle Atlantic Coast. The gale that began here at an early hour resterday morning was heralded by the Signal Bureau ordering up the warning signal at 5.40 p. m., Friday, for a severe storm that would extend over the Middle Atlantic and New England States on Saturday. The blow began here about one o'clock in the morning, promptly on time, and continued with unabated severity until daylight, the highest velocity being twentyseven miles an hour.

After 8 a, m, the wind moderated, gradually changed direction from southwest to northwest, and the temperature began to fall, thus verifying another prediction of the Signal Bureau, which at 12.45 a. m. telegraphed "Hoist cold wave signal. The temperature will fall from fifteen to twenty five degrees by Sunday morning." And fall it did, for at 6 a. m. yesterday the temperature was sixty-four degrees, at 2 p. m. it had fallen to fifty degrees, and at 9 p. m. to forty-two degrees. The cold-wave signal-a large white flag with a red centrewas not displayed at the office here, because the storm signal was up.

The storm caused but little damage in the city. The barque Hattie H., lying in the stream nearly opposite Ann street dock, dragged her anchors and was driven against the wharves above Orange street. She sustained no injury, however, and later in the day proceeded down the river to Smith-

At Smithville, the velocity of the wind was thirty-six miles an hour. No damage was done to the shipping in the harbor or to property on shore.

The schooner Rebecca H. Queen went ashore during the night at Bay beach, near New Inlet, in a bad position, and it was feared would be a total loss. At last accounts she had five feet of water in her hold. The schooner is from New London, Conn., for Savannah, Ga., with a cargo of guano. Her captain came up last night to make arrangements for a tug to go to the assistance of his stranded vessel.

North of Wilmington, along the coast, the gale was probably more severe. Communication with Hatteras was broken by the storm and no intelligence could be had from that point.

Sailing of Missionaries. We see from the Richmond papers that special farewell services were held in that city last Sunday night in honor of eleven missionaries sent out to foreign lands by the Baptists of the South. A part of them are going to Brazil, the rest to China. Of those going to China are Rev. D. W. Herring and wife, and Rev. R. T. Bryan and wife, who are from this part of North Car-

Mr. Bryan will join Dr. M. T. Yates, who has been at Shanghai for forty years and who is also from this State. Mr. Herring will take the station at Sou-Chow, about 60 miles from Shanghai. They will sail on the 12th inst. from San Francisco and the Board of Foreign Missions asks that that day, Saturday, be a day of specia prayer in their behalf.

The River.

Latest advices from Fayetteville report five feet of water on the shoals and the river falling. The steamers Murchison and Hurt were the latest arrivals here; the Hurt getting in Friday evening and the Murchison yesterday morning. The latter tied up during the heavy blow Friday night. Both boats left for Fayetteville yesterday with fair freights.

The Fire Department turned out in a hurry yesterday at one p. m., in answer to an alarm for a fire on Third between Orange and Ann streets. It was in a new building in process of construction for Mr. Wm. Latimer, in a pile of shavings in one of the rooms. The fire was put out without much difficulty, and the services of the department were not required.

Religious Notice. Dr. Pritchard asks every member of the First Baptist church to be present at the morning service to-day. At 7.30 p. m., he will preach the fifth of series of sermons to women-his subject being "Rebecca, the Managing Woman."

IN MEMORIAM.

The writer, who knew the late JOHN KENT BROWN well, desires to lay but a simple leaf upon his new made grave. Few knew him intimately outside of his immediate family, for he was of a singularly modest and retiring nature. He shunned displays of all kinds and while others sought for pleasure in the excitement of politics or the speculative business of every-day life, he found his happiness in the domestic circle and in the association of intimate friends. He was educated at Brown University, Rhode Island, and after leaving college chose the profession of a civil engineer, and was engaged in rallroad business in Western North Carolina until the breaking out of the civil war. He at once enlisted in the Confederate service, but was subsequently appointed a Lieutenant in the Engineer Corps where he remained until captured a few months before the end of the war. He belonged to the army of Northern Virginia, which speaks sufficiently for his military record. When the war ended he returned to Wilmington and resumed the practice of his profession, was City Engineer for a number of years, and held the position at the time of his death.

He was a quiet, inoffensive citizen, unostentatious in manner, never meddling with the affairs of others, but attending strictly to his own. He was courteous and kind-hearted, particularly to those in the humble walks of life with whom he had business relations; and while frank in the expression of his views and principles, he was at all times scrupulously regardful of the opinions of others.

As a husband and father he was kind and affectionate and very domestic in his habits; as a friend he was true and reliable; a member of St. James' Church, he strove to live up to the religious principles he professed, and in his last moments was comforted and sustained by that faith which he had professed in his early manhood, and went down to the grave in the joyous hope of a blissful immortality.

BRANCH STORE, 27 HAY ST., FAYETTEVILLE. Excite but not Satisfy. A GREAT MANN MEDCHANTS ARE IN THE habit of advertising "Gr.rd Closing out Sales," "Startling Reduction in Prices," "A Regular Slaughter of Profits," and so on, and yet when a customer calls to see the "great bargains" advertised, he finds the same price is asked for an article that his neighbor paid several weeks ago. Two weeks ago we advertised that we were going to offer our stock at REDUCED PRICES, and we meant every word we said. We did not intend to try to excite and not satisfy, but intended to show every customer that we were selling Clothing cheap. The prices on some goods are so low that nearly every one comments on their cheapness

We did not take up mone than five minutes of his time before he exclaimed, "Well, Clothing is cheaper than I ever saw it before, and I will take a suit of that," alluding to the one we had in hand, "if you can suit me."
