— Lexington Dispatch: Mr. J. M. Leach Jr., has gone to Washington to take a position in the Treasury Department. - Bishop Watson confirmed seven persons at Goldsboro, two at Faison, and three at Clinton during his recent visita-

- North Carolina has in all 1,173 convicts. Of these 320 are in the Raleigh penitentiary, and 853 are at work on the different railroads in the State.

-Weldon News: Mrs. Rosa Ozella Bartlett, daughter of Thomas W. Harris, Esq., died at her father's residence, in Halifax county, on the 29th of November. Her health had been failing for some time. - Raleigh Visitor: Mrs. Ava

Brown, wife of Mr. R. M. Brown, of Haywood. Chatham county, died on last Saturday afternoon, in the 71st year of her - Dr. Skinner informs us that he has not, so far, made any settled plans for the future, but, in common with many of our people, we hope he may find it to his interest to remain in our midst.

One of our favorite exchanges the Pittsboro Home. It is well edited. The gentleman who conducts it is level headed, without hobbies and crotchets. A literary man with these things is already hamstrung as a political leader or teacher. Mr. Merritt is a scholar and has wisdom and experience. Long may the Home flourish, that has just entered upon its

- Shelby Aurora: Dr. J. B. Palmer of the Duncan's Creek neighborhood says that his people are sowing at least onethird more wheat this year than they did last year — Two colored laborers working for Wright & Co., on the Carolina Central Extension, had an interesting game of "seven up." The one who lost at cards became angry and a fight ensued. One Hargroves was cut in five places, yet the wounds will not prove fatal.

- Wilson Mirror: Maj. B. S. Guion, chief, with a corps of engineers arrived at Rocky Mount on Sunday last, and on Monday made arrangements for the survey of the branch road from that place to Nashville, and perhaps from there on. The Castalia people are up for the terminal a text neighborhood and are stirring things generally. One business man said he would give $5,000 in the way of depot accommodations, to have it come within a mile of his place of business, and he means what he says and can do what he promises.

- Wilson Advance: It is with great pleasure that we note the recognized worth and ability of our talented townsman,
John E. Woodard. The Speaker of the House of Representatives has appointed him one of a committee whose duty it is to examine and verify the books of our State Treasurer. — We regret to learn of the death of Mr. Newitt Godwin, which sad event occurred on Monday last. He had started to Wilson and stopped at the residence of Mr. Simon Barnes, in this county, and fell dead with heart disease while returning to his buggy

- Goldsboro Messenger: Mr. Jas. A. Robinson, lately with the Argus, wiil assist our city editor until after the holidays. In the meantime Mr. Robinson is open to propositions from our brethren of the press in reference to a permanent engagement. — The gang of gamblers who were here during the colored Fair turned up at Kenansville during court last week, but to their sortion. Judge Boykin made short work of their rascalities, and at last accounts the Kenansville in the second of their rascalities. last accounts the Kenansville jail was filled

- Edenton Enquirer: We regret to learn that on Thursday of Thanksgiving Day, Master Richard Winborne, son of our esteemed and well known countyman. Dr. R. H. Winborne, accidentally shot himself. Winborne placed his gun in the bow of the boat, while he sat in the stern; seeing a duck he rushed for the gun, and pulling it out hurriedly, muzzle to the front, the hammer struck on the side of the boat, causing an explosion, and the con-tents of the barrel went into his shoulder, where it joins the body, producing a ghastly and serious wound.

- Hickory Press : The Methodist Church at Hickory is now supplied by a stationed preacher. — The mountains are still covered with snow. — There are now twelve firms buying leaf tobacco on the Hickory market. — The North Carolina Synod and the Evangelical Luthersn Church meets at Mt. Pleasant next Wednesday, — Mr. Jacob Smith, of Wilkes county, who was on our market this week, realized last year from one and three-quarter acres of tobacco, raised on land which was apparently worn out, over $200. This was his first effort in raising the weed. He has about three times that amount to sell this year. — A sad accident happened on Saturday last (28th ult.) by which Joseph Russell, a colored man, lost his life. He was re walling a well for Mr. C. T. Abernethy, about five miles south of Hickory, when a bucket filled with rocks fell on him, breaking his skull and thigh bone, producing immediate death.

Mountain Pink.

"A Mountain Pink" is one of those popular dramas which so endear themselves to the theatre goers and which gives occasion to many a thrilling scene and many a pathetic bit of character acting or comical impersonation. Of all this class of plays, says the Little Rock (Ark.) Gasette, "there says the Little Rock (Ark.) Gazette, "there are none which have become such general favorites as has the 'Mountain Pink,' and of all of the Sincerity Weeks who have appeared before the public, there are none who have won such a firm place as has Bella Moore, the charming little actress, who so well assumed the role last night. She is a Pink of perfection and every happy effort, each attractive little bit of acting, was applauded to the echo."

A Schooner Lost at Sea.

The American schooner, Paragon, Capt. Balance, from Charleston, S.C., for Washington, N. The captain and crew of two men were picked up by the German barquentine, St. Joseph, Captain Christiansen, from Berwick for this port. The St. Joseph arrived at Smithville yesterday, and will probably come up the river to-day. The Paragon was a small schooner of about 40 tons, and belonged in Washington, N. C.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY.—The following is an extract from a letter written to the German Reformed Massenger, at Chambersburgh, Penn.: A BENEFACTRESS. Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslew will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colleking, and teething siege. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhose. It softens the gums, reduces infiammation, cures wind colle, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical laviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists.

The great Charity Hospital at New Orieans, La., is classed by the medical profession as one of the finest institutions of the kind in the world. Over two centuries it has stood at the gates of the Mississippi as a saylor of the national health in the South and West. The Louisians State Lottery contributed in 1808 one million of dollars, payable in instalments, for its support, and is reimbursed by the franchise of the Drawings. The next Grand Semi-Annual (the 187th) will take place on Dec. 18th., when over half a million of dollars will be scattered to its patrons everywhere. All information can be had of M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La. Thus you can do good, and the world will be none the wiser, and you may get $150,000 to ease your declining years.

NEWKIRK.—At her residence, on Second street, between Walnut and Mulberry, Dec. 8th, 1885, at ten minutes past 9 o'clock P. M., MARY J. NEWKIRK, wife of Dr. A. F. Newkirk. Funeral at half-past 3 o'clock this afternoon from Second Presbyterian Church, thence to Oakdale Cemetery. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.
