MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

The Governor of Monterey, Mexico, has convened the State legislature to take measures to put down the revolution. Servia will abide the decision of the powers. The coldest weather in five years prevails in England. McVane & Co., New Orleans, failed; liabilities $30,000. A foundry at Staunton, Va., burned; loss $8,000. The Republican Senatorial caucus discussed the line of policy to be adapted to Presidential appointments. The Postmaster General has reduced the fees of international money orders. An affair in a U. S. Marshall's office in Covington, Ky., between an officer and a prisoner, the latter was shot and fatally wounded. The funeral of Wm. H. Vanderbilt took place from St. Bartholomew's church. New York markets: Money 2 1/2 per cent; cotton quiet at 9 1/2 @ 9 3/4; wheat, ungraded red 80 @ 81; corn, ungraded 47 @ 48 1/2; southern flour quiet; spirits turpentine steady at 37 1/2; rosin dull at $1 02 1/2 @ 10.

Jo Blackburn has not taken a drink in three months.

The Washington Post is now an eight-page paper.

Death is no respecter of persons. It has recently slain a King, a Vice President and a modern Cressus.

The New York Star has become one of the most readable of our exchanges. It is a Democratic paper of ability, dignity and influence.

The Democratic caucus in the Virginia Legislature renominated all of the old State officers but Treasurer. A. W. Harmond, of Rockbridge, was nominated for that office.

The majority against the Liberals is reducing. The majority will hardly exceed four and may not be but two. Mr. Gladstone is said to be eager for a return to office. There are 332 new members who have never served before in Parliament. This is unparalleled in the history of Parliaments.

A new torpedo has been successfully tested at Michigan City, Indiana. It was invented by Capt. J. A. Howell, U. S. Navy. It runs under water, steers itself and carries forty pounds of explosives. Its speed is 18 miles an hour and its range is over 500 yards. It is cigar-shaped and weighs 284 pounds.

Blair, author of the proposed Pedagogic raid on the Treasury, is also in favor of woman's suffrage. He is a New Englander with New England ideas. The N. Y. World says: "Senator Blair is on hand to reform things. He wants the Constitution of the United States amended so that women can vote and men can be prevented from drinking whiskey. Mr. Blair would doubtless like to have the privilege of writing an entire new Constitution for us."

A scholarly gentleman of this town kindly supplies us with the information we sought relative to the ages of Judges in the past. It will be seen that putting young men on the Bench is no new thing. What a pity it is that "Young America" will not condescend to learn something of the fathers before spurning them. They would find out that what they think is new is really old.

Mrs. Georgia Perry made a very unpleasant discovery, in which her husband, Prof. F. W. Perry, and Mrs. Dr. Spofford were parties, which caused her death in a few hours. This occurred at Sioux Falls, Dakota. A dispatch to the N. Y. World, says: "The Professor and his wife came to Dakota in 1884, from Raleigh, N. C., where they were connected with a college. From North Carolina, with Prof. Perry, came one Dr. Spofford and wife."

The Washington Star tells of a fraud perpetrated by one M. S. Valentine. He exhibited a collection of "supposed wonderful antiquities and ascribed to the ancient Greeks and Cherokees," and said they came from the neighborhood of Mt. Pisgah, North Carolina. They were manufactured and Prof. Baird had a duplicate set made for the Smithsonian Institute. Great is humbug.

We have received the North Carolina Baptist Almanac for 1886, edited by Rev. Dr. Bailey, editor of the Raleigh Biblical Recorder. It contains 98 pages, is neatly printed in paper backs, and is sold for the low price of 10 cents. It is well got up, and contains a great deal that will interest the Baptists. It contains a list of all the ordained Baptist ministers of the State, and a long list it is. It claims to have 112,476 Missionary Baptists, and some 25,000 of other kinds, exclusive of the colored members. It gives the Methodists, including 10,000 Protestant Methodists, some 98,000 members.

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXXVII.—NO. 68. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1885. WHOLE NO. 5999

Thomas Carlyle was a great admirer of Goethe and wrote a great deal about him. In fact he did more than any one else to make the great German's name familiar to English readers fifty or sixty years since. There was a correspondence between them. It is announced, and it is a matter of interest to lovers of high literature, that eleven of Goethe's letters have been preserved and will be soon published with all of Carlyle's to him.

ABOUT YOUNG LAWYERS.

WILMINGTON, Dec. 11, 1885. Editor Star: You are entirely right in your impression that "before the war several of the Judges who rode the circuits were young men like Judges Boykin, Shepherd, Connor and Clark." It is a historical fact, which a few minutes' investigation will establish, that from 1795 to the beginning of the year 1852 more than one-half of the Judges in North Carolina were under 39 years of age when appointed, and several were much younger than either of the four above named.

Judges Stone and Badger were 25, Mangum 27, Ellis 28, Swain 29, Strange 30, Iredeed and Pearson 31, Daniel 33, Henderson 36, Locke, Burton, Cameron, Nash and Manly 37, Murphey, Seawell and Battle 38. All these were appointed before 1851. Between 1851 and 1861 Judge Howard, Judge Person, Judge Shepherd (of Fayetteville), and perhaps others whom I do not recall were appointed when quite as young as most of the present young Judges.

Spirits Turpentine.

Wadesboro Times: Did you ever see a persimmon that weighed 7 ounces and measured 9 1/2 inches around? We have one that was handed to us by Mr. C. C. Bowman, of the Jones Creek settlement that will fill the bill.

Laurinburg Exchange: Rev. Mr. McIntyre, of Canada, whom we had the pleasure of meeting at Mr. McKinnon's, is temporarily acting as pastor of the Presbyterian churches of which Rev. Roger Martin was recently pastor.

Goldboro Argus: Mrs. R. E. Harris, a highly respected colored woman, mother-in-law of George T. Wassom, of this city, and of Congressman James E. O'Hara, died at her home here yesterday morning at an advanced age. All who knew her held her in high regard.

Raleigh Chronicle: We are glad to know that the department of Pedagogics at the University is doing well. There are twenty-five taking the course, the interest is good, and the future is full of hope in connection with the new department.

Monroe Enquirer-Express: The Episcopalians have displayed very commendable zeal in fitting up their chapel. They have surpassed our most sanguine expectations in making it both comfortable and attractive. It will be used the first time next Sunday. Rev. E. A. Osborne will conduct services at the usual hours morning and afternoon.

Goldboro Messenger: We learn that a colored man by the name of Artist, living near Bull Head, was found not far from his home Saturday morning in a ditch, dead; his neck was broken. The boy cholera has proven quite fatal in the Granthams section of this county. Rev. R. C. Sandling has resigned his charge at Mt. Olive and will settle near Harrell's Store, Sampson county.

Wadesboro Intelligencer: The first snow of the season fell in this place last Saturday. There were seven snows in this section last winter. It was associated with me in the publication of the Wadesboro Intelligencer, Mr. J. W. Hammond, late of the Sunday Dispatch, Charles ton, S. C. I take pleasure in introducing him to the readers of this paper.

Raleigh Visitor: Mr. W. A. Withers, of the State Experimental Station, has been vested with the power of appointing a special cadet to the Maryland Military and Naval Academy of Oxford, who shall receive board free. The applicant for this cadetship must be over thirteen years of age, and submit testimonials of scholarship and character. Mr. Withers will give all necessary information on application.

Elizabeth City Economist: We hear that a new line of steamers will be put on the line from Beaufort to Elizabeth City, under the management of W. A. Hearne. Henry Wood, of Pasquotank county, killed a bear on the Jackson road, near Elizabeth City, on Friday. Hon. T. G. Skinner, on his way to Washington City, carries a case made from an immense-oak stalk that grew on Col. Carter's farm in Hyde county. It is the largest cork stalk we ever saw, and it produced a gallon of cork.

Weldon News: Several days ago Mr. Fred Froelich, of Halifax, left for Germany and will be absent at least three weeks. The cause of his visit is the information that his mother has fallen heir to a large fortune. Mrs. Froelich is said to be entitled to one-eighth of $300,000. Last week two colored children, aged respectively three months and two years, were left by their father, Alex. Daly, in his house on the farm of Mr. E. L. Summerville, in Northampton county, while he went to work. A short while after the house was seen to be on fire and before

The Grand Concert Monday.

A musical critic, writing of a performance given by Madame Camilla Urso, who will appear at the Opera House Monday night, says: "The first stroke of her bow was earnest, of that admirable quality of a player which produces true tone—the smooth and penetrating tone which is full, sweet and satisfactory, and is powerful without ever being suspected of being loud. As the introductory andante movement progressed and was developed under her hands, there came touches of wonderful delicacy of effect, produced by means of skill beyond all ordinary acquirements, and the audience were charmed into delighted silence until the end of the piece announced her emphatically as a master in music, with a mind to penetrate its beauties, and with hands that were trained to perfection in giving expression to her thoughts."

Wilson Advance: The people of Ringwood, Halifax county, want a railroad to Enfield. One would open up a fine section of country. The Wilson people are gratified at the return of Rev. J. R. Brooks as the pastor of the Methodist Church. It is also gratifying to them to find that Mr. Brooks was elected a delegate to the General Conference, which meets in Richmond next May. Mr. Brooks is the first preacher ever elected to a General Conference from North Carolina who had not been either a Presiding Elder, a College President, or editor of a church paper.

Asheville Citizen: Maj. W. C. Troy informs us that the gap between the two ends of the Asheville-Spartanburg road will be certainly closed by the end of this week. We presume the line will be opened for travel by the first of January, though as the line will have to be dressed up after completion it is not probable that fast trains will be put on quite so soon as then. Much good work is being done on the line between Spartanburg and Asheville to put that part in good order. Heavier rail is being put down to replace the old and somewhat lighter rail, and there is being made a general and thorough overhaul of the track.

Fayetteville Observer: Mr. Wm. Grove Matthews died on the 8th inst., after a brief but painful illness. Mr. Matthews was throughout life intimately identified with all the important interests of Fayetteville, being an old and trusted bank officer for many years. We have been informed that the company with means at its disposal is about organized for the purchase of tobacco in the fields, at the bars and in any quantity at the highest market prices. The company will also build drying barns on the most improved plan on very reasonable terms, and whenever it is desired will cure tobacco for a percentage of the gross amount delivered.

Charlotte Observer: Washington Dots: In the caucus that night the only important contest was over the chaplaincy. I learn that the North Carolina members voted as follows: For Rev. Dr. L. D. Dancy, (Episcopalian,) former chaplain, Messrs. Bennett, Cox, and Green; for the Rev. Dr. J. L. Lodge, (Baptist,) Messrs. Cowles, Henderson, Johnston, Reid and Skinner. Among the ten or a dozen North Carolinians in the city, most of whom are said to be seeking office under the doorkeeper of the House, are the following who have arrived since my last report: John Kerr, of Caswell, nephew of the late Judge Kerr; Conductor Rowlin, of the W. N. C. R. R.; George P. Horton, Wadesboro; H. R. Scott, of Reidsville.

Raleigh News-Observer: Yesterday Sheriff J. P. Arrington, of Nash county, brought to the penitentiary seven convicts. One of these was a white man, 53 years of age, convicted of incest, and sentenced to five years' imprisonment.

The State Board of Education was in session Tuesday. Gen. W. G. Lewis presided, and a full report of the work of draining and road making in Angola bay or swamp. The militia of the United States will have a convention at Washington, D. C., the 15th inst. The delegates from North Carolina are Adj. Gen. John Stone Jones, Colonels Cotten, Anthony, Jones, Maj. W. F. Campbell of Fayetteville, Maj. Martin, Capt. Robertson, and Capt. Parran is on foot for the purchase of the Bell telephone system here and its extension to adjacent towns and cities, so as to make Raleigh the centre of a network of communication, Greensboro, Durham, Fayetteville, Goldboro, Norfolk and places intermediate are all, under the proposed plan, to have the benefits of this cheap and quick communication.

THE CITY.

HEINBERGER'S—Christmas gifts. MUNSON—Call and see what it is. GEO. W. PRICE, JR.—Auctioneer. COLLIER & CO.—Bananas at auction. J. C. STEVENSON—Unprecedentedly low. P. O. Box 182, OXFORD, N. C.—For sale. MRS. E. WARREN & SON—Fresh candies.

Receipts.

—Receipts of cotton yesterday 616 bales. —Beautiful roses are yet in bloom in gardens about town. —The electric light seems yet to be in the dim uncertain future.

—An odd lot of wandering "fakirs" attracts attention on the streets. —An excursion party went down the river yesterday on the steamer Passport. —The gunners are laying in stocks of ammunition, in readiness for the holiday shooting.

—A society for the prevention of cruelty to animals might relieve much misery among the dumb brutes that are worked in drays about town. —The Russian bears with their Turkish escort passed through the city and crossed the river. Count Kikumskyki formed the advance guard of this invasion of Brunswick.

—More toys and Christmas goods are being offered for sale in this city than was ever before known, from which fact we predict a lively Christmas, despite the frequent cries of "nothing doing."

Personals.

Lieut. Hand, of the Revenue service, arrived at Newbern Tuesday and entered upon his duties aboard the Stevens. The Newbern Journal says: "We extend to him a hearty welcome, and trust that he and family may win the same esteem from our citizens that Lieut. Herring and family, by their department and social demeanor, carry with them to Wilmington." Maj. T. H. McKay is home again after two months' absence from the city.

Weather Indications.

The following are the indications for today: For the South Atlantic States, fair weather, winds shifting to easterly, stationary temperature in northern portion, slightly warmer in southern portions.

For the Middle Atlantic States, fair weather, slightly colder in northern portion, nearly stationary temperature in southern portion, north to west winds shifting to easterly in southern portion, higher barometer to-morrow morning, followed by falling barometer.

RIVERS AND MARINE.

—The pleasure yacht Twin, from Buffalo, N. Y., for Florida, put in at this port a short time ago for coal, and proceeded. After leaving Smithville, and when about twenty miles out at sea one of her engines gave out and she was forced to return. She came up to Wilmington yesterday and will go on the marine railway at Capt. S. W. Skinner's ship-yard for repairs and a general overhauling. Capt. Dukes, of Pensacola, Fla., is master of The Twin.

—About six hundred bags of guano from the wrecked schooner Rebecca H. Queen have been saved. The vessel has settled until the tide covers the hull at high water. The cargo is insured, but there is no insurance on the vessel.

Schr. Edith R. Seward, from Wilmington, N. C., at Philadelphia, sprung a leak after crossing the bar at Wilmington and continued to leak until within 80 miles of the Delaware capes, when she filled up, demolishing and flooding cabin, forecastle and galley, and lost part of her deck load.

The Swedish barque Adolf and the Norwegian barque Camilla arrived in below yesterday. —The River Queen, Capt. Worth, returned last night from Kelly's Cove, with a full load. She will leave Monday for Fayetteville.

—Advices from Fayetteville indicate a freshet in the Cape Fear. It had risen seven feet when the Hurt left there Thursday morning, and was still rising, at the rate of a foot and a half an hour. —The schooner Paragon, wrecked off Cape Fear recently, was owned by Capt. H. W. Wahab, of Newbern. There was no insurance on the vessel.

Good Words for a Home Product.

A Northern journal ascribes virtues to a North Carolina product, some of which are new to us and may be so to our readers: "Spirits of turpentine is one of the most valuable articles in a family, and when it has once obtained a foothold in a house, it is really a necessity, and could ill be dispensed with. Its medicinal qualities are very numerous; for burns it is a quick application and gives immediate relief; for blisters on the hand it is of priceless value, searing down the skin and preventing soreness; for corns on the toes it is useful, and sentenced to five years' imprisonment. The State Board of Education was in session Tuesday. Gen. W. G. Lewis presided, and a full report of the work of draining and road making in Angola bay or swamp. The militia of the United States will have a convention at Washington, D. C., the 15th inst. The delegates from North Carolina are Adj. Gen. John Stone Jones, Colonels Cotten, Anthony, Jones, Maj. W. F. Campbell of Fayetteville, Maj. Martin, Capt. Robertson, and Capt. Parran is on foot for the purchase of the Bell telephone system here and its extension to adjacent towns and cities, so as to make Raleigh the centre of a network of communication, Greensboro, Durham, Fayetteville, Goldboro, Norfolk and places intermediate are all, under the proposed plan, to have the benefits of this cheap and quick communication.
