It has been discovered that alcohol breeds parasites.

It is said Logan and Edmunds have formed a political partnership.

Is a very rich man a public benefactor? The gentlemen in the affirmative will open the debate.

The New York Star, weekly, is a daisy. It is sixteen pages and is furnished at $1.25. It is a Democratic organ.

People with burglarious proclivities would do well to keep out of North Carolina. Five of these fellows were swung up by law in one Randall professes to be sanguine that he will again checkmate his party in the matter of changing the rules of the House. He is always up to some mischief.

B. Gratz Brown was the leader of the Abolition Free-Soilers in Missouri before the war and was a Republican afterwards. He was with the North in the war.

There is a correction needed in our reader. Please read as follows: "We received letters from lawyers and thers in this State and from one editor in a distant State."

The Forestry Congress met yesterday at De Funiak Springs, Florida. It is a very important gathering. The forests must be protected against fire and the ruthless axe.

Dakota is now sitting on the front steps of the Capital at Washington asking to be invited in. The question is how many children does she bring? Too many infants have been taken in already.

Jo Jefferson and family have settled permanently in Louisiana. It is announced that he will soon retire from the stage. He is one of the best and most artistic comedians this world has ever seen. His acting 18 well nigh perfect.

There are two Representatives who are very rich. Charles Felton, of California, is booked for $15, 000,000, and W. L. Scott, of Erie, N. Y., is put down at $12,000,000. The country in and out of Congress is governed by money.

Thackeray had a very high opinion of the late Mr. Crawford, Paris correspondent of the London Daily News. He sent him a copy of "Pendennis" and a letter with it in which "There is something of you in Warring-ton, but he is not fit to hold a candle to you, for, taking you all round, yeu are the most genuine fellow that ever strayed from a better world into this.

About thirteen years since we heard Ole Bull and we thought then that we had never heard a fiddler before. Since then we have heard none until we heard the marvellous Camilla Urso. She can make cat-gut give sounds such as no other woman ever dreamt of and makes her Cremona talk as if inspired.

Gen. A. R. Lawton, of Georgia, paid an eloquent and richly merited tribute at a meeting of the bar of the United States Supreme Court on the late Richard T. Merrick, the eminent Washington lawyer. Attorney General Garland, Senator Vance, Secretary Bayard, Representative Tucker and George Tickpor Curtis all pronounced eulogies upon him.

She is said to be a magnificent planist, playing with marvellous brilliancy. It will be remembered that George Eliot was a fine player and had the finest musical

The Supreme Court of the United States has affirmed the sentence of the Supreme Court of Utah in the case of Angus M. Cannon, the "much-married" delegate from Utab. Angus violates good law in having three wives at one time, called respectively Amanda, Sarah and Olara. Angus is a naughty boy, and if we had him in North Carolina we would give him a lively time of it.

Congressman Skinner, of the Carolina region, brought to Washington with him a cane made from the biggest cornstalk ever seen in those parts. "Why, sah," says he, "it growed on Colonel Keahtah's (Carter's) plantation in Hyde county, and the Colonel got a gallon o' shelled c'on off'n it, sah !"—
Phil. Press.

Mr. Skinner is an educated gentleman who can speak, we venture to say, as good English as the scribber at ten dollars-a-week who got off the above. This is an attempt to blend Virginia pronunciation with Kentucky bluster.

The South Carolina Methodists stick to the old name. Here are the statistics:

'Total membership for this year 53,334. Infants baptized 1,885; adults baptized 1,587. Sunday school scholars 30,548. One of the largest circuits in the State, that of Sumter, was not reported on account of the illness of the pastor. The value of church buildings is $678,183. Value of parsonages is $156,450. The value of colleges and schools is $97,165. The camp grounds are valued at $17,850. "The following sums were collected du ring the year: For pastors' support, $83,-125; for presiding elders, $11,714; for the Conference collections, $4,922; for foreign missions, $6,706; for domestic missions, $4,878; for education, $2,394; for Bishops fund, $959; for building and repairs, $42,-295; for benevolent expenditures not al ready mentioned, about $18,000 was col-

Burglars About. Burglars are about, and it would be well for householders to keep their doors locked. Two or three attempts at house-breaking are reported recently. At a house in the northern section of the city, a night or two ago, the occupants on returning from a visit found a stranger in the building, the door having been left unbolted in their absence. He made his escape in a hurry, and so far as is krown, took nothing.

At a house in the southern section of the city the inmates were aroused by a man who had entered through a window, and is said to have chloroformed some of the members of the family. In this instance a few dollars in money were taken, nearly every room in the house was ransacked and bureau drawers emptied of their contents, which were scattered around the

A Sudden Death. Staimale Hill, an old colored woman about eighty years of age, died very suddenly yesterday morning at her home on Third street, near Harnett. She was found lying dead in the fire-place, but in which there was no fire at the time, and her death is supposed to have resulted from heart disease. She was formerly a servant of the late Dr. John Hill, president of the old bank of Cape Fear. Coroner Jacobs took charge of the remains of the old woman and had them interred.

Mayor's Court.

Alex. Cole, colored, who was arrested by the police Tuesday evening for disorderly conduct on the streets, was arranged before Mayor Hall yesterday morning and fined five dollars.

Joe Ellison, colored, a friend of Cole, and who attempted to rescue him from the custody of the policeman who had him in charge, was fined ten dollars.

The Gulf Stream.

The pilot chart for December, issued by the United States Hydrographic Office, contains information in regard to the wrecked schooner Twenty-one Friends, first sighted off the coast of North Carolina, near Cape Hatteras, in March, 1885, and which having been carried along by the Gulf Stream, was last seen on the coast of Europe. This wonderful ocean current, which in its flow from the great Mexican Sea sweeps so close to the coast of North Carolina, and is said to give to this section a semi-tropical climate, is a stratum of warm blue water not more than fifty fathoms deep, and flows at a rate that would take it to England within one hundred days. Off Cape Hatterss this northward flowing stream is in the form of a fan, its three warm bands, spreading out over the Atlantic surface to an aggregate breadth of 167 miles, while two cooler bands of an aggregate breadth of fifty-two miles are interposed between them. The innermost warm band is the one that shows the highest temperature and speed, its velocity being greatest where it is pressed laterally by the Arctic current, so that the rate of four miles an hour is occasionally observed. Captain Nares estimates the depth of the stream off Hatteras at one hundred fathoms, and its rate of flow in the line of most rapid movement at three miles an

Serious Accident to a Sailor. Second Mate Ericcsen, of the Swedish barque Adolf, had his left leg broken between the knee and ankle, yesterday after noon. The Adolf is discharging her cargo of kainite at a warehouse near the foot of Nun street. A platform had been erected about fifteen feet above the deck, upon which the kainite was dumped from the hold and thence removed in wheelbarrows to the warehouse. About half a ton of the cargo had been put upon the platform when the piece of timber supporting the end over the vessel gave way, precipitating men, wheelbarrows and everything to the deck. Sam Rush, a colored laborer, who was one of the men on the staging, had his head cut pretty badly, but was able to go to his home in the city without assistance. Ericssen was taken to the Sailor's Home, corner of Front and Dock streets, where his broken limb was set by Dr. Schonwald, who had been summoned to attend him.

Fire Yesterday Morning. A small frame building occupied as: grocery store, on the corner of Seventh and Mulberry streets, was destroyed by fire, with its contents, at an early hour yesterday morning. The firemen responded promptly to the alarm given, but were too late to do more than save adjoining property from the flames. The building adjoining, occupied as a dwelling by Mr. Philip Platt, was damaged slightly by fire. Messrs. Davis & Burton, who occupied the store, estimate their loss on stock at about $900, with insurance for $700, in companies represented by Messrs. DeRosset & Northrop. The building was owned by Mr. J. H. Mehrckens, of Kinston, N. C., and was insured for $400 in companies represented by Mr. M. S. Willard. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an in-

The Christmas Bazaar.

There were crowds of big folks and little folks at the Young Ladies Christmas Bazaar at Vollers' Hall last night, and the success of the affair was most gratifying. The ladies of the Society were industriously at work yesterday arranging the tables and decorating the hall in the most artistic manner, and last night it was resplendent with all the adornment that good taste would suggest. The most ample provision had been made in the way of refreshments, which the visitors that thronged the place last night did full justice to.

The sale of articles left over will be continued to-day during the forenoon.

Wilmington Boy in the Show Busi-

Mr. Robert A. Hewlett, & Wilmingtonian who has been in the show business for several years past, writes from Columbia, S. C., (where he is playing with Sam Mc-Flinn's circus,) that in three or four weeks he will have a comedy and refined specialty company of his own, and will play in Wilmington one night and give a matinee performance. The company, he says, will be "Hewlette & Lester's Troupe," and will give a first-class show.

Christmas Shoppers. This week and next the great holiday trade is to be done. In every household throughout the city something is to be supplied before Christmas day and the question of the hour with many is what shall we buy and where shall it be bought? The advertising columns of the STAR are the best guide to all those who seek this information. These will direct them to the most enterprising merchants and dealers where the finest and best goods may be obtained at the lowest prices.

The Cape Fear. River men say that the present freshet in the Cape Fear is ahead of anything they have had in the last two years. At Favetteville, Tuesday morning, there had been a rise of thirty-five feet and it was thought the top notch had been reached. A great deal of drift wood was floating down the river yesterday.

PAUL J. CARRAWAY, Presiding Elder, WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW?-As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do rise up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are Daily sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No Mother has discharged her duty to her, suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup Try it, mothers—Try IT now.—Ladies' Visitor, New York City.
