

OF SWEET GUM AND MULLEIN. The sweet gum, as gathered from a tree of the same name, growing along the small streams in the Southern States, contains a stimulating expectorant principle that loosens the phlegm producing the early morning cough, and stimulates the child to throw off the false membrane in croup and whooping-cough. When combined with the healing mucilaginous principle in the mullein plant of the old fields, presents in TAYLOR'S CHEROKEE REMEDY OF SWEET GUM AND MULLEIN the finest known remedy for Coughs, Croup Whooping-cough and consumption; and so palatable, any child is pleased to take it. Ask your druggist for it. Price, 25c. and $1. If he does not keep it, we will pay, for one time only, express charges on large size bottle to any part of the U.S. on receipt of $1.00.

GOUT, RHEUMATISM, AND DISEASES GENE-RALLY OF URIC ACID DIATERSIS.

DR. JAMES L. CABELL,

Professor of Physiology and Surgery in the Med-ical Department of the University of Virginia and President of the National Board of Health, and former Resident Physician, Hot Springs,

'The water of Spring No. 2 contains in notable quantities two of the Alkalies, which are accredited as extremely valuable in the treatment of Gout, Lithiasis, and Liver Affections. I refer to the Carbonates of Potash and Lithia. It is now well known that both of these alkaline carbonates of the carb ates have an ascertained value in cases of Uric Acid Diathesis connected with Gravel, and in cases of Chronic Gout, because of their affinity for Uric Acid, and the great solubility of the salts which are formed by their union with that acid."

urgeon (Retired) U. S. Navy, Resident Physician Hot Springs, Ark. "My experience in the use of Buffalo Lithia Water is limited to the treatment of Gout, Rheumatism, and that hybrid disease 'Rheumatic Gout' (so called), which is in contradistinction to the Rheumatoid Arthritis of Garrod.
"I have had excellent results from this Water in these affections, both in my own person and in the treatment of patients for whom I have prescribed it. Of course the remedial agent is its contained Alkalles and their solvent properties. "Hence, it is a prophylactic as well as a remedy in Nephrltic Colic and forming Calculi, when due to a redundancy of Lithic Acid."

DR. W. B. TOWLES,

Member Medical Society of Virginia, Resident Physician Hot Springs, Va. "I feel no hesitancy whatever in saying that in Gout. Rheumatic Gout, Rheumatism, Stone in the Biadder. and all diseases of Uric Acid Diathesis, I know of no remedy at all comparable to Buffalo Idthia Water, Spring No. 2. In a single case of Bright's Disease of the Kidneys I wit-nessed very marked beneficial results from its use, and from its action in this particular case, I should have great confidence in it in this dis-

THE OLD YEAR AND THE NEW.

BY FATHER A. J. RYAN. How swift they go! Life's many years, With their winds of woe And their storms of tears. And their darkest of Nights whose shadowy

Are lit with the flashes of starriest hopes. And their sunshiny days in whose calm heavens loom The clouds of the tempest, the shadows of And, ah! we pray,

With grief so drear, That the years may stay When their graves are near; Tho' the brows of to-morrow be radiant and bright With love and with beauty, with life and with light, The dead hearts of yesterdays, cold on the bier.

To the hearts that survive them are evermore dear. For the heart so true To the Old Year cleaves. Tho' the hand of the New

Flowery garlands weaves; But the flowers of the Future, tho' fragrant and fair, With the Past's withered leaflets may never compare, For dear is each leaf-and dearer each thorn-In the wreaths which the brows of our past years have worn.

> Yea, men will cling With a love to the last, And wildly fling

Their arms round the past ! As the vine that clings to the oak that falls, As the ivy twines round the c-umbled walls! For the dust of the Past some hearts higher prize Than the stars that flash out from the Future's bright skies.

And why not so? The old, old Years, They knew and they know, All our hopes and our fears; We walked by their side, and we told them each grief they kissed off our tears while they whispered relief And the stories of hearts that may not be revealed In the hearts of the dead years are buried and sealed.

Let the New Year sing At the Old Year's grave. Will the New Year bring * What the Old Year gave? Ah! the Stranger year trips over the snows, And his brow is enwreathed with many a But how many thorns do the roses conceal Which the roses when withered shall soon reveal? Let the New Year smile When the Old Year dies. In how short a while Shall the smiles be sighs? Yes! Stranger Year, thou hast many And thy face is fair and thy greeting warm, But, dearer than thou-in his shroud of

Is the furrowed face of the year that goes. Yet, bright New Year! O'er all the earth With song and cheer They hail thy birth; They will trust thy word, in a single hour, They will love thy face, they will laud thy snows-

For the New Year has charms which the Old has not, And the stranger's face makes the friend's

POLITICAL POINTS.

- It is probable that when Austria asks the United States to send a diplomatic representative to Vienna the United States will do so. There is little probability that it will be done before, however.-Philadelphia Times, Ind.

- Senator Sherman is a reformer. When elected President of the Senate he reformed a few offices in his patronage by turning out the appointees of the dead Vice President and putting his own men in their places.—New York World, Dem.

- President Cleveland can do as much for reform by turning out Republicans, as by appointing Democrats. The country cannot get reform by swapping Republicans any faster than can one achieve wealth by swapping jack-knvies. - Macon

NOTICES OF THE PRESS:

The STAR is decidedly one of the best papers in the State, as bright and newsy as ever. Long life to it.—Salem Press. The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year—as good a paper as any people should want.

— Charlotte Democrat. The Wilmington STAR has entered on tstwelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up head."—Concord Register The Wilmington STAR has entered its twenty-fifth volume. There is no better paper published in the State.—Lenoir Topic. The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its thirteenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gazette. The Wilmington STAR has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight.

The Wilmington Star is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typograpical appearance cannot be beaten.—Jackson Reporter.

The Wilmington Star is one of the very best papers in the South, in every department from typo graphy up to editorial ability and independence. Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appeal. The Wilmington (N. C.) Morning Star is a mod el newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggerate its merits when we say it is the newsissi (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond (Va.) Religious Herald.

The Wilmington Star has now entored upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it.— We like the Star because it is thoroughly re liable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited newsy, spicy, and in fact a perfect newspaper. Long may the Star twinkle.—Mt. Airy

Although at the head of the press in this State in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magaitude. May its lustre never wane.—
The Free Will Bartist.

The STAR is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dai lies in the South.—Robesonian.

The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited, a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina iournalism.—Charlotte Observer. That magnificent beaming STAR has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, erudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the paper surpasses them all.—Tarboro Southerner.

The Wilmington STAR is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter. The STAR is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.— Charlot's Observer. The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington STAR. It has just reached one of its

Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) STAR, the Washington Star, the Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all.—Richmond (Va.) State.

The Wilmington STAR has entered uponits 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the STAB very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial deartment is conducted with much ability.—Mcrganton Rlade.

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of fortune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the STAB has steadily "waxed" until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a newsqaper it has few equals, and no superior, for appraise selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most acceptatible exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Wilmington Morning Star has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the Star is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Star (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the Star never be retarded, and may its genial enterprising proprietor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness.

BRADSTREET'S

FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.'

The foremost purpose of Bradstreet's is to be of practical service to business men. Its special trade and Industrial reports; its weekly epitome of bankruptcles throughout the United States and Canada, and the summaries of assets and liabilities, are alone worth the subscription price; its synopses of recent legal decisions are exceedingly valuable. As commercial transactions, in the wider sense, are coming to be more and more conducted on a statistical basis, the information contained in Bradstreet's is of the first impertance both to producers and middlemen.

The Trade and Agricultural Situation throughout the United States and Canada is reported by Telegraph to Bradstreet's up to the hour of publication.
