The trial of Rev. Dr. J. G. Arm strong, of Atlanta, Ga., has been postponed until the 26th inst. The charge is "Immoral revelry."

A fight has occurred between Rus sians and 6,000 Persians. Of the former 17 and of the latter 80 were killed. Persia fearage invasion.

Gough, the temperance lecturer, resides in New York. He says his life's work is almost ended. The present season will close his lecturing

Rev. Sam Jones is about to try his powers upon Cincinnati. Mr. Small is with him. There is work enough in the South to exhaust them for it is full of great sinners.

The Democratic papers in the North are taking position against the Edmunds bill in dealing with the Mormon Church. That is the correct position for all men who love religious liberty.

North Carolina did not get much after all in the way of chairmanships. It did not receive one for a standing committee. The specials were of not much importance except the one of which Representative Cox is chairman-that on civil service.

Gov. Curtin, of Pennsylvania, has declined to serve as chairman of the Committee on Banking and Currency. The correspondent of the World says:

"Gov. Cuttin's real reasons for resigning are based upon his opposition to Mr. Bayard's conduct He thinks that Mr. Bayard was not justified in interfering, and he thinks the Speaker should not have listened to the Secretary of State. He has, however, agreed not to say anything about his grievances to the public. His resignation brings an extreme silver man-Miller, of Texas-to the head of the Banking and Currency Committee. Mr. Miller is President of the Banking Association of Texas and is now serving his third term."

The Tories, Liberals and Parnellites are now preparing for the great battle that must come off soon. How and when the battle is to be delivered will be seen hereafter. Rumor from London is to the effect that a split in the Salisbury Ministry is very probable. This looks as if some portion of the members was weakening and favored granting concessions to Parnell. A London cablegaam to the World says:

"Should Carnarvon resign, as it is stated that that he will, the Viceroyship will be left in commission with Lord Melbourne, Lord Chancellor of Ireland, presiding at Dublin Castle."

According to a London special of the 13th inst., the Irish outlook is not so promising. Mr. Gladstone's friendly schemes are bitterly opposed in his own party. Mr. Lecky, the very able historian and an Irishman by birth, we believe, has written a letter in which he assails Mr. Gladstone very savagely. He is reported as declaring "that any Euglish statesman who advocates handing over the property of the Government in Ireland to the Parnellites is either a traitor or a fool. To set up an Irish Parliament, he thinks, would be an act of fatuity and wickedness, unparalleled even in Irish history. What Ireland needs, he says, is the restoration of the liberty of the people to pursue their lawful business and fulfil law of the Empire is to be restored in Ireland industrial ruin is inevitable and will be followed by anarchy, which can only be quelled by the swerd." Mr. Gladstone is neither traitor nor fool. He may be mistaken in his policy and Mr. Lecky may be mistaken in his very confident opinion. Mr. Parnell and his followers will not indorse his dictum.

THE GRAND LODGE.

The Masons in Session. SECOND DAY.

Raleigh News-Observer. Vacancies on committees were appointed as follows:

Jurisprudence-J. I. Macks. W E. Murchison, J. B. Neathery, J. W Gidney and H. H. Munson, P. G. M. Orphan Asylum-W. F. Beasley, in place of W. H. Mitchell.

Committee No. 2, on Suspensions and Expulsions-J. P. Sugg and J. B. Redford.

Calvin Cox, from Committee No. , on Charters and Dispensations. submitted a report recommending that a charter be granted Conoho Lodge, of Hamilton, Martin county.

The report of C. H. Robinson, D. G. M., contained proceedings incident to the dedication of the Washington monument, which took place February 21, 1885.

The Grand Lodge was called off until 3 o'clock p. m.

The special order for the hour was the "endowment law." The same having been published in the proceedings of the last annual communication, its reading was dispensed with. J. I. Macks moved that it be the sense of the Grand Lodge that some endowment plan should be adopted, which did not prevail. On motion, the report of the committee embodying the proposed plan, was laid on the table.

W. F. Beasley introduced the following resolution: Resolved, That the Committee on Endowment for the Oxford Orphan Asylum be continued for another year, and that the Grand Master issue an appeal to the subordinate lodges on the subject. J. A. Leach moved that the words "another year" be stricken out, which was adopted and the resolutions as amended prevailed.

At the evening session the special order, it being the report of the Committee on the Centennial of the Grand Lodge, was announced. The majority and minority reports were read. The question recurred on the adoption of the minority report, and the same being divided, the Grand Lodge decided to celebrate its centennial at the city of Raleigh during its next annual communication. The following Grand officers were elected for the ensuing Masonic year:

Fabius of Busbee, Grand Master; Charles H. Robinson, Deputy Grand Master; Samuel H. Smith, Senior Grand Warden; Hezekiah A. Gudger, Junior Grand Warden; William E Anderson, Grand Treasurer; Donald W. Bain, Grand Secretary. A. H. A. Williams was reelected as a director of the Oxford Orphan Asy. lum. The Grand Master announced the following committees: On returns of subordinate lodges, No 1: S. D. Franklin, S. M. Parish and H. M. Strouse; No. 2: C. R. Scott, J. R. Brown and J. R. Watson; No. 3; Lewis Kilpatrick, Wm. Daughtry and T. A. Bingham. On centennial of Grand Lodge: John W. Cotten. of Tarboro; Thos. S. Kenan, of Wilson: James W. Blackwell, of Durham; Eugene S. Martin, of Wilmington; H. A. Gudger, of Asheville.

Spirits Turpentine.

- The Winston Daily is looking up. It is improved. - Travel has been resumed on the Western North Carolina road.

- At the sparkling Catawba Springs the mercury stood at 12 degrees

- Country Homes is the name of good agricultural monthly published at Asheville, N. C., at 50 cents a year, by J. Tomlinson.

- Mr. John C. Tipton, of the Lincolnton Press, has purchased a half interest in the Newton Enterprise. Our best wishes attend him and his associate Mr.

- Fayetteville Observer-Gazette. Col. Wm. Alderman has been appointed gauger in this revenue district-a good selection by the government of one who will prove a capable official.

- The Odell Manufacturing Company, at Charlotte, has declared a dividend of 5 per cent. It has a surplus of $71,149 32. It has made improvements during the fiscal year amounting to $3,500.

- The Charlotte Observer tells how a Cornish man, named Frank Williams, succeeded in selling a Mecklenburg county gold mine to a party of New Yorkers for $50,000. The property is known as the Johnson mine and the transaction is said to be bona fide.

- Elizabeth City Carolinian: The Elizabeth City Oil Mill uses 15 tons of cotton seed a day. We understand that 66% bushels of seed make a ton, and that from each ton of good seed 37 gallons of oil is obtained The price of oil is now very low, only about 23 cents.

- Asheville Citizen: The Methodists and Baptists in Durham each are determined to build two new churches. Each has its central church, and each will build one in the east and the other in the west end of the town. — Two fine fat hogs froze to death at Gen. Vance's farm on the river Sunday night.

- Shelby Era: Early on Christtheir lawful contracts. Unless the mas morning, while Dinwiddee Settle- winds along this coast.

myer, youngest son of Mr. A. J. Settle-myer, who lives at the mouth of Sandy Run, and Tommy Jolly, son of a neighbor, were playing with a gun belonging to Bettlemyer's older brother, the gun was discharged and the load took effect in young Settlemyer's thigh.

- Greenville Reflector: The regulators, or more properly speaking, marauders, did much damage Christmas eve night. Fences were torn down, gates de-molished, street lamps broken, bridges torn up, costly signs broken down, and many other insensible and shameful acts committed. Law-abiding and sober minded citizens, as well as those who are damaged, are indignant at the proceedings.

-- Charlotte Observer: Mr. Bennett, a well known old gentleman of this place, a few days since dug a bullet out of his thigh, where he had carried it since the war. It was a minnie ball and he received it in one of the battles around Richmond. On Sunday last, however, Mr. Bennett decided to turn surgeon himself and sharpening up his pocket knife, he bared his thigh and commenced digging for the ball. He cut down about two inches and soon had the satisfaction of bringing out the bullet, which he now carries in his pocket to show to his friends.

- Raleigh News Observer: The sounds, bays and streams in eastern North Carolina are reported as frozen. Edenton bay is full of skaters. - All of North Carolina from Winston west is wrapped in snow, of depths ranging from five to twelve inches. — A gentleman named Steperson, of Beston, Mass., was frozen to death in Currituck sound during the severe gale and cold wave. He procured a skiff and started out to shoot some wild game on one of the islands. He was found at a late hour Sunday night, sitting upright in his boat, dead. Had he retained presence of mind he could have waded to the shore, as the water is little more than waist deep in the sound at that point.

-- Goldsboro Argus: The body of Capt. T. P. Clark, of the schooner Crissie Wright, an account of the wrecking of which off the coast at Morehead appeared in yesterday's issue, has been found; and yesterday his brother, Mr. H. J. Clark, of Berlin, N. J., passed through this city en route for the mournful scene of shipwreck and death. - It becomes our sad duty to announce the death of Capt. George C. Buchan, 40th N. C. Regiment, who died at his home in Indian Springs township, this county, yesterday morning, of an aggravated case of bronchitis, after a long confinement. Capt. Buchan was one of our best citizens, had represented this county in the Legislature with credit, and after wards filled a position of the board of county commissioners.

- Wadesboro Intelligencer: Died suddenly, on Saturday night, January 9, 1886, in the 66th year of her age, Mrs. Nancy Tarlton, wife of W. R. Tarlton, of Long Pine, Anson county, N. C. — The scene of distress was the building on Depot street occupied by Mr. Merrett as a boarding house. The fire appears to have been discovered by some one passing in a vehicle, who gave the alarm and passed on. Mr. Merrett lost everything, save the night clothing which he and his wife and daughter wore when they escaped from the burning building. There were, besides the family, six boarders in the house, and the fire had gained such headway before they were made aware of it, that all made i narrow escape. Some of them were forced to leap from their windows. leaving behind their clothing and baggage, while others possessed presence of mind enough to snatch their clothing as they left their beds. Mr. W. M. Hall, of Albemarle, leaped from the second story window and sprained his ankle.

- Goldsboro Messenger: Amos Clark, Joe Caldwell and Joe Williams, all colored, have been arrested and are now confined in jail upon the charge of burglary-having broken into the store of one Deshong, some time in September. -The tollowing new postoffices have been established in this State recently: Antonia. Cumberland county; Austin, Wilkes; Norval, Harnett; Alligator, Tyrrell; Dealville, Alexander; Glenaloon, Chatham; Hillgirt, Henderson. - Duplin dots: We are pleased to learn that the reported failure of Mr. Buck Pierce is untrue. - Many of our most advanced farmers will plant considerable land in tobacco this season Last year's experience proved conclusively that the soil of this section is especially adapted to the successful culture of the plant. - A white man applied to the Register of Deeds and procured a license for another party as he said—who wanted to marry. He gave the names of a lady and gentleman and then married the lady himself, using the license, notwithstanding the name in the license was very unlike his name. — Mr. P. F. Duffy, late of the Charlotte Observer, and formerly of the Greensboro Patriot, is an applicant for a government position in Washington.

- New Bern Journal: Neuse river succumbed to the wintery blast yesterday morning and is now covered with ice from shore to shore. - But the skating with our colored citizens is marred by a sad accident. At the foot of George street, where a party of them were engaged in the sport, among them several children, a boy took out the little ten-year old daughter of Ann Taylor in a rocking chair and when about seventy-five yards from the shore the ice gave way and both went under. The boy with difficulty kept from under the ice and was rescued but the little girl was drowned. — Jim Green says the ducks are very scarce up Trent river. Ed. Stanly, himself and son only killed fifty-four at twenty five shots. - The Shenandoah, on her trip down the river Tuesday evening when she was compelled to beat a retreat on account of the ice, rescued a wood boat with two men on it who. without assistance, were doomed to death. Their boat had become ice bound. In like manner Capt. T. G. Dixon, of the steamer Kinston found the same evening in Neuse river, near Barrington's Ferry, two open nearly frozen. They could not make the shore on account of ice. Capt. Dixon backed his boat to them and took them off

- The foreign exports yesterday were 500 casks of petroleum, 500 boxes of soap. 51 bundles of oars, 5 cases of lard and 135,028 feet of lumber; the whole valued at $3,423.36, and shipped to St. Paul de Loanda per brig Donna Anna by Mr. J. W. Taylor, agent.

- There will be a meeting of the Produce Exchange and Chamber of Commerce to day, at 12.39 p. m., for the purpose of expressing the appreciation of these bodies of the services of the captain and officers of the U.S. revenue steamer Colfax, in saving vessels during the past

A Case for the Coroner-The Dead Body of a Colored Man Found Near

Two colored boys, who were out hunting rabbits vesterday afternoon, came upon the dead body of a man lying in the woods southeast of town at a place called Cypress Swamps about a mile from the city limits. The boys were so frightened at the ghastly discovery they had made that they ran from the place without stopping to the City Hall, and reported the matter to the Chief of Police. Coroner Jacobs was soon notified and went out to investigate the matter. He found it to be the body of a colored man about twenty-five or thirty years of age and about five feet six inches in height. It was dressed in a common black sack coat, plaid pants, brogan shoes and a common wool hat. An umbrella and a crocus bag lay near the corpse, which was lying face downwards in the ice and mud. The body was covered with ice, One of the hands was gone; apparently eaten off by dogs or hogs. The crocus bag contained a lot of men's clothing and a pint flask of whiskey. The coroner had the body of the unknown put in a coffin, and to-day Dr. Potter, the County Physician, will make an examination for the purpose of ascertaining the cause of death. A large crowd of colored people gathered at the place and looked at the body, but none could identify the remains.

Damage Caused by Brift Ice Down the River. The drift ice made a clean sweep of everything in its way in the lower part of the Cape Fear river Thursday night. It carried away the light-house built on piles on Drum shoals, just above New Inlet, and the Drum shoals buoy. No. 7 buoy, in the Horse Shoe, and the buoy in the lower part of Snow's Marsh channel were also carried away, besides the piling along the channel. Some of the fields of ice were half a mile square or more, and four to five inches thick. At Smithville the pilot boat Oriental, Capt. Newton, was dragged from her moorings and carried out about a mile before she could be freed from the ice. The copper on her sides was cut through in places. The schooner Wave, used as a lighter, was jammed on Battery Island shoals, where a hole was cut in her side and she filled and sank to the water's edge. Bhe was loaded with rosin for the barque Richard, lying at Smithville. Pilots say that all the marks at the mouth of the river are now gone, and until they are replaced navigation will be difficult, especially in thick weather. There was considerable excitement for short time yesterday morning about 11 o'clock on South Front street near Market, caused by a runaway horse attached to a grocer's delivery wagon. The horse belonged to Capt. John L. Boatwright, and was making for headquarters at the top of his speed, as if he had forgotten something of great importance to his master's customers. He came in collision with a dray standing in front of the store, and suddenly stopped in his wild haste. The wagon was smashed, the dray broken, and the runaway horse slightly hurt. There was a bewildered air about him as he was led off after the accident, as if he didn't exactly understand the situation. Perhaps he will make haste more slowly next time.

Early yesterday afternoon the dwelling house owned and occupied by Mr. B A. McClammy, on Seventh, between Queen and Castle streets, caught fire on the roof. A large hole was burned before Mr. Mc-Clammy, with the assistance of some of his neighbors, succeeded in extinguishing the fire. Sparks from the chimney are supposed to have caused it. No general alarm was given.

Early yesterday morning a small frame building on the premises of Mr. J. W. Monk, a short distance east of the city, was burned. It is not known how the fire originated, nor the loss sustained.

OPERA HOUSE.

The Two Dans.

"The Two Dans" was presented at the Opera House last night, and was a performance which gave pleasure to those who witnessed it, though in some particulars there could be an improvement. The clog dancing was excellent, and the panoramic scenes were interesting and instructive.

This afternoon there will be a matinee, when the price of admission will be twenty-five cents for adults and fifteen cents for children; so a "large crowd may be expected. The company will play again here to-night and we wish them a large audience.

fee in the Upper Cape Fear.

There have been no arrivals by the river from Fayetteville the latter part of this week, owing, it is supposed, to the inability of the boats to get through. The steamers River Queen, Bladen and Hurt are on their way down but the river is full of ice, " jammed " at several places. Capt. Green, of the Bladen, on her last trip up the river had to nail planks on the sides of the steamer as a protection against the ice.

Persons who were in the city yesterday from Kelly's Cove, about forty miles above Wilmington, reported that the river was frozen over at that place, with ice about one inch thick.

Among the arrivals at the Orton yesterday were the following: Geo. E. Cooper, Rutland, Vt.; A. Martin, Philadelphia; E. S. Robinson, New York; Frank L. Wells, Indianapolis; W. H. Graves, New York; O. J. Pegram, N. C.; B. Kenyon, Miss Coombs, Miss Adams, Brooklyn; T. H. McKoy and wife, N. C.; N. W. Howell, New York; Wm. Matthews, Philadelphia; Wm. Rich, Baltimore; J. A. Thompson, Baltimore; E. H. Williams, Wm. L. Austin, Philadelphia; J. B. Ellington, Reidsville, N. C.; A. H. Seelye, Chicago; T. D. Wilkinson, Richmond, Va.; Jas. Lee, Balimore; Jos. E. Hart and wife, Baltimore.

Serious Loss to a Wilmington Man. Mr. E. S. Warrock, formerly in business in this city, a short time ago began the publication of a paper in Burnsville, in the Western part of this State. We regret to learn that he had the misfortune to be burned out recently. The loss was a total one-on material $1,000 and books and accounts about $800. Mr. Warrook lost all his clothing in the fire, except what he had on. Citizens of the place are making an effort to buy a new outfit for his paper, and it may be revived.

Good Endorsement of a Wilmington Enterprise.

The Carolina Oil and Creosote Company some time ago sent a lot of creesoted wood piling to Capt. James B. Eads, to be tested in the Mississippi river below New Orleans. Capt. Eads reports that the test has proven entirely satisfactory and yesterday he gave an order for two hundred piling for immediate shipment to New Orleans, with the understanding that he will take several hundreds more as he is ready for them.

RIVER AND MARINE.

- Nor. barque Capella, Jensen, hence, arrived at Bowling Jan. 13.

- Swedish barque Ornen, Merfen, from Hamburg for this port, sailed from Cuxhaven Jan. 9.

- The Wisteria placed the Slue buoy in position yesterday, that had been carried away by the ice the day before.

- Schr. Florence N. Tower, from Rockport, Me., for this port, was towed into Boothbay with loss of sails, bulwarks and

- Br. barque Espiegle, Dent, which put in here several months ago in distress, having sprume a leak while on her voyage from Jamaica to Falmouth, England, for orders, with a cargo of 387 tons of logwood, having completed her repairs, cleared for her destination yesterday.

- The Wisteria, government buoy tender, has been directed to place the crew of the rescued Frying pan Shoals lightship on board the Relief, the ship now on the shoals, and to carry the old lightship to Charleston. The men on the rescued vessel say that she went adrift from her moorings about 8 o'clock a. m. on Saturday last, and drifted up to Cape Lookout and thence into the Gulf Stream.

For the Star. Splendid Work of the Cutter Colfax. The splendid service rendered to distressed versels during the recent stormy weather by the revenue cutter Colfaz demonstrates not only the great importance of the service but the high efficiency of the officers that command the cutter. On the 12th inst. the cutter left Smithville to search for the missing lightship, Frying Pan Shoals, which having broken from her moorings was supposed to have been adrift or foundered, when she fell in with the schooner Taulane, in a helpless condition, bound from Philadelphia to Galveston, with cargo of coal, and towed her into Smithville. Leaving Smithville again on the 12th at daylight to resume her search, she discovered a schooner on Frying Pan shoals laboring heavily. This proved to be the Messenger, from Perth Amboy for Brunswick, Ga., with 450 tons of railroad iron. After considerable difficulty the cutter succeeded in getting the vessel off the shoals and towed her into port. Putting to sea again at daylight on the 14th, the cutter found toward midday the lightship drifting about and towed her into Smithville. Much uneasiness had been felt for the lightship, for fear she might have foundered with all on board in the gale of Friday night, and her rescue was good news to the public.

It is reliably estimated that the property, consisting of these three ships and their cargoes, saved in three days by the cutter Colfax is worth over $100,000, and the dili-gent work of her commanding officers and crew has been the object of general commendation of the community.

A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homosopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still suffering; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy! The mother was delighted with the wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
