George W. Childs and Anthony Drexel contributed $500 each to the Irish Parliamentary fund, at a meeting in Philadelphia. - The ministerial crisis in England excites but little interest, although it may result in a dissolution of Parliament and an appeal to the country: at a meeting of the Cabinet it was resolved that the ministers should at once resign. - Two murderers taken from jail and hanged at Susanville, Cal. - In a collision on the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia Railroad near McPherson, both firemen and engineers were hurt; nobody was killed. -- New York markets: Money 11@3 per cent.; cotton quiet at 9 8-16@94c; wheat, ungraded red 86@91c; corn, No. 2, 491c; southern flour firm; spirits turpentine steady at 41c; rosin steady at $1 021@

Senator Ransom spoke in memory of Vice President Hendricks. He does well on an occason of that sort.

Senator Hoar has introduced a bill looking to the settlement of the debt owing to the Government by the Pacific Railroad.

President Cleveland evidently has "sand in his craw." He was too much for the Republican Senators who tried to bulldoze him.

Paris is now suffering from an epidemic of murders. There were eleven in one week. All the deviltry is not on this side of the Atlantic.

The House Committee on Pensions has reported favorably on Mr. Wolford's bill to pay $8 a month to all survivors of the Mexican war or their

The war has opened on the Government Department of Agriculture. Let it prevent the adulteration of food if it would gan the lasting good will of the country.

A man by the name of Aaron Culver was killed by drinking cold water at Phillipsburg, N. J. His allowance was four gallons a day. He appears to have been born thirsty.

The last estimated population for Baltimore is 486,000. This is made by the directory and all who do business in the city are included although they may live beyond the city limits.

Miss Anderson is not coming South this season, we suppose. The Richmond State says she will not visit that city. Fanny Davenport is giving fine performances in Richmond.

For the first six months of the fiscal year ending 30th June next the collections of internal revenue aggregated $58,549,611-an increase of $2,029,464 over the corresponding period of last year.

Ex-President Arthur is tired of private life and is auxious to obtain office. There are no sweets to the old politician and office-holder like those of the Government swill-tub or Uncle Sam's big corn-crib. Political rodants never get enough.

We notice that it is reported in a Northern exchange that in February, March and April a great many immigrants will remove to Arkansas from West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Ohio, and many of them are thrifty. The inducements are milder climate and fertile, sheap lands.

It is announced that a new literary venture will be made in New York. Messre. Julian Hawthorne and Lathrop, son and son-in-law of the greatest American writer, Nathaniel Hawthorne, will publish a family paper exclusively devoted to poetry and fiction. It ought to have sketches of travel and criticism.

Mr. Randall, in his letter to his paper, the Augusta Chronicle, thus describes George Wise.

up Boutelle and then, with a final spank, sent him to bed. His impetuosity might have led him too far, but Carlisle's gavel stopped him at the right time, in a blaze of glory. An old Democrat, familiar with horse talk in the pine woods, said: 'Our boys have not felt half as happy in a long time. We went out of that contest with our heads and tails up."

Mr. Sam Tilden's letter for coast defence has had scarcely any effect n Congress. It ought not to have as it is generally understood that its real intent was to prevent Tariff legislation that is so much needed. The House Committee on Appropriations will report the usual amount for coast defences it is said. Mr. Forney, of Alabama, from the Sub-Committee on Fortifications, is thus reported:

"He is also quoted as saying that he thought there was no necessity for a large appropriation. The country was in no danger. The moral force of fifty million people was a strong defence. It was not fortifications we needed now-it was guns. There was no use of a fort without ordnance. We could prevent any hostile vessel or fleet from entering any of our rivers if we had guns that could sink a vessel at a thousand yards. No fleet could get up the Potomac to take Washington. "The only thing,' he said, 'was that they might stand outside the harbor and shell New York or Boston or Philadelphia. But the danger of this,' he thought, 'was greatly exaggerated."

The Washington Post used to be particularly hard on Mary Anderson. It finds more in her to approve of than formerly. In an interesting critical notice of her Galatea it says

"It is difficult and perhaps undesirable to attempt to reach an estimate of Miss Anderson's work, as separated from her striking personality. Seeing her as Galatea it is impossibly to overlook her adaptation to the part by reason of the graceful outlines of her stately figure, her statuesque pose, and the classic beauty of her mobile face. Then again who can resist her resonant and flexible voice, with its rich command of varied tones? Her elocution is always admirably informed and abounds in subtle nuances which contribute greatly to the effect. As Galatea her portrayal of unsophisticated innocence was perfect, and the pathetic denouement in her hands became an affecting climax. Altogether Miss Anderson's Galatea is a very interesting piece of work and is thoroughly responsive to the imagination and poetical requirements of the play."

There are three of Mr. Cleveland's nominees who will do well not to count on a confirmation from the Senate. They are Mr. Chase, of Maine, Mr. Goode, of Virginia, and Mr. Shelley, of Alabama. All three are implicated in election rascalities, and in none of the three is there any real ground for the denial of their guilt.—
Philadelphia American.

This is the neat way a Republican paper that supported Jim Blaine for President (the "tattooed man,") speaks of its betters. It will take a greater paper than the American to prove "rascalities" on Mr. Goode. Suppose it tries its hand.

His kind and gentle manners and his devout Christian life have made for him the name of "Father" Rothrock, and well he deserves the parental title.

- Waynesville News: But few people realize the fact that the Murphy branch of the W. N. C. Railroad is almost as long as the main stem. The busy workmen have pushed far into the heart of the Nantahala mountains, and the train that now leaves Asheville at 10 a. m. runs 102 miles before reaching its terminal point at Jarrett's. In one year more the road will probably reach Murphy, thence to Atlanta, and then ours will be a great trunk line to New Orleans and the South.

Finger and Mrs. Barnett were arrested, and in the preliminary trial they gave up $290 of the money and made their escape together. Sheriff Nixon sent a warrant to Chief of Police Howell T. Superior Court.

In this court yesterday the hearing of arguments in the case of Beverly Scott vs. the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company began in the forenoon and continued until late in the evening, when, after Judge Connor's charge, the case was given to the jury. Arguments were made by D. L. Russell and M. Bellamy, Esqs., for the plaintiff, and by C. M. Stedman and George Davis, Esqs., for the defendant. The jury. having failed to agree upon a verdict by en o'clock, were locked up for the night.

Messrs. John L. Maffitt and John Corbett have formed a copartnership for the purpose of conducting a general commission and grocery business in this city, at No. 17 South Water street. Both gentlemen are well and favorably known in business circles; Mr. Maffitt for a number of years past as a salesman in the house of Messrs. Adrian & Vollers, and Mr. Corbett with the firm of John B. Brown & Co., The Public Building for Wilmington. There is pending in Congress a bill for an appropriation of $150,000 for a public building at Wilmington. In relation to the matter, a correspondent of the STAR

"This city is entitled to an appropriation of at least $300,000—if not $350,000. Its citizens should take steps at once to impress upon our representatives, one and all the extent of the public business transacted here and the necessity of a larger appropriation than that proposed. It is time to act. The amount appropriated now is all we need expect, for the supervising architect is prohibited by law from drawing plans and specifications for a public build ing beyond the amount appropriated. It is important, therefore, to secure an ample appropriation at once. We cannot hope to have it increased as the work progresses. If a public building is erected here it will include offices and accommodations for Custom House, Post Office, United States District and Circuit Courts, with offices for clerk and marshal, Internal Revenue, Marine Hospital Service, Revenue Marine Service, Steamboat Inspection Service, and an office for the Special 3 Agent of the Treasury Department, whose headquarters are now located here. In order to accommodate all these departments, which require offices, and to meet the probable needs of an increasing public business, a government building, erected in this city, should be an elegant, costly and commodious structure. And the necessity for such a structure is enhanced from the fact that the United States Court and the Post Office are now accommodated in a rented building, insignificant in appearance and in apartments, and that the Custom House, an old building, greatly needs repairs while the public warehouse and wharf shed are so dilapidated as to be considered by competent architects not worth repairing. Charleston has a Custom House which alone cost $600,000; the public building at Raleigh it said to have cost over $250,000. Why should Wilmington be dropped to $150,000 ? "Immediate and active measures should be taken to secure an appropriation sufficient to erect an elegant building in Wilmington. Let all move with a determination to secure it. The matter has been already brought to the attention of the Exchange. Let that body call a public meeting, which can appoint a representative committee to visit Washington and urge our claim upon our Senators and Representatives, and through dem present it to the Benate and House appropriation committees. The more public interest displayed about it the more likely we are to get a public building.

Arrested on a Grave Charge.

Tom Kane, a colored cooper, who lives on Sixth, between Castle and Queen streets, and who is employed at the distillery on Point Peter, was arrested yesterday evening by Officers Strode and Holmes and committed to jail. Kane is charged with having criminally assaulted a young white woman named Florence Skipper, on Sunday night last. The young woman is the daughter of Mrs. S. Skipper, a widow, who lives on Queen between Fifth and Sixth streets. On Sunday night last a colored man entered the house of Mrs. Skipper, and beat her severely. She managed to make her escape from the house and went for assistance, and while she was absent the negro assaulted her daughter. Mrs. Skipper finally secured the aid of a policeman and returned; but as soon as the officer entered the house the negro attacked him, disabled him so that he was unable to use his pistol, and was thus enabled to make his escape. Kane was arrested on a warrant issued by Justice E. D. Hall, and the case will probably come up for examination before the Justice this morn-

The British steamship Carbis Bay, from Charleston for Sevastopol, that put in yesterday for coal, had a cargo of 4,280 bales of cotton. In October last the same steamer cleared at this port for Bremen with a cargo of 4,900 bales-620 more than she was able to load at Charleston.

Attention has repeatedly been called to the fact shown by the telegraphic reports, that the prices paid for middling cotton in Wilmington are higher than in most of the Southern ports, and to this may now be added the further claim that with the best cotton compresses the shipping facilities of Wilmington also are greatly superior to those of some of her much-vaunted neigh-

The Jail Once More. It was to the food and water furnished the inmates of the jail that the last grand jury asked the attention of the County Superintendent of Health. In their report the grand jury say that the daily food given the prisoners is one pound of fresh meat and one pound of corn bread per day, with occasionally some broth or meal soup. This has been the diet given for twelve months past-no other meat or bread or any vegetable being given; and further that the prisoners are fed but once a day, and that the only depository for this meat and bread is the window-sill or

WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW!—As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do rise up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are daily sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of chil-WHO IS MRS.
