The John P. King Cotton Mill at Augusta, Ga., had a profitable year in spite of hard times.

Rumor says that the President an old bachelor-is in love at last, and that the lady is fair, fat and forty, and Love is her name. But all this may be a groundless report.

The Richmond Whig has changed its editors, politics and appearance. It is now a Virginian paper, Democratic in politics, but not an organ. Its third number is before us, and it is well edited and newsy. It began its new life on its sixty-second anni-

Abolish the system and change the man-ner of collecting the tax.—Graham Gleaner.

This refers to the internal revenue. But if you "abolish the system" there will be no tax to collect. Retain the tax and "change the manner of collecting" will do. Whiskey and tobacco are better able to bear a high tax than woollen goods, shoes, blankets, trace-chains, jack-knives, cups and saucers, window glass, cotton-ties and so on.

It is a little bit nauseating to hear reform sheets, especially of a Republican stripe, talking of Democratic "spoilsmen" arguing "that the Democrats ought to have half the offices." Such talk is very brassy, The Democrats ought to have all, and he is a sorry sort of a Democrat who does not say so, whatever else he may be. Let them try this foolishness in 1888, if they please, and see what comes of it.

Senator Ransom made the best eulogy of any on Vice President Hendricks. It was graceful, classical, touching and rhetorical. The Senator never discusses questions before the Senate, but on solemn occasions when funeral orations are required he is peculiarly happy. His addresses on Representative Shackelford, Senator Burnside and Vice President Hendricks were excellent

Commenting on a paragraph in the STAR, our friend the Warrenton Gazette says:

"It is the Agent's duty to bring settlers into the State by informing them of the climate, products, soil, resources, &c., but we were not before aware that it was a part of his special duty to prevent our citizens leaving if they see proper.

The STAR did not intend to convey that idea. While the Agent brings in 100 immigrants at a cost of $64 each, the State is fosing hundreds of its citizens. What is needed is some thing to make "Tar-heels" stick to the Old North State.

Those Democratic papers in North Carolina that favor what is called Civil Service reform will of course favor the extension of the same principle to State officers. Make the trial in the next State election. Let the platform favor allowing all Republicans to stand an equal chance with Democrats in standing examinations for office and then see how it will work at the polls. If it is really so excellent and necessary a thing why not apply it to all-to State officials as well as Federal? Why

"The Wilmington STAR is about the only leading North Carolina journal which opposes the Blair bill, and the grounds of its opposition are that it is unconstitutional.' -Asheville Advance.

in North Carolina. The Charlotte Democrat, Salisbury Watchman, Scotland Neck Democrat, Clinton Caucasian, Pittsboro Home, and perhaps others, edited by men of intelligence and education, are opposed to the Paternal system, and to such dangerous measures as Blair bills. The STAR has offered many objections to the bill other than its unconstitutionality. If it was not a foregone conclusion that the grab-game is to win it would go into the discussion de novo and present every objection possible. But the STAR feels that it has discharged faithfully a duty it owed to sound political principles.

At St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church there will be English services today, both morning and evening.

At St. John's Church, Rev. J. Carmi chael, D. D., rector, to-day-the Fourth Sunday after Epiphany-there will be holy communion at 7.80 a. m.; morning Lieutenant Rhodes of the Revenue Service.

Lieut. J. U. Rhodes, who was formerly attached to the revenue steamer Colfax and who has many warm friends in Wilmington, is now one of the officers of the revenue cutter Oliver Wolcott, on the Pacific coast. This steamer recently made an important seizure of smuggled opium, valued at $45,000, in Kaasan Bay, Alaska, in which Lieut. Rhodes, with his usual good luck, figured. An account of the affair in the Portland Oregonian says:

"The revenue cutter Wolcott is just in from Alaska with $,100 pounds of seized opium that had been cached from the Idaho. This is the biggest haulyet. On the 10th inst., the cutter left Port Townsend on her cruise, accompanied by Collector Beecher. On the 14th, at 10.15, she arrived at Kaasan bay and anchored, and the collector, accompanied by Lieut. Rhodes and eight men from the steamer, went ashore at the cannery. This cannery is said to be owned or leased by Capt. Carroll, of the Idaho, and was found in charge of two men, the foreman having gone to Wrangle to meet the Idaho. Four-teen barrels landed by the Idaho on her last trip, and said to contain furs, were opened and found to be filled with prepared opium. The cutter was at once signalled, and after considerable trouble and difficulty, forced her way through the ice to the wharf. The amount of opium seized amounts to 3,012 pounds, valued at $45,000. "The officers of the revenue service at this port are entitled to much praise for the out. No doubt exists that this smuggling. has been carried on for many years." Weather Indications. The following are the indications for o able manner in which this trip was carried

For the Middle Atlantic States, cloudy weather, with local snows, winds generally westerly, generally backing to southerly, colder weather during to night, followed by slowly rising temperature.

For the South Atlantic States, fair weather during to-night, followed during Sunday by local rains, winds generally from west to south, falling barometer, and slowly rising temperature.

There was a small fire yesterday morning about four o'clock, on Bladen between Eighth and Ninth streets, in a frame house occupied by colored people. The damage was slight, as the fire was extinguished by the inmates of the building soon after it was discovered. The fire alarm was sounded, however, and brought out all the Fire Department.

Confederate Pensioners. The clerk of the Superior Court, S. Van Amringe, Esq , says that he has pension warrants for the following persons: Wm. Solmans, L. R. Carteret, Susan A. Jones, and Henry O. Quinn. If these pensioners do not call for their pensions within the next ten days it will be the duty of Mr. Van Amringe to return the warrants to the

WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW!—As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime mental as a pursuant physician she has a lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teetha firetime spent as a farse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do rise up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are dally sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No MOTHER has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup' Try it, mothers—TRY IT NOW.—Ladies' Visitor, New York City.
