The Mardi Gras in New Orleans begins on 8th March.

The opinion extends that Senator Edmunds is a "eneak."

Another account is that Mr. Sam Randall has been in Congress thirtyfour years.

Three months gone and Congress has done but very little important work yet. There is said to be every indication of a long and profitless session.

Col. McClure writes from Washington to his paper, the Philadelphia Tariff, and that revision is not likely.

Democratic papers are displaying excellent judgment in quoting from Judge Black to show what the powers of the President are in removals from The long passage relied upon occurs in President Johnson's Message, but it was written by Judge

The wife of James W. King, at Piedmont, S. C., was found mur dered, and her husband lying across her dead, with a knife in his breast. It is believed that King first killed his wife and then himself. They were from North Carolina and left nine children, some quite small.

The Charleston News and Courier evidently relishes what is said in disparagement of North Carolina. Here are its headlines of extracts from certain slanderous attacks:

"'A Few Old Mummies"-North Carolina l'unctured by a 'Traitor's' Pen-Walter Page's Arraignment of the People of his Native State—The Tarheel Common-wealth the Laughing Stock of the Union."

The Washington correspondent of the Richmond State writes on the 3d

"Mr Brecklaridge, of Kentucky, delivered one of the grandest speeches ever heard in that hall. He is one of the most distinguished looking men that ever held a seat in that body. As an orator he has few equals and no superiors, this fact having been demonstrated by the three speeches he has made this session, even though the first two were quite brief."

Rev. Dr. C. H. Hall, of Brooklyn, N. Y. is to deliver the Baccalaureate Sermon at the next Chapel Hill Commencement. Prof. Wilbur F. Tillett, of Vanderbilt University, is to deliver the literary address at Trinity College at the next Commencement. Prof. Tillett is a native of Granville county. He is one of the fullest, roundest men of his age in the South. He will make a first rate address, we have no doubt.

Democratic reform papers complain that Morrison's mild bill favors the monopolists and smites Southern agriculturists. The Savannah News savs with truth:

Both rice and sugar are revenue arti-cles—that is, the duty from them goes into the Treasury. The duty against which the efforts of the tariff reformers have been mainly directed are those which foster monopolies-which shut out imports and put nothing in the Treasury, but which enable the producers of the articles upon which these prohibitory duties are laid to put enormous profits into their pockets."

Here is what Mr. J. R. Randall, o the Augusta Chronicle, writes to his paper of Breckenridge's speech in the House:

"Breckenridge, who is a venerable man, with a full gray beard, more than sustained his reputation as the most eloquent of Kentuckians His voice has a mighty volume and rang like a trumpet call through the vast hall * His tone was pitched in a loftier key than Norwood's, and when he ended in a sublime, thrilling and glorious apostrophe to the dead of the two armies and his kin-dred, living and dead, who fought for the Union and the Confederacy, the whole House thundered with applause and strong men wept. In the gallery his wife and grand children sat. The proud and fond woman wiped her eyes with emotion and then through tears glanced love and admiration at her husband, who was overwhelmed with congratulations."

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXXVII.—NO. 139.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, MARCH 6, 1886.

Mr. William Sharswood, of Philadelphis, now sojourning in Stokes county, in this State, is preparing a bibliography of the late Sir John Bowring, after the manner of Stoddard's Bibliographies of Tennyson and Ruskin. Possibly the most popwhom have geen baptized. ular of Bowring's productions, which were voluminous, is the hymn. "Watchman, Tell us of the Night." Reminiscences of Bowring will be prefixed to the Bibliography by Mr. Sharswood. Bowring's attainments were vast, his accomplishments varied. He had the reputation of hav-any one since Mezzofanti. Here is the very best thing we have seen in a newspaper in a twelvemonth. It is excellent reading for the times. We take it from the Washington special to the Richmond (Va.) State:

"There is no telling what the final result will be. The opposition that has developed in the last ten days has alarmed the friends of the Blair bill. The negro feature has e vidently weakened it, and there are other amendments pending that will surely cause its defeat in the House when it reaches that body if these amendments are passed by the Senate. From present indications the bill stands no chance of success in the House, and that seems to be one of the reasons why some of its opponents over there would rather it should meet its death in the Senate."

It is amusing to see how a certain class of papers in their anxiety to discredit Rev. Sam Jones tell all sorts of stories about him. One paper said he did not draw in Chicago as he did Times, that the Republicans are at Cincinnati. At this time the parmissing their chance to reform the son had not reached Chicago. Then the New York Sun said that by attending Jones's meetings the Chicago pickpockets had cleared over $3,000. The Inter-Ocean pricked this lie by

> "As the Rev. Sam Jones at that time had not reached Chicago or ever held a meeting he will be rather astonished at the New York Sun's figures.

> The Oxford Torchlight asks "in what respect Oxford is less attrac tive to the eye than in former times." The changes wrought within the last ten or fifteen years are probably more noticeable by those who have been absent than by those who have remained. Before the war Oxford was the cleanest, prettiest village in the State. Such was the general testimony of travellers. It has trebled or quadrupled in size but it has lossed its neat, tidy, handsome look. This is the opinion of many.

Spirits Turpentine.

- The Winston Daily has began fresh and is improved in appearance. - Messrs. C. F. & J. B. Sherrill have bought the Concord Times and will hereafter run it. Mr. Ludwig retires with the best wishes of the STAR.

- Asheville Advance: We learn from a prominent citizen of Hominy that several citizens in that section of the county are contemplating bringing suit against the Western North Carolina Fair Association to recover premiums awarded at the fair, and remain unpaid.

- Raleigh News-Observer: Yesterday Governor Scales pardoned Joshua Hollaway, a white man from Alleghany county, who was seven years ago sent to the penitentiary for manslaughter. His term of sentence was twenty years. The pardon was granted upon the application of a great number of citizens of that section.

- New Bern Journal: Only one death among the white in New Bern for the month of February, an infant two hours old. Since the first of October last, a period of five months, there have been seven deaths, three of whom were above sixty and two under one year old. A pretty good showing for health in a popuation of at least 2,500.

- Charlotte Observer: The safe in he store of Mr. D. P. Dayvault, grocery merchant of Concord, was blown open and robbed by burglars Tuesday night of $200 n cash. — In the executive session last night Senator Vance made a strong speech in favor of the confirmation of Messrs. Pillsbury and Cnase, but of course he was by a party vote.

- Hickory Press: A kiln of 5,000 or 6,000 feet of excellent lumber belonging to Mr. J. G. Aderholdt, at Hudsonville, was destroyed by fire last Tuesday.

The new hotel at Warm Springs has been enclosed, and is rapidly approaching com-pletion. Capt. L. T. Houghton, of Worcester, Mass., superintendent of the building, has about seventy mechanics now em

- Lenoir Topic: A gentleman in Forsyth, writing to a friend in Lenoir, says: "Land is high (here). Old fields will bring from $10 to $40 per acre if the soil will make fine tobacco. And good hottom from $50 to $200, and sometimes $225 per acre. This looks high but there are men about here who make from $75 to $125 per acre with their tobacco. Wesley Long will get $600 for tobacco raised on four scres."

Oxford Torchlight: The Galreston News, of February 21st, contains the sad intelligence of the death by suicide of Mrs. Dr. Wm. R. Wilson, of Dallas, Texas. The cause was attributed to depressed spirits, produced by ill health.

Dr. Wilson moved from Townesville,
Vance county, to Dallas, Texas, about a year ago. He was a physician of prominence, had acquired much reputation in his profession, and is well known in this community. Mrs. Wilson was educated church here. On the first Sunday of this month at our regular monthly communion we received eight persons, five on profession and three by letter. — Report from Carthage Church: There is a work of grace in progress in this church. Both had been drinking pretty freely of their mountain whiskey, until one became tight and the other dead drunk. The one who did not drink so freely rose early Sunday morning to curry his horses, and smelling something burning he went to the fire and found his friend afire. All the clothing was burned from one of his legs and the thigh was burned in a crisp to the bone. He was so drunk that he either did not feel the burn or he was unable to move or ask

Pat Christian died at her home in Montgomery county, of hemorrhage of the lungs, on Tuesday morning, aged 19 years. -The wheat and oat crops in Stanly are worse for the late freeze. The outlook for tobacco, however, was never before so encouraging. Extensive preparations for the coming crop are now being made. -Died in McLendon county, Texas, Feb. 23, 1886, Aleck Crump, with Bright's kidney disease, aged seventy five years. Deceased was a native of Anson or Stanly county, N. C., and emigrated to Texas in 1870. -In another column we publish an account of the killing of Mr. J. C. Flake, formerly of this county, in Arkansas, where he has resided for a number of years.

- Wadesboro Intelligencer: Miss

- Goldsboro Argus: The robin crop is not as numerous hereabouts this year as formerly, or as was at first anticipated. — A little colored boy some five or six years old, was badly, and it is feared fatally burned in that part of our city known as Webbtown, on Tuesday evening. - We learn from the Winston Daily that Rev. Dr. J. T. Bagwell, of that town, at one time pastor of the M. E. Church of this city, has been chosen by the literary society of Trinity College to preach the commencement sermon at that college on the 9th of June. [An excellent selection. A gentleman of this city was invited to deliver the literary address at both Trinity and Rutherford Colleges but had to decline because of throat trouble. - STAR.]

- Graham Gleaner: Col. T. M. Holt is having the foundation dug out for his new factory between the present one and the railroad, - Mr. J. A. McCauley is the largest tobacco grower in this city. Last year he raised 104 barns, which wil turn out nearly 50,000 pounds of leaf, and will average him nearly 20 cents around.

— As three of Mr. George Holt's children were returning home from church Sunday they met with an accident which might have been much more serious. A dog caused their horse to shy, two of the children leaped out and the horse turning almost squarely around turned the buggy over and threw the other, a little girl, out, who received a severe gash on her forehead. - Mr. Clinton Browning bargained his plantation last year for $900 and the party backed out. On this same plantation Mr. Browning raised a crop of tobacco last year that will bring $1,000 at the same figures as that already sold. He sold one curing of his last cutting a few days ago which brought $107 50. (We knew a farmer in Granville to offer his farm to Mr. J. C. Cooper of Oxford for $1,300. The offer was declined. The farmer made a turn the next year for his family and in addition sold his crop of tobacco for $1,400.—STAR.

Thayer's Ten-Cent Show.

Thayer's World's Show, recently organnext, under canvas to be put up on the vacant lot on Fifth street between Chesnut and Mulberry, The Charleston News and Courier, of recent date, says of it: "The ten cent show has come to be a very popular institution in Charleston, so popular, in fact, that the present show was originated in Charleston, and equipped with Charleston capital. The corps of acrobats, athletes and variety actors only were brought out from the North. The Charleston show is especially commendable for the neatness of its equipment and the attention which is paid to the comfort of its patrons. None of the dirt and roughness which seems to belong to all circuses, whether they are ten cent shows or one dollar colossal menageries, are found about the grounds and pavilion. Everything is new and clean and the attendants are well dressed and polite. Dr. Thayer also gives the best eutertainment of the kind that has been seen in the South. There is a full corps of - North Carolina Presbyterian: | acrobats and athletes, including the famous

The Fire Relief Committee.

The committee of citizens appointed to distribute contributions for the relief of sufferers by the recent fire, have relieved all cases of distress or want brought to their attention, or that they could discover by personal inquiry and investigation. All of the colored people who were sufferers have been assisted, and as a mark of appreciation of the kindly action of the committee in this matter, the Cape Fear Fire Engine Company, (colored), at a recent meeting, appointed a committee to convey the Company's acknowledgement for kindnesses received. This committee addressed the following note to the Fire Relief Com-

The Truck Farmers.

The truck farmers about Wilmington are busy. From indications the coming season will be a more profitable one to them than heretofore. The cold wave in January last wiped out every thing in Florida, and shipments from that State North will be much later this season. The New York Times, alluding to the outlook for the early fruit and vegetable crop, says: "There would have been quite a good supply of peas from Florida by this time had there been no frosts; but it is scarcely probable that there will be any peas from there before April, and no string beans until well into April. All kinds of Southern vegetables will be later this season than last. Florida cabbage, which last season during the months of April and May came here in great abundance, will be very scarce. But the small fruit crops, which consist principally of strawberries, from all points North of Charleston, S. C., will be no later than usual, and, as it frequently is the case tha cold winters are followed by early springst it is possible that at the North the ripening season for strawberries may be early. Al. most always large crops of strawberries are grown in the season following great snowfalls, and it is probable that when the early fruits once begin to arrive in the market they will soon become abundant, but that will not be before April." Mr. T. Tucker, advance agent of Thayr's Show, is in the city.

The following were among the arrivals at The Orton yesterday: W. F. Prioleau, Louisville; C. W. Hammond, Chas. H. Woltz, Charleston; Jesse Lukens, Howard Riefnyder, A. K. McClure, C. H. Krunebham, Miss M. Everly, Miss A. Everly, Miss Biggs, Philadelphia; A. F. Powell, Vineland, N. C.; W. H. Nicholson, Wm. C. Codd, J. E. Valk, W. F. Trogdon and wife, Baltimore; J. Pointer, C. C. Kendall D. V. P. Cadmus, New York; Wm. Flanagan, Springfield.

Distinguished Visitor. Col. A. K McClure, the editor of the Philadelphia Times, was at the Orton last night. He is on his way to Florida, and is accompanied by several ladies and by a gentleman from Philadelphia whose name escapes us. A large number of leading citizens called upon him and were introduced by Lieutenant Governor Stedman. Col. McClure is of commanding figure, with gray ized in Charleston, S. C., will give a first | hair and moustache, and with a kindly eye performance in this city Monday night and pleasant, handsome face. He is affable and entertaining and made a most agreeable impression.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY.—The following is an extract from a letter written to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburgh, Penn.: A BENEFACTRESS. Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking, and teething siege. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrur relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhœa. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, cures wind colic, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it colic, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists.
