MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

Street car operatives in Pittsburg are on a strike. Secretary Manning's condition remains unchanged. An immense amount of property was destroyed by strikers at Charleroi, Belgium.

THE CITY.

BURR & BAILEY—Notice. NATIVE—Board wanted. MINTON—Now neckwear. MEETING—County Justices.

The Morrill bill (a poor affair) is to be still modified. Quit tinkering and go to work in earnest. Senator Vance has been putting his feet under President Cleveland's mabogary.

It is not believed in Washington that Secretary Manning will be able to continue in office, even supposing he recovers from the present severe attack of apoplexy from which he is suffering.

The Blaine Senators—so called—are Hale, Logan, Sherman, Evarts and a few others. They are all quietly blocking Edmunds's Presidential game.

Bruce and Lynch, the two best known Mississippi negroes, have called on the President to protest against the affair at Carrolton, in their State.

Mr. J. R. Randall thinks if Chaplain Millburn's prayer in the House about gambling was to be answered—a supernatural distinction being invoked—that Congress would be left without a quorum.

J. R. R. writes to his paper, the Augusta Chronicle, from Washington after this wise: "Think of nine-tenths of the many hundreds of clerks in the Pension Bureau being hostile to the Democratic Administration and no more than Republican conspirators."

A duel has actually occurred on the battle-field of Waterloo, between "Mme. Valsayre, a native of France, and Miss Shelby, an American."

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXXVIII.—NO. 6. WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, MARCH 28, 1886. WHOLE NO. 6089

The Washington correspondent of the Charleston News and Courier gives, in his letter of 23rd inst., what he says is the Republican programme for the Fall campaign in the Southern States.

Yes, and the Grab bill is one of the ops thrown to the sovereigns.

Thanksgiving. A gentleman suggests that in the various churches in the city this morning thanksgiving should be returned the Almighty God for His protection and deliverance in the midst of so many conflagrations and dangers.
