Mr. Gladstones health is represented as good and his spirits are high. He is confident of success in his Irish plans. This will prove very disap pointing to British and American Tories. He modified his proposals so as to meet the objections of four of his Ministry. But London specials represent that there is a deep underground tide setting in against him. But no one knows the British people better than Gladstone.

There is a bill before Congress to regulate Interstate Commerce, known as the Anti-Discrimination bill. It is not believed in Washington that it has any chance to pass. The bill is thought to be too defective. It aims to prevent discrimination by fines. The Philadelphia Record says:

some wonderful cures have been made by this wonderful water. Here is a part of the account:

of the water upon sores which had annoyed hun for many weeks, and in a marvellously short time was entirely relieved. He then concluded to keep secret the locality of the spring, allowing no one to go to it but himself, but always keeping a supply of the water ot the house. The neighbors swarmed to his house to try the magic water. Many were healed of various maladies, and all were eager to know where the spring was situated. The old man kept his secret, however, going under cover of night to fetch the water. Finally he was followed to his life going fountain., In less than twenty four hours every brier bramble for many a yard around and had been beaten down by the feet of men and hoofs of horses, so great was the throng coming and going. A 'basket meeting' was appointed by the Methodist circuit rider, to be held at the spring on a certain Sunday. It is estimated that 700 persons were present. The preacher told of his wife's wonderful cure. In conse quence of a kick from a cow one of her legs had been in a painful condition for four weeks. Within 15 minutes after the first application of this water she began to experience relief from pain, and after 12 or 15 hours' treatment the pain was entirely This was one of many instances regone. lated by the preacher to his eager listeners. From that day people came from far and near, driving sometimes 30 or 40 miles in a wagon and waiting several days for a chance to fill their barrels. On Sundays from 300 to 400 persons were to be seen on the spot.
