Tried to Drown Himself. A young man, dripping with water, and withal very nervous and excited, was taken to the City Hall yesterday afternoon by Policeman Pugh, who said that his prisoner had just been hauled out of the river near the foot of Nun street. Dr. Potter, city physician, was sent for and made an examination of the case. He questioned the man, who said that his name was A. N. Bell; that his home was in Warsaw, but that he had been engaged for some time past in making turpentine at Bannerman's Bridge. He had been in Wilmington about two weeks; had been drinking, but had drank nothing in the last two days. Dr. Potter decided that Bell was suffering from mania a potu, and ordered that he be

The suit was for three thousand dollars damages, and based on an alleged violation of a contract which Mr. Bruce claimed he had made with the defendant. At the January term of the court, Mr. Chas. M. It was called on Saturday and finished yesterday afternoon-the jury finding a verdict for the defendant in few minutes after retiring.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY.—The following is an extract from a letter written to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburgh, Penn.: A Benefactrees. Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking, and teething siege. Mrs. Winslow's Soothine Syrry relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrheea. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, cures wind colic, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists, 25 cents a bottle. THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE
