OUTLINES.

The City National Bank of Williamsport, Pa., closed its doors on account of a heavy run. -- Knights of Labor have organized several colored assemblies in Arkansas and Texas, and the movement is regarded with apprehension. - The Secretary of the Treasury has issued a call for ten million dollars of three per cents. -The Senate has refused to reopen the Weil and La Abra claims case. - The first Bassemer steel converted in the South was made at Chattanooga, Monday, from Cranberry ores, North Carolina. - The village of East Lee. Mass., was inundated by the breaking of a mill dam: nine lives were lost and much valuable property destroyed.

- The Congressional committee to inquire into the labor troubles began its investigations; Mr. Powderly, of the Knights of Labor, was the first witness examined. - Trouble has arisen in the cotton mills in Augusta, Ga.; president refuses to consider petitions of the Knights of Labor. --- New York markets: Money 4@2 per cent; cotton closed quiet at 91@9 7-16c; wheat, ungraded red 821@97c; corn, ungraded 42@451c; southern flour quiet. rosin dull at $1 071@1 121; spirits turpentine dull at 44c.

Ex President Arthur is better. He is now able to walk about the house.

Congress is very far behind in its work. Both branches are fairly swamped by innumerable bills.

What a clever poem that is entitled "In the South." It is as musical as a Southern mocking bird.

We do not know of one Democratic paper north of Richmond, Va. that supports the dangerous, unconstitutional Blair bill.

An incredulous exchange says the President smiles at the idea of his marrying. Of course. Now is the time to laugh. It will be time enough for him to cry twelve months after he has signed away his liberty.

Mr. Gladstone left London Saturday and arrived at his home, Hawarden, at 10 o'clock at night. At 8 o'clock on Sunday he attended communion service, services at 11 o'clock and vespers. A good example. He is in his 77th year.

Secretary Whitney, of New York, is said to be working for the nomination of the Democracy for the Presidency. He may be in the wrong State for the next race, and if the right State he will hardly be the nag selected. The West is rather tired of New York-Seymour, Greeley, Tilden and Cleveland.

The Southern Mugwump papers, like the Northern papers of the same stripe, brand all papers who do not believe in the doctrine "to the vanquished belong the spoils" (see Col. Bennett's speech) as "spoilsmen." That is an awful ogre in their sight. And yet not one man in one hundred of this class ever held office or ever sought office. Curious "spoilsmen"

The New York Mail Express is a Republican paper. This is necessary to be understood so as to weigh aright what follows. According to it the Democrats of New York city have resolved that there shall be no second term for Cleveland. The Mugwump business is too much for them. Let us copy:

"All the Democratic factions in this city will unite against Cleveland should an attempt be made to push him forward for a second term. They charge that he is giving them much more Mugwumpism than they are able or willing to swallow.'

A Edmunds would like to be President. He has never been a soldier. In a recent secret session of the Senate, he said, according to the Augusta Chronicle, that "the soldier business was about played out, and that no one but demagogues attempted any longer to make political capi tal by appealing to the soldier element. He said that the war had been over for twenty years, and it was about time that the cry of demagogues was silenced."

The celebrated English trainer Raney, that older persons will remember about 1860, has had no successor. He was a wonder. It is announced that a man named Gleason claims to be without a peer now. He has many testimonials. The New York World says: "In addition to offering $100 for the most vicious horses that will be presented during his stay, and $1,000 providing a horse he fails to handle. Prof. Gleason has issued a challenge to all professional horse trainers and breakers in the United States, the gate receipts to be given to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, in order to fully establish the superiority of his method of training and breaking."

Later news from London since we wrote the article on the second page is less favorable still for Mr. Gladstone's plans. Unless modified they will be defeated, it is believed. Chamberlain, who seems to hold the necessary cards, is firm in his opposition to the present scheme, and bitter towards the Premier. The London correspondent of the Piladelphia

"Mr. Chamberlain, in conversation with your correspondent to-day, ridiculed the reports of an alleged compromise between himself and Mr. Gladstone. Such stories he characterized as childish and utterly unworthy of serious consideration. A compromise he declared was impossible, unless the essential features of the Irish schemes were abandoned. 'I do not believe that Mr. Gladstone will be willing to almost entirely change his plans to meet my views, said he, 'and I am immovable in the position I have taken. So you can see how little truth is contained in stories of a com-

Representative Skinner made a speech on the Free Coinage Silver bill that was well received. The following point is well taken, and the closing paragraph is vigorous and plain spoken. Mr. Skinner said of locking up silver in the Treasury and complaining that it would not

'It does not circulate because it cannot get a chance. If they would turn it out of the Treasury in payment of some of the debt we owe it would soon find its way into the pockets of the people and do val iant service in relieving our suffering labor and in paying debts and taxes. "But, say these suspensionists, if you will stop the coinage of silver it will begin to look up and in time regain its lost value. That proposition is too foolish to argue. It is not an axiom—that is a self evident truth -but it is an absurdity, a self-illuminating

Mr. Cleveland will be the first President to marry in the White House. Miss Folsom's portrait hangs in the President's bed room. Here is a description of her that appeared in a Washington dispatch to the New

'Miss Folsom's hair is soft and brown of a shade between light and dark. It is combed well back from her full forehead and loose wave tendrils fall away from their confinement against the ivory whiteness of her face. She has violet blue eyes, a well shaped nose and mouth and a full round chin. The warm pallor of her complexion contrasts with the deep red of her full lips, in which all her color concentrates itself. Her shoulders are broad and her hust and waist are of classic proportions. She has finely moulded hands and feet; not small, but well suited to her With one other pupil at Aurora she shared the palm of being 'the beauty of the school,' the other being Miss Catherine Willard, of Illinois,'

Our esteemed contemporary, the Asheville Citizen, makes the sur prising statement that "trees, shrubbery and grass are as far advanced in budding and growth in Asheville now as is usual about the middle of May." Vegetation is probably a full month behind in this section. The Springs as a general thing are about a month later than they were forty and fifty years ago. We have seen nearly two hundred miles north of this city the oaks and hickoriesindeed the whole forests almost with full grown leaves by the 10th or 15th of April. We suppose in the same

Spirits Trupentine,

- In 1860, Washington had 3,027 inhabitants. How many has it now? - Federal Court meets at Statesville next week. The docket contains 100

- Louisburg Rattler: The protracted meeting at the Methodist church closed last Tuesday night. Eighteen new members were taken into that church.

- Asheboro Courier: The rains nearly ruined the tobacco plant beds in certain sections: -- There are now fifty children at the Thomasville Baptist Orpan-

- Concord Times: On Saturday evening, at one o'clock, about two dozen men assembled in the court room, the object being to organize in Cabarrus county a Prohibition party.

- It affords us pleasure to learn from the last Henderson Goed Leaf that brother Manning is still on deck, and that the paper has ample funds in the locker and a strong favoring breeze in the way of subscribers, and that it has bright prospects ahead, Bon voyage good sailor!

- Capt. W. S. Norment, of Lumberton, has received from H. H. Farthing, of Watauga county, the company flag of Company D, 18th North Carolina Regi-ment. The Robesonian says it is a blue silk flag, and was presented to the company by the ladies of Lumberton in 1861, on the eve of their departure for the front It is well preserved.

-- Greensboro Patriot: More than seven hundred tons of railroad iron for the C. F. & Y. V., will arrive here about the 22nd of this month, with more soon to follow. — It is said that Gen. Cox, member of Congress from the 4th district, has only six competitors. — The Statesville Landmark and Charlotte serious cutting affray took place near Lake Landing, Hyde county, between Mr. Geo. I. Watson and Mr. John Midyette. Both parties were dangerously wounded, and their recovery was for a time doubtful. Some misunderstanding about a gate led to

- Raleigh News-Observer : Mr. Hastings P. Straughan, of Evans, Chatham county, has done something novel. He has maunted a pair of monster spectacles on his horse, and that animal now goes along with two regular headlights in front of him. He is apparently pleased at his great amount of style and the curiosity he excites. Mr. Straughan says the animal's eyes were failing and almost a month ago he put on the spectacles. They had a happy effect. Mr. Straughan laughs as heartily as anybody at his novel scheme.

- Pittsboro Home: Mrs. Maria Cole, of this county. has a hen devoted to missionary work. She netted for the missionary cause for 1884, the sum of $4 75, and for 1885, $5 25. — Industrial education may be seen every day at Shaw University, Raleigh, N. C. The students have built with their own hands the massive brick buildings of the school. They work in all sorts of ways. They are now building a mechanical department, 60 by 50 feet, two stories in height.

- Lenoir Topic: Our citizens were shocked to learn, Sunday morning, that a former citizen of Lenoir, Mr. F. A. Keever, had been run over at Hickory by the midnight train of the C. & L R. R. and so badly injured as to cause his life to be despaired of. — The proposed Presbyterian church at Blowing Rock it is hoped to have ready for worship by the first of July. - Mr. John M. Bernhardt, who was at Blowing Rock last week, report the snow four inches deep on top of the mountain Friday morning, the thermometer as low as 20 deg. and the wind howling.

- Goldsboro Messenger: The Convention of the Episcopal Church for the diocese of which Right Rev. Theodore B. Lyman is Bishop, has been called to meet at Tarboro on May 15th. The Convention for the Eastern Diocese meets in Goldsboro on the 26th of May. - A very remarkable discovery has been made in Bladen county. Men sinking pits there came across massive walls of stone and cement at quite a depth below the surface. There is no record of any building having been built there by white men. The place is on the banks of a creek. The building must have been of great size.

- Henderson Gold Leaf; The Wortham Mineral Spring water is becoming quiet famous. The demand for it is increasing and quantities are now shipped to a distance. — We have been shown some fine samples of tobacco which sold at Cooper's warehouse a few days ago for $70 a hundred. It belonged to Mr. W. P. Hawkins and was grown on his place a few miles from town. - As an evidence of how real estate is booming in Henderson we will state that a few years since a gentleman, bought a house and lot here for which he paid $5,500. This week he refused $20,000 for the same property.

- Asheville Citizen: A team belonging to Mr. J. K. Snider, residing on Beaverdam, ran away on North Main street yesterday evening and threw Mr. Snider's little boy out, badly cutting his leg from the knee down to the ankle, and fracturing the bone. - We venture to say there has been more good street work done in this city, at a less ex-pense and with less money than any place in the State. — The village of Clyde station, twenty-five miles from Asheville, has five nice new churches in and near the - Under the Code any election held id North Carolina involving prohibition, will only apply to "spirituous liquors," and will not apply to wines and beer. The sale of these latter will not be effected by an election, though favorable to prohibition. -- Asheville Advance: At the approaching term of Swain Superior Court, which begins on the 7th of June, Jack Lambert, now confined in jail at this place, will be re-sentenced to death. He was convicted of murder at the fall term of Swain Court, and sentenced to be hanged. An appeal was taken, but to no avail. The judgment of the lower Court was affirmed. - We learn from private letters received in this city the news of a fearful and destructive tornado which swept over portions of Rutherford county, last Thursday evening-the most violent wind storm that county has witnessed in years. From all the information we have been able to gather, it appears the storm struck in at or near Island Ford, on Broad river, in the southwestern part of the county, and travelled parallel with the river for miles at a most furious speed, in a northeast direction. The storm was near two miles in width, but it was not so flerce but for a distance of one half mile and that almost section to day they have scarcely in the centre. Dwelling houses, barns, stables, fences, &o., were swept away like trash. Large trees were torn up by the roots, and the wake of the storm for miles presented a scene of devastation and ruin. A number of horses, cows, sheep and hogs were killed, but fortunately no persons were killed, though several were injured. At the house of a Mr. Scoggins two little children narrowly escaped death. The house was built of logs, and the children were sleeping on a bed. The roof gave way and some of the heavy timbers fell in on the bed where the children mere sleeping. The bedstead was an old-fashioned one and very strong, and the head board caught the falling timbers, and prevented the children from being killed. They were recovered after the storm, alive, but slightly injured.

Didn't Want to Go to Goldsboro.

Scott McKoy, colored, ore of the county prisoners confined in the city prison, made an attempt to escape Monday night by prizing apart the iros bars of a window in the corridor. He was discovered, however, before he had completed his self-imposed task and was locked up in a cell. Yesterday morning, McKoy and four other prisoners were shipped to Goldsboro for confinement in the jail at that place unti the next term of the Criminal Court, when they will be brought back for trial. Mc-Koy was put in prison Monday last, charged with larceny. He said he didn't mind being locked up, so much, but the idea of going to Goldsboro was extremely distaste-writes to the STAR from that place, on the 19th inst., as follows:

"To-day, while my boys were at work in the woods near my residence, they heard the dogs baying something in the branch, and going there found it to be a panther cat. One of the boys shot it. It measured three and a half feet in length. Enclosed find one of the animal's feet. It is not a graveyard rabbit's foot, but perhaps it

DESECRATION OF THE TOMB OF AN HONORED PHYSICIAN.

EDITOR STAR:—It is hardly to be be-lieved, but still it is a shocking fact, that the tomb of the McRee family has been dese crated in a ruthless way. The tomb stands in the field adjoining the estate of the late Dr. McRee, (Hilton), in a quiet nook near Smith's Creek. Plunderers have dug their way through the brick roof of the arched vault, removing the vertical and horizontal marble slabs from their positions. The opening was large enough to admit a man's

It stirs ones indignation to the depths that such things should happen in our midst and no punishment be visited against the offenders. What are the legal remedies Blanchard and wife, Miss A. F. Blanchard, for such a high-handed offence? Will not Miss F. C. Blanchard, Massachusetts; H. some clear-headed citizens take this case under advisement and make an effort to bring the villains to punishment? Or, failing in this, cannot such measures be taken to prevent the desecration of the resting places of the dead in the future ?

Dr. James F. McRee was one of the most illustrious of the learned men of this section. Few men have left the impress of their work so indelibly on a community as Dr. McRee did on this. As a citizen, as a physician, as a naturalist, his fame entitles his memory to a lasting monument, and certainly his remains and those of his family should be permitted to rest safe from the hands of marauders. The Wilmington Medical Society have promptly ordered the repair of the tomb.

really the finest we have ever made, and competent judges acknowledge it to be the most complete and best arranged in the city. From our Paris agents we are in constant receipt of the plete and best arranged in the city. From our Faris agents we are in constant receipt of the newest styles and confections, and our own work-rooms have produced a number of exceedingly pretty and original designs, which are attracting much attention. Our line of UNTRIMMED HATS, too, is fairly bewildering in its variety. Every conceivable shape is represented in the largest possible choice of straws and colors, together with an immense assortment of Jet Bonnets, Beaded Bonnets, &c. For Misses, Boys and Children we offer a charming assortment of Trimmed Hats—Straw Sallors, Tam O'Shanters, Belle Crowns, Yum Yums, Gerties, Priscillas, Papillions, &c., in every variety of braid, pearl, needle, Leghorn, and so forth. And our show of TRIMMINGS, Flower Materials and Branched Goods, Wreaths, Pompons, Garnitures, Feathers, Birds, Wings, Coronets, Jet Goods, Ribbons, Ornaments of every kind, et cetera, is absolutely bewildering in its extent. It covers the whole field of Hat Trimmings.

In the matter of prices we follow our time-honored plan. We do not wait for the middle of the season to reduce our figures, but mark them down at once, just as far as we possibly can. For example, we are selling a full line of shapes in all colors, including such styles as the Alcazar, the Brigand, the Parsons, the Romaine, &c., at only forty—eight cents each.

section $529 of The Code.

A map recently made can be seen at this office, describing the lands and locating the public roads constructed through them by the State.

The whole tract is estimated to contain 44,738 acres. There are of this amount about 20,050 acres of Reed Land. In Gum Swamp there are estimated to be 4,683 acres, about one-third of which is well timbered with very fine Cypress, and the balance with Gum, Maple, &c.

The bids may be by the acre for the whole tract, or an aggregate sum for the whole. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Capitalists who are looking after timber, good farming lands, or lands for stock raising will find it to their advantage to examine these lands.

Gen. W. G. Lewis, Engineer, Goldsboro, N. C., will show them and furnish information as to their character.
