MORNING EDITION

OUTLINES.

The Senate confirmed the nomination of John Bennett as U. S. attorney to succeed G. M. Duskin in Alabama. - Mass meetings in the lumber districts of Chicago made riotous demonstrations, driving nonunion workmen away from the McCormick reaper works. - Schyld & Stern, Baltimore, have failed - Dr. C. U. Shepard, of Charleston, S. C., is dead; he was one of the most prominent scientific men in the country. - New York markets: Money 11@3 per cent.; cotton easy at 95-16 @94c; wheat, ungraded red 924c; corn. ungraded 40@44c; southern flour steady; rosin dull at $1 071@1 121; spirits turpentine dull at 33c.

The friends of the Grab bill in the House profess to be quite sanguine of success. They must expect Mr. Cleveland to die.

Raleigh, as usual, proposes to furnish two of the three Supreme Court Judges. So glad that it does not propose to take all three.

Attorney General Garland will not vacate. The President does not intend to give him up, whatever may he the report of the Pan-Electric inquiry.

It is now whispered in Richmond that Claverius is getting nearer to the gallows. This opinion comes from a report that the higher Court will confirm the jadgment of the lower Court by a vote of 4 to 1.

The friends of Booth are trying to save him from the charge of drunkeness. He says he had vertigo. We will be glad to believe the explanation if we can. It is known that he is indulging freely in his cups and his acting is said to now often show the effects of it. His father imbibed fiercely and dangerously.

The Augusta Chronicle favors the Blair Bill and says it would pass by a comfortable majority if it could be got before the House, but it adds that"the chances of its consideraation are, confessedly, very slim and unpromising." It says farther:

"It is said that the President does not favor the Blair bill, and it is known that Speaker Carlisle is hostile to it. Under su h pressure, and the rules of the House, the bill can be saved only by a miracle '

Lord Randolph Churchill is a very confident bold young man who thinks himself an English edition of the wise man of old. But he is showing sense in not counting too certain on defeating the Gladstone Land bill. He is reported as saying:

"The chances of the Land bill passing the House are better than people will admit. It will be a very close fight. If I were betting I should say fair odds would be five to four against

The Polladelphia Times has a long editorial on Mr. Davis. It affects great calmness and knowingness. But it really knows but little of the South and nothing of the great man it misunderstands and underrates. It is a very patronizing paper. It pushes the illustrious representative man of the great and eternal principles for which the South fought aside in the following tom-tit style: "To the living, progressive present Jefferson Divis speaks as one from the doleful tombs of the forgotten past. He has learned nothing, forgotten nothing; he has outlived himself, and let him, in generous charity, be forgotten in the earnest, patriotic, progressive present."

Some of the Southern members in Washington are reported as com plaining of the prominence Mr. Davis has taken unto himself. Stuff! Mr. Davis was invited to Montgomery on a grand day and he went as he had a right to go. He was treated to a magnificent ovation to which he was most justly entitled above all other living men. He spoke words of soberness and truth as he had a right to speak, and it is a miserable cringing, fawning spirit on the part of any Southern man who would complain. Let the Yankees howl and blow if they will, but Southern men should be too manly to join in the malignant bowlings. The North has bad time and again its grand parades, and Northern papers for twenty years have fairly teemed with slanders and falsehoods on the South and Mr. Davis and that was all right but the South must not honor its noblest men and speak in a fitting way of its heroic dead. He is a poor stick of a Southern man who will criticise Jefferson Davis to gratify or placate a Northern fanatic."Them's our sentiments."

The "Swift Foot," Capt Clarance Bagg, went three times round the square, while the "Evening Stars" made only one round. The "Nationals," Capt. Bagg, scored 49 in a game with the "Apaches," Capt. Frank Bridgers, who made only 4.

Fingers and Toes to Spare.

Dr. Potter, city physician, informs us of a remarkable family of colored people living on Nixon street. The mother, Eliza Cobb, has three children-two boys and one girl, aged two, four and six years. Both boys have six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, and the girl has six fingers on each hand.

Strawberries. Mr. W. S. Warrock exhibited some fine strawberries yesterday, raised at his place on Masonboro Sound. Mr. J. W. Barnes has about five acres in strawherries at his place just beyond the city limits, and has already begun marketing his crop, which promises to be magnificent.

An Important Decision.

The case of the State vs. Bloodworth, tried at the November term of the Criminal Court, involved the question whether a planter or farmer was now, as previously to the adoption of the new Code, indictable for not keeping around his cultivated ground a sufficient fence, five feet high.

The statute upon the subject, as it now exists, is to be found in the second volume of the Code, section 2799, and reads as follows: "Every planter shall make a sufficient fence about his cleared ground under cultivation, at least five feet high, unless there shall be some navigable stream or deep water course that shall be sufficient instead of such fence, and unless his lands shall be situated within the limits of a county, township or district wherein the stock law may be in force."

It will be observed that the statute fixes no penalty, nor does it declare a disobedience of its command to be a misdemeanor. It is the same statute, however, as is contained in the Revised Code, chapter 48, section I. But the Revised Code, chapter 32, section 43, provided that "all persons neglecting to keep and repair their fences during crop time, in the manner required by law, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor." This last statute was not brought forward in the Code, and hence the law on the subject, as contained in the statute first quoted, was left mandatory only.

When the above case came on to be tried, there was a special verdict, upon which Judge Meares held that no indictable offence had been committed, from which ruling Solicitor Moore appealed to the Supreme Court. Hearing that information had reached here that an opinion in the case had been filed, we called upon the Solicitor for this information, when he handed us the following postal, received by him on yesterday from the clerk of the Supreme Court:

"Error in State vs. Bloodworth: Opin ion will not be certified down before Su-- Four marriage licenses were preme Court adjourns. This has been the rule for a long time. Yours, &c.,

It will be seen upon a moment's reflection, that this decision is of far-reaching importance, and affects planters throughout the State, except in those sections 'wherein the stock law may be in force."

The storm that passed over this city Friday night seems to have caused considable damage to growing crops in this county and Brunswick.

Mr. Samuel Musgrove, who lives in Northwest Township, Brunswick, about twelve miles from Wilmington, says that the storm passed over his place at half-past seven o'clock in the evening, coming from the southwest. Hail fell in great quantities, stripping the leaves from trees and destroying vegetation. Yesterday morning the ground in places was covered with it, some of the hail-stones being about the size of a musket ball. During the height of the storm Mr. Musgrove's dwelling was struck by lightning, which tore the shingles off the roof for a space of about three Cemetery there were three interments-all feet square, and passing downwards splintered one of the corners of the dwelling and the floor of one of the rooms in which were his wife and two daughters. They were all stunned by the shock but fortunately received no other injury, although their clothing was scorched and blackened. Everything on the mantle-piece in the room was thrown to the floor and broken, except a clock. Even a file of newspapers suspended in the corner of the room down which the electric fluid passed, was torn into a multitude of little pieces. At the place of Mr. John St. George, near Castle Hayne, in this county, the storm was very severe, the hail-stones almost completely destroying his cautaloupe vines and doing great damage to vegetation generally. In Pender county, at Scott's Hill and other places, the storm was very destructive, growing crops being entirely ruined in many instances, and the trees stripped of their foliage and fruit.

A city subscriber writes to the STAR: 'About 4 o'clock on Friday afternoon, as lady and her little daughter were preparing to leave home for the purpose of visitng some of their friends, and while the latter was standing in her front door waiting for her mother, a colored woman with a child appeared at the gate and asked for something to eat, and, upon being told they had nothing prepared, the colored woman indulged in some very vulgar, insulting and abusive language to the little girl, so much so that if she can be detected the laws of the land will be invoked to learn her how to conduct herself at the residences of our citizens and upon the streets of our city. And, while noticing this outrage, we would again urge upon our authorities the necessity of breaking up the loud cursing, swearing, indecent and vulgar language which is so often used upon the streets in the hearing of ladies and chil-

The W. L. I. Special services will be held at St. John's church this afternoon at 5 o'clock, which will be attended by the Wilmington Light lufantry. The services will be held by Rev. Dr. Carmichael, chaplain of the Second Regiment of the State Guard. The company will leave the armory at ten minutes before 5 o'clock.

It is understood that resolutions will be presented to the company at the armory, to extend an invitation to ex-President Davis to visit Wilmington as a guest of the company, of which he has been an bonorary member for thirty years.

Total value of exports $174,603.

The mother of Mr. M. M. Katz of this city died at her home in Butterheim, Germany, on the 12th ult., at the advanced aga of 80 years and three months. Intelligence of the sad event reached Mr. Katz by mail on Friday last. Rev. W. A. Forbes, who assisted Rev. D. H. Tuttle in conducting his protracted meeting a portion of the past week, has returned to his home at Magnolia. Col. W. C. Jones, of the Second Regiment N. C. State Guard, accompanied by Capt. John H. Daniel, goes to Savannah, Ga., to attend the centennial celebration at that place to-morrow. Col. Jones has been appointed a member of the staff of the commandant of the troops on the occasion. The only company invited from this State to attend the celebration is the Fayetteville Light Infantry.

Ex-President Davis accepted an invitation to visit Savannah, and with his daughter, Miss Winnie Davis, will spend the week in that city.

Religious Notes.

The revival meetings at the Fifth street Methodist church still continue, and the interest increases at every service. So far there have been about twenty conversions. Plain, pointed and practical talks, full of Bible truths, have the desired effect. The sermon this morning will be on "The ascension of Christ and the final glory of the human body;" at night, "Paul before Felix and Drusilla," or a plain talk to men and women. The meetings will continue during next week, and the pastor will be aided by a revivalist from abroad.

Rev. Willis Wooten, pastor of Free Wil Baptist church (colored), will administer the rite of baptism at noon to day in the Rev. L. T. Christmas (col.) will administer the ordinance of baptism to-day at half-past 2 o'elock at Queen street dock. - A friend requests us to disabuse the minds of a good many of cur ignorant population that because a man's house or store is on fire they have a right to take or appropriate his goods or property, even if they saved it from the flames. Heretofore there has been a good deal of stealing a
