BASE BALL.

Marion Defeats the Seaside in the First Game of the Season.

The game yesterday was a disappointment to many. The home club met with a signal overthrow at the hands of the visitors. The admirers of the Seaside expected them to be beaten, but yet entertained the hope that something might occur which would enable them to win, regardless of their crippled condition.

Accident to Two Wilmington Men.

The Savannah (Ga.) News gives the following account of an accident that happened in that city Saturday last, by which Mr. Chas. Schwartz and Mr. Bradley Jewett of this city were injured:

About three o'clock yesterday (Saturday) afternoon a temporary shed on the Savannah, Florida and Western Railway Company's wharf fell, burying five men underneath it. Fortunately there was a considerable quantity of spirits turpentine barrels underneath the shed which served to hold up the timbers and planking so that none of the men were injured seriously.

Capt. Schwartz, the inspector, and Mr. Jewett, the shipper for Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son and three negroes, were gauging some spirits turpentine barrels preparatory to putting them aboard the Italian barque Frodo, which was loading at the wharf. The jarring, caused by the heavy tramp of the hoisting team, caused the shed to collapse. Captain Schwartz was badly bruised about the shoulders, and Mr. Jewett was bruised on the head and had his hands skinned. The negroes were all badly bruised, but no bones were broken.

The shed was on the extreme end of the wharf to the eastward of the spirits turpentine shed, and was poorly put up, not being braced at all, and it is very fortunate that no more serious accident resulted. As it was, considerable spirits turpentine was lost.

Brother, thou wast mild and lovely, Gentle as the summer breeze, Pleasant as the air of evening, When it floats among the trees.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber- Feasible in the grave so low; Thou no more wilt join our number; Thou no more our songs shalt know.

Dear, kind Brother, thou hast left us: Here thy loss we deeply feel; But 'tis God that hath bereft us: He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled, Then in heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farewell tear we'll shed.

The Athletic Base Ball Club (colored) go to Raleigh to-day, to play a series of games with the colored club of that city. The Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta is the only railroad upon which travel was not interrupted in South Carolina by the recent heavy rains in that State. The meetings in Brooklyn Baptist Church continue with marked success. Last week eleven professed conversion and there were many anxious enquirers. Rev. Mr. Tolson conducts the meetings, as assisted by Rev. Dr. Pritchard. Mr. H. A. Glameyer, one of the deacons of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, died at his residence in this city on Sunday night last, of Bright's disease. Electric Lights.

The electric light poles and wires are being rapidly placed in position. Some change has been made in the plan of locating the lamps from that announced when the contract with the city was submitted. In the heart of the city lights will be placed from Castle to Red Cross and from Front to Eighth at the intersection of alternate streets. For instance, on Front street, at the intersection of Castle, Nun, Orange, Market, Chesnut, and Walnut; and on Second street, at the intersection of Church, Ann, Dock, Princess, Mulberry, and Red Cross. Some of the lamps will be on the tops of poles, as at the foot of Princess street.

Burglary.

A burglary is alleged to have been committed at a house over the railroad on Saturday night last, Mr. Taylor, a painter, being the sufferer. Bureau drawers were emptied of their contents and trunks ransacked and upset, in the search for money. The robber got away with a few dollars. Sunday morning a white man was arrested, charged with the burglary, but at the examination of the case yesterday morning, he was discharged from arrest by the magistrate, it being shown conclusively that at the hour the robbery is said to have taken place he was in another part of the city.

Baptizing.

Twenty-three persons were baptized in the river at the foot of Queen street Sunday afternoon, and besides the congregation of the Second Advent Baptist Church, at least fifteen hundred persons assembled to witness the ceremonies. The minister, Rev. J. P. King, his assistants and all the candidates for immersion were dressed in white robes that descended to their feet. The services were very impressive and solemn, and good order was observed throughout.
