

President Cleveland and his bride have returned to Washington. The International Typographical Union is in session at Pittsburgh, Pa. The night express train on the Georgia Central Railroad was wrecked 85 miles west of Savannah; the fireman was killed and the engineer badly wounded.

The New York Star should be above printing slanders upon North Carolina. The last estimate we have seen is that there are still 85,000 Republicans in office.

Maine herrings are crying out for protection against French sardines that interfere with their business.

Sam Jones begins at Indianapolis soon. He did not go to Washington to try his hand on "the heathen at our doors."

Mrs. Lewis E. Amis, of Granville county, gives a pleasant sketch of "Bee hunting in North Carolina," in New York Star.

There is an unauthenticated rumor in the North that Mr. Powderly has retired as General Master Workman of the Knights of Labor.

A rumor from Deer Park, Maryland, is that ex-Senator Henry G. Davis will be Mr. Manning's successor. Perhaps there is nothing in it.

There are some disclosures being made by a United States grand jury away out in Washington Territory concerning an association of Anarchists.

The car strikers in New York have given up all hope. The Third avenue men have been told to resume work. The cars in New York and Brooklyn are running as usual.

Rhode Island has adopted a prohibitory law. A special police is created for the enforcement of the law. The chief of this force has to be elected by the Legislature.

Senator Vance was asked if he would attend the wedding party. His reply was characteristic of a stalwart opponent of the Civil Service fraud. Said the North Carolinian:

"No, I can never attend the wedding of a man who does not submit himself to a civil service examination."

There are hundreds of law suits, for millions of dollars damages, have been brought against the elevated railroads in New York city and by a multitude of litigants. It is said that already hundreds of thousands of dollars have been paid in fees in cases that go from court to court.

In case Comte De Paris is expelled from France he is invited to make the United States his home by his fellow officers in the Federal army. As the Comte chose to fight against the South when he had no interest in the result, we do not care whether he comes or not. It is a rather hard fate to be expatriated.

The fifteen pages of the Century devoted to Thomas Nelson Page's "Mesh Lady" would look, to the uninitiated eye, very much like Czech; but the story is in fact a study of the negro dialect of Eastern Virginia, and contains a good deal of character and humor.—N. Y. Star.

Mr. Page is very decidedly one of the best story writers in the South. He has produced some excellent short stories, and his dialect studies are very good. We think he knows the negro very thoroughly. He is a Virginian. We wonder if our Page could do as well. Let him try.

Hoar and Blair are not in love with each other. These Radical brethren do not dwell together in unity. The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. World telegraphs his paper:

"A few days since a rural constituent informed Senator Hoar that he would like to hear Senator Blair speak. He was told that there would be no difficulty about that as Senator Blair was usually speaking."

"Well, will you make some sign to me in the gallery so that I will know he is speaking?" said the visitor to the Senator. "Oh, yes," responded the Senator, "when you see me get up to leave the chamber you may know that Senator Blair is about to speak."

Beecher preaches about any and everything. On Sunday he talked about his own reported death. Here is how the report got started, according to the great preacher:

"I am told that the strike on the Bleeker Street horse-car line ended yesterday morning, and that the fact was announced in Wall Street on the 'tickers' in these words: 'Bleeker strike dead,' and the bulletins therefore announced 'Bleeker struck dead.' But that 'I' and that 'I' saved me; although this rumor gave some temporary pain and anxiety to those very near me and to my family, yet I am glad and grateful for the opportunity of receiving the evidences of interest and sympathy, the waves of which are still rolling from every direction."

Spirits Turpentine.

Thanks to brother Kitchin of the Scotland Neck Democrat for his kind words.

Henderson Gold Leaf: Mr. F. M. Rawlins, of Battleboro, sold upwards of 20,000 pounds of tobacco here Tuesday.

Charlotte Democrat: Mr. John E. Oates, of this city, has been elected a member of the General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church in place of Robt. I. McDowell, Esq., deceased.

Scotland Neck Democrat: Labor in this section is cheaper this season than last, but meat and other supplies are also cheaper. Cotton crops good—stand good—prospects all that could be desired.

Beaufort Record: A terrible forest fire has been raging in the woods near Beaufort the past week, and a number of our farmers have lost portions of their fencing. The rain of Monday night had a dampening effect.

Asheville Citizen: Mr. E. I. Holmes reports sales of tobacco at the several warehouses for last month of $35,384 pounds, for $31,130.72. Sales since the 1st of October to the 1st of June, 3,601,416 pounds, for $358,567.93.

Asheville Citizen: We regret to learn of the great destruction of tobacco plants in Madison by the bugs. Mr. T. A. Hearn, of Beaufort, called on us yesterday. He informs us that the prospect of the gold mines opened near that place are very encouraging.

Floating item: In a moravian graveyard at Greensboro, N. C., the married women are buried in one square, the married men in another, in still another the maidens, while together rest the unmarried men. Then in two other squares are found on one side the boys and on the other the girls.

Goldboro Messenger: The painful intelligence reaches us from Mount Olive this morning that Dr. B. B. Flowers, whose critical illness has been repeatedly reported in these columns, died Sunday evening. A highly respected citizen, a most able man and a good neighbor has thus passed away.

The editor of the Raleigh Chronicle writes from Chapel Hill that Mr. Solomon C. Well, who has been Professor of Greek since Prof. Hooper's death, would not accept an election to the Greek Chair. Everywhere among professors and scholars I hear high praise of the excellent work he has done this year.

Webster Herald: Deputy Marshal Tom Ford, of Highlands, brought in a counterfeiter named Marion Dills from Canada township, yesterday evening, and locked him in jail. Dills is an old offender against the law, having been released from a five years term in the chain gang, for house breaking, only seven months ago. The proof against him is conclusive.

Statesville Landmark: A sucker by the name of Hansberger, who lives at Sedalia, Mo., has bid off the contract to carry the mail on the new route which has been established between Statesville and Elk Shoals. The mail is to be carried three times a week and service is to be put on the route by 1st of July. Hansberger is advertising now for somebody to take this route off of his hands. It is to be hoped that nobody will do it.

Weldon News: We learn with much satisfaction of the fine condition of the crops. Cotton crops in some sections of the county, both on light and heavy soils.

Last Saturday Mott Powell and G. F. Collins, both white, engaged in a dispute here about some money and came to blows. Collins was laid down and Collins cut him on the head in several places with a knife, but not seriously.

Franklin Press: Rev. J. O. Shelley, a worthy Methodist minister of this county, informs us that at Mulberry school house, in Smith's Bridge township, there is an old stone pavement, about two feet and a half wide, which is almost in a circle, and is said to include in its circuit about forty acres of land. It is made of large white stones, and the oldest inhabitant has no knowledge of its history.

Salisbury Watchman: The commencement exercises at Zion Wesley College were attended by some of the white people. The speech of Mr. Chase, of Boston, who was the orator of the occasion, is highly spoken of. The county board of education have asked the county commissioners for an increase over the usual educational appropriation. They want this year $13,500 for school purposes. This, it is estimated, will be a heavy tax on each term of four months, or $1.50 per capita for the children of school age in the district.

Greensboro Patriot: A general knock-down and drag-out fight took place at Donnell's mills, about six miles from town, last Friday, between James McNairy and John Horton. Knives and clubs were freely used. Information is received at this office that a young lady, Jennie Anderson, drowned herself in New River last Thursday. This act of recklessness is attributed to disappointment, as she was engaged to be married to a young man who disappointed her and married another girl.

Pittsboro Home: Chatham farmers report the stand of corn as good and the prospects favorable for an abundant crop. Rev. Dr. Powell estimates the wheat crop of Chatham county one percent of an average and the oats at one-tenth. There are almost no oats and we are told that many of the wheat fields will not yield enough to justify the sowing.

John A. Dixon, under an aberration of mind to which he was subject, left his home in Chatham county, about the middle of April, and his whereabouts are entirely unknown to his family. He is supposed to be a young man of about 30 years old and weighs 140 pounds. His hair is short and inclined to be red. He wears a mustache.

Lincolnton Press: The warehouse of distillery No. 2,893, belonging to W. P. Rhyme, of Gaston county, was washed away last week. There were six barrels of whiskey in the house, all of which with stank books and blanks were swept off by the water. Last Tuesday the boiler of the steam saw mill of W. T. Shipp, Jr., near Mr. Holly, in Gaston county, exploded. Three negro employes were badly scalded. One of them it is thought will die. The mill building and the engine were completely demolished, the debris being scattered over three acres of ground.

Four prisoners by a clever stratagem escaped from Dallas jail last week. Three of them were recaptured, but the fourth made good his escape. Two hundred and fifty hands employed by Halliburton & Burton, on the new road from Shelby to Rutherfordton, struck last week. They demanded ten hours or $1.25 per day. They went to work again in a few days.

No one who has not seen the lands along the streams can form any idea of the extent of the damage done to the lands and crops by the tremendous rainfall of week before last. In many places the lands have been ruined beyond reclamation, and on all the streams the land will have to be re-broken and the corn replanted. Cotton has been stunted by the cold and made very grassy by the continued wet weather. The farmers are nearly all complaining of rust in their wheat. The rust is nearly all confined to the blade and has not yet done much damage. The oat crop is not promising much. The stalk is short yet and as harvest is nearly here, it will not have much chance to grow.

There will be no services at St. James' Church on St. Barnabas' Day, June 11th, on account of the absence of the pastor. The closing exercises of the "Home" School will be held on Saturday, the 12th inst., at 5 o'clock p. m.

A handsome gold medal was presented to Mr. M. Greenwald Monday night, by his fellow members of Wilmington Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, as a prize for promptness during the year. The presentation was made by Mr. T. G. Pickett.

The Young Folks' Missionary Society will meet at Brooklyn Hall at 4 o'clock this afternoon. A full attendance of the members is earnestly desired. Those who contemplate joining the Society are also invited to be present, and all friends will receive a cordial welcome.

In a trotting race at the old Fair Grounds, between C. F. Smith's "Honest John" and J. F. Post's "Jim Post," mile heats, best two in three, the purse—thirty dollars—was won by "Honest John." Time 4.28 and 3.16. There was a big crowd present to see the fun.

In Newtlewark, the prize was awarded to Miss Hattie Mahn.

Salem Female Academy. Commencement exercises at Salem Female Academy begin Tuesday, June 13th. The Literary address will be delivered by Hon. W. C. Breckenridge, member of Congress from Kentucky, at the special solicitation of Senator Vance and Representative Reid, who have signified their intention to be present if possible. Reduced rates have been secured on the railroads for those who may desire to attend.

RIVER AND MARINE. Capt. Robeson, of the steamer Hurl, reports continued heavy rains in the upper Cape Fear section, and the river rising. On the trip down from Fayetteville, the Hurl passed large quantities of timber, the wreckage apparently of a railroad bridge, as bars of railroad iron were bolted on some of the timbers. It is presumed that the wreckage was part of the temporary bridge of the Wilson & Fayetteville Railroad which spanned the Cape Fear some distance above Fayetteville.

The new steamer for the Bladen Steamboat Company will be called the Cape Fear. Capt. T. J. Green will command her.

Meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of the 4th Congressional District. At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee, held pursuant to a call of the chairman, at the Central Hotel in Charlotte May 20th, it was determined by the Committee that the Democratic Convention for this district be held at Wadesboro on Wednesday, the 21st of July, 1886, at 11 o'clock a. m.

A LUCKY MAN—Lord French of Coleburg was in town Wednesday and called at the News office. His good-natured face was enwrapped in smiles, and he seemed just as happy as a big sunflower that nods and bends on the breeze. He has just received $1,000 as the result of a $1 investment in the April drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, and so wonder he was happy. Mr. French says he has drawn several prizes in this lottery before, but had not bought a ticket for several years and January, since then he has a dollar in each monthly drawing, and the fourth time he hit it for an even $1,000. The number of his ticket was 11,248. Mr. French has a wife and five children, and is a man in moderate circumstances. The money he has drawn in the lottery will put him square on his feet, and give him a start in the world.—Elizabeth (Ky.) News, May 1.

Closing Exercises of Miss Hart's School. The closing exercises of Miss Hart's school took place last night at her school house on Third street. It was a most pleasant occasion.

The exercises consisted of declamations, songs, reading, calisthenics and a piano solo, all of which attracted much attention and received much praise.

One of the most interesting features of the entertainment was the competitive drill in calisthenics, and after a warm contest the prize was awarded to Miss Maggie Bernard, the judges being Col. Cantwell and Mr. Ancrum Lord. Just before the close of the exercises Master Swift Boatwright, in a neat little speech, presented to both Miss Hart and Miss Brown, one of her assistants, silver napkin rings as testimonials of love from the scholars of the fifth class.

Everything passed off most pleasantly and Miss Hart and her able corps of assistants are to be congratulated upon their success in furnishing to all a rare and enjoyable treat. The following is the programme:

PART FIRST. Chorus, "The Heavens are Telling." Declamation, Extract from an Address by Hon. George Davis—Master Boatwright. Duet, (overture) "Poet and Peasant"—Misses Cutlar. Recitation, "The Yollan Ducks"—Masters Beery and Fowler and Chorus. Reading, "Legend of Cologne Cathedral"—Miss Freeman. Song, "Lady Moon"—Miss Strauss. The following was the award of proficiency in scholarship: Misses Anna Cantwell, Lila Cutlar, Cary Davis, Louisa Strauss. The following pupils lost ground in scholarship by reason of sickness, their average approximating the limit of "Honor": Misses Kate Cantwell, Mary Giles, Bessie Wiggins, and Master Swift Boatwright.

Certificates of excellent deportment were awarded to Misses Lillian Bowden, Anna Cantwell, Lila Cutlar, Maggie Smith, Louisa Strauss, Estelle Shrier. Prizes were awarded as follows: For the highest number attained in scholarship—Miss Cary Davis. For best conduct—Miss Louisa Strauss. For punctuality—Misses Anna Cantwell, Wilhemina Heyer and Master Eugene Beery.

For the highest average of punctuality, scholarship and deportment—Misses Anna Cantwell and Lila Cutlar—a tie on 97 per cent.

In Newtlewark, the prize was awarded to Miss Hattie Mahn.

Board of Aldermen. At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday, Alderman Worth, from the Finance Committee, submitted the following resolution in lieu of the resolution adopted at the last meeting of the Board and referred to them:

Resolved, That the Finance Committee be authorized to contract with competent attorneys to collect the city's delinquent taxes, at a rate not to exceed 10 per cent.

The resolution was adopted.

The same committee reported in the matter of the petition of the First National Bank, in regard to back taxes due by J. H. Neff, recommending that the same be referred to the attorney who shall have the collection of back taxes. Adopted.

Alderman Boney brought to the attention of the Board the condition of the water pipes crossing the bridges over the railroad.

Communication from the Cape Fear Fire Engine Company in regard to repairs to buildings, &c., was referred to the Fire Committee.

The petition of John Sheehan and others for electric lights on Tenth, Eleventh and Twelfth streets, was referred to the Committee on Lights.

Petitions for the erection of buildings were acted upon as follows: J. W. Taylor, to make addition to stables on Front street, provided that the roof and sides be covered with metal.

P. Blomme, a wooden building on Fifth and Campbell streets. Granted.

J. D. Bellamy, addition to store occupied by Mr. Reeves. Referred to Fire Commission.

A. F. Lucas, to erect a small shed on Chesnut street. Referred to Fire Commission.

A. David, to erect a dwelling, corner of Seventh and Market. Granted.

L. J. Poisson, to erect a two-story frame tin roof dwelling on west side of Second street between Ann and Nun, and also a one-story shingle roof stable. Granted, provided the stable be covered with tin.

Magistrates' Court. Sonny Lomax, colored, from South Carolina, and employed on a wood flat on the Cape Fear, was committed to jail by Justice Millis in default of bail, for an assault on a fellow workman with a hatchet.

Duncan Shaw, a colored boy, arrested on the charge of stealing a watch from James Eason, was discharged for want of evidence. But arraigned on another warrant charging Shaw with the larceny of a pair of shoes from a store over the railroad, he was committed for trial in default of $50 bail.

The Railroad Accident in South Carolina. Very little information was received here yesterday concerning the recent terrible accident on the Northeastern Railroad in South Carolina. From all accounts it seems certain that six persons were killed outright and eleven or twelve others received injuries that were more or less severe. One of the injured—Mr. Chas. A. Price, of this city—died yesterday afternoon, at the Catholic hospital in Charleston. Mr. West, the other express messenger, was not so badly wounded as Mr. Price. Mr. Fred Reneker, the mail agent, well known in this city, had one of his legs broken and received a severe wound in the head.

It is stated that in the second class coach that went down in the wreck there were six passengers, five of whom were killed; one, a small colored boy, escaping unhurt. Santee river trestle, forty miles from Charleston, is four miles long, and at the place where the accident occurred about thirty feet high. About forty feet of the trestle went down in the wreck, carrying with it two passenger coaches, the express and baggage and mail cars. The accident is thought to have resulted from the tender running off the track.

Train No. 43 has been temporarily abandoned—until the break is repaired—and in the meantime rail communication is had with Charleston by way of Columbia and the South Carolina Railroad.

Death of Mr. Chas. A. Price. Mr. Chas. A. Price, the express messenger who was injured in the wreck on the Northeastern Railroad on Monday last, died yesterday at 7:30 p. m. in the Sisters' Hospital, at Charleston, S. C. His family and friends in this city were in receipt of telegrams yesterday apprizing them of his condition, and his wife and one of his brothers had arranged to go to Charleston by the first train for that place when the telegram was received informing them of the fatal termination of his sufferings. His remains will be brought to this city to day for interment.

Mr. Price was a son of the late A. L. Price, one of the proprietors of the old Journal newspaper. He was about thirty-five years of age, and had been in the employ of the Southern Express Company for six years past. He leaves a wife and three small children besides other relatives and many warm friends to mourn his sad and untimely fate.

Moonlight Excursion. The Passport will leave her wharf at the foot of Market street this evening at 8 o'clock, promptly, for a run down the river to the Rocks, where the boat will remain for an hour and a half. The trip will be enlivened with instrumental music by the harpers and a quartette of singers who will render some fine selections. No refreshments will be sold on the boat, as Mrs. Mayo will make every preparation for the entertainment of the excursionists on the Rocks.
