

By WILLIAM H. BERNARD. PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT MONDAYS.

Entered at the Post Office at Wilmington, N. C. as Second Class Matter.

MORNING EDITION.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET. FOR CONGRESS IN SIXTH DISTRICT, ALFRED ROWLAND, Of Robeson.

OUTLINES. N. R. Dawson, of Ala., has been nominated for Commissioner of Education.

The British press opinions of the new Irish Viceroy are not particularly enthusiastic.

It is said that Blaine will take the stump soon to help secure the next House of Representatives for the Republicans.

Mr. G. A. Jenks succeeds Mr. Goode as Solicitor General. And who is Jenks and whence does he hail?

The Wagner festival at Bayreuth is said by correspondents to be a pronounced success.

The two South Carolina Senators stood by the President in his opposition to the Morrison Surplus bill.

A New York paper will give more space to the retirement of a race mare from the track or the death of a dog than it will to the most gifted man born south of Mason's and Dixon's line.

The Raleigh Chronicle is in error as to what the STAR sought in its reply to a paragraph that was not in good taste and was not friendly.

We exceedingly regret to learn that Major M. P. Hale is in a very precarious condition of health.

We are extremely sorry to see that hope that there is a mistake in the diagnosis. Mr. Hale is one of the strong and well appointed men of North Carolina.

Mr. Thomas Nelson Page, the remarkably clever Virginian who is author of some of the best stories ever written, is soon to marry Miss Anne, a daughter of Mr. Charles Bruce, of Charlotte county, Va.

When Mr. C. C. Clark says he is no longer opposed to county government the STAR will be glad, and will take great pleasure in giving it publicity.

When the New Bern Journal insinuates that the STAR opposes Mr. Clark's County Government views because he was for Maj. John Hughes for Lieutenant Governor it is engaged in a very small business.

by this writer, who has independence enough to think for himself and write what he believes to be just and true.

The New Bern Journal is unable to discuss any question in good temper and without being personally offensive.

We give the remainder of the Tory Cabinet. Lord George Hamilton is not Home Secretary as was published.

"President of the Local Government Board—Right Hon. Henry Chapin; Attorney General—Sir R. E. Webster; Home Secretary—Mr. Henry Matthews, Q. C."

THE CITY.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. YATES—New novels. HEINBERGER—School books. C. M. HARRIS—Leave orders.

There will be services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church to-day at 11 o'clock, with lay reading.

The Board of Audit and Finance meet in regular monthly session tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Three marriage licenses were issued the past week by the Register of Deeds—two for white and one for colored persons.

The total number of interments in the city cemeteries the past week was seven—two in Oakdale and five (colored) in Pine Forest.

Mr. H. L. Borden, clerk in the Auditor's Department of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company, has been appointed to a clerkship in the Postoffice Department at Washington, D. C.

A colored man named James Troy, a native of Wilmington, was drowned while bathing at Newport News, Va., on the 29th ult. He was a seaman—one of the crew of the schooner John C. Gregory.

Rev. W. A. Alexander, of the Presbytery of Indianapolis, Ind., now supplying the church at Franklinton, N. C., will preach at the Chesnut Street Presbyterian church (colored) to-day, morning and evening.

A colored man who was trying to sell a gold ring on the wharf yesterday afternoon was arrested, on suspicion of being concerned in recent burglaries.

A match game of base ball will be played Tuesday afternoon next, at the grounds of the Seaside club, between two amateur nines of this city—youth men who know how to handle a ball and bat, and who promise fine sport for spectators.

New Professors for Wake Forest College.

We learn from a member of the Board that at a full meeting of the Trustees of Wake Forest College, held in Raleigh on Friday last, Dr. J. A. Duggan was elected to the Chair of Chemistry.

Dr. Duggan is a native of Georgia—an A. M. of Macon University, Georgia; an M. D. of Jefferson College, Pennsylvania, and a Doctor of Philosophy of Johns Hopkins University, Maryland.

Prof. Manly is an A. M. of Georgetown College, Kentucky; a full graduate of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and a Doctor of Philosophy of the University of Leipzig, Germany.

Church Officers in St. Paul's Lutheran Church. On last Tuesday the July meeting of the Council of St. Paul's Evau. Lutheran Church was held.

Mr. F. E. Hashagen was unanimously chosen as the successor to Deacon Glaneyer to fill his unexpired term, and will accordingly be inducted into his office during this Sunday morning's services.

The Officers are: Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, President; C. Schulken, Vice President; H. Vollers, Secretary, and B. H. J. Ahrens, Treasurer.

Mr. H. Vollers, as Secretary, has held his important office and honorable position uninterruptedly from the beginning of the congregation's existence until now.

Exports of Naval Stores. Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son cleared the Norwegian barque Kjølland for Pleetwood, Eng., with 300 casks spirits turpentine and 1,384 barrels of rosin, valued at $12,000.

An Early Morning Fire. Mr. J. J. Curtis' grocery store, on the southeast corner of Eighth and Castle streets, was discovered to be on fire yesterday morning, about half-past 3 o'clock.

Attention Members W. S. F. E. Co. No. 1. THE NEW ENGINE ATLANTIC WILL BE tested, corner Market and Second streets, Monday morning.

Chowan Baptist Female Institute, MURFREESBORO, N. C. THIS INSTITUTION OFFERS SUPERIOR ADVANTAGES for the higher culture of Young Ladies.

Charged with Burglary.

Isham Newkirk, colored, was arrested Friday night by detectives on a warrant charging him with a burglary committed on the morning of the 28th ult.—Wednesday last.

The prisoner was committed upon the testimony of Miss Sallie Musgrave, a delicate looking elderly lady, who lives with her sister, Mrs. Holmes, and the latter's son, on Seventh, between Harnett and Swann streets.

Newkirk said that he was innocent; had no knowledge of the crime until he was told of it some time during the day. Had been at home sick for several days.

During the progress of the examination a young woman living on McRae street, between Chesnut and Mulberry, who had also been assaulted by a negro man the same night, came into the court room and took a good look at Newkirk.
