THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXXVIII.--NO. 146.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPT. 10, 1886.

WHOLE NO. 6231

It is not true about that cross of fire over Charleston. It was manufactured out of the whole cloth. Mr. Grady, of the Atlanta Constitution, has been to Charleston, and says of other reports: "There was no atmospheric disturbance whatever. The water that issued frem fissures was not hot as well as sulphurous. It was about the temperature of artesian water. The fissures did not throw water to the height of twenty or thirty feet."

A company in Philadelphia with large capital propose to lease the gas works "and pay the city $1,000,000 a year rent, and bind themselves by contract to furnish individuals good gas for $1 50 per thousand cubic feet and to supply the city with gas for lighting the streets and public buildings at 75 cents a thousand."

Mr. Cleveland is confident that the country is coming rapidly over to the conviction that it is a noble and wise act to give at least half of the offices to the opposition. Ephraim is wedded to his idols. But of four Republican State Conventions just held only one said a word about the Civil Service humbug.

Suppose Jay Gould, Vanderbilt, G. W. Childs, and a few other very rich men form a syndicate for the rebuilding of Charleston. It would help thousands and be a monument to their public spirit, charity and good will. They need not lose a cent by the operation.

It is very honorable to to those Northern cities that have responded to the cry of Charleston for help. We believe that not many responded and this makes it the more creditable to those who did respond. Boston, Hartford, New York, Philadelphia and a few others have aided.

At Horse Pasture, Henry county, Va., on the 6th, R, H. Bousman was shot and idstantly killed by J. T. Darlington, editor of the Henry News. A few minutes previously, Darlington's son had been shot in the jaw by Bousman.

We think Gen. B. F. Cheatham must have had some North Carolina blood in his veins. Bragg, Forrest, John Pelham, Zollicoffer, Polk, Me-Cullough and Clanton were filled with North Carolina blood. Some of them were born in this State.

Here is the latest specimen of judicious advertising we have met

"A clergyman in Camden, N J., has issued a map of the river fronts of that place and Philadelphia, with dot ed lines, showing the shortest routes to his residence, for the information of eloping couples."

The "scientist" who said on the seventh night there would be a grand shake-up was wrong in his calculations, we are delighted to be able to report. It was about the quietest night since the big quake.

- Judge Avery's daughter, Mrs. Gilbert Brenizer, died at Morganton on 7th

- New Bern Journal: Kinston College opened its fall session last Monday with eighty-seven pupils,

- Albemarle Enquirer: The Bap tist church, occupied by the Rev. Mr. Jor dan, held its protracted meeting near here a few weeks ago, and there were about 35 souls brought over to Christ.

- Durham Plant: The Political Prohibitionists of Durham number about one hundred. Ten times this number would fail to elect their ticket, but that one hundred will defeat the Democrats. Too

- Salisbury Watchman: L. M. Parker, a justice of the peace of Morganton township. Rowan county, was tried at Salisbury for cruelty to animals. Parker was drunk and stabbed his mare, from the effects of which she died. Judge Boykin fined him $50.

- Asheville Citizen: At Marshall the earthquake was terrific, but no damage was done. Houses were very much shaken and it was feared they would go to pieces. The citizens were uneasy expecting that the cliffs and hills in the rear of the town would come down and bury them. - Charlotte Observer: The public will read with interest Dr. Mott's article on the situation, published on the first page this morning. It is indeed and in truth "Republican Hot Shot"—a sort of "now you see it, and now you don't" arrangement. Loge Harris was last on top Now it is Dr. Mott's time.

- Concord Times: The spoke and handle factory is in operation now, and a good many of farmers are utilizing their spare time in hauling in and selling their timber. One farmer told us that he sold a single persimmon tree for $9.25. The big Harris-Corliss engine at the factory con-sumes $5,000 worth of wood every year. This money goes to our country people.

- Raleigh Recorder: Bro. S. S. Lea has sent his second hundred dollars to Greensboro church. — Bro. J. H. Mills many people who are desirous of seeing the has accepted the appointment of the committee to deliver the annual address before the Alumni Association at the next Comby the Sea."

reports work progressing on the new build ings and all well at the Orphange. - Lenoir Topic: For a week or so a revival has been in progress at the Methodist Protestant Church, near Patterson, and several conversions were the result. A number of converts were baptized in the Yadkın on Friday we learn. Rev. J. C. Rowe, pastor of Lenoir circuit, has also been conducting a successful revival at Littlejohn's. He has been assisted in his labors by Rev. D. H. Tuttle, of Wilming-

- Durham Recorder: A remark able accident occurred twelve miles north of Durham, Saturday night. Maynard Mangum, hearing some dogs fighting, fired a pistol at random in the darkness. He missed the dogs, but the ball entered the heart of Lee Roberts, colored, who was fifty-two yards distant, killing him instantly. This fact was shown at the coroner's inquest to be entirely accidental coroner's inquest to be entirely accidental, as Mangum did not know the negro was

- Raleigh Visitor: The Charlotte Observer mentions facts in connection with the earthquake shock there that were experienced here. They are that after the shock people complained of feeling weak in the knees, numb in the lower limbs; sickness such as is felt in a storm at sea; pains in the legs and hips, and of sensa-tions similar to those felt in being shocked by a galvanic battery. These singular sen-sations were felt here by many persons, and they have not yet fully recovered from

- Franklin (Macon Co.) Press: Mr. M. H. Curtis, an honorable citizen of this county, living near Otto postoffice, writes us that on Sunday last, while crossing the Nantahala mountain in a covered wagon, accompanied by his wife and chil-dren and his mother, they were startled by the loud scream of a panther. The wagon was near a high bank on the roadside, and one of the children was crying, when the panther screamed, and they looked out and saw the animal within ten feet of the wagon. Mr. Curtis had no weapon except his pocketknife. They were not molested.

- Goldsboro Advance: Rev. R. Troy has the reputation of being a churchbuilder as well as a good preacher and revivalist. He reports one new church com pleted, 32x48, and two others the same size rpproaching completion. — Wilming-ton did nobly. Her resolutions and telegrams make us throw up our hat and with tear-shaken voice exclaim: 'Three cheers for Wilmington. God bless old North Carolina." And then when Assistant Secretary Fairchild telegraphed the Colfax to be ready to go with Wilmington's heroic band to aid Charleston in her distress, we fee proud we live in this country, proud of Uncle Sam, proud of humanity,

- Raleigh News-Observer: Capt. Heady, of Onslow, has 300 diamond-back terrapins in a pen, and after a while he will sell them for $2 or $2 50 each. The attendance at Peace Institute is considerably larger than at this time last term. - A gentleman of this city, of unquestionable veracity, yesterday told a reporter of a remarkable feat accomplished by a horse in jumping over a high gate. The horse was harnessed to a buggy, and he took the vehicle right over the gate with him. --- President Shepherd has returned to Martha's Vineyard, where he is an instructsr at the summer school. Most of the season he will fill the chair of English Literature there. North Carolina has reason to be proud of him.

- Lenoir Topic: Mr. Romulus Z. Linney, of Alexander county, made public announcement of his candidacy for Congress on Tuesday, at Watauga Court, and he and Col. W H. H. Cowles, the Democratic candidate, had a joint debate, thus opening the canvass. They spoke for thirty minutes each and had ten minutes each for rejoinder. We speak the sentiments of every unbiassed person who heard the discussion when we say that the Democratic candidate, unprepared as he was, without a single paper or note got the best of the argument and had a good effect upon the audience. Linney is the Republican can-didate and the disguise is to be stripped from him soon. As soon as he got to Boone, Jerry Ray and the other leading Republicans at once gathered around him.

- Elizabeth City Economist: The slate is whispered to be Judge Pool for Congress and Judge Albertson for Solicitor. - George Sparrow, of Washington, announces himself in a card as a candidate for Solicitor in opposition to J. H. Blount. He comes unheralded and unendorsed, and represents no party. — The electrical effects of the earthshake were apparent in many cases on Tuesday night and Wednesday. We hear of several cases in which a tingling and unpleasant sensation was felt in the hands and limbs, lasting for some hours. In another case a person after the shock could not walk for some hours, and in another case a tremulous sensation internally which lasted nearly a whole day, - The Senatorial and county conventions met at Plymouth on Wednesday, and everything passed off off nicely. Charles F. Warren and Joseph A. Spruill were nominated as candidates for the 2d Senatorial District of North Carolina. In the county convention Asa O. Gaylard was nominated for the House of Representatives and Wm. Davenport for Sheriff. — Two earthquake shocks were felt at Creswell Tuesday night of last week, the first at 9 50 and the last at 10 p. m. The first shock was very severe, causing the largest buildings to rock to and fro like a cradle. The little village was in the wildest excitement. — The Republican party, or what is left of it in this District, is in a state of Charleston,

- The Grand Lodge of Good Samaritans, in full regalia, were taken around the city yesterday afternoon in carriages. They were escorted by one or two lodges of the order in the city and a band of music.

- A society for the prevention of cruelty to animals is needed in this city The pitiable condition of some of the poor dray horses appeals to the sympathies of many persons who are daily witnesses of the ill-treatment to which these animals are subjected.

- The alacrity with which "line of battle" was formed on Front street that Tuesday night, when the earthquake rumbling began, reminded some old veterans of the 'long roll" at Yorkt own in 1861, when Gen. D. H. Hill was training the boys to turn out in a big hurry.

- The Signal Service observer at Smithville, Mr. Chaffee, has been prostrated by an attack of sickness, and Mr. Kuntz, the assistant observer at this station, has been sent to supply his place, thus devolving upon Mr. Fallon, the efficient chief of this station, the whole duties of the

- A lady is mentioned as having mproved upon the "drop-harness" arrange ment for an earthquake emergency. She has had a comfortable "wrapper" made with numerous pockets, in which are night ly deposited shoes, stockings, and other necessary paraphernalia which cannot beput on in a hurry. The wrapper can be donned in an instant, of course.

The Late O. S. Baldwin. The death of Mr. O. S. Baldwin, which was mentioned in the STAR yesterday, is referred to in the New York Herald as fol-

Mr. Oran S. Baldwin (Baldwin the clothier) died at No. 397 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn, Tuesday, of cancer of the stomach. Mr. Baldwin was born in Waterloo, N. Y., in 1824, and educated in that town. Early in life he established clothing establishments in Southern cities, but came North, with other Union men, when the war broke out. He originated the "C, O. ("cash on delivery") system in New York and Brooklyn. Three years ago he failed. Mr. Baldwin left a wife and three children. He was a Mason, but the funeral, on Thursday, will be private.

New River Craft.

Capt. H. P. Bowdoin, who has built several of the small steamboats that ply on the waters of the Cape Fear, has turned out a new craft in the shape of a steam-flat, to be used for lightering. It is at present lying at the wharf of the upper cotton compress, awaiting the arrival of the government boiler inspector before entering upon its

Mr. George Morton appeared on the river vesterday afternoon with a unique craft that might be called a "steam row-boat." It will seat comfortably a dozen or fifteen persons, and is propelled by steam; kerosene being used as fuel.

Charged with Stealing a Pistol. Scipio Hines, charged with stealing an vory-handled pistol, the property of a citizen whose name was given as Capt. Thom, was sent to jail yesterday in default of bail for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court. Scipio stoutly denied the charge, saying that the pistol was given him by another colored youth. The theft was committed, it is alleged, a few days ago, Scipio being employed as a drayman to remove some furniture from the residence of the complainant, on Castle street. The pistol was left with one Aaron Malloy, colored, to sell, from whom it was recov-

The First 'Possum of the Season. Deputy Sheriff Strode, who lives on Campbell street between Eighth and Ninth, was aroused from sleep Wednesday, night by a disturbance in his hen house. Quietly seeking the cause, he found a very large opossum among his chickens which were making a great rumpus in trying to escape from the marauder. Strode arrested the intruder forthwith, and dispatched him without waiting for trial or other process of law. The 'possum was large, fat and juicy, and baked with "taters," will make a dish that might tempt any "minion of the Petty Pilferers.

The policemen have as much as they can do sometimes, watching the actions of colored urchins who go about the streets seeking opportunities to steal anything they can lay hands upon which will have a "market value" at a junk store. Yesterday two of them were discovered trying to knock off portions of a large still-worm lying on a wharf. The officer who discovered the little rascals attempted to catch them, but they managed to elude his clutches and got away

Revivals. The revival that has been progressing for a week at the Brooklyn Chapel (Methodist) is increasing in interest nightly. Rev. ten bales. The season is late by two or Mr. Tuttle preached on Wednesday evening. There have been between thirty and forty conversions.

The religious awakening among the colored churches also is said to be increasing. Services are held nightly and there have been many professions and conversions.

Mr. James Sprunt returned several days ago from his trip to England, and after a brief sojourn with his family at the Sound was at his place of business yesterday.

STARTLING CANTO

The following article appears in a recent issue of the New York Commercial Bulletin: "An expert ex-amined and reported upon a sample of Chicago refined lard, the other day, which he said did not contain a pound of hoge fat, but consisted of tailow, grease, cotton seed oil, and oleo stearine." Is such a mixture cheap at any price? CASSARD'S "STAR"
