Total net cotton receipts at all the ports 54,842 bales. —Business failures the past week for the United States number 149. —President Cleveland makes grateful acknowledgment for the proffer of aid from the Lord Mayor of London for the Charleston sufferers.

One Carter wrote the Tilden will that is said to be quite defective. Mr. Randall is rapidly recovering and Mr. Arthur says over his own signature that he is much better.

Up to Wednesday Charleston had received $110,737 for the relief fund. Detroit, Mich., is preparing to aid.

The Indiana Democrats profess to be certain of securing the Legislature. If so, McDonald will probably go to the Senate in place of Harrison, rabid Kad.

Lamar has gone to the frigid regions of New Hampshire to write his speech, to be delivered on the great South Carolinian, Calhoun. Will extremes meet?

The President and all of his Cabinet save Secretary Bayard are off on a holiday, and still the ship of State sails right ahead utterly oblivious of their departure. A great country of this!

And now two California ranchmen beg the attention of Secretary Bayard and the country while they tell how they were insulted and imprisoned by Mexicans. Their complaint covers fifteen pages of foolscap.

A hint to novel readers. Judicial critics in England say that Charles Reade's "The Cloister and the Hearth" is his masterpiece, and that is saying a good deal for Reade was a novelist only second to the masters.

When the big shake up occurred in Massachusetts in A. D. 1727, there was great trepidation and chimneys were toppled to the earth. The shocks continued for a fortnight. On Thursday night slight tremors were very perceptible to those on the lookout. That made it a fortnight precisely since the first shock was felt.

and no more than Principal Dawson. That eminent man of science has come out and made a square admission that the Charleston shakeup knocked the bottom out of his neatly-spun theory he was dealing out to the Londoners.

The Washington correspondent of the New York World furnishes a list of some of the Republican officials now out in the cold who are indebted to the General Government. They went out of office heavily in debt having made way with Uncle Sam's chips. It embraces a good many names after all. We select a few as it is good campaign reading.

The amounts aggregate $26,809,194. Israel C. Woodruff, Third Light House District, N. Y., $3,495; Robert S. Williamson, Twelfth L. H. Norfolk oysters are now sold in Goldsboro. — Mr. W. B. Blake, a valued resident of Lumberton, died there last Friday night.

In Halifax a negro girl aged fourteen badly beat a boy and put him on the track of the R. & G. Railroad so he might be killed. — A young girl got off when found. She is in jail, as we learn from the Weldon News.

Charlotte Observer: Charlotte's new amusement hall, Gray's Trade street theatre, is now completed and ready for dedication, the manager only awaiting the arrival of the chairs for the dress circle, which are to arrive this week.

Rev. J. D. Arnold has succeeded in his efforts to give the growing town of Henderson, Vance county, a new and handsome Methodist church. The old one was a fair structure, but the new one is to be much larger and finer. It will be ready for worship by Christmas.

Greensboro Workman: From Mr. H. B. Owen we learn that a fine revival of religion is progressing at Yadkin College, under the labors of Messrs. R. R. Hanner, J. N. Garrett and T. T. Perce. Up to Tuesday night last some twenty or more persons had professed faith.

Clinton Caucasian: Farmers who planted rice this year are smiling. They expect a large yield, and we trust they will not be disappointed. — A young man in Little Coharie blew a fox horn just after the first shock and the neighbors thought Gabriel was blowing his trumpet.

Fayetteville Observer-Gazette: John Higgins, a colored lad employed on the C. & F. Y. R. R., had his right arm crippled while coupling cars at Bennettsville, Friday night. — Capt. J. C. Huske has been appointed Chief Marshal of the Cumberland Fair, to be held in November next.

In the Raleigh Advocate the revival reports are condensed for the STAR as follows: Rock Spring camp meeting 70 professions; Stealing Creek, 40 professions; Person circuit, 43 additions; Haw River circuit, 60 additions; Kernersville circuit, 15 professions; Shelby circuit, 12 professions; Newton Grove circuit, 40 additions.

We understand that our excellent contemporary, the Wilson Mirror, is about to change its name. Mr. J. Howard Brown, a Northern man, has bought a controlling interest. We should be very sorry if the sale should cause the editorial fraternity to lose the services of our amiable, genial and gifted brother Blount, who has made the Mirror all that it is.

Wadesboro Intelligencer: The meeting in progress at the Baptist Church in this place, up to the present time has been the most successful ever held in Wadesboro. The excitement in Stanly county over the earthquake is immense, and many a sinner who has long resisted the wrappings of the Spirit, is seeking refuge in religion. Many firmly believe the day of judgment is at hand.

Monroe Enquirer-Express: As a result of a protracted meeting held at Shiloh Baptist Church, Rev. D. M. Austin on Sunday evening last administered the ordinance of baptism to 16 persons. Rev. O. Ryder, assisted by Rev. B. F. Fincher, have been conducting a very successful revival at Bethlehem church this week. At last reports 42 persons had joined the church.

Oxford Torchlight: The Oxford Female Seminary began its fall session last Wednesday under the most favorable auspices. The indications are that this will be the most prosperous year in the history of this excellent institution. — The cures of tobacco used thus far are very disappointing. While the color is good, the leaves are small, light in weight and full of holes. The crop will be even less than was anticipated before the curing began.

Local Notes. — Ho! for Onslow. — Cotton receipts yesterday 64 bales. — The market is overstocked with superannuated grapes. — The mercury reached 91 degrees in many places in the city yesterday.

— New river oysters—the first of the season—were in market yesterday. — It looks now as if our dreams of railroad connection with New River will be materialized.

— The excursion season has ended, and the steamer Passport has discontinued her daily trips to Smithville. — A number of persons said yesterday that they felt an earthquake shock Thursday night. All of them agree that it occurred about midnight.

— Mr. Morton's new yacht is named the Vertner. It consumes one gallon of oil an hour as fuel; is very fast, and is intended for use as a pleasure boat on the river. — Lucy Fisher, colored, in Justice Mills' Court yesterday, charged another colored girl named Robinson, with assault and battery. The latter was convicted, but judgment was suspended on the payment of costs.

— Let the county of New Hanover subscribe one hundred thousand dollars for the Onslow railroad. Then let the city of Wilmington make a liberal subscription to the Cape Fear and Vidler Valley extension from Fayetteville to Wilmington. — The new bell for St. Luke's A. M. E. Church has been placed in position and was tried yesterday. Its tone is clear and full. Several persons who heard it about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, thought that the fire-alarm bell was sounding.

— Messrs. E. Kidder & Son cleared the British barque Kheidos yesterday, for Buenos Ayres, S. A., with 309,275 feet of lumber, valued at $4,639. Also, the schooner Roger Moore, for Barbadoes, with 252,990 feet of lumber, valued at $4,649.54. — It was mentioned yesterday as a singular fact that while the congregation of Front Street M. E. Church, through the kindness of their Jewish friends are using the Temple of Israel for a place of worship, in Birmingham, Ala., the Jews are using the Methodist Church there, while awaiting the completion of their temple at that place.

Personal. — Mr. A. H. Kelley, formerly of Wilmington, was married to Miss Nannie Brooks, near West Point, Va., on the 18th. — Mr. Pembroke J. Holmes, who has been spending a few days with friends in this city, left for his home in Jacksonville, Fla., last night. — More Shocks. — News came over the wires last night that another severe earthquake shock occurred at Charleston and Summerville, S. C., at 9.35 p. m. The shock was more severe at Summerville, but no damage was reported, either at that place or Charleston.

Weather Indications. The following are the indications for today: For North Carolina and South Carolina, fair weather, no decided change in temperature, southerly winds, shifting to westerly.

"A Noble Trio." Under the above heading the Charleston News and Courier of Thursday prints the following: "A delegation from Wilmington, North Carolina, was among the first to reach Charleston with offers of relief. The delegation was headed by Mayor Hall. Another delegation, consisting of Messrs. John Daniel, Albert Gore and J. M. Cronly, arrived here last week. Being unable to secure an audience with the relief committee, these gentlemen under the direction of Dr. W. F. O'Neill, who is himself a heavy sufferer from a carriage, and driving through the city, spent every cent of money they had with them, thus relieving such suffering as was brought to their attention. It is a fact that these gentlemen had to borrow enough money to pay their way home."

New Insurance Firm. The old insurance firms of Northrop & DeRoset and Northrop & Hodges have been dissolved and a new firm formed to carry on the same business under the name of Northrop, Hodges & Taylor. Mr. Walker Taylor, the junior member of the firm, has been connected with the old firm of Northrop & DeRoset for several years past.

Nothing the Matter with the Turmpike. Mr. Haar, the Superintendent of the Turmpike road to the Sounds, says that the earthquake has seriously affected the pleasure travel over that road. Since the shocks began the regular afternoon drives of many patrons of the road have been discontinued, and there has been a corresponding falling off in receipts for tolls.

Reduction in Prices of Stamped Envelopes. In three or four numbers, representing the most popular sizes and qualities, important reductions have been made. No. 4 is reduced from $1.20 to $1 per thousand; No. 41, commercial, is reduced from $2.20 to $1.80; and No. 5 from $2.40 to $2 per thousand.

THE LATE O. S. BALDWIN. MR. EDITOR:—I notice in yesterday's STAR a statement taken from the New York Herald in connection with the death of the late O. S. Baldwin which is not true, viz: "Three years ago he failed." Mr. Baldwin never failed, he always paid one hundred cents on the dollar, and the error grew out of the fact, doubtless, that he had a business connection with the house of Carhart, Whitford & Co., that did fail somewhere near the time above specified. Respectfully, H. H. MUMSON. WILMINGTON, Sept. 10.

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.

Whereas we have been so pleasantly surprised, as well as heartily entertained, by the citizens, both white and colored, since our advent to Wilmington, N. C., therefore, be it

Resolved, That the sincere thanks of the Grand Body be tendered to all the citizens, irrespective of color of Wilmington, for their uniform kindness, real hospitality and generous welcome extended to us during our stay in their midst.

Resolved, That we further extend thanks to Grand Lodge No. 19 of S. C., for her generous care and the unbounded hospitality received at her hands individually, and shall remember this affectionate demonstration towards the Grand Body until memory shall refuse to hold in her grasp this pleasant and refreshing period of our sojourn in this city.

Resolved, That the conditions of real good kindness witnessed by us on the part of all classes of citizens in this place, has been an incentive as well as an inspiration for us to hope that the day is not far distant when the kindly feeling existing here may become general all over the land, and that continents may all cease and peace and harmony prevail among all.
