CLINTON SCOLLARD. While gloriously, in flery lines, Within the west the sunlight blazed, In mellow swell from princely pines

But when from out the glowing sky
The dazzing splender died away,
The singing in the boughs on high
Waned the waning of the day. The crickets only, fifing still,

Oblivious how the light was drowned,

The birds their varied vespers raised

Kept answering back from hill to hill In one thin strident zone of sound. The night wore on till every star Fled pallid from Aurora's reign, And then the songsters, bar by bar,

Took up their joyous strains again.

Tis thus the poet, when the night. Of pain, or want, or ruthless wrong Shows dawning rays, from pure delight Bursts forth in glad impassioned song.

DEMOCRATIC ORGANIZATION.

Plan of Organization of the Democratic Party of North Carolina. DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL Ex. COM...

RALEIGH, N. C., June 16, 1886. The following is the plan of organization heretofore adopted by the State Democratic Committee for the guidance of the party:

TOWNSHIP ORGANIZATION.

1. The unit of county organization shall be the township. In each township there shall be an executive committee, to consist of five active Democrats, who shall be elected by the Democratic voters of the several townships in meetings called by the county executive committee. And said committee so elected shall elect one of its committee so elected shall elect one of its committee so elected shall elect one of its members as chairman, who shall preside at all said committee meetings.

2. The several township executive committees shall convene at the meetings of the several county conventions, or at any time and place that a majority of them may elect, and shall elect a county executive committee, to consist of not less than five members, one of whom shall be designated as chairman, who shall preside at all of said committee meetings.

3. In case there shall be a failure on the part of any township to elect its executive committee for the period of eight days the county executive committee shall appoint said committee from the Democratic voters of said township. 4. The members of the township committees shall elect to any vacancy occurring in said committees.

5 The county executive committee shall call all necessary county conventions, by giving at least ten days notice by pub-lic advertisement in three public places in each township, at the court house door, and in any Democratic newspaper that may be published in said county, request-ing all Democrats of the county to meet in convention in their respective townships, on a common day therein stated, which said day shall not be less than three days before the meeting of the county convention, for the purpose of electing their delegates to the county conventions. That thereupon the conventions so held shall elect their delegates to represent the townships in the county conventions from the voters of the respective townships, which delegates, or such of them as shall attend, shall vote the full Democratic strength of their respective townships on all questions that may come before the said county conventions. That in case no convention shall be held in any township in pursuance of said call, or no election shall be made, the township executive committee shall appoint such delegates. 6. Each township shall be entitled to cast in the county convention one vote for every twenty-five Democratic votes, and one vote for fractions of fifteen Democratic votes cast by that township at the last pre-ceding gubernatorial election: Provided, That every township shall be entitled to cast at least one vote, and each township may send as many delegates as it may see

7. That in cases where townships consist of more than one precinct or ward, each of said precincts or wards shall be entitled to send delegates to county conventions, and shall cast its proportionate part of its township's vote, based upon the last preceding vote for Governor in said township. 8. The chairmen of township committees shall preside at all township conventions; in mittees may preside. 9. In cases where all the township execu-tive committees are required to meet for the purpose of electing county executive com-mittees, said meetings shall be deemed to have a quorum when a majority of such townships shall be represented in said their absence any other member of said com-

COUNTY AND DISTRICT CONVENTIONS. 1. The several county conventions shall be entitled to elect to their senatorial, judicial and congressional conventions, one delegate and one alternate for every fifty Democratic votes, and one delegate for fractions over twenty five D:mocratic votes cast at the last preceding gubernatorial election in their respective counties, and none but delegates or alternates so elected shall be entitled to seats in said conventions: Provided, That every county shall have at least one vote in each of said con-

2. The chairman, or in his absence any member of the county, senatorial, judicial and congressional committee, shall call to order their respective conventions, and hold the chairmanship thereof until the convention shall elect its chairman.

3. The executive committees of the senatorial, congressional and judicial districts, respectively, shall, at the call of their respective chairmen, meet at some time and place in their respective districts, designated in said call. And it shall be their duty to appoint the time and place for holding conappoint the time and place for holding conventions in their respective districts; and the chairmen of said respective committees shall immediately notify the chairmen of the different county executive committees of said appointment, and the said county executive committees shall forwith call conventions of their respective committees shall be conventioned to the convention of their respective districts; and the chairmen of said respective committees shall be conventioned to the convention of the chairmen of the c ventions of their respective counties in conformity to said notice to send delegates to said respective district conventions.

STATE CONVENTIONS. 1. The State convention shall be composed of delegates appointed by the several county conventions. Each county shall be entitled to elect one delegate and one alternate for every one hundred and fifty Democratic votes, and one delegate for fractions over seventy-five Democratic votes cast therein at the last preceding gubernatorial election; and none but delegates or alternates so elected shall be entitled to seats in said convention; provided that every county shall have at least one vote in said convention.

GENERAL RULES. 1. Such delegates (or alternates of absent delegates) as may be present at any Democratic convention shall be allowed to cast the whole vote to which their township or county may be entitled.

2. In all conventions provided for by this system, after a vote is cast there shall be no change in such vote until the final result of the ballot shall be announced by the chairman of said convention.

3. All Democratic executive committees shall have the power to fill any vacancy occurring in their respective bodies.

4. That the chairmen of the different county conventions shall certify the list of delegates and alternates to the different district and State conventions, and a certified list of said delegates and alternates to the State conventions shall be sent to the secretary of the State central committee.

The Stan is decidedly one of the best papers in the State, as bright and newsy as ever. Long life to it.—Salem Press. The Wilmington Star has entered on its twelfth year—as good a paper as any people should want.

— Charlotte Democrat. The Wilmington Stan has entered on tstweifth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up head."—Concord Register

The Wilmington Stab has entered upon its thir teenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gazette. The Wilmington STAR has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight. The Wilmington STAR is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typograpical appearance cannot be beaten.—Jackson Esporter.

The Wilmington STAR is one of the very best papers in the South, in every department from typo graphy up to editorial ability and independence. Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appeal.

The Wilmington (N. C.) Mornine Star is a mod el newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggerate its merits when we say it is the newsiest (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond (Va.) Religious Herald. The Wilmington Stan has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it.—
Tarboro Southerner.

We like the STAR because it is thoroughly re liable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited, newsy, spley, and in fact a perfect newspaper. Long may the STAR twinkle.—Mt. Airy Visitor. Although at the head of the press in this Stat in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magaitude. May its lustre never wane.—
The Free Will Baptist.

The STAR is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dai lies in the South.—Robesonian. The Wilmington STAB has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited, a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina tournalism.—Charlotte Observer.

That magnificent beaming Star has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, erudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the paper surpasses them all.—Tarboro Southerner. The Wilmington STAR is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter. The STAR is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlot's

The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington Star. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a raverite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Reids ville Times

The Wilmington STAR, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one the peer of any journal published in the South.— Oxford Free Lance.

Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) Star, the Washington Star, the Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all.—Richmond (Va.) State. The Wilmington Star has entered uponits 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the Star very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuher than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial deartment is conducted with much ability.—Merganton Riade.

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of for tune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the Star has steadily "waxed" until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a newsraper it has few equals, and no superior, for apprepriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most acceptable exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder.

ble exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Wilmington Monning Star has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the Star is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Star (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and ts corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the Star never be retarded, and may its genial enterprising proprietor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness.—Goldsboro Messenger.
