The Morning Star.

MARY AINGE DE VEE.
A freshening wind, an April shadow,
A bird's song trilling clear and fast,
A gleam of violets from the meadow,
A huddled nest and the spring is past.

Warm golden blooms that break asunder
The calm of a fall perfection woe;
A lightning spark—a cheer of summer
And rose leaves scattered—the summer's done.

Light thistle downs through the blue air
Flying,
Swift wandering leaves of gold and red,
An empty nest, by the fair autumn lying—
A matless bird! Ah, fair autumn's dead!

A bright white world! Soft snow wreaths blowing,
And fringed eaves dropping in the sun,
Then floating ice in the great sea going,
And the endless story is again begun.

DEDRAMATIC NOTES.
— Clara Morris's health has not been so good in several years as it is this season.

— Mme. Modjeska has a new play founded on "Les Chouans," the first romance to which Honore De Balzac appended his name.

— The announcement is again made that Mr. Keene will act this season, the bettering of his tour being fixed for the latter part of November.

— The idea has gone abroad that this is to be Edwin Booth's last season on the stage. Such is not the fact. Mr. Booth will play a year longer.

— Mme. Janaschek says there is no happiness on the stage; that it leaves no time for domestic or social pleasures; no time for anything but work, work, work.

— Miss Rhea has been offered the creation of the title role in a new play written for her by a prominent English author. It is proposed to produce it in London.

— Why wouldn't it be a good idea to introduce the English custom of hissing in theatres, at least for special occasions, and give such things as Miss Cameron a real English welcome?—Boston Post.

— Edwin Booth has appeared since Monday, Sept. 18, at Buffalo, Detroit, Bay City, East Saginaw, Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids and Milwaukee. Last week he played in Minneapolis and St. Paul. On Monday he appears in Chicago, where he will remain two weeks.

— The dresses that Fanny Denton is having made for "Beatrice" in "Much Ado" are said to be novel and beautiful in a marked degree. This lady has always maintained a high reputation for the elegance of her dresses.

— Violet Cameron was asked to leave Edward Stokes' home in New York, simply because her husband, De Bensaute, told Stokes that he meant to shoot Lord Louisa in the hotel, and Stokes in view of his own scrape some years ago, was unwilling to run the risk of a catastrophe that might ruin the good name of his hostelry.

TWINKLINGS.
— The stage is afflicted with people with big heads, and the audience with people with big hearts.—London Critic.

— The new one-dollar certificate are the prettiest specimens of paper money the Government has ever put afloat.—Phil Record.

— Husband—What were you and Mrs. Smith talking about so earnestly? Wife—Oh, nothing in particular; simply one thing and another. Husband—See. Very well; he said one thing and she said another.—Exchange.

— Well that's a new idea. I never heard of putting spittoons on the side of a horse before! remarked an old countryman, as he walked up to our telephone transmitter and made a bull's-eye of the first shot.—Hammont in Tribune.

— The St. Paul Globe joins the Star in urging Chicago to turn over the remainder of the fund contributed for the people's relief after the great fire to the city of Charleston. That remainder it says now amounts to $1,700,000.—N. Y. Star.

— Do you preach from notes? asked the deacon of an up-town church during the examination of an applicant for that post. Well, no—not exactly, hesitated the applicant; I preach from notes—bank notes. He was summarily expunged.—Wash Critic.

POLITICAL POINTS.
— If Mr. Blaine is disposed to try conclusions with the American people at the ballot box again, certainly no Democrat will object. They admire pluck even in the albatross form of audacity and Mr. Blaine is nothing but a more dangerous enemy to the Democratic party than ditto, ditto; so it seems as if we might all dispense with him.—Wash. Post, Dem.

— Laurinburg Exchange: Laurinburg has contributed in all $130.50 to the Charleston sufferers. A specimen of tobacco raised here was sent to Wilmington for examination, and was pronounced as fine a sample as he had seen by a leading buyer and manufacturer of that great tobacco market. — J. T. Roper's acre referred to before in the papers yielded a fraction over 100 bushels. Hyde county will have to be heard from to surpass the Colouel's acre.

— Tarboro Southerner: The pea crop of this county as a whole is not good. The Army worm has attacked cotton on the river in some portions of the county. Though late, its ravages in some places are said to be very extensive. Mr. M. J. Battle has sixty acres in cotton, which is pronounced by intelligent observers to be the best in the State. If each man, who can, will put forth a little effort, Tarboro Fall will one day be a source of North Carolina. It will never have enough glaucous pride to every one in the county. North Carolina will never have enough glaucous pride to every one in the county. North Carolina will never have enough glaucous pride to every one in the county.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS:
THE STAR is decidedly one of the best papers in the State, as bright and new as ever. Long life to it.—Salem Press.

The Wilmington Star has entered on its twelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up" to the best of its kind in the South.—Charlotte Democrat.

The Wilmington Star has entered upon its thirteenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State.—Salem Press.

The Wilmington Star has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Charlotte Democrat.

The Wilmington Star is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typographical appearance cannot be beaten.—Jackson Reporter.

The Wilmington Star is one of the very best papers in the State. It is a model of a newspaper, and its editorial ability and independence, and its news are of the highest quality.—Salem Press.

The Wilmington Star is a model of a newspaper. Indeed, we think it does not exaggerate its merits when we say it is the nearest model of a newspaper published in the South.—Charlotte Democrat.
