out as they begin the receipts will foot up quite $400,000.

Here is the record of shakes at Charleston: August 27.....1, slight.

Wilmington has felt at least forty, if not fifty, distinct shocks or tremors.

The Richmond Christian Advocate is out in a new and handsome dress. Its editor is a wit of the first order.

Mr. Powderly was unfortunate in selecting a negro to introduce him. Said negro must have shocked all decent Knights of Labor present.

Georgia has gone back on its temperance reform so far as Prohibition represented it.

The Oleomargarine law goes into effect Nov. 1st. The law is destined to act in a way not anticipated by its advocates.

Some 400 North Carolinians called on the President in Washington and shook him by the hand.

The New York Times thinks that the greatest tragic actress, Janaschek, the Hungarian, acts better as she grows older.

The Mexican have kidnapped another American and rushed him across the Rio Grande into Mexico and put him in prison.

The New York Times has a full notice of Violet Cameron and the operetta at the Casino. It says:

"Miss Cameron has a pleasing stage presence, an engaging manner, and a mezzo-soprano voice of agreeable quality.

The Boston Globe, Democratic, has a proper appreciation of the Republican party in its own State and in the Union at large.

"The Republican party is the natural opponent of those who toil for a living. Every law passed for the benefit of labor has been forced from the Republicans by the Democrats."

The Richmond Advocate informs the Star that the gentleman who gave $10,000 to Randolph Macon has lived in Virginia for many years and was born in North Carolina.

Raleigh Visitor: We regret to announce the serious illness of Mr. Rufus H. Page, former Secretary of State for North Carolina.

Our neighbor, the Columbus Times, has much improved of late typographically and otherwise.

Sheriff Hardie, of Cumberland, received a severe fall while hunting, found by two boys he was lying unconscious.

A letter from M. W. Rollins, of Madison county, to the Asheville Advocate, dated October 4, says: "We have had three of the most destructive frosts ever known in this section at this season of the year. Fully one-half of the tobacco crop is still in the field, and is badly damaged or entirely ruined.

Charlotte Observer: His Excellency the Governor yesterday appointed three additional delegates to the National Prison Congress, which is to be held at Atlanta, Ga., these delegates being Rev. Dr. T. H. Pritchard, of Wilmington; Rev. Thomas Dixon, Jr., of Goldsboro, and Col. W. F. Beasley, of Oxford.

Wadesboro Times: Maj. Rowland delivered a telling address here on last Thursday. The crowd was not large, as we expected, on account of the farmers being hard at work in their cotton.

Goldboro Argus: The Woman's Missionary Society of the M. E. Church will hold its annual convention this year in our city, beginning to-day.

Raleigh News-Observer: Last evening there was a joyous celebration of the home-coming of the Rev. J. W. White, the popular new pastor of the First Baptist church, and his charming bride.

Oxford Torchlight: A venomous black spider bit little Daisy, daughter of Mr. R. V. Minor, one day last week, and in a few minutes the child's body was so terribly swollen that she was called in. She is now almost recovered.

Wadesboro Intelligence: More cotton is now coming to Wadesboro here than ever before.

Chadbourn Times: This place is still without a doctor. We see no reason why this would not be a good point for some industrious man of brains to settle.

Asheville Citizen: Several young negro boys yesterday went hunting north of the town, and while in the cedars farm stopped to eat their lunch.

New Haven Republicans: The Republican County Convention meets on Saturday next to make nominations for county officers.

Local News. Cotton receipts yesterday were 1,648 bales; the same day last year, 1,048 bales.

The open season for partridge shooting does not begin until the 15th of October.

Many persons remarked the singular appearance of the sun yesterday evening, which, seen through a misty, smoky atmosphere, had a deep crimson hue.

Owing to the absence of Rev. Mr. Hoge, who is in attendance upon the meeting of the Synod of North Carolina, there will be no services in the First Presbyterian Church to-morrow.

We have been requested to state that a Love Feast will be held at the Brooklyn Methodist chapel this (Saturday) evening, commencing at 8 o'clock, to be conducted by Rev. Dr. Yates, and that the usual services will be held on Sunday.

Superior Court. In this Court yesterday the following cases were heard: Worth & Worth vs. S. H. Manning. Suit for $500 damages, for failure, through a deputy sheriff, to serve papers. On the two issues raised the jury found a verdict that the deputy (Holmes) did not deliver the papers; but assessed no damages. A mistrial was ordered. Messrs. Junius Davis and DeBruzut Culler for plaintiff, and Messrs. J. D. Bellamy, Jr. and Russell & Ricard for defendant.

John Owen vs. J. W. Harper. Suit for wages. Verdict awarding plaintiff $18 25. Russell & Ricard for defendant and W. B. McKoy for plaintiff.

Godfrey Hart vs. Julia Hart. Alimony reduced from $35 to $15 per month. Stedman & Well for plaintiff; Mr. J. D. Bellamy, Jr. for defendant.

E. G. Westbrook vs. Owen Hall et al. Judgment for plaintiff.

J. H. Straus vs. Peter H. Smith. Judgment; order of sale.

J. M. Kloster, master of barque Flora, vs. Champion Compress Company. Plaintiff called and failed. Judgment for defendant.

Rieman & Co. vs. John L. Boatwright. Judgment. Action dismissed at cost of plaintiff.

Market Notes. Butcher stalls are well supplied with beef of fair quality.

New river oysters sell readily at $1.00 per gallon.

Pavements are littered with slippery grape skins, much to the annoyance of the general public.

Poultry of all descriptions scarce and high priced.

Summer vegetables are fast disappearing. Sweet potatoes, cabbages and field peas costly to supply their place.

Fish have been in fair supply the past week, and prices moderate. Dealers have already begun shipping to interior points.

Eggs continue to retail at 90c per dozen. What's the matter with the hens?

City authorities have made no movement to eject holders of stalls upon notice to vacate was served several days ago.

The best Northern apples retail at 40c per peck. They are not equal to the native product from Pigeon River, marketed here last season at half this price.

What's the matter with the North Carolina apple-growers?

Foreign Exports Yesterday. Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co. cleared the German barque Charlotte and Anna for London, Eng., with 1,882 cases of spirits turpentine, 92,917 gallons, valued at $32,526, and 1,500 barrels of rosin, weighing 434,885 pounds, valued at $1,323.

Messrs. E. G. Barker & Co. cleared the German barque Etes, with a cargo of 3,881 barrels of rosin, weighing 1,274,125 pounds, valued at $3,749.18, and 200 cases, 10,016 gallons of spirits turpentine, valued at $3,455.58.

Messrs. Northrop & Cumming cleared the Norwegian barque Inga, for Buena Ayres, S. A., with 16,646 pitch pine railway sleepers, measuring 324,597 feet and valued at $6,450.83.

Total value of exports yesterday, $47,404.00.

New Haven Republicans. The Republican County Convention meets on Saturday next to make nominations for county officers; but according to all reports the slate is already fixed, with the possible exception of one or two of the minor offices. Gen. Manning will again be the candidate for Sheriff, Stacey VanAmringe for Clerk of the Superior Court, J. E. Sampson for Register of Deeds, and Elijah Hewlett for County Treasurer.

Cotton on the Carolina Central. Cotton continues to arrive freely in Wilmington from all along the line of the Carolina Central Railway, the carrying capacity of which is taxed to the utmost to move the crop. Railroad platforms at Monroe, Wadesboro, and other places on the road are kept constantly crowded with bales, although the staple is moved off as rapidly as cars can be had to haul it. Railroad men say the business is booming all along the line.

Personal. Mr. Fallon, chief of the signal office in this city, and his wife, returned last night, from a visit North.

War Department, U. S. Signal Service, Division of Telegrams and Reports for the Benefit of Commerce and Agriculture.

COTTON-BELT BULLETIN. The following table shows the average maximum and minimum temperature, and average amount of rainfall, at the districts named. Each district includes from ten to twenty stations of observation, and the figures given below are the mean values of all reports sent to each centre of district. Observations taken daily at 6 P. M., 75th meridian time.

Weather Indications. The following are the indications for to-day: For Virginia, fair weather, variable winds, generally easterly, no decided change in temperature.

A Storm on the Gulf. The following special dispatch was received at the Signal Office last evening: WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8, 1886. "Havana reports, 6 a. m. this date: Hurricane southwest of that station, probably moving northwesterly. Telegraph special report here if any unusual change occurs."

Up to 10 o'clock last night no perceptible changes in the atmosphere had taken place in the Gulf States indicating the immediate presence of a hurricane beyond the area of low pressure, which had been prevailing in the neighborhood of Key West, Fla., for the past few days.

Latest reports show that the barometer at Key West was 29.90 inches, and that light rains and easterly winds, blowing at the rate of twenty-three miles an hour, prevailed.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY. The following is an extract from a letter written to the German Evangelist, Chamberlain, by Mrs. Winslow, who opened the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will give the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery, to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colic, and teething stages, and Mrs. Winslow's SOUVENIR SYRUP relieves the child from the colic, teething, and diarrhoea. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, unobscured colic, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen a child who has not her only through the preparation of her 'Soothing Syrup for Children Teething.'
